Affairs and audits

BiH Prosecution establishes team to investigate 'sugar affair'	FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje cover, pg 6 'Prodex did not export even a kilo of sugar in to EU!', inset 'BiH Prosecution starts with an investigation' by Fena, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'For a year now we have been investigating sugar circulation in BiH', inset 'BiH Prosecution established an investigation team' – The BiH Prosecutor's Office formed a team for investigating the alleged involvement of companies from BiH in frauds regarding the imports and exports of agricultural products in and out of the EU participating countries, including the imports and exports of sugar. The team is headed by the Prosecutor of the Special Department for Organized Crime, Economic Crime and Corruption Georg Hallbach. The Office will also cooperate with Indirect Tax Authority. The Chief of the BiH State Border Service Mile Juric confirmed that this service is also informed about the sugar affair, adding that in 2003 and 2004 SBS officers have prevented illegal import of about 100 tons of sugar from BiH to Serbia and Montenegro. BHTV 1 -The investigation has also been carried by the European Commission. "Part of European Commission conducts investigations on corruption inside EU. It is up to them to decide in which way they will investigate this," said spokesperson for EC delegation in BiH Franco Maroevic.
Ashdown on sugar affair	BHTV 1, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Misuse of subventions cannot have negative impact to beginning of SAA' by S.N. – – The High Representative Paddy Ashdown also warned against possible consequences, however he stressed that it was necessary for wait for the findings of the investigation. "There are some indications that this affair perhaps has no such big impact has been suggested in some media lately. However, EC carries an investigation and we will see."

Prodex owner denies involvement in sugar affair	Oslobodjenje cover, pg 6 'Prodex did not export even a kilo of sugar in to EU!' by Az. Kalamujic – Petar Corluka, owner of company Prodex from Grude, stated for Oslobodjenje that his company did not export even a kilo of sugar to EU [his company was previously mentioned by daily as one of the main ones participating in the sugar affair, in which companies from EU sell the sugar to countries outside of EU, which than repack it and sell it back to EU as their domestic products]. Corluka adds that the company works with "about 5000 clients in BiH and that none of them is a fictitious company." He also says he was surprised with the statement by the Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic, who said that BiH needs 35000 tons of sugar to satisfy its needs annually which is a bit less than half of the quantity Prodex imports in six months period. Oslobodjenje also carries an inset in which it says that according to the customs information, company Violeta from Grude – which is in ownership relation with Prodex – is also one of the big sugar purchasing companies. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'For a year now we have been investigating sugar circulation in BiH', mentioned on cover 'Sugar circulation has been investigated in BiH for a year now', by Sead Numanovic – Avaz also carries denial of involvement in the affair by Corluka.

on sugar
affair

Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Geniuses overlooked the fact that there were no sugar plants in BiH' by F. Cardzic – Director of the Indirect Taxation Administration Kemal Causevic states that ITA shares a big credit for revealing the 'sugar affair' in BiH: "The truth is that the activities that gave such result followed after EU representative warned BiH authorities on the large sugar export from BiH to EU. After that we have established that sugar export from BiH was not problematic, as only 240 tons in 2003 were questionable." After that, says Causevic, through customs declaration, enormous quantities of sugar imported to BiH have been established – about 230.000 tons in 2003. "These affairs have not damaged the budgets in BiH. However, the budgets of some of EU countries were damaged – before all of Belgium, UK, Italy, France, Hungary... We have an obligation to sanction those who participates this dirty business from BiH," said Causevic confirming that the biggest importers of sugar in BiH were Prodex from Grude, ManMarket, PelePromet, CangePromet and TockPromet.

Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 4 'Customs clerks under investigation' – In an interview to NN, Kemal Causevic says that any customs clerk or even anybody at this planet can falsify certificate which enables exemption from paying customs during imports. He further claims that the ITA Internal Control is engaged in investigation whether any entity customs administration clerk is responsible over "sugar affair". He also notes that the ITA is conducting investigations against some of its officials, which is part of its regular duties. He does not want to give any specific detail (regarding names or akin), but confirms media speculation he will hold the meeting with Marinko Jurcevic, BiH State Prosecutor, regarding this sugar affair.

Spiric: 'Sugar affair will serve to establish BiH MoI'	FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 8 "Sugar affair' makes our lives difficult' by S.R., Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Sugar affair will serve to establish BiH MoI' – BiH House of Representatives Deputy Chair Nikola Spiric declared that the "sugar affair" could cause great problems to BiH, and that it can greatly complicate the beginning of negotiations on Stabilization and Association if it is determined that BiH has illegally used the preferential trade regime. "I wish to warn the executive authorities in BiH this is why sanctions must be confirmed, instead of telling the political story", Spiric told a press conference. Spiric thinks that the sugar affair goes back a long time, and that the international factors have known about the volume and the extent of this affair for a long time. "It is my personal assessment that this will serve for establishing a single Ministry of Interior BiH. I think this will be sufficient pressure for all political factors in order to establish a single MoI", said Spiric.
FBIH Customs director on sugar affair	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'For a year now we have been investigating sugar circulation in BiH', mentioned on cover 'Sugar circulation has been investigated in BiH for a year now', by Sead Numanovic – Director of the FBIH Customs Administration, Zelimir Rebac, did not want to comment to the document he signed, in which owner of Prodex company Petar Corluka has been indicted as a suspect in sugar affair: "This is something that a tea of 30 people in coordination with CAFAO and BiH Prosecution worked on. I don't know the details. I just signed the joint findings." He adds that the sugar circulation in BiH has been examined for a year now. He adds that he orders an investigation inside the FBIH Customs to establish whether any customs officers have been involved.

