HR Ashdown addresses RSNA	BH Radio 1 New at 1200 by Radmila Grubisa , RS Radio, Herceg Bosna Radio – The High Representative Paddy Ashdown today addressed the RS National Assembly underlying that the failure to fulfil obligations towards ICTY is the last big obstacle on the BiH's path to Euro-Atlantic integrations. He reiterated that top war crimes suspects, Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic must be arrested in the next few weeks. Ashdown reassured RSNA that their fears of constitutional changes are ungrounded, as they are possible only with consensus of all three peoples.

RS Vice-president Osmanovic says RS MoI bears responsibility for lack of cooperation with ICTY	FENA – Vice President of RS Adil Osmanovic accused on Tuesday the RS Interior Ministry of being the most responsible for lack of cooperation with the ICTY. Osmanovic told journalists it would not be realistic to expect that the situation changes in the next few weeks i.e. that the RS starts cooperating with the ICTY. He also noted that he was happy with HR's speech today before the RS NA, foremost in the part that spoke about the responsibility of the RS institutions regarding failure to implement the DPA.
Gunshots fired at center for autopsy in Lukavica	ONASA – Several gunshots were fired on Monday night at the facility of the Center for autopsy and identification of the Commission for Searching Missing Persons in Lukavica. Police said the shots were fired from Mojmiro hill, part of Sarajevo in the Federation BiH.
Todovic trial to be transferred to BiH judiciary?	BH Radio 1 News at 1200, RS Radio – ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte demanded from the ICTY Presidency Theodor Merron to approve transfer of the case against Savo Todovic, indicted for war crimes against Bosniaks in detention center Foca, to BiH judiciary.

Women – Victims of War call on all NGOs to support Ashdown	BH Radio 1 News at 1200, FENA – Women – Victims of War Association calls on all NGOs in BiH to give their support to the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, “in order to materialize promises of the smaller BiH entity, and enable return of victims, witnesses and families of the killed ones to pre-war places of residence”. “We give full support to the High Representative to use powers from his mandate and sanction those who obstruct arrest of war criminals”, reads a press release issued by the Association today. Association also claims that the HR has finally realized that the RS is refusing to cooperate with the ICTY, by which it endangers the future of BiH.

Daviddi warns BiH could lose 200 million KM over multiple VAT rates

Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'BiH could lose 200 million KM', mentioned on cover, by S. Numanovic – Renzo Daviddi, the deputy Chief of the EC delegation in BiH, warns that if amendments to the VAT Law as proposed by the BiH Parliament's Commission for finances and budget are adopted, the BiH will be losing at least 200 million KM annually. He explained that this is the estimate based on decrease of the budget resources coming from tax collection in amount of 130 million KM. "There are estimates that... at least 60 millions KM are also being lost due to manipulation of goods classification. If this proposal of the law gets adopted, the Indirect Taxation Administration will need to employ another 100-200 people, and that increases the costs of the administration... If these amendments are adopted, BiH will have a big loss in revenues," says Daviddi stressing that BiH authorities are free to bring any decision but should think of these things.

Editor of BiH dailies against VAT on print media	Dnevni List, pg 9 'Attempt of domestic authorities to destroy media', mentioned on front 'Authority destroys media', by Arijana Beus – Considering the recommendation of the competent parliamentary commission to introduce a VAT set at 17% on print media, DL notes that it is estimated that it would lead to print media becoming more expensive. The media have labeled the move as a direct hit against the freedom of speech. According to the editor in chief of Nezavisne Novine, Dragan Jerinic, and his colleague from Vecernji List, Ivan Pavkovic, the introduction of VAT will have a negative effect on the circulation of papers, which could lead to demise of some media outlets. The editor in chief of Oslobodjenje, Senka Kurtovic, notes : « This is an attempt of domestic authorities, when they cannot do it legally, to destroy us in an illegal manner, presenting it as a part of VAT law ».
SBiH supports Zigic's proposal re: privatisation	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Prevent robbery of at least things left', Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'SBiH: It is finally a time to stop privatization robbery' by Fena – The press release issued by the Party for BiH [SBiH] reads that the revision of the privatization is not directed against anybody directly, but has been proposed to establish belongings of the state, workers and citizens in public companies. Party underlines is fully supports the FBiH Minister of Energy, Mining and Industry, Izet Zigic, who also proposed the changes and amendments to the Law on Privatization of the Companies that would cover reform of companies in debt, sale of shares, succession terms, etc. As for the privatization revision, SBiH believes that BiH has one last chance to prevent the robbery of remaining public resources.

