Terzic to inform EU,
US officials on status of reforms in

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'We will fulfil conditions for join EU by the end of July' by S. Numanovic – Chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic will during the next 20 days meet with some of the top EU and US officials in order to inform them on the status of reforms in BiH. Terzic is travelling both to Brussels and Washington at the invitation by the EU and US institutions. "I am scheduled for May 25 to inform EC officials in Brussels on the status of reforms in BiH, and I will also seize the opportunity to meet with the NATO officials and present them with the results achieved in the reform of defence. Meetings have been arranged with NATO General Secretary Jaap de Hoop Scheffer as well as the ambassadors of US, Germany and France at NATO," said Terzic. According to Terzic, in Brussels he will reiterate that the BiH's goal is to join EU in 2009 regardless of what about this think or speak some BiH politicians or the former High Representative. "I will try to start preparing our EC partners for my coming to Brussels at the end of July, when I will with the 16 fulfilled pre-conditions from the Feasibility Study request start of process of talks on Stabilisation and Association with EU. I am absolutely confident that all the 16 conditions will be fulfilled within the set deadline and I want to announce that before the leading people in EC," said Terzic. Commenting on claims by some EC officials that BiH has been implementing reforms but not fast enough, Terzic said that the current BiH authorities and the CoM were actually carrying out reforms faster than it was foreseen by the EC procedures themselves. He admitted problems related to the appointments of the BiH Statistics Agency Director but he said that he still believed the CoM was working ten times faster than the EC itself. According to Terzic, out of 46 that need to be passed, eight have been adopted in the most recent package and they are mainly of technical nature. He adds that the 50 percent of the job has been completed. "But we will fulfil the preconditions by the end of July. By the end of next week, a total of 36 laws will be either adopted or harmonized, as we are simultaneously working on all other issues, " concludes Terzic adding that he cannot understand how some can say the things are going slowly when the current CoM has actually speed up pace of the reforms set by EC. When it comes to his visit to Washington, Terzic said was scheduled to meet with US Secretary of State Collin Powel, Defence Secretary Donald Rumsfeld and WB representatives.

Ashdown reiterates that European doors are open for BiH	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Consequences cannot be avoided if the RS stands (as an obstacle) on the BiH's road to Europe' by S. Numanovic – "Doors of Europe are open for BiH" said High Representative Paddy Ashdown in a statement for the daily while summing up results of the talks he had held in the past seven days with foreign ministers of some leading European countries. Ljiljan interview with Humphreys	Ljiljan pgs 18-22 'Humphreys: Youth is a future of this country' by Mirsad Sinanovic – In an interview to Ljiljan, Chief of EC Delegation to BiH, Michael Humphreys, talks about progress of the reforms regarding the conditions for beginning of the negotiations on Stabilization and Accession Agreement. On cooperation with ICTY, Humphreys stressed that this issue was one of the most important, however refused to speculate on any possible consequences if such cooperation lacks. Asked whether a difference between FBiH and RS could be made regarding lack of cooperation with the Tribunal, he stressed EC deals with BiH as a state, and not with separate entities. Humphreys however acknowledges that there is a difference in this issue between FBiH and RS, but further explains that while RS makes no effort regarding ICTY, FBiH also has to deal with a number of issues, such as return of refugees and DPs. Regarding some statements that nationalist parties cannot achieve access regarding implementation of the reforms, Humphreys stresses that for EC the only important thing is whether parties are dedicated to reforms, and not their orientation.
Mostar SDP says unification of city obstructed	Dnevni List, pg 12 'Total obstruction of unification of Mostar ongoing', by M. Maslac – member of SDP Mostar Main Board, Sead Djulic, stated at a press conference held yesterday that all the talks about the process of unification of Mostar going according to the plan are untrue. Djulic notes that the HDZ is consciously stalling the implementation process, believing that the next elections will bring a good result to the party, after which the HDZ's majority will carry out the unification the way it likes. Noting that the SDA is now panicking, after it has lost its coalition partner in Mostar, the Party for BiH, Djulic says the SDP believes that the IC is the main culprit for the situation because "it is inconsistent and unprincipled, not exerting the pressure strong enough, which is supposed to do".

