US Ambassador to BiH McElhaney's pc: Political leaders close to agreement on constitutional changes	BH Radio 1 – Senka Jasarspahic– US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney told at the press conference in Sarajevo that BiH political leaders are close to signing the agreement on constitutional changes, since the only disputable and unresolved issue remained to be election of the BiH Presidency members. "Various options were on the table on that issue and parties agreed to ask for a legal stance of the Venice Commission, on which of the options is in accordance with the European standards"- said McElhaney. He added that after that parties' leaders are to meet and to discuss this last issue.
Main hearing in ICJ continues: BiH team presented evidence on occupation of BiH cities	BH Radio 1 – The main hearing in BiH's lawsuit against SCG for aggression and genocide continues before the International Court of Justice in The Hague. BiH legal representatives continued with presentation of evidences. They made a chronological presentation on how 'Serb forces' conducted occupation of BiH cities, conducting ethnical cleansing of majority Bosniak populations. The BiH team placed accent on Eastern Bosnia cities, claiming that all this was a part of the planned political activity, whose goal was to erase the eastern border on Drina.

Agreement on constitutional changes not signed/Politicians unable to agree on election of BiH Presidency members, they ask for stand of Venice Commission	BHT1– Leaders of key BiH political parties met on Wednesday in Sarajevo to finalize the constitutional changes talks, however, they did not sign the agreement on constitutional changes, because they could not agree on the election of the BiH Presidency members. Hayat says that HDZ disagrees with the way in which the BiH President and Presidency members are to be elected. “It was agreed for the Venice Commission to take the stance on the issue of the election”, said SDA leader Sulejman Tihic. HDZ insists on the direct way of election. “My opinion is that the proposed solution is in line with the Human Rights Convention’s regulations, but I can understand their fear that it does not guarantee that a Croat would be appointed as a BiH Presidency member”, said PDP leader Mladen Ivanic. “We have agreed that the whole package presents a complete and concrete agreement, but we have also agreed the whole package should not be sacrificed due to an issue, we failed to reach agreement on”, said SDS leader Dragan Cavic. “I think that we are having problems with systematic solutions. Obviously, Croat representatives want to solve the issue of internal organization. I have nothing against the idea of having 3, 5 or 10 entities within BiH itself. What is clear is that the RS’ existence is unquestionable”, said SNSD leader Milorad Dodik. US representatives find talks extremely useful and productive. RTRS– Parties’ leaders agreed to send proposals to the Venetian Commission to give its opinion. Three versions regarding the BiH Presidency’s election will be sent to the Venetian Commission. The first version refers to direct voting on the election within one election unit. The second version refers to the earlier way of election, while the third version refers to the indirect election in the BiH Parliament. US Ambassador to BiH Douglas L. McElhaney said that not much time has left and that this would have to be finished soon. FTV– HDZ President Dragan Covic stated that for HDZ, the direct election method is absolutely unacceptable. Milenko Brkic from HNZ repeated his demand for the indirect election method, claiming that this method only can secure equality for all BiH peoples. US State Department official Rosemary Di Carlo also attended Wednesday’s meeting of BiH political leaders. She stated after the meeting that she is satisfied with the course of the negotiations. She said that the political leaders had promised to meet after they receive the recommendation of the Venice Commission and sign the agreement on time, so that the necessary legislation can be adopted before the October elections. Oslobodjenje pg 6 ‘Solution in ten days’ by Az.K. – Lagumdžija stated that Venice Commission should come up with the response in ten days. Commenting refusal of SBiH to take further part in talks on constitutional changes, SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdžija said: "It can be done without SBiH, since their votes are not necessary... SBiH knew that we do not talk about entities. It is a question whether we stay in the mud for next five to ten years or we start creating a normal state." Inset, 'Dodik bored with talks' – SNSD leader Milorad Dodik stated that he is really bored with talks on constitutional changes. SBiH argues constitutional changes should be carried out in accordance with European, American principles/ SDP's Lagumdžija: HDZ's Covic is buying time	Dnevni List, pg 3, mentioned on front 'Covic is not giving up his requests', by Mensud Zorlak carries statements by Dragan Covic, Milenko Brkic and a statement released by the SBiH following a session of the party's executive committee, which reads that the SBiH will stick to its earlier positions, namely that the constitutional changes should be carried out in accordance with European and US principles and standards of democracy and not follow the 'Dayton logic of the two-entity, ethnic-national model'. "There could be blockade of institutions in future circumstances without the presence of the High Representative", argues SBiH. Article also carries SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdžija as saying that Covic is buying time with his latest requests. Oslobodjenje pg 6 'BiH on edge of abyss' carries the SBiH press release.
BOSS leader Ajanovic on const changes: SDA and SDP committed treason	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'To confront treason and division' – BOSS leader Mirnes Ajanovic repeated that SDP and SDA committed a treason by accepting the agreement that would verify division of BiH.
Danas: US, OHR embittered with Silajdzic's attitude in process of constitutional changes talks	Danas, front pg splash 'Silajdzic and Orlucevic parting ways' and pgs 18-21 'USA puts Silajdzic on margins', by Zvonimir Jukic – According to Danas' sources, the US Embassy in BiH and OHR are embittered with recent actions by the founder of SBiH, Haris Silajdzic, who, for the sake of his own interests, wants to preserve the status quo in BiH and prevent gradual constitutional changes in the country. Danas quotes "an OHR official" as saying that Silajdzic wants to prevent any constitutional changes in order to preserve the confusing situation in BiH, which would subsequently create new national tensions, the situation in which Silajdzic sees his chance to be elected as the Bosniak member of BiH Presidency. Moreover, Danas also learns that long-time partners Silajdzic and Safet Orucovic (former Mayor of Mostar, believed to have strong ties with Silajdzic) have clashed over the constitutional changes, since Orucovic is allegedly in favour of the US and UK embassies' plans to carry out gradual changes, instead of no changes whatsoever. The weekly also says that the US are fed up with Silajdzic's attitude towards constitutional changes, which is the reason why Silajdzic was recently denied a visa to enter the US to attend constitutional changes talks.
DL: BiH Presidency members' behaviour shows BiH needs one President	Dnevni List, pg 2 'United BiH consisting of three pieces', by Zvonimir Jukic – the author argues that the handover in the office of Chairman of BiH Presidency and speeches by members of the Presidency held on that occasion (members were presenting opposing stances) showed what kind of state BiH citizens live in and what kind of the Presidency the country has. Jukic notes that all three members were talking foremost as advocates of narrow interests of their respective people, which, according to Jukic, confirms the need to have one President and two Vice Presidents who would rotate each 16 months, because each diplomat when talking to the Presidency members would get a feeling that there are three states in BiH.

