on support to Bukejlovic

BHT 1, FTV, Dnevni List pg 7 'Socialists will not support new composition of Government' by N. Bise, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Socialists rejected to participate in RS Government with nationalists' by J.S., Oslobodjenje pg 5 'PM-designate lacks support of SPRS and SNSD' by O. Vukovi, Nezavisne novine, pg. 2 'SNSD and SPRS will not support Bukejlovic' by V. Popovic, EuroBlic, pg. RS1 'Socialists showed a yellow card to Bukejlovic' by Nedeljka Breberina – The RS Socialist Party will not support the RS Prime Minister-designate, Pero Bukejlovic, or new RS Government consisting of nationalist parties, stated SPRS leader Petar Djokic. After he met with Bukejlovic, Djokic said his party will cease all consultations with PM-designate adding that the new Government should be comprised of SDS and PDP. "If [those parties] cannot do that, than they should state this clearly in order to organize early elections at both RS and BiH levels, as the work of Council of Ministers is obviously blocked," said Djokic.

Vecernji List pg 2 'Election of Government depends on PDP support' by bs – also says that due to such SPRS stand the election of new Government definitely depends on PDP.

EuroBlic inset 'Volas: he promised us nothing' – The President of RS Trade Union Association, Cedo Volas, has stated that designate Bukejlovic has made no promises to the Trade Union, but the Union hopes, since Bukejlovic has an experience in industrial business, that he would have more understanding and ideas for development of economy.

EuroBlic inset 'Terms for support', Glas Srpske, pg. 5 'Support is possible' by S. R. T. – SRS "Dr. Vojislav Seselj" delegate at RS NA Milan Lazic on Friday stated they would support the new Government should it be willing to respect the Agreement on harmonized political acting. 'If it succeeds in preserving the last elements of statehood, i.e. the army and police, we will be willing to give our support to it. We also expect from the new Government to conduct an audit of privatization and to end the practice of appointing poor quality personnel in economy', Lazic has stated.

Bukejlovic: Majority secured	RHB – RS Prime Minister Designate Pero Bukejlovic confirmed that he secured support of the majority in the entity Parliament for the election of his cabinet. He stressed that there will be no SDA Ministers in the new Government and explained that on the ground of its moves SDA excluded itself from the Government. He added that cooperation with the ICTY and privatisation audit will be among priorities of the new Government.
OHR calls on Ministers to attend CoM session	BHT 1, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Ministers in resignation cannot block CoM work’, mentioned on cover, by S.N., Nezavisne Novine, pg. 4 ‘OHR: outgoing Ministers must work until they are replaced’ by Srna, Glas srpske, pg. 2 ‘Ministers, go to work’ not signed – OHR Spokesperson Vedran Persic said “I can confirm that the OHR sent a letter to all BiH CoM ministers, stating its attitude on work of the BiH CoM. According to OHR, all BiH CoM members have to attend the sessions and to participate in the work of the Government; this also refers to those who submitted resignations, until they are replaced. By not attending the session, the work of BiH institutions will be obstructed, and BiH’s chances on the way to Euro-Atlantic integrations will be jeopardised.”
SNSD not to be involved in talks on particp. in CoM	RHB, BHT 1, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 ‘SNSD will not enter CoM’ by Srna, Oslobodjenje pg 5 ‘PM-designate lacks support of SPRS and SNSD’ by O. Vukovic, Nezavisne novine, pg. 2 ‘SNSD and SPRS will not support Bukejlovic’ by V. Popovic – SNSD Chairman Milorad Dodik stated that his party will not be involved in conversations regarding possible SNSD participation in CoM. Dodik accused SDS and PDP that they created a crisis in CoM and therefore they should be the one to solve it.
Djokic: RS reps to return to CoM?	Oslobodjenje pg 5 ‘RS representatives returning to CoM!’ by Fena – SPRS President Petar Djokic stated that there is an intention that RS representatives who submitted resignations in the BiH Council of Ministers return to their functions in this body.

SD edit.: HR giving in to RS politicians	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 15, mentioned on cover 'State has been without Government for over a month' by B. Kristo – With regard to the RS crisis the author says that High Representative Paddy Ashdown is making the things even more complicated who at first insisted on abolishment of entity Ministries when the defense and police reform are in question, however, now he says that their abolishment is not necessary. The author also says that such practice looks like giving in to RS politicians who managed to transfer the problem from the RS to the BiH Council of Ministers. The author concludes that such behaviour of the RS politicians remind of the time of the Croat self-rule, however, unlike then the HR gives in to RS officials a lot.
US Ambassador: 'Changes in RS Government are not purely cosmetic'	Oslobodjenje supplement 'Pogled', pg 28 'Changes in RS Government are not only cosmetic' by Marina Kavaz-Sirucic – In an interview to Oslobodjenje, the US Ambassador to BiH, Douglas McElhaney, says that the changes in RS authorities following the sanctions imposed on 16 December were not just superficial. Repeating that cooperation with the ICTY is the most important, McElhaney says that police and defence reforms must note progress. Asked to comment to the possible changes to BiH Constitution, Ambassador says that he would not like to prejudice what has to be changed adding that it is up to BiH citizens to decide so. As for the official US stance on BiH, McElhaney explains that his Government will continue to work on handing over BiH citizens the authorities to rule the country, stressing that it is necessary for BiH to meet conditions to join Partnership for Peace, and eventually EU.

