SFOR requests for new nominees for top military posts, eight out of 18 nominated so far accepted	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHTV, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje pg. 8, mentioned on the front page 'General's rank approved for only 8 officers', Dnevni Avaz front-page, pg 3 '10 generals did not pass SFOR vetting', Vecernji List, SFOR wants new names of generals', by Dejan Jazvic, Blic p 12 'Generals failed in vetting process' – On Thursday SFOR confirmed that they had finished the check up on candidates for BiH future BiH armed forces' generals, but because of insufficient number of candidates that fulfil the conditions, they had asked for a new list. According to SFOR Spokesperson Dave Sullivan a number of candidates had failed to pass the check up and names of some of them should never be on this kind of list. He said that in spite of SFOR recommendations, for some positions alternative names weren't nominated, because of which in cases where only one candidate was proposed, and that one didn't pass, Minister of Defence had no other options.

Radovanovic on SFOR vetting	FTV – Commenting on SFOR’s refusal to accept proposed candidates, BiH Minister of Defence Nikola Radovanovic reiterated there were 19 candidates suggested by Ministry of Defense and only 8 satisfied criteria’s of IC. Except mentioning general Cvijetko Savic who was recently removed by High Representative, Minister Radovanovic did not want to say names of other candidates who did not pass the check. “For those persons who did not fulfil IC’s criteria’s this check will have serious consequences for their carrier and status in armed forces and that is the reason why we in Ministry of Defense decided not to present those names in the public because it is not correct persons to find out about these things trough the medias”, said Nikola Radovanovic. RTRS, Dnevni Avaz front page, pg. 3, Slobodna Dalmacija, page 8 ‘End of military careers for ten senior officers in BiH’, by H, Dnevni List, page 3 ‘Of 19 offered candidates, ten don’t, eight do pass, one loses job’, by R.R., Nezavisne novine cover and page 3 ‘Eight out of nineteen officers got SFOR clearance’ also carried Radovanovic’s statement.

FBiH Government passed draft Law on Defence	Herceg Bosna Radio, FTV, Oslobođenje pg. 4 'Regular military service of four months', Slobodna Dalmacija p 15, "4-month military service only", by Dinko Pasic – Reason for adopting the new Law on FBiH Defence, which was accepted on Thursday in form of proposal by FBiH Government and sent to Parliamentary procedure, is the necessity to harmonise that Law with BiH Law on Defence. With the state Law, which is in force since last year, BiH has taken over the military responsibilities of FBiH, so that FBiH sovereignty and territorial integrity, political independency and international subjectivity within BiH would be protected. New draft Law explains that FBiH Army is a part of BiH armed forces, which acts not only on protection of the Entity but of whole State. FBiH Army is under a control and command of BiH Presidency and Entity Minister has no authority of operative commanding. In accordance to Laws of FBiH and BiH, FBiH Army can conduct tasks in extraordinary circumstances, like are elementary dangers and other accidents. It was pointed that FBiH Army has developed from BiH Army and HVO and is composed of two Divisions. The military service in FBiH Army lasts four months and six for those who call up on complaint of conscience and the circle of those who can be liberated from military service is also expanded.

Zlatko Lagumdzija on accession to PfP	Blic p 12 'Small chances for the Partnership' – 'Chances for BiH to fulfill preconditions for the admission to PfP and to sign an agreement on joining to EU are small', the President of SDP party, Zlatko Lagumdzija, stated during a press conference yesterday. According to Lagumdzija, one of the basic preconditions BiH must fulfill to be admitted to PfP is extraditing of war crimes suspects to the Hague Tribunal, however it is unlikely this would happen in the following month and a half. He claims BiH would hardly succeed in fulfilling 16 preconditions set by EU because this foresees enacting of 48 laws and establishing of 25 institutions at the state level. 'This country is under a mortgage and it is not directed by democratically elected representatives but by the High Representative and International Community', Lagumdzija stated. Dnevni List, back page 'The Hague – obstacle to entering EU', by A. Speaking about the measures taken by the BiH authorities towards joining the European Union, Terzic acquainted the British minister with the reforms implemented in the areas of defence, security, and tax and customs administration, the Council of Ministers of BiH said. These reforms have achieved considerable progress in strengthening state institutions and raising economic competences onto the state level. Terzic thanked MacShane for the support and aid extended by Great Britain to BiH, the statement said. DL says it almost impossible to expect that BiH will follow example of Croatia	Dnevni List , page 2 'BiH rushing slowly', by Nermin Bise – reflecting on the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown's , statement, in which the HR suggested that BiH should be following the example of Croatia when it comes to joining Euro-Atlantic integration, the author notes it is too bold and almost impossible to expect that BiH will follow in Croatia's footsteps. Bise explains that Croatia has consistency, noting that the current Croatian PM Sanader continued where the former PM Racan had left off. In that context, Bise says such political wisdom, that would bring benefits to BiH, is hard to achieve with the current powers-that-be in BiH.
DL's Statement of Day: HR Ashdown	Dnevni List , page 2, carries in its 'Statement of Day', the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown , as saying: 'If there are obstacles to future of BiH, the RS is put in danger' .

