Constitutional reform
Austrian Presidency welcomes adoption of const. amendments by BiH HoR CLAC	RHB, FTV, TV Hayat, TV Pink, BHT1, RTRS, Oslobođenje pg 2 'Support to constitutional reform' not signed , Dnevni List pg 2 'EU welcomes the decision of Constitution – Legal Affairs Commission' not signed , Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'EU supports the process of constitutional reforms in BiH' by A. M. – Austrian Presidency, on behalf of EU, welcomed the adoption of constitutional amendments by BiH House of representative's Constitutional-Legal Affairs Commission [CLAC]. Austrian Presidency reminded that the adoption of constitutional amendments in BiH Parliament would demonstrate further readiness of BiH to adopt and implement reforms necessary for BiH citizens.

US Embassy to BiH: const. amendments would strengthen BiH CoM and Parliament	TV Pink – Prior to BiH Parliament session regarding constitutional amendments, which is scheduled for April 25th, US Embassy in Sarajevo stressed one more time the importance of the constitutional changes in BiH. US Embassy reported that the constitutional amendments would strengthen BiH Council of Ministers and BiH Parliament and that BiH Presidency would become more functional due to establishment of one president and two vice presidents who would rotate every sixteen months during four-year mandate. “We call all BiH Parliament Representatives to take the responsibility for making better future for citizens of this country”, US Embassy stated. RHB, TV Hayat, FTV, BHT1, Oslobodjenje pg 2 ‘Appeal to delegates to take the responsibility’ not signed, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Take the responsibility for the making of a better future’ by A. M.– also reported.

US Undersecretary Burns met with HR, urged deputies to adopt const. amendments	RTRS – US Under Secretary for Political Affairs Nicholas Burns asked from BiH to introduce Presidential system instead of current three-member Presidency. During the meeting with High Representative to BiH Christian Schwarz Schilling in WashingtonDC, Burns said that Dayton Peace Agreement should be modernized in order to make BiH normal and single country. Burns welcomed constitutional changes and stressed that the international community should slowly withdraw from BiH and transfer the decision making process onto BiH politicians. “I know that it is the most important that the US is fully engaged in this area. I believe that the US took decisive steps in 1990s in peace establishment so the US has to do the same in 21st century and give one more contribution”, the High Representative said. BHT1 – Burns urged the Parliament deputies to think about the future of their countries and adopt the proposed amendments to BiH Constitution. Oslobodjenje pg 2 ‘Constitutional changes, joint wish of the international community’ not signed, Dnevni List pg 2 ‘Main priority is to complete constitutional changes’ by D. Kozina, Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash ‘Burns: vote for reforms’ and pg 2 ‘Adoption of the amendments is collective wish of the international community’ by A. M. – also reported on the meeting.

Will BiH HoR adopt the amendments to BiH Constitution?	BHT1 – Following the media speculations, which reported that 25 delegates support and 14 delegates oppose the constitutional amendments as well as the decision will depend on votes of the only remaining HDZ deputy Vlatka Komsic, DNZ deputy Ibrahim Djedovic and the independent deputy Sead Avdic, BHT quotes Djedovic as saying that the proposed amendments are not perfect, but he is aware of the responsibility and the need for support to the amendment and he said he was 99% sure he would support the amendments. Avdic and Komsic didn't want to comment their possible votes. BiH Presidency member Ivo Miro Jovic stated that he expected thorough changes of the Constitution, which didn't happen. Still, Jovic believes that the agreed changes represent a progress, and they should be adopted so that the second phase of constitutional reforms can start. Chair of BiH presidency Sulejman Tihic reiterated that, if all deputies come to the Tuesday's session, there will be 27 votes for the amendments.

DL op-ed: HDZ 1990's Raguz will have to decide whether to support const. changes or not	Dnevni List op-ed pg 2 'Troubled Raguz' by Resad Dautevendic – Following the establishment of HDZ 1990 party with Bozo Ljubic and Martin Raguz at the head, the author notes Raguz will have to decide on what is the most favourable thing to do – either to support the first phase of the constitutional reform and gain favour of America, EU and HR to BiH or to act similarly to Haris Silajdzic, who has already lost trust of IC and who is using the constitutional reform to collect points in pre-election campaign, since his only current goal is to come back to the political scene.
HoP delegate and CLAC member Filip Andric decided to leave HDZ over adoption of amendments to BiH Constitution	Dnevni List pg 4 'Filip Andric is leaving BiH HDZ' by Nina – HDZ member, HoP delegate and CLAC member Filip Andric has stated he had decided to leave HDZ because he believes BiH HDZ is working against interests of Croat people because the party had accepted the amendments to BiH Constitution, which put Croat people in an unfavourable position in comparison to the other two constitutive peoples. Asked whether he would join HDZ 1990, Andric said he would join no party and he would decide on his future political activities subsequently.