Lukac handed duty	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHTV, FTV, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 5 'Lukac and Ribic file resignations'; Glas Srpske pg 2 'Lukac handed duty', Vecernji List pg 2 'Nevertheless, Lukac accepted decision on removal' by BS, Blic, pg. 13 'Lukac withdrew' by Tijana Veselinovic mentioned on cover 'End of drama at the Ministry of Interior: Vukovic instead of Lukac', Vecernje novosti, pg. 6 'Lukac withdrew' by M. L., Nacional Belgrade daily, pg. 3 'Lukac handed over the duty of RS Special Police Chief' not signed' – The press statement, which Dragan Lukac and Dragan Ribic, former Head and Deputy Head of RS Special Police, yesterday forwarded to the media reads that they filed irrevocable resignations to their positions. According to the letter, they have made this decision for moral reasons, because of the tragic events in the MoI action in Visegrad. They were ready to do this even before, but they did not do that because of various manipulations regarding this action and since they were aware that all the responsibility would be transferred only to the Special Police Department, according to them. The letter further reads: "Owing to these exact reasons, we rejected the decision, because we were made clear that those decisions were made under political pressures." The letter also mentions Donald Hays, PDHR: "The PDHR, Mr. Donald Hays, suggested that all the legal decisions should be respected for the purpose of establishing the truth regarding the action of MoI in Visegrad and he emphasised that the Special Police Department cannot be dismissed and should continue doing its job within its competence. He also suggested that it was necessary to establish an independent commission to establish the truth." Also, the letter stresses: "If we caused fear of any citizen from potential inappropriate actions of the Special Police Unit, we would like to take the opportunity to apologise to them publicly since it was not our intention even for a single moment, and at the same time we were ready to provide protection to all the citizens and their property, which this unit has been doing all these years of its existence." They conclude the letter by calling on all members of Special Unit to continue working and doing their job and tasks which they were trained for and in which they put a lot of effort and knowledge. Lukac and Ribic sincerely hope that in future the Special Unit will have the senior officials who will appreciate and reward their work, and especially back their own decisions and orders. Bosko Marjanovic, Head of Commission for Transfer of duties, yesterday confirmed that the transfer of duties between the former and newly-appointed officials of Special Police did take place. According to NN inset 1, seven members of the RS Special Police Unit, whom Rdaomir Njegus, Police Director, suspended on Monday, yesterday handed the equipment and left the base at Rakovacke Bare. According to NN inset 2, the transfer of duties between Dragan Lukac and Dragan Ribic, former Head and Deputy Head of Special Police respectively, and Ranko Vukovic and Dragan Dukic, newly appointed Head and Deputy Head of Special Police respectively, yesterday took place. Lukac and Ribic were waiting for decisions in writing on their re-deployment to perform hand-over.

According to PDP, Dodik has "supported the putschistic ideas of the removed police officers."
Oslobodjenje on Visegrad operation, murdering of Lukic	Oslobodjenje pg 3, mentioned on cover 'New details on murdering of Lukic – Was the helicopter flight announced?' – Did the RS officials request from SFOR a permission for a helicopter flight prior to the operation in Visegrad during which Novica Lukic was killed? According to the reliable daily's source, the answer to this question will clear up many things related to the operation as well as the responsibility for its total failure.
NN editorial on Visegrad operation, RS special policemen removal	Nezavisne Novine pg 7 'Seats or arrests' editorial by Dragan Jerinic – The author is writing about the latest developments related to removals at Special Police with the reference to Visegrad action. The message of his editorial is: "NATO will not regard valid only the attempted arrest of war crime suspects. They are not interested in what happened in Visegrad, who planned and who sold the action, neither on what conclusions on this were passed by RS NA. NATO requests to see results, and it will be visible only when Republika Srpska police manages to fill in Scheweningen cells in approximately 15 days time – so many days are left before NATO Summit in Istanbul." He also makes a reference to Dragan Kalinic and Mladen Ivanic, claiming that they are actually bosses, who will not face sanctions. Instead, Zoran Djerić and Radomir Njegus will. The author also firmly claims that Republika Srpska police could have arrested war crime suspects a long time ago only if Kalinic and Ivanic found it appropriate. Because Djerić and Njegus would have done it for them for sure, according to Jerinic.

