RHB: constant threats made by HR are becoming ridiculous	RHB Report by Ivica Simunovic – RHB reporter comments the failed negotiations on police reform and says that the agreement will probably be reached by dismissal of someone from RS authorities and adds that new deadline for police reform will be announced accordingly. Simunovic says that constant threats made by HR Paddy Ashdown are becoming ridiculous and continues by saying that on the other hand HR does not have a problem in dismissing Croat officials. Simunovic goes on saying that HR is inciting development of small business in Herzegovina since dismissed Croat officials cannot stay in politics thus are turning towards business. Simunovic wonders whether such incentives are going to occur in RS as well since RS authorities announced a compromise when it comes to police reform. He concludes that it remains to be seen whether RS will agree to EC principles when it comes to police reform.

RS citizens think the situation cannot get worse; Topcagic: it is important to access funds through signing SAA	BHT1 Report by Marina Boskovic – Reporter reminds on recent High Representative's warning to RS authorities unless they do not adopt the police reform based on the three EC principles, RS, BiH and its citizens will face total isolation. Reporter added that BiH experts claim that isolation will result in worse economical situation. On the other hand, RS citizens do not understand what is to gain and what is to lose by the police reform adding that it cannot get worse than it is now and they do not believe that EU admittance will provide jobs. The reporter listed all benefits BiH would gain by signing SAA (loans, favourable visa-regime etc.) Head of Office for EU Integration Osman Topcagic stated that at the moment it is better to get the access to the funds sooner than later adding that it is important to invest in infrastructure, agriculture and industry in order to get financially closer to countries that were admitted to EU last year.

Comments by Dzihanovic,
Popovic, Tadic
and Dodik

FTV – Ognjen Blagojevic, Dzenana Zolota – Report brings reactions on 'crisis', caused by failure in police reform talks. FBiH Vice Chair Sahbaz Dzihanovic says that it is high time for nationalistic parties, which carry out segregation politics, to be abolished.

"It is obvious that nationalists and nationalistic parties in BiH are holding BiH in poverty, thus making it unable to become part of modern, European states", said

Dzihanovic, adding that SDS should be abolished. "It is obvious that the High Representative is trying to amnesty himself, since as the existing coalition was being established out of nationalistic parties he said that they were reformist ones which would carry out reforms in BiH", BiH SDP

Vice Chair Slobodan Popovic. "I have already said that Paddy Ashdown's mandate was going to end with demonstration of his inability and his loyalty to the RS, as well as his disinterest in BiH", said HSS Chair Marko Tadic, adding that this has been a wasted

HR's mandate. "I think that personal interest plays important role in the whole issue and that certain International Community representatives, who are trying to recover the authority in the BiH Council of Ministers and in entities, are generating the greatest crisis which has ever happened in BiH", said SNSD Chair Milorad Dodik.

Reporter says that the authorities are responsible for BiH's future, since the whole state has become the hostage of the failed police reform talks or else it is all about the HR's disorientation.