FBiH Government adopts draft law on veteran's rights	Herceg Bosna Radio, FTV, Oslobođenje pgs. 4-5 'HVO members still allow to receive assistance from Croatia' – The draft Law on Veterans' Rights and rights of their families was accepted by FBiH Government on Thursday and it was sent to Parliamentary procedure. This Law was developed in accordance with FBiH Government's reforms' determinations in area of social policy and it was made on the basis of realistic financial means at the Federation disposal. The Law provides the essential financial protection for this population. Dnevni List, front and page 5 'Single law on rights of defenders and invalids of war soon', by Miso Relota – reads that a Proposal of law on rights of defenders and members of their families, which was determined yesterday by the FBiH Government and forwarded to the FBiH Parliament for adoption in an urgent procedure, has been completed pursuant to reform dedication of the FBiH Government when it comes to social policy and realistic capabilities. According to the FBiH Deputy PM and Finance Minister, Dragan Vrankic, a progress has been achieved in terms of balancing several issues, noting that not everybody will be happy. 'My position is that everyone in the FBiH, on basis of this law, has rights', explains Vrankic, noting that his only reservation is the limit set by the World Bank, which says the maximum amount that can be allocated for the purpose is 300 million KMs. Vecernji List, page 3 'Three hundred million for defenders', by D. Jazvic, Slobodna Dalmacija, page 15 'Invalids with highest degree of disability to get 734 KMs a month', by Dinko Pasic – notes that the basis for calculation of pensions is set at 734 KMs, and that each pension varies depending on the degree of disability. Dnevni List, page 5 'Law adopted without consent of HVIDRA', by Ivica Glibusic – according to President of HVIDRA, Andjelko Barun, and Zdravko Barisic, who participated in harmonization of the Proposal of law on rights of defenders, the FBiH Minister for Defenders' Issues, Ibrahim Nadarevic, presented the FBiH Government the Proposal of law which is not entirely harmonized. According to Beslic, 'we did not harmonize everything, at least not when I was within the working group. After that, there were meetings at higher levels'. Beslic notes he does not know whether something was agreed upon at higher levels. Oslobođenje pgs. 4-5, mentioned on the front page 'Bosniaks satisfied, Croats wait for explanations' also carries first reactions by the representatives of the veteran's associations to the adopted draft law on veteran's rights. The daily speculates that if the disputed word shehid (Muslim fighter) remained in the draft, if the issue of 7,000 defenders who are exercising their rights in Croatia has not been resolved and if the issue of revision (of lists of beneficiaries) has not been resolved as well, the Croat veterans cannot be satisfied.

Dokic on PBS	BHTV, RTRS – BIH Minister of Transport and Communications Branko Dokic said he was not able to participate at the session of the Economic Board and pointed he had received support of the Chairman and a promise to held a session of the Board next week. At the session Law on PBS should be first point of agenda. "Unfortunately this morning was impossible to organize this session, many members have not been present here, and I was very dissatisfied with this fact", said Branko Dokic. With possible obstructions and conflict with European Commission about the way of collecting means for PBS' financing, Minister Dokic believes adoption of the Law is not endangered. Dokic denied speculations he works against establishing BIH Public Broadcasting Service. "I am for PBS BIH which will have its own frequency, its own program broadcasted on entire territory of BIH", said Minister Dokic. Two years after being established Public Broadcasting Service of BIH still broadcasts only 27 minutes of program daily.

