HINA, Patriot: Ashdown to remove Croat member of Bosnian Presidency
Covic if he does not resign

HINA – The European Union on Sunday officially requested Dragan Covic to resign from his post as member of BiH Presidency after he was indicted for abuse of office and corruption. The EU's request was backed by the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council (PIC) and the US and Canadian embassies in the country. The Canadian embassy also announced that it would support additional measures by the High Representative in case Covic did not resign. This confirmed for the first time that High Representative Paddy Ashdown would use his powers and replace Covic if he fails to resign of his own accord. Such a measure would permanently remove Covic from Bosnia 's political scene regardless of the outcome of the court proceedings that are awaiting him. Patriot, BL magazine of today, pgs 14-15 'Ashdown will remove Covic' – Patriot has learnt from a senior diplomatic source that if Dragan Covic fails to tender resignation to the position of Croat member to BiH Presidency until 23 March, Paddy Ashdown, HR to BiH, will remove him from the Office. According to the same source, Ashdown enjoys a full support of the EU and Washington to make this move. The source further notes that Ashdown may also remove Hasan Cengic and Mato Tadic.

Humphreys again calls on Covic to resign	BH Radio 1 – The Chief of EC delegation to BiH, Michael Humphreys, today once again called on Dragan Covic to resign from his position of the BiH Presidency member, and repeated the stance of the EU that this would be the best option for both BiH and Covic. He underlined that while Covic is expected to resign, this would not mean that he is guilty, but would given him more time to prepare himself for defence.
HR welcomes Pandurevic's decision to surrender to ICTY	RS Radio – HR Paddy Ashdown assessed it was extremely good news that General Vinko Pandurevic decided to voluntarily go to The Hague on 23 March. In a statement to RTRS, HR said that Pandurevic was one of the last Generals charged before ICTY with Srebrenica crimes. HR said that the only General still at large was General Ratko Mladic, who had no courage to face the truth.

with Dragan Covic: I am in the way of those who want BiH without Croats

Vecernji List, front pg splash 'In interview to our newspapers Dragan Covic indirectly says he will not resign: I am in the way of those who want BiH without Croats', and pgs 4-5 'They cannot remove us all', by Zoran Kresic – Carries a big interview with the Croat member of BiH Presidency, Dragan Covic, in which he did not want to explicitly say whether he will resign or not, however one can conclude from his claims and answers to the journalist's questions that he will not be resigning (hence the front pg splash headline). Covic says he has had many contacts in last few days, including at Vatican, and that he has felt concern and received support from his collocutors. In this context, Covic says he talked to the Croatian Prime Minister, Ivo Sanader, who apparently promised that he would maximally engage himself that political processes against the Croats in BiH stop and that a second Croat member of BiH Presidency does not get disqualified in this manner.

US Embassy reiterates its call on Covic to step down	Pink, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Dragan Covic should resign', Oslobodjenje pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Repeated call on Covic to step down', Dnevni List, back pg 'Dragan Covic should resign', not signed, Slobodna Dalmacija, back pg 'American Embassy in BiH again calls on Covic to resign', by H – The US Embassy in BiH on Sunday once again called on the Croat member of the state presidency, Dragan Covic, to resign because he was indicted for abuse of office and power and for corruption in connection with the operations of the Lijanovici company. In a press release, the embassy recalled that US diplomats in Bosnia first called on Covic to resign on 16 March.

During this meeting the Ambassador conveyed the message to Covic that in the unanimous opinion of the EU the indictment brought against him and confirmed by the court should be reason to step down as member of the Presidency, said a press release issued by the Royal Netherlands Embassy Sarajevo. "The dignity of this high Institution of State should at all times prevail above political or personal interests of its members. Stepping down in cases like this can only be considered as showing sense of political responsibility and statesmanship", read the release.

PIC Steering Board calls on Covic to resign	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'PIC requests immediate resignation of Croat member of BiH Presidency', Oslobodjenje back page 'Covic must step down', FENA – At a meeting in Sarajevo on Sunday evening, the Peace Implementation Council Steering Board noted the criminal indictment confirmed by the BiH Court against BiH Presidency member Dragan Covic. Whilst Covic, like any other citizen, is entitled to the presumption of innocence, he also has to consider his official position and the reputation of the country he represents, the Steering Board concludes. The PIC Steering Board therefore believes that Covic should step down immediately in order to protect the good name and integrity of the office he holds, and to enable him to defend himself in court free from his official obligations. The smooth functioning of the Presidency must be preserved. The Steering Board urges Covic to resign without delay.