Party for BiH's Silajdzic: politicians in a hurry to adopt const. changes before verdict in BiH lawsuit vs. SiCG	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Silajdzic: Compensation for Serbia on the expense of BiH' by S. Sp. – Municipal Board of the Party for BiH organised a public tribune on constitutional changes in Ilijas. Party for BiH's Haris Silajdzic and Safet Halilovic, BOSS's Mirnes Ajanovic, SDU's Sefedin Suljevic and Kada Hotic from the Association "Movement of mothers from Srebrenica and Zepa enclaves" addressed the participants of the tribune. Silajdzic focused on the hurry in the adoption of constitutional changes and added: 'they are in a hurry because this is all about the lawsuit for aggression and genocide BiH had filed against SiCG. If a verdict with a legal consequence is pronounces, this might lead to abolishment of the entity created by genocide. Kosovo and Montenegro might be in the game as well', Silajdzic stated.
DNS: political leaders did not have mandate to negotiate on const. changes	RTRS – DNS warned three political leaders from RS who participated in the negotiations on constitutional changes that have to get support of citizens in possible future activities. DNS believes that these political leaders did not have mandate to negotiate on constitutional changes and that their activities are destroying RS.

SDP's Pudaric: all decisions in BiH should be reached by consensus	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'All important decisions should be reached through consensus' by Fena – BiH SDP organised a public tribune on constitutional changes in Ljubuski on Friday. On this occasion, BiH SDP Secretary General and HoP delegate Svetozar Pudaric noted constitutional changes offer more opportunities for BiH to be a partner of EU and he added that all important decisions in BiH should be reached by consensus, i.e. qualified majority.
Face to Face: SDU's Durakovic and SDA's Dzaferovic confront their stances on constitutional amendments	TV Hayat Report by Senad Hadzifejzovic – Central News features Face to Face between SDU member Nijaz Durakovic and SDA member Sefik Dzaferovic. Durakovic opposes constitutional amendments whilst Dzaferovic is in favour of these. Durakovic feels that voting on constitutional amendments will be tight whilst Dzaferovic feels that they will be adopted and included in BiH Election Law by 4 May. Durakovic repeats his stance that the constitutional amendments cement division of BiH whilst Dzaferovic reminds that these amendments are only a first step and adds that the international community supports the amendments.

Former member of Yugoslav Presidency Bogicevic: BiH citizens should have been more involved in the process of constitutional changes	TV Hayat – Former member of Yugoslav Presidency and SDP member Bogic Bogicevic commented on the constitutional amendments by saying BiH citizens should have been more involved in the process. He also says that he expected the amendments to be more thorough and a little “better”. Bogicevic says that the constitutional amendments haven’t erased the results of the war and nation as an organised principle of the state. He concludes that these will be adopted in BiH Parliament regardless of all of this.
TV Hayat poll: will const. amendments be adopted?	TV Hayat poll: Asked whether constitutional amendments would be adopted, 28% of viewers answered “Yes” while 72% of viewers answered “No”. Asked to comment the possible adoption/non adoption of constitutional amendments, most of the citizens said they feel that the amendments will not be adopted and in their opinion they shouldn’t be since they legalise genocide.

War crimes/ security issues

13th anniversary of massacre over Croats marked in Trusina	RHB, BHT1, TV Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 3, announced on cover 'Nobody was ever punished for death of 22 persons' by A. Omeragic, Dnevni list pg 3, announced on cover 'Hague policy forgot about Croat victims' by Anja Vrebac, Vecernji List pg 2 'Jovic: we will process the Trusina crime' by M. Vasilj and I. Kaleb, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Jovic: nobody was held responsible as yet' by M. C. – 13th anniversary since the massacre over 23 Croat civilians and HVO soldiers from Trusina near Konjic has been marked on Saturday. RBiH Army soldiers have massacred them. None of the responsible ones have been sentenced so far. BiH Presidency member Ivo Miro Jovic, representatives of Herzegovina-Neretva Canton Government and Assembly, HDZ, HDU and NHI representatives, as well as representatives of associations of war victims and veterans attended the memorial ceremony. Jovic stated that BiH authorities should take the responsibility and punish all responsible war criminals. He criticized the fact that nobody has been punished for the war crimes committed in Trusina, adding that this probably won't happen at all, since ICTY is going to be closed soon. According to him, courts in BiH are political.

43 victims of Susica camp buried in Vlasenica	BHT1, TV Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje pg 3, announced on cover 'Funeral for 43 murdered Bosniaks from Vlasenica' by S. Smajlovic, Dnevni List pg 3 'No justification for the fact responsible for crimes have not been brought before courts' not signed, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Little daughter Ajla was begging: Let's go mom, I can't take it anymore', announced on cover 'They were killed just because they were of other religion and had different names' by A. Hadzic – Remains of 43 Bosniak victims that were exhumed from mass graves were buried on Saturday in Vlasenica. These victims were killed in camp Susica. Chair of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic, who stated that there is no excuse for the committed crime or the fact that the responsible ones still haven't been punished, attended the funeral ceremony. He stressed that the state institutions will insist on truth and justice for the victims and their families. Murat Hurtic from Tuzla team of BiH Commission for missing persons stated that only one third of victims from Vlasenica have been found so far. Amor Masovic from BiH Commission for missing persons sharply criticized the fact that persons responsible for war crimes are often hiding in other countries, and they are not being extradited to BiH. FTV – So far, only one person has been sentenced for the crimes committed in this area – the commander of Susica camp Dragan Nikolic. RTRS – BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic said that return of refugees and support to their stay is necessary for the reestablishment of the multiethnic structure.