BiH Independence Day marked only in FBiH/ RS representatives say other date can be chosen since this one reminds them of 'bad things'	BHT1 – March 1 is the BiH's Independence Day. On this day, 14 years ago, over 66% of BiH citizens voted at the referendum, and almost 98% of voters decided on BiH's independence. Most of the Serbs boycotted the referendum. The BiH Independence Day is not being celebrated in the RS and Serbs believe that this date has negative connotations and that it cannot be celebrated as a state holiday. Member of SBiH Beriz Belkic expressed his hope that after some time all BiH citizens would accept this holiday and celebrate it. BiH Presidency member and SDA President Sulejman Tihic stated that this day is a symbol of a multi-ethnic state. SNSD's Krstan Simic stated that there are many other dates that are more suitable to be celebrated as the Independence Day and that March 1 is a date selected by only one entity. BiH Presidency member Ivo Miro Jovic stated that he is proud to belong to Croat people, who voted for independence at the 1992 referendum. Hayat– Although invited to the ceremonial academy, in honour of the Independence Day, the RS representatives did not appear. Serb BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac marked the Day of Civil Protection on Wednesday. "Serbs do not mark this date (The Independence Day)...It reminds them of something very bad...and do not provoke me with such questions", explained Paravac. DL: Minister Halilovic wants a Bosniak, Minister Dokic wants a Serb in office of CIPS Director	Dnevni List, pg 8 'Bosniak to be Director and Deputy Director of CIPS?!', by Dario Pusic – carries a feature report on the issue of vacated position of the Director of CIPS after the last Director, Mirko Skrbic, left the office due to health reasons. However, there is no agreement within the BiH CoM as to who would succeed Skrbic since the BiH Civil Affairs Minister, Safet Halilovic, wants Mustafa Pasalic to take up the office because he got best marks of all candidates who applied to the vacancy, however the BiH Minister of Traffic and Communications, Branko Dokic, wants that Sinisa Macan, the second placed candidate, to assume the position because a Serb candidate should remain the CIPS Director (since Skrbic is a Serb). (NB: DL's headline is misleading since the article does not mention that a Bosniak is the Deputy Director, it mentions that a Bosniak is Assistant Director).

NN int with BiH Presidency and SDS member Paravac: Goal of BiH lawsuit against SiCG is to abolish RS	Nezavisne Novine pg 5, announced on cover 'The goal of lawsuit against SiCG is to abolish RS' by A. Susic – in a page-long interview to NN, BiH Presidency member and SDS member Borislav Paravac claims the goal of the BiH lawsuit against SiCG is to abolish the RS, adding there is no chance the Court would reach a verdict that would be favourable for BiH. He also believes the talks on constitutional changes have strengthened antagonism in BiH and this influenced BiH Presidency members as well. He denied his criticism on the work of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs and Minister Mladen Ivanic derived from the conflict between SDS and Ivanic's PDP. Asked whether he thinks The Hague fugitives Ratko Mladic and Radovan Karadzic should be arrested as soon as possible, Paravac said: 'I do not know if there is any other alternative and, if there is, then I would like to discuss it. I think everyone should lay accounts for what they have done. The question is whether people that have been accused have trust in that court'. He reiterated he has no intention to resign from the position of BiH Presidency member and denied there is a possibility SDS would break apart in two pieces.