Jelavic on hunger strike	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHTV, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje pg. 7, mentioned on the front page 'Jelavic rejects to cooperate' – Former member of BiH Presidency, Ante Jelavic on Thursday went on hunger strike in prison Kula, where he is in detention for three months now. He is striking because the decision of BiH Constitutional Court on temporally ceasing of criminal investigation against him is not being respected. Lawyer of Ante Jelavic, Josip Muselimovic said that this decision applies also to investigation against Miroslav Prce, former FBiH Minister of Defence. Both of them are being prosecuted because of so called Herzegovina Bank's case. He explained that they are held in custody illegally, because the decision of BiH CC was to be implemented immediately, meaning on April 19th. Slobodna Dalmacija, front page splash and page 3 'Jelavic begins hunger strike', by Z. Tulic also covered the issue. SD notes that Prosecutor John McNair said that the BiH Constitutional Court's decision was not binding the BiH Court. According to him, part of charges that deal with establishment of the Croat self-rule and Hercegovacka bank case are not brought into question. Similar article in Dnevni List, front and page 2 'Judiciary and justice in hands of Constitutional Court or Prosecutor McNair?', by N. Interview – RS Special Police Commander, Dragan Lukac	Nezavisne novine cover and pages 4 and 5 ‘Paddy Ashdown set a dead line for RS authorities to arrest three PIFWCs before May 1’; RS Special Police Commander Dragan Lukac stated, “No one didn’t set a dead line for me. Dead line is set for politicians and high ranked people to prove co-operation with ICTY. Three names were given. They must be arrested before May 1, if they want to keep positions and BiH to join Partnership for Peace. Ashdown made it clear who will be responsible. Everybody knows what will happen. Unfortunately, when it comes to arresting PIFWCs, authorities give verbal support only to RS Ministry of Interior./ All of them are advertising themselves on TV. They sign agreements but when come back all of them say – we are doing this because of International Community. We are not ready to arrest our people./ There are no information coming from RS Intelligence or any other institution because they do not want to get involved. We have asked for information on more than one occasion, both verbally and in written. If we had had top quality information we would have known who is in the house./ We had order from Srpsko Sarajevo District Court to search the house of Mile Lukic, father of Milan Lukic, and to arrest Milan and Sredoje Lukic if find them. Different ways of doing it are written in Court order. One of them is this one. All information we had on Milan Lukic showed that we needed to surprise them in order to have successful action. He is armed and dangerous person who will put resistance”. Lukic said that two cameras recorded the action. One was taken away. The other tape was given to media. He added that It was obvious that cameraman was professional and that someone has told him about the action.
RS Intelligence was not informed on Visegrad	Nezavisne novine page 6 ‘RS Intelligence didn’t know about Visegrad action’; RS Intelligence didn’t know about RS Special Police action in Visegrad, therefore, it could not participate in execution as well, said RS Intelligence Deputy Director, Trifko Buha. He didn’t want to comment allegation of RS Police Director, Radomir Njegus, who said that RS MoI does not get information from RS Intelligence.

Dani examines police action in Visegrad	Dani pgs 22-24 'Funeral of the wrong man' by Rajko Zivkovic – Article refers to the RS police action carried out last week in Visegrad, in which Novica Lukic, a brother of the ICTY suspect Milan Lukic, was killed. Author reads that there were several illogical things to point out to regarding the action. Firstly, says author, there is a question why – as the action had an aim to locate war crimes suspect – the indictee was not found, but an innocent man killed. Secondly, author wonders why "Novica Lukic was killed by RS Interior Ministry SWAT officers from Banja Luka, and not someone from Visegrad?" [article argues that Visegrad police officers knew how both Novica and his brother looked like, while "SWAT team members are 'programmed' to shoot at the first person that opens the door."] Criticising that the fact that suspects are being looked for in their own houses, instead of being searched for widely, author concludes that it was one thing have SFOR "injure priest and his son, but it is entirely different when local uniformed people strike at local non-uniformed unarmed people."

Ljiljan claims RS police did not want to arrest, but kill Milan Lukic	Ljiljan cover 'War crimes: Instead of Milan Lukic, police kills his brother Novica Lukic', pgs 28&29 'Instead of Milan Lukic, SWAT killed his brother Novica' by investigative team – Referring to the police action in Visegrad, and the murder of Novica Lukic, brother of ICTY suspect Milan Lukic, Ljiljan magazine carries that "the aim of RS police was not to arrest but to eliminate [liquidate] Milan Lukic... Lukic was to be silenced forever and document with which he threatens to police and political RS authorities, but also some international representatives involved with the crime in BiH, was to be destroyed." Outlining Milan Lukic's biography, Ljiljan carries that he was heavily involved with the drug smuggling operation of narcotic cartel of Montenegrin brothers Radulovic and its circles "that undoubtedly includes top of RS MoR", which is one of the reasons his death is allegedly wanted. Secondly, Ljiljan says that "according to reliable information, Milan Lukic has connections with ICTY investigators, but he conditioned his surrender with giving the Court 'fat file' he possesses which gives names of those who ordered crimes in East Bosnia, than on involvement of domestic [SDS leadership] and international officials in smuggling of cigarettes, drugs and other high tariff goods, and well documented contacts of certain, highly ranked, foreigners with war crimes suspects, including Radovan Karadzic."

