Leaders of four ruling political parties (HDZ, SDA, SDS, PDP) started a two-day meeting in Neum

RHB, BHT, TV Pink, TV Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'To avoid talks on hot constitutional issues' – A two-day meeting of leaders of four ruling political parties (HDZ, SDS, SDS and PDP) started in Neum on Tuesday. The representatives of the Party for BiH publicly cancelled their participation at the meeting. Leaders of SDS and PDP, Dragan Cavic and Mladen Ivanic still firmly believe that reforms in BiH are possible without constitutional changes. On the other side, SDA President Sulejman Tihic emphasizes that BiH can establish an efficient and cheap government structures only through adequate constitutional changes. According to Chairman of the BiH Presidency Borislav Paravac, the ruling parties have agreed not to talk about hot constitutional issues at the meeting in Neum.

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Covic expects agreement on BiH CoM' also reports on the start of the meeting in Neum. According to the daily, Croat member of the BiH Presidency Dragan Covic expects a lot from the meeting particularly when it comes to the functioning of BiH CoM and Parliament.

Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Ready to resolve all problems' by V. C – carries statements of Dragan Covic and Dragan Cavic on Neum meeting.

Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'We do not want to participate in political trades' by A. Sisic – carries an interview with Party for BiH President Safet Halilovic in which he had confirmed the party would not attend Neum meeting because there is a danger this would not be a discussion on the announced topic but just a political trade far from eyes of political public.

Terzic: Ivanic has no courage to continue with the reforms

Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Ivanic has no courage to continue with the reforms' by S. Numanovic – Commenting the statements made by BiH Foreign Minister in resignation, Mladen Ivanic, on PDPs decision to stick to 4 principles [see BiH Media Round-up for Feb 23], the Chair of the Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, says in an interview to DA that he tries not to communicate with his ministers through media, however "the conditions that Ivanic made public two days ago were, in my opinion, the conditions of the politicians who has no idea what to do." He further reminds that the BiH authorities anyway reach decisions through consensus, that Dayton Peace Agreement has been respected and that he completely opposes the efforts to take over responsibility from the international community for the time being. Chair of CoM says Ivanic has no courage to continue with reforms, thus tries to maintain BiH's current position. "Quickly I am going to make decision on resignations offered [in CoM]. After these political statements, I am the closest to accepting Mladen Ivanic resignation," concludes Terzic.

Nezavisne novine pg 5, announced on cover 'I will remove Ivanic because he is reform brakeman' by M. Cubro – carries a statement of CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic saying he would accept Mladen Ivanic's resignation.

HDZ's Covic on Neum mtg	Vecernji List pg 3 'BiH needs thorough changes' by Z. Kresic carries that HDZ, SDA, SDS and PDP delegations started negotiations on Tuesday evening in Neum and adoption of joint conclusions has been expected today. Croat member of the BiH Presidency Dragan Covic stated: 'The right message and conclusion of the Neum meeting would be that we managed to recognize real problems and to express joint readiness to resolve these problems.' Covic also confirmed that people from SBiH did not inform him about their non-coming. Asked to comment on conditions set by SBiH and open SDA demands for abolishment of the RS, what would certainly cause that the Serb side gives up the negotiations, Covic said that the contents of the Neum meeting was agreed as early as in December and he added: 'All those who set conditions show the best their wish to 'resolve' the problem.'

Rozic – Commenting on the fact that the President of SBiH, Safet Halilovic, will not be attending the Neum meeting, Nebojsa Novakovic (SDS) stated that Halilovic's position was unserious considering the fact that Halilovic is a member of the BiH Council of Ministers, therefore Halilovic should be showing the political will to participate in meetings that should take BiH out of crisis. On a similar note, Jelena Djurkovic (PDP) says: "Halilovic's failure to show up at the meeting, at which solutions could get closer, shows the inconsistency of policy the SBiH has been running".

NN op-ed on Neum meeting: Meeting without agenda

Nezavisne novine op-ed pg 7 'Meeting without agenda' by Mirza Cubro – The author refers to the Neum meeting, stressing that the formulation of main topic (functioning of executive and legislative authority) is clumsy, and also that none of political officials wanted to be specific about possible discussion. The author wishes if only Neum meeting would discuss the issue of abolishing the institution of BiH Presidency, since its three members are doing nothing to assist the citizens of BiH. He also notes the political officials now have a chance to raise the issue on abolishment of cantons, which Suljman Tihic and Barisa Colak would not accept for sure, but would instead demand abolishment of entities, which RS side would not accept. He is critical of BiH Parliaments and Governments, noting their main task is to ensure an expensive and nice illustration of the state existence.

However, says Rehn, the Commission has always believed that the key element of the rule of law is the cooperation with the ICTY. Welcoming recent surrender of indictee Savo Todovic, Commissioner says that much is left to be done stressing the importance of the police reform. "In the Feasibility Study, the EC requested the structural reforms of the police forces and their rationalization. That is especially important as BiH citizens deserves police that functions well. In order to reach that goal, all legal and budgetary competencies must be transferred to the state level. Also, politics must not interfere in police work," reads the letter. bill on internal affairs

RHB, BHT, TV Hayat, FTV, Oslobođenje pg 6 '265 military facilities to go on sale', Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'The groundlessly de-certified policemen can return to work', Dnevni List pg 4 'Proposal of Law on interior affairs adopted' by J. Petrovic – House of Representatives of the Federation of BiH Parliament on Tuesday adopted a bill on internal affairs under an urgent procedure. BiH Federation Interior Minister Mevludin Halilovic has said the law has been harmonized with the current activities aimed at setting up a single police force at the level of BiH. The deputies adopted an amendment put forward by the Bosnian Party, which envisages that policemen, for whom it is proven in court that they were stripped of their certificates groundlessly, can keep their jobs or seek new jobs in police bodies. The OHR suggested to the house to adopt the bill without any amendments so that its essence is not violated and so that a consensus is reached at the level of BiH. The deputies rejected a bill on BiH Federation police officers, which was discussed under an urgent procedure. They adopted a bill on real estate owned by the BiH Federation Defence Ministry and Army. The law allows for the sale of expensive facilities not in use.

Kozina – The Federation of BiH House of Representatives did not adopt at its session held on Tuesday an amendment to a proposal of the Law on police officers, which would according to the opinion of decertified policemen prevent discrimination during hiring in police services. Sulic also said that after the Steering Board meeting on Friday this Association would officially announce filing a lawsuit against BiH at the Human Rights Court in Strasbourg. They also announce blockade of a border crossing. The policemen also say that they consulted experts in Strasbourg and it is possible that they will also file the lawsuit against High Representative Paddy Ashdown soon because of violation of provisions and abuse of the European Charter.

The High Representative will be seeking to clarify the debate about police reform. It's important everyone understands what the issues are – and what they are not, the spokesperson of the OHR, Kevin Sullivan, told a press conference in Sarajevo on Tuesday. "Police restructuring is about removing politics from policing. And it's about making the police more efficient", said Sullivan, adding that this can only be achieved by removing the things that prevent the police from doing their jobs – such as: inadequate funding, irrational organization, and political interference. Successful police reform will also have a positive impact on a variety of related areas. The European Commission has said that establishing an efficient, and democratic police system at the state level is a pre-requisite for further progress towards eventual EU accession. "Without police restructuring there also cannot be any change in the EU's visa requirements for BiH citizens", underlined Sullivan. EuroBlic RSpG 7 'Politicians obstruct policemen' by M.P. – carries extracts from the interview Paddy Ashdown, HR to BiH, gave to Gradiska Radio Station.
