SBiH, SDU, BOSS: agreement doesn't ensure strengthening of the state; it is contrary to guidelines given by Venice Commission	BHT1 – Patriotic block – Party for BiH (SBiH), Social-Democratic Union (SDU), Bosnian Party (BOSS) – and Association of Veterans at the press conference on Monday strongly opposed the constitutional changes agreed by the leaders of seven political parties in BiH. They stressed that the agreement failed to ensure strengthening of the state and noted the remaining problem of entity vote in the BiH House of Representatives. SBiH official Safet Halilovic said that according to the agreement "not a single decision on the EU integrations can be reached without entity majority. Therefore, BIH is the hostage of entities". On the other hand, SDU and its leader Sejfudin Tokic deem that the election of the Presidency in the parliament obstructs the state institutions. It was also stressed the agreement doesn't guarantee an equality for Croats at either entity or state levels. Ivo Komsic, SDU officials, stated that "Croats would not decide on anything". According to Miro Lazovic, SDU official, "entity border is stressed thus the name of RS is shamefully preserved and accepted". Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Four deputies can block state institutions' by A.Omeragic– Komsic adds the agreement introduces another blockade: "New mechanism is installed, so that four deputies of House of Peoples could block the election of Presidency and with that of all state institutions as well." FTV – Parties stressed the adopted agreement is contrary to the guidelines suggested by the Venice Commission, U.S. congress Resolution and proposals of Council of Europe. Patriotic Block will call on SDA's Tihic and SDP's Lagumdzija to explain contents of const. changes; RS CoP Chair Kadric [SDA] objects agreement	Dnevni List, pg 2 'Tihic and Lagumdzija have signed high treason!', by R. Dautevendic – The Patriotic Block says it will call on leaders of SDA and SDP, Sulejman Tihic and Zlatko Lagumdzija respectively, to explain to the citizens the contents of the agreement they have signed, arguing that the two have committed the 'high treason' (by signing constitutional changes). SDU's Sejfudin Tokic is carried as saying that Ambassadors of the US, Austria and UK have played a 'disgraceful role' in the process because the ambassadors want the changes to be adopted without a single day of public debates about the changes. Dnevni List pg 4 'There is no support to constitutional changes' by R. D. carries that President of the Council of Peoples in the RS Remzija Kadric (from SDA) joined criticism against the constitutional changes agreement.
HSP joins in criticism of the agreement on the constitutional changes: 'Croats to become decoration'	RHB, Oslobođenje pg 6 'Subsidiaries of HSP established in RS' by Fena, Dnevni List, pg 7 'Catastrophic position of Croats in RS', by A. Beus, Vecernji List pg 3 'HSP members made their way up in RS' by MV– At press conference in Mostar, HSP 'Djapic – Dr Jurisic' representatives commented the constitutional changes stating that at very beginning of talks, Croats were put into unequal position, in comparison to other two constitutive people, since two political parties are representing them only; HDZ and HNZ, while three parties each have represented Serbs and Bosniaks. HSP calls on Catholic Church in BiH to state its dissatisfaction with poor constitutional changes and adds that if the changes were to be implemented, Croats would become just a decoration in multi-ethnic BiH.

President of HDZ-CD- HNZ Caucus Madunic: HDZ President Covic signed const. changes agreement to get forgiveness for his sins	Slobodna Dalmacija cover pg splash and pgs 14 and 15 'Covic sold us to get forgiveness for his sins' by P. Milos carries an interview with President of HDZ-CD-HNZ Caucus Ivan Madunic in the FBiH Parliament who says that the constitutional changes agreement would make the position of Croats even worse. He also said that they are very concerned about the fact that HDZ President Dragan Covic signed this agreement and he added: 'It was not coincidence that according to the High Representative's order Covic was charged with crime and expelled from the BiH Presidency but he was left at the leading position in HDZ.' Madunic believes that it turns out that the International Community does not care about the fact that none from the Croat side agrees with the changes but they stick to Covic's signature, while HNZ President Milenko Brkic claims that he did not sign anything.