problems in FBiH Govt

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Izetbegovic: We will protect state property' by A.M., Dnevni List, pg 5 'Not a word on removal of ministers', mentioned on front, by E. Mackic— SDA Board met on Monday to discuss the issues which appeared following the latest session of the FBiH Government at which delegates were supposed to address privatization revision and possible changes to the Privatization Law. SDA first gave opportunity for FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic and FBiH Communications and Transport Minister Nedžad Brankovic to separately explain their stances on what happened at the Government's session. While Hadzipasic announced possible removals of the ministers, DA comments that based on statements of SDA leaders that would not happen. SDA Vice President Bakir Izetbegovic stated that the conclusion was that SDA "will protect state property", adding that Brankovic and Hadzipasic will sort their problems without party's interference.

Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Dismissal of ministers will not occur' by S.Se. — SDA Board demand from the FBiH Government to solve all procedural issues that came up after the latest session. SDA Vice President Seada Palavric confirmed that despite Hadzipasic's announcements, no demands for minister's dismissals were mentioned at the board's session. Nezavisne Novine, cover 'There are no removals at the Federation of BiH Government' and pg. 4 'There is no need for removals at the Federation of BiH Government' by R. C. also carried the statement by Palavric.

DA claims Brankovic owns shares in investigation

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Brankovic with Lojo and 'Kmecka druzba' co-owns ABDS' by A. Hadziarapovic – Despite the fact that FBiH Transport and Communications Minister Nedžad Brankovic who opposes proposal for privatization revision stated in TV debate with Izet Zigic [See Weekend Media Brief Oct 30n31] that he owns no shares, DA says that is not true. According to daily, Brankovic is founder and one of the local shareholders of the company which manages privatization funds ABDS from Sarajevo. The company also includes privatization and investments fund BIG. Journalist writes that this "puts into question his justification that because he owns no shares he has no personal interest to prevent revisions of the privatization." Article also reads ABDS is also co-owned by 46 locals, 9 Slovenians and prominent 'Kmecka druzba'. DA says that one of the shareholders is director of Sarajevo Tobacco Factory Sefik Lojo, reminding that this company is on the top of the list of companies proposed to be revised. In addition to all this, DA claims Brankovic is also connected to Sarajevo Brewery.

VL feature of privatization in FBiH: SBiH and Zigic damage budget for 76,7 million KMs

Vecernji List, pg 2 'Izet Zigic and SbiH damaged country for 76 million KMs', by Zoran Kresic – VL notes that the FBiH budget has been directly damaged for 76,7 million KMs in the process of privatization of several companies, over which ministers Izet Zigic and Maid Ljubovic (both SbiH) have the jurisdiction. VL explains that of 56 strategic companies in the FBiH, new buyers were found for companies such as Enker of Tesanj, Intersped, Granit of Jablanica, Bira of Bihac, Velmos of Mostar and Metalno of Zenica, whilst the privatization of Feroelektro Company was annulled because it was originally bought by a Croat company Stanici of Kresevo. VL further explains that four of these companies were bought by different partnerships and by VGT consortium from Visoko, which works under the SDA. VL also notes it is unclear how such successful companies like Enker, Granit and Metalno, were sold for 0,5 million KMs each. When it comes to the latter, VL says the FBiH Prime Minister, Ahmet Hadzipasic, personally took part in the privatization of the company.

