Terzic, Tihic on
Neum mtg

TV PINK, Glas Srpske pg 5 'Only in accordance with Dayton' by N. Diklic – Chairman of the BiH CoM Adnan Terzic said: "Parties have agreed for PDP to stay within the Parliament majority and I think that it was a good thing to do. I have to take a stance regarding resignations by the end of this month, and now I have to discuss with PDP whether these Ministers are going to stay or PDP is going to propose new ones."

Dnevni Avaz pg 3, announced on cover 'Covic: PDP Ministers remain at BiH CoM'' – Sulejman Tihic, SDA President, confirmed that during the Neum meeting they had also discussed the issue of constitutional changes, adding: "However, representatives of SDS and PDP refused proposals claiming there has been no necessary atmosphere for constitutional changes provided in the RS. Hence, we did open the issue of constitutional changes but we have not agreed on anything."

Cavic, Ivanic, Radmanovic on Neum mtg	RTRS – Acting SDS President Dragan Cavic feels that it is important that political parties held a meeting without the pressure from the International Community. Cavic stated that constitutional changes were mentioned but they were not discussed. PDP Chairman Mladen Ivanic stated that the parties agreed that they will take over running of the country from the international institutions. “With that fact PDP has created conditions for its members to participate in the CoM and in the next few days it will be decided who will personally participate in the work of the CoM”, says Ivanic. Nebojsa Radmanovic Chairman of the SNSD Executive Board stated for RTRS that SNSD does not agree with this stand since the BiH CoM will remain the same. He added that the CoM is not doing its job and therefore it should be changed. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 ‘Ruling parties are just buying time’ by V. P. also carries Radmanovic’s saying that the stances of parties have confirmed that the opposition, which criticized them of not working in accordance with the Constitution, was right.
---	--

Spiric, Djokic, Tesanovic, Popovic on Neum mtg	Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Ruling parties are just buying time' by V. P. – Nikola Spiric from SNSD says it would be too naïve to believe politicians in Neum discussed only resolving of the CoM crisis since RS President Dragan Cavic and outgoing Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic went to Neum to discuss constitutional changes. Petar Djokic (SPRS) thinks the talks in Neum were identical to Mrakovica meeting, which was dedicated to a discussion on constitutional changes. Slobodan Popovic (SDP) warns the ruling parties do not have the right to discuss the constitutional changes under cover of discussion on crisis of the executive authority. Glas Srpske pg 5 'Only in accordance with Dayton' by N. Diklic – Zoran Tesanovic (PDP) has stated the party was satisfied with conclusions adopted at Neum meeting.

Limov, Milic, Bandur, HSP (Djapic-Jurismic) on Neum mtg	RHB -SDP member Tomislav Limov commented on the meeting and stated that the right place for meetings and agreements is the BiH Parliament. An inset (entitled 'SDP: Meeting in Neum was absurd and comical') into Dnevni List pg 3, mentioned on front 'Four leading parties assume responsibility' by NINA also carries Limov as saying that the Neum meeting was absurd and comical, claiming that the authorities are pretending to be doing something by organizing the said meeting. Limov notes that a crisis is one constant thing that has marked the functioning of the current authority. Founder of Croat Christian Democrats, Petar Milic, notes the problem is that the SDA wants a unitary BiH with 5 regions without any authorities, the SDS and other Serb parties want to preserve the RS no matter the cost, whilst it is only the HDZ that is headless, i.e. it has no political position. Vice President of HNZ, Mate Bandur, believes the problem with the HDZ is that certain individuals have monopolized the whole of Croat people without discussions and agreements with other political parties. Similar like HNZ, the HSP (Djapic-Jurismic) expect that all Croat parties should gather in order to reach a consensus about important issues for the Croats.
FTV, BHT 1 on Neum mtg	FTV by I. Pavkovic says that the Neum meeting did not bring any innovations and that HDZ, SDA, SDS and PDP agreed that they will continue work according to principles of Dayton Peace Accord. BHT 1 also says that the police and defence reforms should be subjects of the next meeting announced for March 22 and 23, which will be organized by SDS.

Dnevni List, pg 2 'Children's play', by Erna Mackic – Commenting results of the Neum meeting, the author says, among other issues, why the PDP ministers in the BiH CoM even bothered to submit resignations from the respective posts, when representatives of the other three ruling parties persuaded them in course of two days to give up on the resignations. According to the author, it all reminds of children's games, because of which the whole country is suffering.