SNSD, SDP , SDA satisfied with the agreement; Election Comm.: changes must be adopted by end of March	BHT1 – Political parties from RS that participated in the negotiations on constitutional changes expressed the satisfaction with the agreement reached over the weekend. “The agreement is good for the RS and that it doesn’t undermine its interests and it represents a good compromise, which both improves the Dayton Agreement and does not undermine the vital national interests of Serbs or the RS as an entity” stated Speaker of the RS National Assembly Igor Radojicic. Both SDP and SDA denied all the objections to the agreement stating that it stipulates the important changes and significant strengthening of the state. Jozo Krizanovic, from SDP, stated, “it will have the possibility to adopt the laws and verify them and what is most important it will be in position to establish the Institutions to implement those standards more efficiently”. SDA Leader Sulejman Tihic stated after the meting on Saturday “this agreement was the result of the compromise and BiH and its citizens got the most”. SBIH claims having the needed support in the Parliament for rejecting the agreement, but as BHT1 carries the amendments on the constitution should be adopted by the end of March. VN interview with RS President: Cavic is satisfied with agreement on constitutional changes, since RS maintained its influence at state institutions	Vecernje Novosti pg 2 'We have also survived constitutional changes' by Dusan Stojakovic – In a half-page interview to daily, Dragan Cavic, RS President, speaks of BH suit versus SiCG, cohabitation with Milorad Dodik, RS Premier, The Hague Tribunal. On constitutional changes, Cavic expresses satisfaction, since Serb entity has maintained its influence at state institutions, adding RS has been validated with this agreement on constitution changes, according to him. On BH suit against SiCG, he notes RS has made its stance clear, adding it would be logical if Court declared not in charge of the case. On the Hague Tribunal, he notes that latest events (i.e. suicide of Milan Babic and death of Slobodan Milosevic) have shaken the reputation and credibility of the Court, adding that circumstances leading to death of these persons (and 2 more Serb detainees) confirm the continuity of lack of concern for these people, which raises suspicion in the entire system. On the issue of cohabitation with Dodik, Cavic stresses the cohabitation in the region rarely happens, expressing satisfaction that replacement of authority was carried out peacefully and that environment resulting in changes in a peaceful manner has been created. (NOTE: Headline was taken out of context, i.e. Cavic did not use term survive at all.)

SNSD' Spiric expects BH HoR would support agreement on const. changes; SDS Novakovic is of the view agreement will be adopted at PA	EuroBlic RSpg 2 'Hardly to majority' by Nedeljka Breberina – Nikola SPiric, Chairperson of the BH HoR, expressed expectation that State Parliament would adopt changes to BH Constitution by the end of April, i.e. they would support agreement which party leaders have reached over the past weekend. He reminds that next session of HoR scheduled for 23 March should alter BH Election Law and shorten deadline for scheduling of elections, which would provide additional time for adoption of constitutional changes. Momcilo Novakovic from SDS is of the view that agreement will be supported at the BiH Parliamentary Assembly, bearing in mind the fact that the parties, whose leaders have signed it, make majority at HoR.
It is still not known whether HDZ caucus will support constitutional changes in BiH HoR	Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Without votes of HDZ deputies adoption is impossible' by A.O. – Article reads that agreement on constitutional changes adopted on Saturday by leaders of seven political parties could fail in the parliamentary procedure due to entity voting in BiH House of Representatives, and since many deputies from FBiH stated they would not support the agreement as it preserves this practice. Author estimates that nine SDA and three SDP deputies in BiH HoR would endorse the agreement, adding it is still unknown whether HDZ deputies would do the same. The Chair of the HDZ caucus Vinko Zoric said that it is still to be considered, and other HDZ deputy Filip Andric said that this caucus already expressed its stances when it announced that they would not support constitutional changes. HDZ spokesperson Miso Relota said that HDZ leader Dragan Cavic already spoke to one deputy and that expects support of the Caucus. SBiH, BOSS, and independent representative Mladen Potocnik confirmed that they would vote against. DNZ, independent representative Sead Avdic are still not clear.

FTV deems agreement on const. changes is positive, but notes it could easily be rejected in parliament	FTV current affairs program '60 minuta' by Arijana Saracevic Helac– Commenting the agreement on constitutional changes, FTV says that bearing in mind that the Cardinal Vinko Puljic invited Croat representatives not to sign anything unfair for Croats it was a surprise when HDZ leader Dragan Covic decided to “disobey” the Cardinal. In this way, says the reporter, Covic avoided to join the SBiH and their allies who are now roaming all over BiH trying to convince “confused citizens” that the agreement is damaging for them. FTV says that although the agreement is undoubtedly a result of numerous compromises and not exactly the best solution for BiH, it is definitely a step forward for the country as it strengthens the authority of the state. Feature concludes that nevertheless the agreement could be rejected in BiH Parliament, since there is strong a chance for discontent Croat MPs, SBiH, BOSS and few independent MPs to vote against it, which would be enough for its rejection.
SDA leader Tihic: SBiH only works against other parties; all SDA MPs should vote for changes	FTV current affairs program '60 Minuta' by Bakir Hadziomerovic – In an interview to '60 minutes', the SDA leader Sulejman Tihic commented on recent claims by the SBiH leader Safet Halilovic that there are 16 MPs in the state parliament who would reject the agreement on constitution changes. Tihic says that SBiH did not discuss the constitutional changes, but instead only tries to hinder the work of other parties which is for the benefit of BiH. “I believe that there will be enough votes to pass those amendments (to the BiH Constitution)”, added Tihic. He adds all SDA MPs in BiH Parliament should vote for the agreement. “All those who vote against the agreement on constitutional changes would be violating the SDA statute”, explained Tihic.