Tihic says Covic's stay in the Presidency would make the body's work more difficult

Dnevni Avaz cover splash, pg 5 'Having Covic stay would make our job difficult' by Elvir Huremovic – In an interview to DA, the member of the BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic, comments to the indictment against his colleague Dragan Covic saying that the law should be applied in all cases. "Having Covic stay in Presidency would certainly make work difficult, especially for him as it us very hard to work under the burden of an indictment and it would have negative consequence for the institution," comments Tihic.

Dnevni List, pg 4, mentioned on front 'Covic should on his own take decision on his future work', by Erna Mackic also carries an interview with the Bosniak member of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic, in which he, whilst commenting on the indictment against the Croat member of BiH Presidency, Dragan Covic, says: "In a formal sense, no person that is holding an office is obliged to leave the office because an indictment has been raised against him or her. In case the indictment is causing difficulties in the work, he or she has to decide. Reports that were submitted against Covic so far have not made the work of the BiH Presidency difficult. However, the current indictment is his matter and he alone should take decision about his future work".

Reactions to Saturday's HDZ, SDA, PDP, SDS meeting: Dodik says four parties decided to defend Covic

Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'The authority has formed a coalition for crisis and lootings' by M. Cubro and V. Popovic – OHR Spokesperson Kevin Sullivan Sunday stated BiH Presidency member Dragan Covic must reply to items of the indictment, brought against him for multiple acts of organized and economic crimes in "Lijanovici" case, as a citizen of this state. Upon a meeting SDA, HDZ, SDS and PDP held on Saturday, SDP President Zlatko Lagumdzija has stated the ruling parties have formed a coalition for crisis and lootings. SNSD President Milorad Dodik has stated the four parties have decided to defend Dragan Covic and proved they have formed a strong coalition in order to preserve their authority. SPRS President Petar Djokic, Drago Kalabic (DNS) and Deputy Chairman of BiH HoR Nikola Spiric share a similar view. The article carries two insets: 'Invitation of US Embassy to Covic to withdraw' and 'EU unanimously demands for Covic's withdrawal'

SDS' Novakovic says ruling parties did not support Covic, they are waiting for HDZ stance on the issue	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Stance of HDZ on Dragan Covic is awaited for' by M. Cubro – A member of SDS Main Board, Momcilo Novakovic, claims the parties of the ruling four did not support HDZ and Dragan Covic on Saturday because HDZ still has not presented its stance. Novakovic went on to explain: "We have supported nobody. This was impossible because neither HDZ nor Dragan Covic still have formed a stance. We have said we would recognize the stance of HDZ and what they intend to do and we did not say we would support it'."
NN op-ed referring to Covic case: The beauty of bribery and corruption	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'The beauty of bribery and corruption' by Mirza Cubro – The author is ironical in saying that it is nice to be a politician at the present time in BiH, since Prosecutor's Office and BiH Court cannot achieve major cause by bringing charges against politicians, since they do not leave position (referring to the case of Dragan Covic). He notes that the citizens of BiH are putting up with this, since politicians scare them with authority crisis. He concludes that citizens would not get any harm from the authority crisis, since the situation itself is bad.

Covic lawyers protest against publication of the indictment	RHB, Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Criminal report against protected witness S1' – Defence attorneys of BIH member of the Presidency Dragan Covic on Sunday supported a protest of lawyers of other indictees in the Lijanovic case. They are protesting because the BIH Prosecutor's office sent an indictment to the press before sending it to the indictees. In this way the prosecutor started the public lynch neglecting the indictee's possible innocence. The attorneys are considering the possibility of pressing charges against protected witness S1 for the false testimony against Covic. Vecernji List, pg 4 'Possible criminal report against witness S1', by zk, Slobodna Dalmacija, back pg 'Prosecution submits indictments to media before it did to indictees', by H also reported on the issue.

Hadzipasic, Terzic criticise HR decision banning sale of ex JNA property	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Ashdown gives away what BiH Army saved' by Azhar Kalamujic – Commenting to the HR Paddy Ashdown's decision to impose the law which further bans sale of former JNA property, the FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic stated for daily that he would not allow for property of former JNA saved by BiH Army to become everyone's property. OHR spokesperson Kevin Sullivan explained that the law will not be imposed retroactively, "meaning that significant part of JNA property taken from RS and former Herceg Bosna authorities" will remain in the permanent ownership of their new owner, says daily. "Significant part of military premises on the territories under control of HVOP and RS army... has been privatised or taken from BiH state some other way," stresses Hadzipasic. In inset 'Audit of JAN Property since 1991', Hadzipasic proposes that the audit should be made of former JNA property in entire BiH by comparing the situation in 1991 and now. The Chairman of the CoM, Adnan Terzic, also objects this decision adding he warned Ashdown in advance of the mistakes OHR advisors committed when making this decision. An inset 'Ashdown allow reformists to rob the state' brings reaction by the SDP Secretary General, Svetozar Pudaric, who stated that this HR first allowed "reformists" to rob the state property and than brought decision banning further sale. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Delays in privatisation of Jajce barracks is terrible message for investors' by J.S. – Terzic explain to DA that he suggested to HR establishing the CoM's Commission for State Property which would deal with the issue. While this was not done, Terzic gives an example of delays in privatisation of Jajce barracks for past two years. Pink, BHT, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Prevention of property sale was bad Ashdown's decision' by SRNA, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Bad for Federation' also carry Terzic's statement on the issue.