Hadzipasic meets with UK Cliff, discusses privatisation, Aluminij	Herceg Bosna Radio, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Revision in some case should be carried out even before adoption of the law', Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Revision of privatization before the adoption of the law', Dnevni List, pg 2 'British in favour of solving Aliminij case', mentioned on front, by M. They spoke about political and economic situation in FBiH. Hadzipasic spoke about positive trends in FBiH when it comes to increased export. It was stated that renewal of railway traffic in FBiH is one of priorities. Cliff and Hadzipasic also spoke about solution for Aluminij Mostar. It was also emphasized that in some cases the revision of the privatisation should be carried out even before the adoption of the relevant law.
Statement of Day: FBiH PM Hadzipasic	Dnevni List, pg 2, carries in its 'Statement of Day', the FBiH Prime Minister, Ahmet Hadzipasic, as saying : « SDA will carry the burden of decision on ministers ».

on payment of war damages

BHT, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'RSNA adopted the law too late', Dnevni List, pg 9 'RS : Bosniak veto on Law on postponement of payment of debts ?', not signed, Nezavisne Novine, pg.

8 'Bosniaks launched protection of vital national interest' by V. Popovic, Glas Srpske, pg. 5 'They are waiving with a veto again' by G. Dakic, EuroBlic, pg. RS2 'National interest is jeopardised by the budget' by Rajna Radosavljevic – Bosniak Caucus in the RS

Council of Peoples initiated procedure on protection of vital national interests. This is in relation to the Law on Provisional Delay of Claims from the Budgets of Towns and Municipalities in RS, which was recently adopted in the RS National Assembly. This law halts payments ordered by court verdicts for confiscated properties and damages against legal and physical entities in the RS during the war. President of the Bosniak Caucus in the Council of Peoples Ramiz Salkic said that the procedure of vital national interest protection was not launched only because of the case of Alijagic brothers, to which Trebinje Municipality and the RS have to pay of 36 millions KM of compensation. "Funds from BiH legal suit against Serbia and Montenegro for aggression could be used for paying of war compensations. Everyone knows that most of the confiscated properties ended up on another side of Drina river," stated Salkic.

power plans construction
issue

BHT – RS and Montenegro representatives discussed on Monday in Trebinje tender for construction of hydro-power system Buk Bijela on river Drina. This construction would also mean flooding a part of world unique Tara canyon. Currently, project is in phase of discussion. Three months ago a working group for technical evaluation of the project was established. "We are trying to look at all aspects since this is a complex project that has its impact on environment. We are considering all of those aspects, technical, economic, financial, energy and ecology; none of the governments will make no mistakes. Procedure will be conducted in accordance with relevant law," stated Buk Bijela Project Secretary Zdravko Milovanovic. The biggest obstacle for construction currently is ecology study that should show if this project is acceptable.

RTRS also covered the issue.

Nezavisne Novine, pg. 6 'Ecological aspect to be audited' by N. Kolak – On Monday in Trebinje, members of a Joint Tender Committee for the implementation of "Buk Bijela" hydro-energy project achieved an agreement on establishing of a council for an audit of ecological aspect of the system. 20 experts from SiCG and RS will be members of this council.

Montenegrin Minister of Economy Darko Uskokovic has stated that the so far activities have not been providing with pre-conditions for signing of an agreement between RS Government and Montenegrin Government on the construction of "Buk Bijela" hydropower plant. EuroBlic, pg. RS3 'Tara too is as curvy as Drina' by T. Veselinovic and V. Mihojevic, Glas Srpske, pg. 2 'Signatures will have to wait' by M. Bestic also reported on this matter.