Oslobodjenje op-ed: despite the biggest gain for RS, agreement on const. change positive	Oslobodjenje pg 9 ‘Now what?’ op-ed by Mirko Sagolj – Editorial reads that regardless of the fact that RS politicians drew the biggest profit from the agreement on constitutional changes, “this move represents first step in BiH getting out from the dark Dayton tunnel.” Author comments that the agreement opened process that can lead to further restructure of the state, specially stressing the fact that it has been reached solely by local politicians. Editorial concludes that if the agreement does not receive necessary support in the Parliament, BiH could face large-scaled political crisis and opponents of the agreement would be than to be blamed for.
SD op-ed: Const. changes agreement would not bring any changes	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 15 ‘Our mother America’ by R. Dodig criticises the constitutional changes agreement and the author says that nothing would change as a result of this agreement since no major changes were agreed. The author also said that negotiators sent a letter to US State Secretary Condolleezza Rice at the end of the talks and the author ironically concludes ‘this is the way to do the things since America is our mother[land]’.

Foreign currency holders ask BiH authorities not to pass the law on foreign currency savings; otherwise they announce strict measures	RHB– A representative of the Association of citizens for repossession of old foreign currency savings in BiH and diaspora Svetozar Nisic called on state to protect interests of citizens by passing a law on paying these savings of banks that had offices in BiH [‘Ljubljanska Bank’ which owes 185 millions $, and ‘Invest Bank’ owing 94.3 millions $, without interests rates] as well as by pressuring the governments of Slovenia and Serbia into resolving the issue with their banks. The Association requests adoption of a state-level law that would resolve the issue, a payment period not longer than five years, and that all savers also gain interest starting from the launch of payments. Nisic objected the law proposed by the CoM which transfers the responsibility for the payment of the debts at the entity level. The holders expects their debts to be paid out by the BiH Central Bank, and said that if Slovenia does not abandon its discriminating law, they would block sale of Slovenian products in BiH, seize ‘Ljubljanska Bank’ premises in BiH, block Slovenian companies and properties in BiH and ask the EU to impose sanctions to Slovenia. The BiH Parliament is expected to discuss the legislation on March 23. FTV – On the other hand, BiH authorities claim that the BiH budget is smaller than the entity one thus, as Jure Pelivan coordinator on the issue at Council of Ministers explains, it came up with the law which entities should execute. FTV '60 minuta' on SDS officials' case; IC posses documents proving meeting with SCG intelligence

FTV current affairs program '60 Minuta' by Zvonko Maric— Following the series of articles published by Banja Luka based Nezavisne novine in which a number of SDS high officials were brought into connection with the organized crime and protection of the war crimes suspects, magazine speculates that the "key person" in this support network is the RS Police Director Dragomir Andan. According to FTV's sources, the EUFOR, EUPM and OHR are in possession of the documents containing large number of names and locations in which high-ranked SDS and RS police officials allegedly held secret meetings with members of the SCG intelligence services [programme points out Hotel Bosna in Banjaluka, RS President Dragan Cavic's house, a rented house in Banjaluka and numerous other locations in RS and Serbia]. "I don't protect criminals or any kind of criminal activities", stated Cavic. As for the BiH Prosecution's stance on the issue, reporter concludes it is 'vague', thus it is unclear whether there is an investigation on this case [as speculated by Nezavisne novine] or not. FTV further claims that Andan blackmailed BiH Chief Prosecutor, Marinko Jurcevic, as Jurcevic apparently failed to indict suspects for war crimes, including the massacre in the village Ahmici in 1993, while he was the prosecutor in the Central Bosnia. While newly appointed RS Minister of Interior Stanislav Cadjo keeps repeating that his hands are tied, the RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik says that at this point all he can do is to ask form the commission in charge of appointing high ranking police officials to remove "certain persons". "Therefore, I am trying to collect adequate documentation for all those persons, not only Andan... then you will hear our decisions", added Dodik.