Audit of FBiH institutions negative in 14 out of 15 cases – chaotic situation in VF and FBiH MoD	FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'FBiH MoD paid salaries to those who stopped working in 2000' by not signed – The general assessment of financial activities of FBiH institutions, institutes, services and public companies during the past year is unsatisfactory, FBiH General Auditor Ibrahim Okanovic said in Sarajevo on Wednesday. Presenting main findings from audit reports on FBiH institutions, institutes, services and public companies in 2003, Okanovic said that 14 out of the 15 reports completed so far are negative. These are report on the Service for Common Affairs of FBiH Bodies and Institutions, the FBiH Ministry of Interior, the FBiH Ministry of Defence, the FBiH Army and the FBiH Pension/Disability Insurance Funds. The remaining nine reports, including reports on the FBiH Government, FBiH ministries and BH Telecom and HT Mostar have been assessed as conditionally positive. Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'Military salaries still paid to 77 persons dismissed in 2002', mentioned on cover, by Az. Kalamujic – The biggest number of problems auditors reported to have discovered in the FBiH Defence Ministry and FBiH Army. They added that it is apparent that both structures maintain parallelism of Bosniak and Croat components. In addition, auditors revealed that both Ministry and Army directed about 640.000 KM for 'overdue' salaries for 77 persons dismissed in 2002. As for bookkeeping for 2003, auditors described the situation as chaotic. Article also gives details of reports of other institutions.

Narodni front NGO accuses ivanic, Dokic for frauds	Oslobodjenje cover page story, pg 7 'Ivanic and Dokic responsible for frauds worth millions' by V. Zivak – The President of the NGO Narodni front from RS, Dragomir Babic, claims that current BiH Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Transport and Communications, Mladen Ivanic and Branko Dokic respectively, were responsible for the frauds worth millions of KM during their mandates in RS authorities as Prime Minister and Minister of Traffic and Communications. Up to now, Narodni Front in Banja Luka has filed about 20 charges against Ivanic, Dokic and others accusing them of frauds in Telekom Srpske, Elektrodistribucija and other companies. In addition, Babic claims that both Ivanic and Dokic have support by the High Representative Paddy Ashdown and adds that this was a reason they were not dismissed in the latest "Ashdown's purge." Article carries the details of the claims into the frauds, and a comment by the HR Ashdown: "Babic's accusations are absurd... It is up to court to decide whether there were misuses or not."

FBiH HoR rejects law on internal debts	Dnevni List, pg 4 'Hadzipasic: We cannot be held hostages of several hundred of people', by Erna Mackic – MPs in the FBiH parliament's House of Representatives failed to adopt the law on determining and settling of internal obligations of FBiH at a session held yesterday. Commenting on the fact that the MPs, despite several warnings, refused to adopt the law, the FBiH Prime Minister, Ahmet Hadzipasic, expressed doubts that several hundreds of savers with claims over 100.000 KMs influenced such a decision of the FBiH Parliament. "They were probably logistically active towards the politicians and parties and I cannot understand how we are becoming hostages of the people who affect decisions of the Parliament, which has big implications", says PM Hadzipasic, warning that the "interested parties" could be exerting pressures on the Government and Parliament to lift the moratorium on internal obligations, which could be a grave danger for the FBiH budget. DL also carries Principal Deputy High Representative, Donald Hays, who says: "There will be constant requests for payment from the treasury, which will be a result of court cases. Meaning, money that is not there will be requested. You will have pensioners who are not getting pensions, bankers who are getting back the loans, and that will have an affect on foreign investors". Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Federation facing overall collapse' by A. Terzic – Hadzipasic warned that if a solution to the issue of internal debt in FBiH is not solved urgently, it will mean an accumulation of the cases at the court which will just present further costs for the FBiH. The total debt is 3 billion KM, which is 2,5 years of total FBiH annual revenues. RHB, BHTV 1, FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Delegates rejected the draft law on internal debt' – also reported on this issue.

Radic and Dnevni List pg 3 'Bigger authorities of EU Special Representative' by I. Tabucic – High Representative Paddy Ashdown confirmed at the press conference held on Wednesday that that the first phase of the OHR's transformation into the Office of the EU Special Representative will start next year. The HR also said that BiH cannot join European integration with the HR at its head. According to Ashdown, by the coming of EU forces in BiH, BiH will start to move faster towards Brussels. The dailies also carry that during the press conference on Wednesday the HR also launched the new EUSR Website www.eusrbih.org. Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Authorities will not be reduced' by M.K.S. – Ashdown said that his "current function will change and as the time passes it will increasingly evolve into the role of the EU Special Representative... As BiH moves away from the era of Dayton and into the era of Brussels, the nature of his work will change as well... This does not represent reduction of the High Representative's authorities."