SB says Djeric ordered action in Visegrad in a trial to save his position	Slobodna Bosna pgs 5-7 'Police should kill Milan Lukic – his brother Novica was mistakenly killed instead' by Suzana Andjelic and Senad Avdic – In a light of consequences of police action in Visegrad, in which Novica Lukic was killed, article reminds of RS Interior Minister Zoran Djeric's statement given following the SFOR action in Pale [in which a priest and his son were injured] saying that the incident would never happen if RS MoI was involved. Noting this ironic development of situation, SB says that it is only now clear how much planning went into successful SFOR actions to arrest ICTY suspects. Magazine also disputes Djeric's statement that he was not involved in the action, claiming it learned from reliable sources inside RS MoI that Djeric is the most responsible person for Visegrad action, as he was trying to save his position. "Day before the action in Visegrad, in a fear for his minister's position, Djeric bagged [Paddy] Ashdown in OHR not to dismiss him promising that he would, in turn, arrest somebody form the Hague list of suspects within seven days," reads the article, also noting that police went totally unprepared in Visegrad without not only confirmed information that Milan Lukic was therefore, but also without knowing at the time how he looked. Finally, SB says according to their RS MoI sources, the incident is used by both police and political authorities to get rid of Commander of the SWAT team, Dragan Lukac, who was allegedly never forgiven for sidelining with Biljana Plavsic in straggle with crime. As for Milan Lukic, SB says that according to the ICTY sources, he lives in Monte Negro dealing drugs and has been in contact with the ICTY offering them information on Radovan Karadzic and crime activities of both local and international officials.

Commander Mladen Micic has ordered it. Predrag Bijelic was killed in RS Police Hajducke vode action on August 19, 2003. RS Government on media campaign against new Srebrenica Commission chair	Blic p 12 ‘Bogdanic stays’ – ‘Milan Bogdanic, against whom a media campaign has been launched in the Federation of BiH, has been a member of the Srebrenica Commission for four months and has passed a vetting process of the international community. Therefore, I don’t see a reason why his name is being mentioned in a negative context’, the Spokesperson of the Prime Minister, Goran Radivojac, stated. He pointed out that the RS Government had no intention to withdraw Bogdanic from Srebrenica Commission and he will remain at the position of the Commission President.
Dani on Ashdown’s move following Srebrenica Commission report	Dani pg 16 ‘Bosnian Barometer’ column – Dani magazine awarded the High Representative Paddy Ashdown with ‘one star’ [mark for good move] for removing Secretary of the RS Government Secretariat for relations with ICTY, Dejan Miletic, and general Cvjetko Savic, Chief of RS Army HQ, and demands for removal of Marko Arsovic from position of the Srebrenica Commission Chairman. The action followed the preliminary report of the Commission appointed to investigate events in Srebrenica in July 1995, which outlined that the work of the Commission has been obstructed in its work.

SB claims Cavic's advisor Jovan Cizmovic obstructs Srebrenica Commission	Slobodna Bosna pgs 23-25 'Cavic's advisor Cizmovic toured Ashdown around Krajina concentration camps during the war!' by Suzana Andjelic – Noting moves by HR Paddy Ashdown following preliminary Srebrenica Commission report were “pointless”, article reads that the “most absurd thing is that Ashdown demands [RS President Dragan] Cavic's advisor Jovan Cizmovic to supervise drafting of the [final] report, who is the most responsible that Commission did not achieve any results to date.” Articles says that at the meeting held last year in Jablan [not naming attendees] politicians “agreed that the real chief ‘from shadow’ of the Commission is... Jovan Cizmovic” and tasked him to obstruct the Commission. Outlining Cizmovic biography, SB sees this lawyer from Banja Luka to be one of the most powerful politicians in RS since early '90s. Accused of being a close associate of Radovan Karadzic, Slobodan Milosevic, etc in the part, article points to his presence nowadays and says that after “a tip from informer that OHR could soon ban SDS... Cizmovic has agreed with SDS leader Dragan Kalinic on new strategy... establishing new party called Democratic Party of Srpska to be promoted in RS soon.” Finally, SB says it learned from well informed sources in SDS that there is a plan to appoint Cizmovic as new RS Prime Minister, while removal of Dragan Mikerevic is to take place in May. “Our sources claim that Paddy Ashdown already promised Kalinic to support Cizmovic's appointment.. as Ashdown is very close to him since 1992 when Cizmovic was his host in Krajina where he toured Serb concentration camps and prisons upon Karadzic's invitation.”