Bosniak and Serb
Caucuses at CoP:
Govt elected in accordance with Constitution

TV PINK – The Bosniak Caucus in the RS Council of Peoples, while discussing on decisions of RS National Assemble on nomination of RS Prime Minister and representatives in the Government, has not reached the necessary consensus on starting the issue of protection of national vital interests of Bosniaks. Chairman of the Bosniak Caucus Ramiz Salkic believes that the constitutional procedure was violated while nominating the abovementioned persons. Salkic says that the issue of legitimacy of nominated ministers from Bosniak Caucus arises since they do not belong to any Bosniak party, which has its representatives in the RS National Assembly. Salkic said “There was no consensus in the Caucus for the issue of protection of vital national interest to be started, and unfortunately we are not going to start the procedure.” Serb Caucus has also discussed on nomination of RS Government and it was decided that the Government was nominated in constitutional way.

Also covered by NTV Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni List, pg 2 ‘Bosniaks will not raise issue of appointment of RS Government’, not signed Nezavisne Novine pg 6 ‘RS Government was elected in accordance with the Constitution’ by V. Belgrade round table on DPA	TV Pink, Dnevni List, pg 4 'Dokic: Serb in Republika Srpska are afraid of changes to Dayton', by De. L, Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'Dayton is the greatest failure of the West' by Beta, Glas Srpske pg 3 'From the Dayton to fall-apart?' not signed, EuroBlic pg RS3 'Horrible war for poor peace' by Beta – Serb-American Center organized a round table discussion on Dayton Agreement Wednesday in Belgrade. Professor Professor of the Belgrade Faculty of Political Science Nenan Kecmanovic thinks ethnic cleansing is gradually being completed in peacetime as well. BiH Minister of Communications and Transport Branko Dokic has stated the main problem of BiH is that the population has no trust in those political representatives it had elected because High Representative Paddy Ashdown has greater authorization than any other ruler of any country, considering the fact he has the authority to impose both executive and legislative authority.
---	---

DL: Ashdown out in beginning of summer	Dnevni List, pg 9, mentioned on front 'Ashdown leaves in beginning of summer', by Zvonimir Jukic – DL notes that the current High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, is more and more a target of criticism coming from both the domestic media and intellectuals and international analysts and that diplomatic circles in BiH are often discussing "political misses of the British Lord" among themselves and with leaders of opposition parties in BiH. In that context, DL says there was a private dinner, which was organized at an embassy of one of world powers and which hosted Zlatko Lagumdzija and Milorad Dodik, during which the "wrong policy of the OHR and the need to urgently remedy it" was discussed. DL goes on to say that Ashdown's statement that the RS could not be abolished without the consensus of all three peoples has made Ashdown politically less important and powerful, because the SDS and PDP understood it as if they could, among other issues, block the state institutions and ignore constitutional provisions. This leads the author to say that because of this and other reasons, members of diplomatic circles in BiH believe that Ashdown is a "worn down politician" and that the Peace Implementation Council will thank Ashdown in beginning of summer, not in November as planned earlier, and appoint a new High Representative.

Dukic, Jovicic, BHT
1: Indictments to be issued against Silajdzic, Ganic, Mahmuljin and Godinjak?

TV PINK, RTRS – President of the RS Association of former detention camp inmates Branislav Dukic said: "What has happened was done by us, being the witnesses, and holding evidences on 536 detention camps in FBiH. The BiH authorities, led by Alija Izetbegovic, were in charge of the mujahedines and they ordered them to commit the war crimes in the northern BiH." Dukic also added that there was a possibility for three new indictments to be issued, and according to some allegations the indictments are against Ejup Ganic, Sakib Mahmuljin and Haris Silajdzic.

Vecernji List, pg 4 'Jovicic: Three more indictments from The Hague have arrived to Sarajevo', mentioned on front 'Ganic, Silajdzic and Mahmuljin to follow R. Delic' by Branka Stevandic, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Crimes against Serbs too have been committed' by N. M. carry Vice President of Association of RS POWs, Slavko Jovicic as saying that the FBiH authorities should be soon revealing additional three indictments that have arrived to Sarajevo. VL reminds that the RS POWs were saying earlier that the indictments could be raised against Ganic, Silajdzic and Mahmuljin.

BHT 1 found out unofficially that the indictments against Mahmuljin, Ganic and wartime Tarcin Police Chief, Edhem Godinjak should be delivered in coming days to Hadzipasic, through the BiH Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Hadzipasic and FBiH Minister of Interior, Mevludin Halilovic, stated that they did not receive those indictments yet. Delic himself expressed belief that the indictments against Ganic and Mahmuljin exist.

Dnevni List, pg 3, mentioned on front 'Indictments against Ganic and Mahmuljin to follow', by De. L. also covered this information from BHT 1.