DA: Ashdown's decision messed up plans for both FMO and FBiH Army	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Ashdown's decision messed up plans for both FMO and FBiH Army' by E. Sarac – DA brings details of the non-useful premises that both FBiH Defence Ministry and the FBiH Army were planning to sell, which however is not possible now following the decision of the HR. DA says that this list of former JNA objects includes 127 military barracks and 149 business premises, which would earn dozens of millions KM of profit. The list would be expanded with non-useful premises built by the FBiH Army during the war, while those used by Army but in possession of municipality would be returned to their owners. Article further lists the premises in question.
SNSD's Dodik: HR's decision on prevention of state property sale is good	Pink, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Decision on prevention of state property sale is good' by N.N., Glas Srpske pg 2 'The end to sale?'– Milorad Dodik, SNSD President, in Derventa commented of HR's decision (on sale of state property), saying that he supports this HR's decision if "it has been reached with an aim to prevent sale of state property until an order is introduced in this field." Dodik added: "If this HR's decision includes prevention of sale of the entire state property, including "Telekom" and "BH Elektroprivreda", it is good then."
DL: HR Ashdown the true boss in BiH	Dnevni List, pg 2 'Who is the boss in BiH?', by Marko Karacic – Carries an op-ed in which the author comments on the recent decision of the High Representative for BiH by which the HR ordered a temporary ban with the property of BiH. The author argues that the decision shows who is the true boss of BiH, noting that it is perhaps time to admit that BiH is a colony, not a proper state. "To make the irony even worse, the public is being sold a story that everything is being done for the good of the people, but we are not getting better", notes the author.

There are differences in living standards in RS/F BiH/Brcko District	EuroBlic pg RS1 'Wallet is shallow while basket is deep' by Tijana Veselinovic – In spite of economic reforms, adoption of reform laws and insisting of international representatives on establishment of a single economic space in BiH, differences in standards between entities and Brcko District are still noticeable. According to official data of Agencies for statistics, average salary in January amounted 431 KM in RS, 545 KM in Federation of BiH and 710 KM in Brcko District. The cost of a consumer basket in December 2004 amounted 457 KM in RS and 451 KM in Federation of BiH. BHT, Oslobođenje pg 3, mentioned on cover 'Sarajevo must serve as an example to the others', Nezavisne Novine pg 6, announced on cover 'To prevent "Sarajevo assassination" against BiH Constitution' by M. Renner, Dnevni List, pg 9 'Disgraceful behaviour of BiH Election Commission', by De. L., FENA – Chairman of the BiH SDP (Social Democratic Party) Zlatko Lagumdžija on Sunday called on the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, to voice his opinion together with ambassadors of the country members of the Peace Implementation Council in connection with the "brutal violation of the principle of equality of nations and citizens, of the constitution and the election law in Sarajevo". "Unfortunately, our appeal to this effect to the current ruling coalition has not produced any effect. The shameful behaviour of the Election Commission, which also includes your representatives, is viewed by the general public as the international community being a tacit accomplice to unconstitutional moves being made by nationalist forces in the country," says the letter which SDP of BiH chairman Zlatko Lagumdžija sent to the High Representative in connection with the "unlawful and illegitimate setting up of the city authorities in the Bosnian capital, Sarajevo, without members of all constituent nations". "I am not calling on you to replace those who took part in the latest unlawful setting up of the Sarajevo City Council without members of all constituent nations, as you generously used to do in less significant cases, but I expect you at least to voice your opinion through your expert legal reports or through members of the Election Commission. Nobody expects you not to work with the lawful authorities in this country, but neither does the general public expect you to remain silent and thus become an accomplice to the shameful destruction of the multiethnic nature of this country in Sarajevo as its capital which should set an example for other areas by embracing high democratic standards," Lagumdžija said in the letter. "We view the setting up of Sarajevo City Council without members of one constituent nation (Serbs) as unlawful and illegitimate and therefore we shall not take part in its work. As you played the key role in Mostar in reaching an agreement between the ruling parties, we expect you to do nothing less in the wake of the 'Sarajevo assassination' of the constitutional order and European values in this country," said the letter sent to the High Representative.

