M – The Ambassadors of the Peace Implementation Council Steering Board has issued a public statement on Friday emphasizing that they do not agree with any kind of attempt to politicise the command and control over armed forces. Recent criticism of the Head of Joint Command of BiH Armed Forces Sifet Podzic, for activities he undertook as part of his duties as a commander of BiH joint armed forces, are improper and certainly not the way to establish EU and NATO standards in BiH armed forces, PIC Steering Board stated on Friday.

RTRS – By Marina Marjanovic – SNSD Caucus asked from Dusan Stojcic, RSNA Speaker, to schedule special session of RSNA to file motion of vote of no confidence in the RS Government. SNSD believes that Stojcic manipulates the RSNA and is buying time for PM Pero Bukeylovic's Government. Stojcic scheduled session for January 23. SNSD senses that negotiations on constitutional changes should be continued after elections in October. SNSD is satisfied with agreement made on CoM and Laws on human rights and believes that more could be agreed if there were no huge demands from FBiH parties. Association of Serb NGOs believes that conclusions from negotiations on constitutional changes should be announced publicly. Serb Radical Party Dr. Vojislav Seselj called SDS, SNSD and PDP coalition that destroys RS because those parties voted for all transfers of power from RS to BiH. Sulejman Tihic, SDA Chair said that SDA representatives in the RSNA would vote for no confidence in the RS Government. (SNSD's statement also featured in Nezavisne Novine, pg 4 'Stojcic buying time for Government', by V. Popovic)

Oslobodjenje interview: Boyle insists US offering Serbia to give Kosovo up and get RS in return	Oslobodjenje, pg 4 of supplement 'Pogledi', 'America tells Serbia: here is RS for you, give Kosovo up', by Marina Kavaz – Sirucic – carries a whole pg interview with professor Francis Boyle, in which he reiterates his earlier claim that the aim of the current constitutional reform talks is to prepare the ground for separation of RS from BiH in 5-10 years time, which would eventually join Serbia. In return, Serbia would have to give Kosovo up. Inset 'Lawsuit' carries Boyle as saying that the US and UK are still applying pressure on BiH to give the lawsuit against SiCG up. Boyle notes that Richard Holbrooke and Jack Straw 'desecrated' the last ceremony at Potocari when they tried to convince Sulejman Tihic to give the lawsuit up, however Tihic declined.

Avaz interview: Hitchner says constitutional talks have not failed	Dnevni Avaz, front pg splash and pg 5 'Bruce Hitchner: Negotiations did not fail', by Sead Numanovic – carries an interview with the chairman of NGO 'Dayton project', Bruce Hitchner, who took part in the constitutional reforms talks. Hitchner disagrees with assessments that the talks have failed. He explains that the next 10-15 days will be of crucial importance, since it is possible that the things that have been agreed upon will be accepted after all. Furthermore, he notes that the 'silence' that followed after the end of this phase of talks is 'indicative', meaning that it shows that many things are happening 'in silence', which in turn opens a possibility for success. However, Hitchner does not rule out a possibility of a failure either. Moreover, Hitchner says his personal engagement now shifts onto something ever more important, which will follow after the 2006 elections, the issue of organization of authorities bellow the state level – entities, cantons and municipalities.
NHI: Parties have no power and will to continue constitutional reforms talks	RHB, Oslobođenje, pg 8 'No power, no will for reforms', not signed – NHI party deems that talks on constitutional changes shouldn't be continued since none of the participants have the power and willingness to finish the talks. Avaz op-ed: Indifference of political parties is dangerous for BiH's European future	Dnevni Avaz, pg 2 'Dangerous failure', by Sead Numanovic – the author claims that the 'indifference' of political parties regarding the failure of constitutional reforms talks could be very dangerous for BiH's European future, which is good enough a reason to start what Numanovic calls a 'political panic'. Numanovic warns that the mood in the EU is changing, since the liberals and their ideas are being changed by conservatives, who advocate stopping of EU expansion plans.

Universities have started to implement it individually but the state has to support it” stated Belkic. He reminded that Bologna system meant BIH diplomas to be internationally recognised, standardisation of criteria, harmonisation with EU standards, fighting the discrimination, defining the status of Universities etc. Belkic stated that all young people have the right to be educated in their mother tongue. There have been no requests from the European Union for the change of the visa regime towards those two countries, claim representatives of the BiH Ministry of Foreign Affairs. BiH and SCG have a mutual goal – admission to the Euro-Atlantic integration, which should be preceded by the liberalisation of the visa regime for those two countries. The relations between two countries are good, and even the BiH lawsuit against SCG for aggression and genocide will not change it, stated Dragan Djurovic from the SCG Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Reporter concluded that BiH and SCG have signed 22 bilateral agreements during last five years, and another five are yet to be signed. VAT

VAT's worst consequence in RS is that prices of medicines have gone up

BHT – Report by Boris Gagic – Value Added Tax introduction caused an increase in prices of medicines, and the RS Ministry of Health and Social Welfare cannot do anything about it, claim representatives of the RS Government. According to BHT reporter, the increase in the prices of medicines is the worst consequence of VAT introduction so far. The Health Insurance Fund and the Agency for Medicines are responsible for determining the price of medicines in RS; Health Insurance Fund has already drawn up the list of medicines that are issued by the prescription and published it on internet, without informing RS Ministry of Health and Social Welfare. They claim that the VAT is already included in the price of those medicines, which means that pharmacies are illegally trying to realize some profit. (similar reports featured by FTV, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine, pg 4 'VAT already included in price of medicines', by G. Maunaga)

But, as FTV unofficially learns, the real reason for this visit is the fact that the officials of the FBiH Price Monitoring Team are unhappy with the work of cantonal inspections. In the meantime, inspectors discovered that the profit rates for bread, milk, cooking oil and flour in this canton have been drastically increased, up to 20 percent. “We have to take more intensive steps in this canton, just like we did in other cantons... Medicines are also the problem, but it is the problem in the whole FBiH, even bigger than in RS”, stated Coordinator of the FBiH Price Monitoring Team Ibrahim Tirak. BHT – The prices of products of Mostar’s ‘Zitopromet’ company (bakery) and dairy companies from Tuzla and Bihac have been increased the most, so FBiH Price Monitoring Team announced that certain measures would be taken against those companies.