Delic on El Mudzahid/Silajdzic and Ganic did not want to comment on El Mudzahid	BHT 1 also brings report on history of El Mudzahid unit formed in August 1993 at the Delic's order. "That unit had its place in BiH Army's hierarchy and it is known, when it comes to responsibility, whose responsibility this is. I think that it is absurd to pull out things from the context and to bring that responsibility to the Army commander," said Rasim Delic. Political leaders from that period, Haris Silajdzic and Ejup Ganic didn't want to speak on this subject, commented BHT reporter.
Inmate in Zenica prison willing to testify against Delic	Dnevni List, pg 6, mentioned on front 'Al Qaeda's officer ready to testify against Rasim Delic', by N. Bise – An inmate in the Zenica prison, Ali Ahmed Ali Hamad was attacked yesterday (Wednesday) by several other inmates, who used to be members of the 'El Mudzahedin' unit, after he was labelled as the most dangerous witness of crimes the unit had committed during the war. According to Ali Hamad's lawyer, Dusko Tomic, his client is willing to go to The Hague to testify about the crimes the unit had committed, about roles of late Alija Izetbegovic, Rasim Delic, Sakib Mahmuljin, Nezim Halilovic Muderiss and Al Qaeda's operations in BiH, which is, according to Ali Hamad, still active in BiH. Sinanovic – The Head of State Border Service, Mile Juric, Wednesday stated SBS never received any useful information from RS MoI with regard to arresting war crimes indictees. He rejected speculations saying war crimes indictees are crossing over border between BiH and SiCG and said: 'If RS is accusing us of not fulfilling our tasks with regard to cooperation with the Hague, then we can raise counter-question: It takes maximum five minutes to cross over the border – what were MoI bodies doing for the remaining 23 hours and 55 minutes, where were indictees sleeping, eating or walking?' Deputy SBS Director Nijaz Spahic expects cooperation would improve in the course of this year after Work group for cooperation with Hague Tribunal is established and after memorandum on understanding is signed between police agencies.

The board has also analysed the documentation, which was missing, including the criminal report on a candidate, which was sent anonymously. If the board nominates the new Police Director, RS Minister of Interior Darko Matijasevic should state his opinion, as well as the RS Government. on PfP, check-up of
RS Army

Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash 'We are conducting major check-up of RS Army', pg 5 'If we fail to fulfill conditions by April, we should withdraw application for admission into PfP' by Edina Sarac – In an interview to Dnevni Avaz, Nikola Radovanovic, BiH Defence Minister, says that if BiH authorities in March assess that BiH has failed to fulfill conditions for admission into PfP, it would be the best thing to ask NATO members at April session not to discuss our application, adding: "I am of the view it would be far more politically legitimate and credible than to keep insisting on that. Firstly, because of negative image of BiH being created in the world after each rejection we get." He confirms all persons from RS Army are going through check-up process, especially individuals or units who were connected with Ratko Mladic during the war. Namely, check-up is to determine whether these persons are still working within defence structures or outside it. He expects to see first pre-liminary report from RS Army by 28 February.

Gregorian on defence reform	Dnevni List, pg 5 'Commission does not have mandate to solve destiny of entity armies', by D. Polovina-Mandic, Nezavisne Novine pg 9 'This year is crucial for approach of BiH to NATO' by Srna – Reports that the Co-Chairman of Defence Reform Commission, Raffi Gregorian, was giving a lecture to the staff of the FBiH Defence Ministry and FBiH Army, when he noted that this year was crucial for the defence reform and meeting conditions that NATO had set out before BiH. Apart from pointing out the fact that the BiH Defence Ministry is yet to be fully staffed, a process which is eight months late, Gregorian spoke about the future of entity armies: "Entity armies are built in the Law on Defence of BiH. My mandate does not say anything that concerns talks about the future and destiny of entity armies (...) One of NATO's requests is creation of a single military force in BiH, but that is not in the mandate of the Defence Reform Commission".
HR on police reform	RHB, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Politics must not interfere in police work', Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Key importance of police reform in BiH', Glas Srpske pg 2 'The key is police reform' by N. He couldn't state when will all 16 conditions be fulfilled but believes it will happen soon.
SBS pc: SBS should employ 6 000-7 000 police officers to become more efficient	TV PINK – State Border Service (SBS) Deputy Director Robert Peric states that, in order to prevent illegal border crossings and for BiH borders to be supervised all the time, SBS should employ 6000-7000 police officers, which BiH cannot afford at the moment. SBS points out that the number of illegal entrances was reduced during 2004. SBS has also established special working group in charge of arrestment of war crime indictees, but due to lack of information, the service cannot be efficient. That is the reason why cooperation between BiH SBS and other BiH intelligence institutions should be improved.