Kukic says Sarajevo is Muslim city	Dnevni List, pg 9 'Sarajevo recipe for divisions', by Dr. Slavo Kukic – Carries an op-ed about the formation of the Sarajevo City Council (SCC) in which the author says that the key to the BiH puzzle is not in Brcko or Mostar, but in the BiH capitol, Sarajevo. Kukic says that the appointment of the SCC showed that the Bosniak nationalists are accepting nothing but a Muslim Sarajevo, which did not trigger many reactions from representatives of other two peoples in BiH because they could use the same recipe, sooner or later, in Banja Luka and Mostar.
VL: Ashdown guilty for double standards in BiH	Vecernji List, pg 6 'Caucuses of peoples in Mostar, no Croats in Banja Luka', by Miroslav Vasilj – The author comments on a recent statement by the RS Vice President, Ivan Tomljenovic, who noted that there was not a single Croat in the Banja Luka City Council. The author says that the situation in Banja Luka and the situation in Mostar, where all the peoples are represented in the Mostar City Council through Caucuses of all peoples, illustrate the double standards in BiH. The author points the finger at the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, saying the HR instead of becoming a factor of integration in BiH, in fact became a dis-integrating factor.
Outgoing British Ambassador Cliff says stability most important for BiH	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Stability most important for BiH', FENA – The most important thing for BiH ten years after the war is stability, outgoing British Ambassador to BiH Ian Cliff told FENA. Cliff thinks that the political situation in BiH is "always very complicated", but that despite this the most important thing is that the state government works on overcoming the political problems. Ambassador Cliff took the position of the British Ambassador to BiH on October 16 2001. His successor is Mathew Rycroft, a former advisor to Tony Blair. Rycroft will arrive in BiH on March 29.

Interview with Swedish official at European Parliament: EU visa-free regime with BiH realistic	Nezavisne Novine pg 8, announced on cover 'No-visa regime with EU is realistic' by Z. Cekic – This is an interview with Amna Ibrisagic, the member of the Commission for membership candidatures to EU. She is the first person coming from former Yugoslavia, who has become the member of European Parliament in Brussels as Swedish representative. Responding to press question how far from EU BiH is at this moment from, she responds: "There are two sets of problems related to BiH, one of political, second of economic background. BiH must raise its economic level to level of compatibility with the European economic level. As on political affairs, one state must have elementary symbols of a state, such as joint defence, police force, education, health service, unified foreign policy etc. none of these pre-requisites has been fulfilled." She confirms some EU member-states are willing to allow BiH get closer to European integration, which includes the introduction of non-visa regime between BiH and EU.
HR visiting US	BHT Erol Avdovic – In the next few days, the High Representative (HR) Paddy Ashdown will hold talks with the representatives of the US Government about BiH cooperation with the ICTY. On Wednesday, March 23rd, Ashdown will present the report on situation in BiH before the UN Security Council in New York. According to BHT reporter, HR's report is formulated very optimistically; four out of 26 programs are already implemented, which shows certain progress in indirect taxation, defence and intelligence services fields. In his speech before the UN Security Council, Ashdown will also point out at some problems in BiH, such as the cooperation with the ICTY. With his US hosts Ashdown will apparently also discuss the case of Croat member of the BiH Presidency Dragan Covic. Pink, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Ashdown to address Security Council tomorrow' by N.N., Glas Srpske pg 3 'Covic on agenda', Dnevni List, pg 3 'Ashdown departed for four day visit to USA', by NINA also announced HR visit to US. _

VL: Croat will not be leading SIPA despite political agreement among ruling parties	Vecernji List, pg 3 'Even the promised SIPA is being taken away from Croats', mentioned on front 'Even SIPA taken away from Croats' by Miso Relota – VL learns from an anonymous source close to the OHR and EUPM that Sredoje Novic will be appointed the Director of SIPA, "who is the IC's favourite", despite the fact that the ruling parties agreed in February last year that the BiH Defence Minister should be a Serb, Head of OSA a Bosniak and Head of SIPA a Croat. According to VL, it shows the true colours of the IC, foremost the OHR, because they did not interfere into appointment of Nikola Radovanovic (BiH MoD) and Almir Dzuvo (OSA), and now when a Croat is suppose to lead SIPA, the OHR and EUPM suddenly put the stress on the expertise, not the agreement among the parties. VL concludes that the Croats are being turned into a national minority in BiH.

Kreso stresses that she cannot interfere into the work of the judges and that her prime role is to make sure that trials are being conducted in atmosphere of trust. "As the President of the BiH Court, I can only appoint judges to trial chambers and that's where my authorities cease to be. I cannot guarantee what kind of decisions they will be taking, nor can I influence the Prosecution, not even in a form of suggestion", says Kreso.