VN int with
Ivanic

Vecernji List, pg 6 'If RS remains, we will not seek separation', mentioned on front, by Zoran Kresic – carries an interview with BiH Foreign Minister and President of PDP, Mladen Ivanic, who, amid announcements of removal of SDA Ministers from the RS Government, says: "We will not stay without Bosniak ministers. We will have Bosniak ministers, because it is a constitutional category, it is not an elimination of Bosniak ministers, it is a replacement of ministers from one party. Parties are not constituent, the peoples are". Ivanic adds that the removal of SDA ministers will not destabilize the RS, but quite the opposite. Commenting on the journalist's conclusion that, according to his (Ivanic's) words, SDA officials are working on abolishment of the RS, Ivanic says: "It is a recognizable concept. A new climate through acting of international institutions is being created, especially through the OHR, in which the SDA can say what it wants and the vocabulary of SDA leaders is almost identical to the one used by the OHR". Commenting on the establishment of the Police Reform Commission, Minister Ivanic says: "I honestly do not know how the Commission was formed, why it was imposed, why there was no effort to go through institutions of BiH. It appears it was an independent initiative by the Chairman (of BiH CoM) and High Representative for BiH." Commenting on new constitutional reforms as advocated by the HDZ, Ivanic says: "Constitutional reforms which would lead towards abolishment of the RS or dramatic reducing of current constitutional position are not acceptable to any party of the Serb people. Everything else that means an efficient BiH is acceptable". Questioned to comment how he sees the change from the 'Dayton BiH' to 'Brussels BiH', Ivanic says: "That thesis is completely misrepresented and it is fake. Brussels BiH can only succeed if it starts from the Dayton one". Finally, Minister Ivanic acknowledges that the Croatian PM, Ivo Sanader, in recent talks with him in Zagreb, asked the BiH side to do what it could that prominent political figures of the Croat people get a chance to defend themselves from the outside, which was related to Ante Jelavic. Ivanic says he told PM Sanader that the political leadership in BiH could do nothing in that regards, because such is the position of the BiH judiciary.

Oslobodjenje claims Ashdown to remove another 40 officials	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Ashdown replaces Ivanic?' by V. Zivak – Daily carries that, according to the source from the international community, the High Representative Paddy Ashdown could soon go public with the list of new 40 persons to be removed from their political positions. The source further says these those to be removed will include Mladen Ivanic, BiH Foreign Affairs Minister, but also the persons that have just been appointed to the positions vacant after Ashdown removed about 60 officials from RS at the end of June. The measures, speculates the source, would include the additional sanctions for persons removed from their positions such as Djuro Bulic [former director of RS Customs] who apparently still uses official vehicle, and Dragan Kalinic who is still present in SDS head quarters
Comments on Government re-shuffle	EuroBlic RSpg 3 'SDA is hoping, PDP is persistently refusing' – Tarik Sadovic, Head of SDA Caucus at RS NA, in a statement to EuroBlic expressed his belief that the political tensions in RS have reached the phase of pacification, noting that the leading political parties, SDS and PDP would realise removals of SDA ministers from RS Government would further destabilise the situation. He said: "I believe political reasoning would prevail in both, SDS and PDP, for what we hold some concrete indications. The statements Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic gave lately are extremely contradictory statements." Nevenka Trifkovic, PDP Secretary General, reiterated PDP claims for removals of SDA Ministers, noting that position Dragan Mikerevic, RS PR took on the eve of RS NA was clear. Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Removals depend on SDA approach' – Dragan Mikerevic, RS PM, said that RS Government re-shuffle is almost evident, noting there are less and less reasons for keeping SDA Ministers at Government. He also noted that removals of SDA Ministers would depend on further developments at the political plan, mainly on SDA approach towards crucial issues in BiH. Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'RS NA to convene on Tuesday'; Glas Srpske pg 3 'Resumption at the end of July' – The RS NA Collegium decided that the session, which was discontinued on 30 June should resume on Tuesday (27 July), while new regular session should take place on Wednesday (38 July).

Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Cavic's and Mikerevic's political simulation' op-ed by Edina Sarac – Author refers to the initiative to remove three SDA ministers from RS Government, whereas she points that Dragan Cavic, RS President, first supported this, while RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic opposed to it. Several days later, they changed their stances. "At first glance, it looks like a surprise. But, it is not. Everything is more than obvious. Dragan Cavic, as a man who fought for his position of the first man of SDS, which is still ruled by Dragan Kalinic from shadow, had to support... PDP demands, as Kalinic's people asked for that. On the other hand Cavic, who proved to be extraordinarily capable politicians..., also estimated that removal of SDA ministers ... could jeopardize his position... When it comes to Mikerervic, party's boss Mladn Ivanic obviously showed... that he is still in charge of his party and that his word is still the last one. Of course, one cannot forget that local elections are before us," reads editorial.
