Humphreys on PIC session tomorrow	BH Radio 1 – Head of the EC Delegation to BiH Michael Humphreys said in a statement for BH Radio 1 ahead of tomorrow's Peace Implementation Council session in Brussels that a month and a half long crisis of government in BiH had slowed down the process of reforms in the country. The majority of the Feasibility Study requirements have been fulfilled but there is more work to be done by local authorities in the coming period, according to Humphreys.
CCD against Colak statement	RHB – An open letter that the Croat Christian Democrats (CCD) sent to the BiH Security Minister Bariša Colak says: "Mr. Colak, your unconditional support to the proposed police restructuring and parallel restructuring of the judicial power clearly shows that you want to introduce through the back door such a constitutional/legal structure which do not guarantee freedom to the Croats in BiH."

He added that there are signs that cooperation has started, such as the transfer of Savo Todovic, but stressed that it also needs to be completed. "The process cannot be ended before all indictees, including Karadzic and Mladic, end up in the Hague. Nothing else will be enough", Ashdown said, adding he hopes RS will recognize obligation to continue with cooperation with the ICTY. Del Ponte concluded that her office raised 6 indictments at the end of last year against 10 suspects.

PINK – Carla del Ponte said: "I think that it is a disgrace because of victims expecting justice to be satisfied. I am calling not only on the International Community here, but also on this nation to do everything in their power to locate not only Karadzic and Mladic but other war criminals as well."

FTV – The topic of the meeting was not disclosed. "I will only [say] that we had informative talk of strategic nature. Those talks are very important. We emphasized some specific actions that need to be undertaken. Are those new? Yes, partially. Will I tell you about [them]? Of course not," said Ashdown.

NTV Hayat, RTRS – Del Ponte confirmed that she will meet with RS Minister of Interior Darko Matijasevic but wouldn't say where or when.

RS Government's officials object HR-proposed future police organization	TV PINK, RTRS – Resigning RS PM Dragan Mikerevic thinks that the RS Interior Ministry, together with its minister, police director and police structures financed from the RS budget that would work in accordance with the Constitution and Law on Internal Affairs of this entity, need to be a part of any future structure of police forces in BiH. Spokesperson for the RS PM, Goran Radivojac, said that only a police structure that would “go along the administrative boundaries and the organization of district prosecutions and courts,” can be accepted. Mikerevic's stance is that PRC completed its work without reaching consensus. RHB, BHT1, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'MoI and RS police must continue to exist' by E. Cavic said: “We are ready for compromises, but we are not ready to support the compromise reached between Bosniaks and Croats and to say – you agreed and we should violate all the constitutional and other principles to satisfy your needs.”

Sakan, Mikes,

Dukic, Pavic,

oppose proposed
police
organization

RHB – The Chair of the RSNA Board for supervision of security organizations, Velimir Sakan, feels that all police reforms need to be harmonized with the BiH and Entities Constitutions. Attorney Miroslav Mikes commented that the police reform has political motives so entity borders could be breached. SNSD General Secretary Igor Radojicic feels that the police organizational structure is not a done deal and that legal procedure needs to be respected.

Oslobodjenje pg 7 ‘Obligating pressure’ by O.Vukovic – SDS member, Momcilo Novakovic, stated that the decision on police structure is a pressure and a trial to impose the solution.

BHT 1, Glas Srpske pg 5 ‘To reject proposal’ – The Coordination Board of the 11 RS NGOs said they will request referendum on RS separation if Paddy Ashdown’s proposal on BiH police’s territorial organisation is adopted, stated said their representative, Branislav Dukic.

Glas Srpske cover page story ‘He does not care for Dayton’ by E.G.S. – Petar Kunic, Banja Luka Law Faculty Professor, says that the model for police reform proposed by HR is unacceptable for RS. Marko Pavic, DNS leader, is of the view that the proposal on police reorganization leads towards abolishment of the RS MoI and creation of a single police force at the BiH level.

Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 16, mentioned on front ‘RS: We do not give up on our Police’, by Aleksandar Macanovic – SD notes that politicians in the RS expect all other proposals to go into regular parliamentary procedure believing that there would be impositions of solutions, therefore the story about the division of competencies is not over. According to a military-political analyst, Ostoja Barasin, “by the latest decision on territorial organization of Police in BiH, HR Ashdown did not abolish the RS MoI, however he abolished the entity’s Police, which is yet another anti-constitutional act”.

RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 2 ‘The biggest RS enemy is those ruling it’ by O. Vukovic, Glas Srpske inset ‘What about human rights’ – Branko Todorovic, President of RS Helsinki Board for Human Rights, has stated that HR’s decisions have nothing to do with democracy and human rights.

SDA stands for 5 police regions	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 ‘SDA stands for 5 regions’ – SDA believes that the proposed map of 10 police regions reflects an unprincipled compromise and represents a deviation from the principle of professionalism and efficiency. “This can best be seen in the example of the police region with a seat in Foca, RS, instead of Gorazde, FBiH, which meets all the conditions, and the fact that the Sarajevo police region is reduced more or less to the city centre,” an SDA statement says. The SDA supports the map with five police regions and will advocate for the police regions to be harmonized with the regions covered by other law enforcement agencies. Dnevni Avaz pg 5 ‘The BiH Interior Ministry will be established’ – In an interview with the daily, Mehmed Zilic, a members of the Police Restructuring Commission, also advocated for the establishment of a single BiH police structure with five regions. NTV Hayat – SDA Vice President, Elmir Jahic comments on choosing Foca as one of the centres: “The only preconditions it has met is to become logistic basis for hiding war criminal Radovan Karadzic.”
SDP supports 5 police regions, HDZ proposes judicial reform to follow police	NTV Hayat – SDP also believes that the police division in five regions would be the best solution. SDP representative Damir Hadzic comments: “The proposal on 5 regions presents the best solution when it comes to professional standards, since it meets generally accepted standards. By 5 regions, the full effect is accomplished, and the facts which exist and which no one can deny are being respected.” HDZ believes that the implementation of the new police structure will start soon and that BiH is going to have the police in accordance with European standards. But still, they believe that some corrections should be made. HDZ Chair Barisa Colak said: “My opinion is that it is impossible to organize the police if it is not functional at the same time, and if the organization [is not followed with the judicial] reorganization. I think that this solution is optimal and that it can offer some good results.”

CoM Chair stressed that the best solution for the crisis in BiH CoM would be for Cabinet to continue its work in this current composition. However, Terzic said that "the law does not stipulate the deadline in which Chair of BiH CoM has to declare himself on resignations", adding that the "resignations are a matter of political discussions." Mladen Ivanic doesn't agree with Terzic's comment: "Read the law, and there you will see an article which states that when a minister submits resignation, the new one should be elected and in accordance with the article 10 this situation cannot last forever." NTV Hayat – Ivanic said "We have submitted our resignations, they have not been withdrawn, the deadline to relieve us of duty has started and it is up to others to overcome the crisis."

Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Sanctions again' by Aleksandar Sekulic – The author stresses that decision on possible declaration of Dragan Cavic a despot lays in the hands of Mladen Ivanic, PDP President. If Ivanic offered support to Pero Bukejlovic, he would place the crown on the head of Cavic, who has managed to place all SDS favourites to the key positions in RS and BiH, according to the author. The author further opens the door for readers to make their own conclusion regarding HR's, Paddy Ashdown actions, who in 2001 removed SDS ministers from Ivanic's Cabinet on one side, but did also remove Dragan Kalinic and Mirko Sarovic to make the space for Cavic. The author notes that the political game Cavic and Paddy Ashdown are playing would lead RS in one direction – new and fatal sanctions.

He wants to keep BiH as a dependent and not turn it into a self-sustainable state and prepare withdrawal of the international factors from BiH. I am certain that BiH is not mature yet to be deprived of the HR’s services as an institution but I believe that Mr. Ashdown is not the person who might help BiH under current circumstances.’
