Speculation on Mladic surrender/arrest/extradition

EU Enlargement Commissioner Rehn: Suspension of SAA talks with SCG if country does not fully cooperate	BHT1by Elvir Bucalo, Brussels – EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn warned SCG that the negotiations between EU and SCG would be suspended if Serbia fails to immediately fulfil the obligations toward ICTY. According to BHT correspondent from Brussels it is almost certain that, since most wanted ICTY indictee Ratko Mladic has not yet been apprehended, on February 27 EU Ministers of Foreign Affairs will inform Belgrade that the negotiations are suspended. “If Serbia does not start fully cooperating with The Hague Tribunal without postponements, we will not be able to avoid a suspending of negotiations”, explained Rehn. “I think it’s high time that Mladic is arrested and transferred to The Hague... It is a good moment, since everybody talks about it. And I believe that they will succeed”, stated Head of the EU Delegation for South Eastern Europe Doris Pack. Regarding another ICTY indictee Radovan Karadzic, Slovenian member of the European Parliament Jelko Kacin believes that this is a good opportunity to send a warning message to the RS. “Karadzic is still linked mostly with RS... and RS, within BiH, must do its part of the job, it must face reality: without Karadzic in The Hague, there can be no pardoning, understanding or moving toward the future in BiH”, stated Kacin. BHT reporter concludes that the message from Brussels is simple: the deadline for Serbia has almost expired, and if Karadzic is not soon extradited to The Hague, BiH could have a similar fate. Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 19 ‘Rehn: Little more time is left’ Not signed, Vecernje Novosti cover pg splash, pg 13 ‘You will have to hand over Mladic’, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 ‘Suspension of talks with SiCG on Monday’, announced on cover ‘Either Mladic or EU ends talks’ by Agencies, Glas Srpske pg 5 ‘We are doing all we can’, Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 8 ‘Thousands stories about Mladic arrest’, by Tatjana Tagirov– carried similar reports.

ICTY Chief Prosecutor Del Ponte says next few days crucial for Mladic's arrest	PINK– ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte stated that the next few days are crucial for arrest of war crime indictee Ratko Mladic and that the rumours could lead to Mladic's soon arrest. Del Ponte stated that she believes that SiCG is not cooperating with ICTY because Belgrade could arrest Mladic if it really wanted.
RS Govt rejects to comment on Adnan in Belgrade	RTRS – RS Government in technical mandate did not want to comment on media speculations that RS Police Director Dragomir Andan is in Belgrade, where he is allegedly negotiating the scenario of possible apprehension of Ratko Mladic. Some political analysts, such as Tanja Topic, think that the apprehension of Mladic will be a success for the authorities in Belgrade, but also in Banjaluka. "But I believe that very strong structures which protect PIFWCs still exist, possibly within intelligence services", added Topic.

Oslob: Mladic's whereabouts are known for a long time and the only important thing now is who will be rewarded for his arrest	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Andan visited family of Ratko Mladic in Belgrade' by Avdo Avdic – Oslobodjenje learns from well informed sources that RS Police Director Dragomir Andan and couple of BIA [Serbian intelligence agency] inspectors have been visiting family of Ratko Mladic in Belgrade over the last two days. One of the sources claims that RS Interior Minister Darko Matijasevic also took part in these events. Article reads "departure to the Hague is inevitable, so Andan was trying to agree upon very last details with the family." Source claims that there were two issues at the table: location of Mladic's arrest and amount of money that would be transferred to the account of his family. Author concludes that the key issue is now whether Mladic should be arrested by Serbian or RS police: "It's only a political game now. Mladic's whereabouts are known for a long time and the only important thing now is who will be rewarded for his arrest. If his arrest would be performed in BiH, Belgrade authorities would be acknowledged, since it has been claimed all the time that Mladic is in Serbia."
DA: Mladic arrested, Serbian authorities wait for proper moment to go out with info	Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Mladic arrested and waits hand over to the Hague' by I.C. – Daily carries information from a well informed source close to BIA, Ratko Mladic is already arrested, adding that Belgrade authorities are delaying release of information in fear of violent reactions. DA also carries that Serbian Radicals leader Tomislav Nikolic was allegedly brought in for hearing last night. Nikolic's supporters are expected to be the most violent participants at Belgrade's protests announced for Friday.

