Cavic on visit to UK, Srebrenica Commission: RS has to face Srebrenica crimes	BHTV 1, Nezavisne novine cover, pg 5 'There is no time for manipulating The Hague', Glas Srpske pg 2 'London supporting Dayton' – President RS Dragan Cavic stated on Sunday in Banja Luka that during his visit to the UK he was informed that RS must entirely fulfill its obligations towards ICTY, as that would condition British assistance to RS, but also BiH. Cavic stated that he met with Dennis McShane, Minister for Europe, and discussed the work of Srebrenica Commission. Cavic said that following the submission of the report, RS would have to face the fact which confirms that war crimes were carried out in several locations in Srebrenica. Final report and what follows the end of Srebrenica Commission work, stressed Cavic, will be a big test for RS in upcoming months. Cavic added that the cooperation of RS with ICTY could be crucial for BiH to be admitted to Partnership for Peace. "According to the facts I am familiar with, it is evident that in Srebrenica, war crime had been done," said Cavic. By the end of this month, NATO Secretary General Jaap de Hoop Scheffer, Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla del Ponte and NATO Ambassadors will visit Sarajevo on 28 June and meet to discuss BiH chances for PfP admission. Cavic said that there were no reasons as to why not to cooperate with ICTY, and that it was an obligation of all RS institutions. RTRS – Cavic added that the situation regarding BiH chances to join PfP will be clearer following the evaluation of the cooperation with ICTY and announced visit of NATO SG. Cavic added that RS must make a progress so the world could accept it as a serious partner. After the meeting with Denis Macsein, the English minister for Europe, to the president Cavic is told that the Europe is deceived for the Dayton agreement and that there will not be any word about abolishing and disappearance of RS. Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'RS must face crimes in Srebrenica' – also covered.

Cavic: Information I've got from Srebrenica Commission were shocking	Nezavisne novine pg 5 'Condemnation of war crimes in Srebrenica'' – "It's high time we took Srebrenica issue seriously. Information I have got from Srebrenica Commission, which I cannot discuss at the moment, were shocking. I am deeply shocked. For a long time I have been confronted to something my compatriots have done and what can be qualified as a war crime. As a person, I have to condemn it. The strength of condemnation that comes from me is not equal to the court one. It comes from the man who belongs to nation that has never committed crimes but was victim. We must not be silent about us being victims but we must not be silent about what Serbs have done to the others as well. Serbs must have strength, I shall have it, to confront fact that war crime has been committed in Srebrenica and that crime should be condemned. RS and all people can not be identified with Srebrenica events; same as Federation and all Bosniacs can not be identified with events in Kravice, where Serbs were victims. If we want to be reconciliation factor in BiH than firstly we Serbs must face Srebrenica events. When Srebrenica Commission finishes its work I shall make serious step forward in the name of my people. I hope my people and others will understand it", RS President, Dragan Cavic stated.

join PfP in June, cooperation
with ICTY

Blic pg 13 'Ivanic: It is too early for the Partnership' by S. S. – BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic has stated for Blic that chances for BiH to be admitted to the PfP at the June NATO Summit in Istanbul were minimal because the current mood does not go in favour of a positive decision. 'Objectively, there is a serious problem for the admission to this association because of cooperation with the Hague Tribunal', Ivanic stated and emphasized that defining of conditions in relation to the cooperation with the Hague is 'quite broad and leaves space for various interpretations'. Ivanic believes NATO would not deal much with the Balkans at the Istanbul Summit since this association 'has too many problems in the world'.

Terzic on police restructuring, cooperation with ICTY	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'I am glad Paddy Ashdown reacted immediately', mentioned on cover 'I am glad Paddy immediately reacted' by Faruk Cardzic – In an interview to DA, Chairman of BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, says that he was very glad to receive support from High Representative Paddy Ashdown regarding the police reform immediately after its announcement. "I am glad that... he sent a letter in which he clearly stated that he has already started for look for international expert that would head the working group and encouraged us to also start activities to look for experts inside BiH which will work in it," said Terzic. Talking about the his upcoming visits to EU and NATO HQs in Brussels, Terzic says that he would informed officials on the current situation in BiH, stressing he will not go there to say that BiH wants to join them, but will rather pay attention to the way the country means to achieve this. On the cooperation with ICTY, Terzic says: "I will make clear in Brussels that BiH authorities to date could not had taken over responsibility for arrest of most wanted war criminals, because police, military and intelligence structure were exclusively in the entities' jurisdiction. Now that we get SIPA,..., when we get state Intelligence service, state Defence Ministry, conditions are being created for us to take over that responsibility, once these institutions are functional."

RS Vice President Tomljenovic on Karadzic	Dnevni Avaz cover page story, pg 2 'Karadzic increased salaries to his guards' by M. Kukan – Following statements made in an interview to Nezavisne Novine, which was further widely covered in BiH, by RS Vice President Ivan Tomljenovic which say that Radovan Karadzic hides in RS and that he is protected by police, Tomljenovic comments for Avaz that he cannot disclose further information on this. "Those are thing that I cannot say, neither can I disclose my source," said Tomljenovic adding he expects RS Interior Ministry to isolate those he described as Karadzic spies in the police. "I can say that Karadzic is a very intelligent person and that he organized his protection very well. He has very loyal and well-paid people. Following these SFOR actions, salaries to his guards were further increased," concludes RS Vice President.
RS authorities respond to Ashdown statement on RS paying price for Karadzic being at large	Nezavisne novine pg 5 'Authorities responsible, not RS in whole' – Goran Radivojac, RS Prime Minister's Spokesperson stated that the "government is making an effort to co-operate with ICTY", commenting statement by the High Representative Paddy Ashdown that RS pays price for not arresting Radovan Karadzic. On the same issue, Igor Radojicic, SNDS Secretary General, stated "those on power are responsible for present situation. If someone does not meet international obligation he is personally and institutionally responsible". Marko Pavic, DNS President: "Ashdown didn't say that he had supported nationalistic parties coalition on power. Now, he is complaining how he can not get results in economy and arresting of PIFWCs".

VL on BiH admission to PFP	Vecernji List, pg 16, 'BiH in "captivity" of Hague runaways', by Dejan Jazvic – Commenting that more and more often negative response from Brussels is being announced in light of the invitation to BiH to join Partnership for Peace programme, author reminds that most of military conditions have been fulfilled while the RS authorities have done nothing in order to improve cooperation with the Hague tribunal, which is NATO's second key condition. The author says that the negative response from Brussels could have far-reaching consequences not only for BiH's integration into NATO, but also for its relations with the EU, as well as for internal political relations. The analysis of the fulfilment of the EC's conditions is due the end of August, yet the current BiH authorities have not completely fulfilled a single condition. Should the EC assess the progress as inadequate, this would additionally make the position of the current authorities difficult on the eve of local elections since the ruling coalition builds its position on bringing BiH closer to the EU and NATO exactly.
Terzic expects new candidate for appointment to OSA	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Will Zdravko Jukic be proposed as OSA Chief Inspector?', mentioned on cover 'Will Barisa Colak propose Zdravko Jukic?' by M.K. – F.C. – Chairman of BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, could not either confirm or deny speculations that Acting FOSS Director Zdravko Jukic would be proposed for the position of BiH Intelligence Service Chief Inspector.
