If we don’t find a solution it won’t be good for BiH”, said Colak. Deadline for the completion of the police reform process is September 2005; if it does not happen, BiH will not start the negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement with the EU. “That is the fact, but it is not the only consequence in case police reform process is not completed in time. BiH

BHT1, Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Changes depend on progress made by domestic authorities', Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'There will be transformation to EUSR', Vecernje Novosti pg 6 'I have not threatened RS' not signed– The High Representative to BiH Paddy Ashdown denied allegations according to which he announced that EU would consider accepting BiH without RS if police reform fails. HR stated that he had never even thought of Cyprus model for BiH's admittance to EU and that BiH will join EU as one state. RTRS by Biljana Knezevic – The speculations that so-called Cypriot model could be implemented in BiH, in other words that only Federation of BiH could join the European Union, are senseless, and I have never discussed something like that, nor have I ever thought about the Cypriot model, RTRS presenter quoted High Representative Paddy Ashdown. On the eve of the new meeting on police reform, Ashdown did not hold talks with the leaders of political parties in Banja Luka , as it was announced earlier.

EC: EU wants united BiH
as its member state/
reactions

Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Europe wants united BiH in its membership' by Vedrana Zivak – EC spokesperson, France Maroevic, stated for Oslobodjenje that EU wants to see united BiH as its member state, adding there was no possibility to have FBiH accepted separately from RS. He also did not want to comment to speculations that HR Paddy Ashdown stated RS was risking being treated as isolated part of Cyprus. However, daily says that in mid May this year Ashdown did compare RS with this part of Cyprus after the failure of police reform talks in Konak. Ruza Sopta, a delegate in BiH HoR, expressed hope BiH authorities will complete the process of police reform, adding she hopes that Ashdown only threatened to RS. SDP Secretary General, Svetozar Pudaric, commented that BiH and Cyprus can never be equally treated adding that this was irresponsible statement on part of Ashdown. Adil Osmanovic from SDA underlined that BiH is one state, adding that Ashdown seems to accept the thesis that RS is an ownership of one people.

Media heavily criticise comparing Cyprus/BiH situations	Dnevni List, pg 7 'Ashdown finishes what Karadzic failed to do!?', by Mensud Zorlak – The author comments on the alleged statement by HR Paddy Ashdown that the RS could end up like the Turkish part of Cyprus (NB: which the HR denied yesterday). Zorlak notes although the HR tried to strike fear into bones of the ruling RS parties prior to the police talks, it produced a completely different result, namely his statement was interpreted as the final division of the country and recognition of the RS's statehood. The author goes on to say that whilst Radovan Karadzic was doing it through aggression, HR Ashdown is doing the same at the end of his mandate under excuse that BiH will get closer to the EU. Vecernji List, pg 5 'Against Cyprus model', by Marijan Ivesa – The author comments the same alleged statement by the HR. Ivesa notes that the statement only caused fierce reactions among the Bosniak politicians from the FBiH, who believe the Cyprus model is the gravest form of undermining of the BiH's territorial integrity. Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 13 'Lord powerless against the Serbs', by Petar Milos – The author comments the same alleged statement by the HR. Milos says the vast majority of Serbs in the RS would not mind such scenario because in that case the invisible entity line would become a state border with Serb customs and police officers. Milos also wonders how come the HR is powerless when it comes to the Serbs' request when he takes care of the Croat-related issues with such ease, citing the issue of RTV laws. Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Ashdown's Cyprus' op-ed by Danijel Omeragic – Daily comments that any comparison BiH/Cyprus was extremely dangerous.

SD: Ljubic wants to form new party	Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 13, mentioned on front ‘Ljubic to destroy Covic with new HDZ?’, by Emil Karamatic – The author notes that Bozo Ljubic, after getting defeated in the HDZ Convention by Dragan Covic two and a half months ago, is now trying to assembly dissatisfied members of the HDZ and form a new political party, which could be called ‘New HDZ’, ‘HDZ 2005’ or even ‘HDZ 1990’. Karamatic notes that analysts say that Ljubic should have done this within five days of completion of the Convention because Covic has in the meantime restored full control over the HDZ.
DL: European People’s Party to visit HDZ	Dnevni List, pg 8 ‘Separate meeting with Covic and Ljubic’, by Zvonimir Jukic – Reports that a senior delegation of the European People’s Party will be visiting the HDZ BiH at the end of August in order to see whether the party has transformed itself into a modern party and see the current state of affairs in the HDZ following the last HDZ Convention. DL says that according to current information, the delegation will be having separate meetings with both Dragan Covic, the HDZ President, and Bozo Ljubic, whom Covic defeated in inter-party elections.
VL: HDZ nominates Jozo Boro as candidate for CBC Education Minister	Vecernji List, pg 2 ‘J. Boro, new education minister’, by adr – Reports that the Cantonal Board of HDZ in Central Bosnia Canton (CBC) has nominated Jozo Boro, a high school teacher and former CBC Deputy Education Minister from Kiseljak, as the party’s candidate for office of CBC Education Minister.

DL: Politicians good at spending taxpayers' money	Dnevni List, pg 2 'Reforms and restaurants', by Ivica Glibusic – The author argues that participants of the police reform are only good at selecting nice tourist destinations for continuation of talks and spending the taxpayers' money, in the same time being pessimistic in positive outcome of the talks.

Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash 'Al-Q'Aida is training terrorists in BiH' and pgs 2-3 'Training of terrorists in BiH' by P. Klinčov – "Cybercast News" Agency [US internet newswires agency] has published a video-tape, for which experts for terrorism claim it shows an active jihad training camp in BiH. The agency also claims terrorists whose previous goal was to attack USA are now in BiH, as well as that terrorists, who were released from prisons after serving their sentences, went to BiH where they joined such camps. Some experts for terrorism say it is possible such camps were organized in hills in BiH, while Marco Atila Hoare from Cambridge University thinks stories about camps in BiH 'were exaggerated'. Inset 'The tape was recorded in autumn 2004' – The agency has stated it had got the video-tape from Gregory Kopley, the Chairman of the Association for International Strategic Studies [MMU note: Kopley often writes articles about possible terrorist activities in the area of the Balkans for Washington based paper "Defense and Foreign Affairs", which often is carried by Serbia based media]. Kopley had stated the footage was made before autumn 2004 and was played for the first time in May 2005 during a meeting of military officials in frame of "2005 Strategy" Global Strategic Forum, which was held in Washington. Inset 'Mektic: We did not revealed presence of terrorists in BIH so far' – Deputy BiH Security Minister Dragan Mektic did not want to comment on findings of the agency since he was on vacation, but he said information collected in past indicated there were no terrorist cells in BiH.