Feral source from Serbia : Mladic would be arrested soon	Feral pgs 4 and 5 'Arrest of Mladic' by I. Djikic, I. Lasic carries that according to Feral collocutors from Serbia 'publishing of misinformation on the arrest of Ratko Mladic at a completely irrelevant BNTV from Bijeljina actually means that only a few days left before the Mladic's extradition and that patronage over fugitive Mladic obviously is not worth Serbian Prime Minister Vojislav Kostunica's while any longer'.

SB says Mladic was arrested and all political preparations in Serbia for his extradition are completed; Del Ponte secretly visits SCG

Slobodna Bosna cover splash 'Arrest Mladic!' pgs 6-10 and 59 'Arresting Mladic- decade long drama' by Mirha Dedic – SB carries that according to their source, "a representative of the SCG National Council for cooperation with ICTY", all political preparations for extradition of Ratko Mladic were completed. Only thing left to do is for him to decide whether he would surrender voluntarily or be captured. Same source says Mladic was arrested on mountain Cer and transferred to Belgrade, stressing Serbian authorities are all now united in a stance that solving this issue is inevitable as Kosovo status may depend on that. Source also told SB that few days before the arrest, diplomatic negotiations were lead at the highest level, and that even ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte secretly visited Belgrade four days before the arrest. During that time Del Ponte allegedly asked for Mladic's extradition within seven days, in return promising she would not demand from SCG to be the one that has to extradites Radovan Karadzic. SB writes that eleven people in total were informed about Mladic's arrest, one of them being RS Police Director Dragomir Andan. Andan, allegedly close Mladic's friend, was reported as trying to persuade Mladic to surrender, offering him even transfer from Banja Luka instead from Tuzla. SB's source explained that best solution for Vojislav Kostunica would be Mladic's extradition from the 'third country', as his arrest may cause unrest in the country. SB concludes that in order for this crisis to be overcome ICTY Chief Investigator Patrick Lopez arrived to Belgrade, while Del Ponte has set the deadline [February 21- March 1] for 'action' to be carried out.

Dani: War Crimes Prosecutor Vukcevic key person in Mladic's arrest action ; as tensions in SCG rise due to current affairs, extradition more likely	Dani cover splash 'Beast in The Hague?' pgs 23-23 'The Hague still waits for Mladic' by Milanka Saponja Hadzic, Belgrade –Weekly's source claims that ICTY would apply the practice used on General Ante Gotovina on Mladic, and adds the 'key person' for the arrest action is Serbian War Crime Prosecutor Vladimir Vukcevic, who 'responds' only to Carla Del Ponte. The same source claims the group carrying out the action has been reduced only to people from the police and BIA who are trusted by Vukcevic", while foreigners apparently only supervise it but not participating. In conclusion weekly stresses Government of Vojislav Kostunica is fighting for survival and tensions in SCG are rising, considering all current affairs including Kosovo talks, Montenegrin demands for independence and possible suspension of SAA negotiations, making Mladic's arrest even more likely.
SD: Serbian media do not believe in official denials	Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 8 'Thousands stories about Mladic arrest', by Tatjana Tagirov – SD underlines that the media in SCG do not believe in the Belgrade authorities' denials of the story that Ratko Mladic was either arrested or that talks on his arrest are ongoing since the story is still the number 1 issue in the media in SCG.

BiH Minister of Civil Affairs Safet Halilovic had recently denied the Ministry had anything to do with the fact terrorist Said Atmani had been issued with CIPS ID card, while a source close to BiH CoM reminds the process of election of CIPS Director commenced three days ago and notes Halilovic is now strongly advocating a Bosniak to be appointed to this position. The source also wonders why a Bosniak, who had been directly involved in the process of approving of citizenships in past, had been appointed a member of the Commission for Revision of Citizenships. Headline was taken out of context, insinuating that the process of revision will start from the bottom upwards on the pyramid of authority.
