Elections;
constitutional changes not on

BH Radio 1 by Mustafa Karahmet – At its Thursday's session, BiH House of Representatives discusses amendments to the BiH Law on Elections in the first reading. Reporter notes that this is the largest number of amendments to this Law, adding there are about 50 of them, to the draft law proposed by the Working Group. Authorized commission accepted 24 of them, which became the integral part of the draft law. Deputies used their procedural right and submitted 29 more amendments that are to be discussed in the second reading. Reporter says that the greatest changes in the Law will be a raise of electoral threshold from 3% to 4%, as well as introduction of the passive registration of voters. Karahmet concludes that contrary to the expectations, BiH HoR would not discuss agreement on constitutional changes in this session, adding that this is though the main topic of informal talks during the breaks. RHB – BiH HoR is expected to discuss the issue of appointment of members of Steering Board of Public RTV service of BiH.

RSNA in session, discussing BiH lawsuit against SCG and constitutional changes	BH Radio 1 by Brana Markovic – At its Thursday's extraordinary session RS National Assembly will discuss the BiH lawsuit against SCG for aggression and genocide before the International Court of Justice [ICJ]. In his address to the RSNA, BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac stated that this lawsuit is illegal and illegitimate, for it is supported only by one part of BiH. Qualifying lawsuit as an issue of great importance for both RS and BiH, Paravac called on diplomatic solution, adding that the epilogue, no matter what it would be, could only complicate relations within BiH and with neighboring SCG. BiH House of Peoples Deputy Speaker Goran Milojevic addressed RSNA with the same stances. Second part of discussion is reserved for the activities of the RS team regarding request of BiH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic that BiH Constitutional Court reassess the constitutionality of RS insignia. After addresses of SDS leader Dragan Cavic and SNSD leader Milorad Dodik, RSNA will discuss information on participation and end of negotiations between political parties on constitutional changes in the afternoon.

RS Parties mainly support changes, as long as they preserve RS institutions; Radicals deem that this endangers RS

RTRS by Zorica Rulj– Although it is still unknown when would the representatives in both houses of the BiH Parliament discuss the proposed changes to the BiH Constitution, many political parties have already made their stances clear. SDS has announced that it would make a decision on constitutional changes at the session of party's Main Board scheduled for Saturday, March 25. RS Democratic Party supported the agreement on constitutional changes, emphasizing that "as long as RS has a Government, Parliament and a President" the concept of changes in acceptable. On the other hand, representatives of Serb Radical Party deem that the amendments to the Constitution endanger the very existence of RS; they want RS National Assembly to discuss and reject the amendments, or to make a decision on a referendum on proposed changes. BHT 1 – Chair of RS Helsinki Committee Branko Todorovic says that it is important that an agreement was made and adds that constitution will probably get new amendments when BIH gets closer to the EU. Nezavisne Novine pg 8 inset 'Support to agreement constitutional changes', Glas Srpske pg 5 'No reason to fear' by D.Mo. – reports on RS Democratic party. Glas Srpske pg 5 'A door for abolishment open' by D.Mo. – Radicals opposed.

In regard to RS, there is no need to change its legal-constitutional status, nor it will be changed." Regarding police reform, Dodik underlined that if it is not brought back to the frame of the agreement ratified by BiH Parliament, the talks can be ceased no matter of the consequences.
SDA leader Tihic: many compromises had to be made, agreement has parliamentary majority	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Agreement has parliamentary majority' by M.K.S.– SDA leader Sulejman Tihic addressed the Youth Association of SDA and said that he is certain that agreement on constitutional changes would get majority in BiH parliament. He stressed that most important issue of these changes is that BiH now has the state authorities and Council of Ministers, which is equivalent to Governments of European countries. BHT 1 – Tihic added that compromises had to be made during talks on constitutional changes. "We don't need laws that will not have the support of at least a certain number of deputies", says Tihic. Dzaferovic rejected prior announcements that BiH HoR could discuss this at Thursday’s session, stressing that passing of amendments would not prolong date of announcement or of holding of October elections, since amendments to BiH Election Law foresee shortening of the deadline for announcing of elections from 170 to 150 days. This means that BiH Election Commission would announce the elections on May 4 instead of April 14. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Dzaferovic: Agreement is not in agenda’ by A.M. – also carries.

Police Directorate Steering Board submits four proposals on future police model; SB decides to forward Dodik's demand to the CoM

RTRS– The Steering Board of the Police Reform Directorate has discussed the proposals for the concept of future police structure in BiH at the session on Wednesday. Four models of possible future structure of BiH police forces have been presented; according to the Steering Board Chair Sead Lisak, three proposals are based on police organization at the two levels, state and local, while the RS Police proposal includes the third level – entities and Brcko District. But since RS Police Director Dragomir Andan did not explain his proposal, Steering Board decided to continue the discussion on April 5, concluded Lisak. Members of the Steering Board have decided that RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik's demand for changes of decisions regarding the work of Directorate should be forwarded to the BiH Council of Ministers. Dodik requested that CoM decisions on the work of Directorate should be harmonized with the agreement on the police reform; he is discontented with the way members of the Steering Board are elected, with the authorities of BiH CoM and Ministry of Security, and with participation of international representatives in the work of the Police Reform Directorate. PINK, Hayat, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Dodik's request before Council of Ministers' by V. FBiH HoP session interrupted before vote on Law on FBiH public broadcasting service; Croat Caucus demands three channels

FTV – Chair of FBiH House of Peoples Slavko Matic interrupted the session of FBiH HoP on Wednesday afternoon before vote on the proposal law on the FBiH Public Broadcasting Service. He explained that there were no conditions for any amendments to win the majority support, or to have quorum on the law itself. Hayat – The Croat Caucus insisted on a single service with three channels, which the proposal of law does not foresee. Namely, the proposal of law foresees financially sustainable and institutionally independent service. “Our aim is to show that the most rational solution is to have TV established at state level, with single service which would broadcast three channels”, said Mate Franjicevic, the Chair of Croat Caucus in the FBiH HoP.