Olli Rehn on association to EU	Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'European Union cannot close doors', pg 5 'Cooperation with the Hague is a condition to integrations' by Olli Rehn – EU Commissioner for enlargement, Olli Rehn, writes an article in DA on conditions for joining EU and changes that occur in the country in and post that process. He stresses that most importantly, the countries must strengthen the rule of law in their territory and meet international obligations such as the cooperation with the ICTY. On the countries of Western Balkans, Rehn says that their regional cooperation is extremely important for economic development. He adds that in next few years these countries will move from 'stabilisation' into 'association' stage of moving closer to EU.

Baric, Simic
on blockade of Vlasenica and Trebinje munic.
accounts

RTRS, Dnevni List pg 4 'To regulate issue of de-blockade of municipal bank accounts by law' by NINA – With regard to the problems caused by blockade of the Trebinje and Vlasenica municipal accounts, the RS Ministry of Finances believes that the only solution for the RS Municipalities and towns is the adoption of the framework law which will regulate this issue.

RTRS, Nezavisne Novine, pg. 4 'Alijagic case will be resolved by the end of the year' by P. Klinčov – Chairman of RS Supreme Court Zelimir Baric stated the audit of Alijagic case still has not been assigned and that it should be completed by the end of 2005. The reason for this is a large number of cases from a previous period. Baric says that the case will be taken into consideration during 2005 and added that there are several cases like that which still wait to be assigned. Chairman of RS National Assembly Board for supervision of judicial reform process Krstan Simic feels that Alijagic case should take priority in RS Supreme Court. He adds that the Chairman of the Supreme Court should be aware of the case significance and therefore make it a priority. RTRS reporter concludes that whoever ends up with the case will have a lot to do due to the amount of documents that accompany it.

by D. V. M. – The article claims SiCG delegation, which has attended the inaugural ceremony of US President George Bush, had had contacts with the most influential people from the top of US state administration. Serbina Minister of Culture Dragan Kojadinovic claims he heard America has no intention to chase after Serb officers and extradite them to the Hague. Kojadinovic claims he was told:
'Only Karadzic and Mladic are important to us, and this is what we will continue to insist on...'. He also claims he was told:
'Provide us with an evidence they (Karadzic and Mladic) are not on your territory...and leave everything else to us to deal with...when it comes to the relation of the Hague towards Serbia and especially when it comes to totally uncontrolled power of Carla Del Ponte'.

Mtg
Gregorian, Stankovic,
Stojicic, Sakan, Dodik

RTRS, FTV – Chairman of the Defense Reform Commission Raffi Gregorian met with RS Defence Minister in resignation Milovan Stankovic and RS party representatives. Gregorian stressed that political leaders in BIH should determine the future existence of entity armed forces and added that their existence might become a problem when BIH becomes a NATO member. He added that a question remained open whether BIH has an efficient command and control over armed forces from the state level.

RS National Assembly Speaker Dusan Stojicic introduced Gregorian with the fact that there is no political readiness in the RS for the defence reform that would abolish RS Defence Ministry and RS Army HQ. Chairman of competent RS NA Board Velimir Sakan stressed that he is not pleased that the mandate of the Commission has been extended. He also stated that he has an impression of fraud since RS NA deputies were convinced that the solutions from defence reform will be of interest for RS and BIH.

RHB, FTV, RTRS – Dnevni List ‘Minimal professional military structure in BiH’ not signed – After talks with the Chairman of the Defense Reform Commission, Raffi Gregorian, SNSD President Milorad Dodik said that SNSD would support the reforms that envision termination of recruitment, military service period and reserve components, and establishing of professional army that would be financed from the budget. Oslobodjenje: BiH may soon have only 6000 troops	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 6 'BiH soon to have only 6000 troops?' by A. Prlenda – Daily says that BiH Armed Force could soon carry out new cut in a number of troops, while possibilities for making Army a professional service are also being discussed. According to unofficial information, Defence Reform Commission will soon start to seriously consider the way of reducing a number of troops. Currently, Armed Forces number 12.000 troops, however daily claims that due to lack of finances for entities and state Defence Ministries, the Armed Forces could be further reduced to 6000 and conscription may be abolished. Advisor to the Croat member of BiH Presidency, Slavko Marin, says that professional army would be the best solution.
Osmanovic believes that next RS Police Director will be Bosniak or Croat	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'I am certain that Bosniak or Croat will be elected' by E. Sarac – Article reads that for the very first time candidates from Bosniak and Croat peoples have applied to the position of RS Police Director. According to the RS Vice President, Adil Osmanovic, these candidates meet all criteria included in the vacancy announcement. "This time I believe that Bosniak or Croat will take over the position of the Police Director, because I think that two years ago when Radomir Njegus was elected only Serb representatives applied to the vacancy," said Osmanovic. He added that whoever is to be appointed must be ready to tackle the issue of employees in RS Interior Ministry that provide assistance to war crimes suspects for years.