SB interview with dismissed Dragan Lukac	Slobodna Bosna pgs 23-26 'SDS' hardliners revenge against me through Director Njegus!' by Suzana Sacic – SB carries an interview with the former Commander of RS Special Police Unit Dragan Lukac, dismissed by RS Police Director Radomir Njegus over police action in Visegrad in which Novica Lukic, a brother of ICTY suspect Milan Lukic, was killed. On the action, Lukac points out that police officers did not have a back-up operation plan, claiming Njegus should had prepared it, adding that such plan was draft after the action without his participation. He also denied media speculations that the order was to kill, and not to arrest, Lukac, but added that the action was carried out based on “bad” information. He adds TV cameramen were already present at the scene when police arrived, explaining that the information about the action leaked. Asked about the report on the action presented to RS National Assembly by Njegus and RS Interior Minister Zoran Djeric, Lukac comments that only a part of the truth was presented to RSNA delegates who have no understanding as to how MoI functions, which ended in Special Police being the only one blamed. On the new Commander of special police, Ranko Vukovic [who also participated in the action], Lukac says that there were trials to replace him with Vukovic already in 1997 [journalist comments that this was tried by Momcilo Krajisnik and Momcilo Mandic], stressing Vukovic has no experience with special police, while newly appointed Deputy Dragan Dukic was dismissed from special unit when he was a commander. Lukac concludes that he believes that the decision on his dismissal was entirely politically motivated decision: “Absolutely, Director [Njegus] said that when he came to the meeting with us, explaining us he has to do this because of political pressures from different sides. He admitted that also before the RSNA!”
Ljiljan, Dani on Lukac and Visegrad action	Ljiljan pg 25 'SDS again powerless before Lukac' by Edin Rizvanovic – “According to the information from RS MoI leadership, the action was ordered by Radovan Karadzic personally, as [Milan] Lukic stoled some documents from him, and as we learned, already handed it to the Hague Tribunal through its connections. The order for liquidation was passed through SDS leadership, and their people in MoI [not hard to guess who are those], and finally given to special police officer who carried out execution thinking that he killed Milan, ” reads the article which blames RS Police Director Njegus and RS Interior Minister Zoran Djeric for being entirely responsible for the action. Dani pg 6 'Because of dismissal of Chief of RS special police, EUPM officers go for vacation' – Article, supportive of Dragan Lukac, notes that new Commander Vukovic was a member of Karadzic's escort for a long time. It additionally writes that RS MoI has been trying to get rid of Lukac since 1997, and comments that EUPM would probably not do much about this as its Chief of office in Banja Luka is close to Njegus and Djeric.

Terzic calls for police force reform	BHTV, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Number of employees in police to be reduced by 5,000', Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Three thousand police officers in BiH to lose jobs', Dnevni List pg 5 '5000 extra workers in police structures', mentioned on cover, by R. Radic, ONASA – Considering that BiH has problems with the organization of the police force, a serious re-restructuring in this field should take place, Chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic said on Thursday. Terzic said that a conclusion on the necessity of reform of police forces in BiH has been made from the analysis of the Feasibility Study, namely of its part related to the creation of legal presuppositions for the strengthening of the legal state. He stressed that launching these activities was not a result of pressure by institutions of the international community in BiH. "The BiH Council of Ministers will form a commission in which BiH experts will work and whose task will be to propose the country's authorities in which way and in which period European standards in the segment of security should be adopted," Terzic said. The BiH Council of Ministers will request the expert assistance from the Office of the High Representative (OHR) and "the appointment of a man who will be the coordinator and who will chair the commission." BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak said that there were 18,000 police officers in BiH. He said that approximately 5,000 more persons are employed in the administration, which exceeds economic possibilities of BiH. "By the adoption and introduction of European standards, the dismissal of approximately 5,000 employees could be expected, out of whom approximately 3,000 directly employed in police structures and approximately 2,000 from the administration segment," Colak said.