Feral Tribune on the RS attitude to war crimes	In light of recent developments in the RS regarding the war crimes-related issues (Srebrenica Commission, SFOR raids, RS Police operation in Visegrad) as well as the ICTY trials to Serb(ian) officials, Feral Tribune, p 32-33, "From autism to genocide", by Ivan Lovrenovic, comments that it is impossible to be certain of what RS activities on the issue mean: spectacular turn and final beginning of the Serb cooperation with the Hague or an opportunity for all sorts of internal showdowns under cover of profitable obedience to the International Community. As for the Srebrenica Commission issue, Lovrenovic says one cannot help the impression that the High Representative Paddy Ashdown himself got involved into a very risky adventure of political backroom dealing with Srebrenica, unaware of the possibility that this becomes a very unpleasant spot in his career. The article concludes by saying that experience teaches us that one should not exaggerate with perspectives of the frequent and ever bigger bills the RS is to collect: one should not hope for their spectacular political effects, especially with such a vague IC administration. Lovrenovic says that the issue of a choice is being dramatized: should one accept changes that are key to the "health of the nation" or to become even more autistic?

PM Sanader stressed that Croatia should not interfere into political affairs in BiH, noting that Croatia should be consulted about the strategy of the Croat component in BiH. VL: "HDZ BiH and Croatian HDZ will cooperate even

Vecernji list, front splash & p 3 'HDZ BiH and Croatian HDZ will cooperate even more', not signed carries that, in the shadow of the SEECP Summit held in Sarajevo, the delegation of the Republic of Croatia met with the Croat representatives of the state and FBiH authorities. During the meeting, both delegations emphasized that neither of them wanted to interfere in other country's internal affairs but that they did want to help solve problems through a constructive dialogue. Apart from economic cooperation, the issue of education was discussed particularly in light of the fact that Croatian prime Minister Ivo Sanader had met with the High Representative Paddy Ashdown on the matter some days before. Dragan Covic, member of the BiH Presidency, says for VL that the two delegations share the view that neither survival of Mostar Sveuciliste (Croat University) nor primary and secondary education in Croat(ian) language must be brought into question. HDZ BiH leadership was invited to attend the Congress of Croatian HDZ. In a meeting of Croatian Prime Minister Sander with Cardinal Vinko Puljic, there were talks about some initiatives aimed at prevention of weakening of the position of the Croat people in BiH bodies of authority, particularly on the entity level.

Tihic says local administrations too big and inefficient

Dnevni List, page 6 'Inefficient administration makes BiH road towards Europe harder', by Vedran Vujovic, Vecernji List, page 2 'Local authorities should be made cheaper', by E. Medunjanin – Chairman of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic, speaking at a conference of mayors and heads of municipalities held in Sarajevo yesterday, stated that a reform to administration in BiH was necessary because the current system is inefficient, huge and expensive. According to Tihic, development of the local self-government is one of post-accession obligations towards the Council of Europe on which further progress towards Euro-Atlantic integration largely depends. Sarajevo media also reported on the issue.

DL on Mostar Statute
implementation

Dnevni list, p 11, "No political will for new Statute implementation", by N. Bise, carries that the implementation of the new Statute of Mostar, imposed by the High Representative Paddy Ashdown, has not even started.

Moreover, the City Council of Mostar has met only once since the HR's Decision came into force and it seems that everyone is running away from the responsibility and commitments with regard to the Statute implementation.

The daily learns that the International Community (IC) does not even want to put the Statute before the City Council for its deliberation as the IC is of the view that there is not enough political will to adopt it. Except for the Mayor and Deputy Mayor of Mostar who are responsible for the implementation, dilemma remains on what the role of the City Council would be. "I have pointed several times that we might be facing a time limit and told the things we must do. What causes a certain burden is that that we are aware of the mechanisms of the IC, i.e. financial sanctions and the ones in the form of removals ", Ivan Musa, the Chairman of the City Council says.