BiH Foreign Trade Chamber on FIPA Hajric's criticism	RTRS, Oslobođenje pg 5 'Economic and not political institution' – BiH Foreign Trade Chamber stated that the allegations of FIPA Director Mirza Hajric on alleged bringing into question of FIPA future operations are unfounded. Chamber feels that Hajric made a calculated pressure on BiH Parliament representatives in order to make his agency as the untouchable authority in representing BiH economy.
NN op-ed on FIPA	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Where does FIPA go?' by Natasa Krsman – The op-ed is about the Foreign Investments Promotion Agency (FIPA), led by Mirza Hajric, which still is not operational. The author blames not only the Director of the FIPA but also the BiH COM, that should have fully established this agency. The author questions why Hajric strongly opposes to setting East Sarajevo as the FIPA centre.
FBiH budget for 2004 to undergo rebalancing	Vecernji List pg 4 'FBiH budget decreased to 1,1 billion' by f – The Federation of BiH Government submitted to the FBiH Parliament a draft of changes and amendments to the FBiH budget for this year and according to Speaker of the FBiH House of Representatives, Muhamed Ibrahimovic, the budget revision will be at the agenda of the HoR session in the second half of November. VL says that the FBiH budget for this year amounts to 1,250 billion KM, while the budget revision envisages its decrease to 1,183 billion KM.
GS cover page story: House of good will	Glas Srpske, cover page story 'House of good will' by B. M. – the article reports on a family of Sveto Stanojevic from Celinac. He, together with his wife and three children, lives in an old, deteriorated, house. The article reads that their neighbors have decided to help the family by constructing a new house for them.

NN: 50% of children in BiH have no health care insurance	Nezavisne Novine, cover '50% of children in BiH have no health care insurance' and pg. 8 'Approximately 50% of children in BiH have no health care insurance' by R. Rakic – Faruk Alijagic, the President of the Union of the Federation of BiH Associations for Aid to Mentally Retarded Persons, on Monday stated that approximately 50% of children in BiH have no health care insurance while rights of mentally retarded children are in a jeopardy. He says that this assessment was included in a conclusion of the first report of NGOs for children care in BiH and the Government Committee for rights of children. Alisah has added that the report will be forwarded to the BiH CoM, entity Governments and competent Ministries of Cantons. The above listed institutions will be asked to improve children rights and protection in BiH.

Update to disputes over census in BiH	EuroBlic, cover and pg. RS1 'Serbs are pro, Bosniaks oppose' by J. D. – The article carries an overview of the dispute regarding the census issue in BiH and quotes Head of SDA caucus Seada Palavric as saying that a proposal, according to which the Law on census should be brought through a shortened procedure and according to which the census should be conducted in April next year, was unrealistic. EuroBlic inset 'Census would cost 5 to 10 KM per capita' quotes Palavric as saying she thinks the Law, should it be adopted, cannot be implemented for the next three years. One of the reasons for this, according to Palavric, is lack of funds because census would cost 5 to 10 KM per capita. EuroBlic inset 'By census against manipulations' reads that "Zajedno do istine" Association on Monday demanded from RS authority to urgently start creating pre-conditions for a census in RS and Federation of BiH. The Association believes a census would prevent 'yet another manipulating with Serb people and their rights'.

BiH Islamic Community bans BHT from broadcasting central Bairam prayer	BHT, FTV, Oslobodjenje cover page, pgs 4-5 'BHT not to broadcast Bairam prayer from Begova Mosque in Sarajevo', Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'BHT, FTV request for broadcast of Bairam prayer rejected', Dnevni List, pg 5 'Islamic community bans direct broadcast of Bajram prayers from Begova mosque', by NINA, Nezavisne Novine, pg. 2 'There will be no broadcast of Bairam prayer at FTV or BHT' by N. Krsman – BiH Islamic Community banned the BiH PBS to broadcast Bairam prayer ceremony from the Sarajevo Begova Mosque on November 13. Decision is explained with no broadcasting of Ramadan program or poor coverage of the Islamic religious activities during the holy month. BHT regrets this decision and hopes that Islamic community will reconsider it. If that does not happen, BHT will find other adequate program for that day, it is stated in PBS statement.