SB: 'BiH Parliament defends Jelavic, Prce, Rupcic'	Slobodna Bosna cover splash 'Exclusive: BiH Parliament in a defence of Ante Jelavic, Miroslav Prce and Miroslav Rupcic: Hasan Cengic demands Jelavic's release from detention and punishment for police, judges, prosecutor!', pgs 5-7 'Hasan Cengic from SDA and 'Karadzic supporter' Bosko Siljegovic demand removal of prosecutors and policemen who arrested Jelavic' by Senad Avdic – SB learns that the Commission of BiH Parliament appointed three months ago to investigate legality of arrest of Ante Jelavic, Miroslav Prce and Miroslav Rupcic, concluded its report and will present to BiH House of Representatives in near future. According to its source – one of the Commission members – the report consists of about 20 page, and was signed by Commission Chair Bosko Siljegovic, SDS delegate, for whom SB says is Karadzic's supporter, and some of the other members include Hasan Cengic SDA, Ilija Filipovic HDZ and Osman Brko SDA [no opposition parties were represented in the Commission]. The general remark of the report is that arrest "was carried out with a series of legal omissions because of which all persons that participated this action must face adequate legal and other punishments. Commission also concluded... that legality of extending detention to Jelavic, Porce and Rupcic by BiH Court was very questionable, and expressed concern regarding the fairness of the trial." SB further claims that the harshest critics were addressed against FBiH Police Administration and its Director Zlatko Miletic. Article [very critical of the Commission] concludes that at the same time when report was being finalized, FBiH Police Administration filed charges against Hasan Cengic for misuse of office [for details of charges please see yesterday's BiH Media Round up.] Ljiljan cover, pgs 23-24 'New police scam' by Mustafa Borovic – Ljiljan's article claims that charges against Cengic were absolutely ungrounded, as "at the time he, as Defence Minister, in accordance with the law, approved company BIO to ... produce explosive, ammunition and weaponry, as he would do with any other case... VL: FBiH intelligence report on Hasan Cengic	Vecernji List, front and pg 3 'Cengic collected humanitarian aid for bin Laden', by Zoran Kresic – the daily carries excerpts of a report prepared by the 'FBiH intelligence agency', which links Hasan Cengic and one Fatih Al Hassanein with the most radical Islamic groups including Osama bin Laden. Apparently, the 54-page report notes that Islamic countries had during the war sent to BiH humanitarian aid worth 2,5 billion US$, of which a considerable amount was abused. VL explains that the Fund for help to BiH Muslims, through which all the aid went, was established in Zagreb in October 1992, and the first president of the Fund was the then main imam of the Zagreb mosque, Mustafa Ceric. Back then, Cengic was appointed the secretary, who together with Al Hassanein, a Sudan national who lived in BiH before the war, seized the complete control of all humanitarian aid coming from Islamic countries. The report also says that Cengic and Al Hassanein established a humanitarian organization through which they helped radical Islamic circles in the world. The reports reads: "The embargo that was imposed to BiH enabled representatives of the Fund to impose BiH a cooperation with the most radical states in the world, as well as with terrorist organizations. A large part of the money into the Fund came from the countries that were on the special list of the US State Department, such as Sudan and other. It is assumed that terrorists used the humanitarian organization to collect money for individuals from the Bosnian government, including Osama bin Laden". The report also links Senad Sahinbasic, Edham Bicackic, Bakir Alispahic, Irfan Ljevakovic, Fikret Abdic, Alija Delimustafic, Senaid Memic, Murid Djuliman and others to various illegalities. Dnevni List pg 2 carries in its 'Statement of Day' former FBiH Deputy Minister of Defense Hasan Cengic as saying: 'I have not overstepped any authorities.'
