Colak expects leaders to acknowledge 5 level of authorities in BiH too much

Vecernji List pg 3 'Constitutional changes will not begin in Neum!' by Z. Kresic – On the eve of the meeting in Neum, HDZ President Barisa Colak stated that he is expecting from SDA, SDS, PDP and SBiH leaders to realize at this meeting that the current organization of BiH does not take this country to Europe. Colak also rejected media judgments, which say that the Neum meeting is exclusively an introduction to constitutional changes. Colak added: 'I would not bring this meeting at all in relation with the introduction to constitutional changes. During the last year we had reforms which caused constitutional changes.' He also said that the constitutional changes will certainly come at the agenda and he called on other authority representatives and representatives of other political parties to take over the initiative for the future of BiH from the International Community.

Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'The aim is more functional BiH with cheaper administration' by F. Vele – DA also carries that Colak believes that all participants will acknowledge that 5 levels of authorities are too much.

DL op-ed on const.
changes

Dnevni List pg 2 'Constitutional changes or?' by I. Glibusic carries an editorial which says that talks on constitutional changes announced for this week are nothing else but another attempt that some political elements appear in public as unquestionable fighters for a new and better BiH and the author says that we should ask ourselves whether these talks will bring anything concrete or they will just serve for scoring political points. According to the editorial, none disputes that BiH needs a new Constitution, which would take BiH to Europe, however, it is questionable whether a part of the RS, that is, the parties which represent the Serb people, are ready for it. The author says that judging by their latest statements they are not ready, unless the International Community intervenes. The author also implies that it was simpler to gather BiH and world legal experts for this issue in order to finally get guidelines on the direction that these changes should take.

PINK, NTV Hayat, Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'Same majority' by SRNA; EuroBlic RSpG 3 'Terzic: No stretching' by SRNA– Terzic also said that fact that the RS Government became operative and functional was positive, since such fact was of extreme importance for reforms carried out in BiH. Tihic says “few, whose time has passed, are dissatisfied” with SDA policy

Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash ‘Some, whose time has passed, are dissatisfied’ and pg 2 ‘Unfulfilled appetites of individuals whose time has passed exist’ by A. Malagic – SDA President Sulejman Tihic has rejected claims he was changing SDA concept through his work and activities.

He says such claims were brought by dissatisfied individuals who are no longer members of party structure since they have lost support of the base. Asked whether the session of the Main Board, held on Saturday, means dividing of the party in two streams – one conservative-religious and the other that supports the idea of opening of the party and its pro-European and democratic path, Tihic has said: ‘In a way, one can define it like this.

Actually, streams that are not entirely dedicated to pro-Bosnian and pro-European path are expressing their dissatisfaction with SDA policy.” Tihic concludes that SDA faces with a number of efforts aimed at destabilizing the party, coming from some opposition parties and even some party pf the international community.

Some speculate on gathering of former members in some sort of religious faction within SDA that would be working on overthrowing the current leadership with Sulejman Tihic at the head. SDA Secretary General Sefik Dzaferovic thinks the current procedure of election of party leadership do not leave an opportunity to SDA President to elect the Presidency autonomously.
