Nezavisne Novine, pg 4, mentioned on front ‘Ljajic announced imminent arrest of Mladic’, by agencies – carries statements by Kostunica and Labus (as above) as well as statement by the Chief of SCG National Council for Cooperation with ICTY, Rasim Ljajic, who expressed hope that Mladic would be before the ICTY soon. “The competent services have never been as dedicated to arrest of Mladic as it is the case now. The efforts will bring results, otherwise the April round of talks with EU could be cancelled”, said Ljajic. NN also reports that the Dutch Foreign Ministry denied the Dutch press agency ‘ANP’s’ report that the Dutch Foreign Minister Bernard Bot was told by his collocutors during his recent visit to Belgrade that negotiations with Mladic were ongoing.

However, Oslobodjenje claims to have learned from a senior official of the RS MoI that "Andan did not manage to agree with Mladic and his friends whether the general would be deported to The Hague from Serbia or the RS. On top of this, they could not reach an agreement about the amount of money Mladic's family would receive as compensation". The source also notes that Andan informed the RS Interior Minister, Darko Matijasevic, about the Belgrade talks during their meeting in Banja Luka on Friday.

Constitutional Changes Talks
SNSD's Dodik: Agreement on constitutional changes is good and functional	RHB – SNSD Chair Milorad Dodik stated that agreement on constitutional changes in BiH was functional and good. Dodik also stated that he wasn't officially informed about the signing of agreement on Sunday in Sarajevo and added that internal agreement was made about it thus meaning that political officials will meet in Sarajevo to initial the agreement in the following days. FTV – Dodik stated that the agreement on constitutional changes is not harmful for BiH state, the entities or any of the peoples. Dodik also said that it was very important for the RS parties to preserve the entity vote and the authority of BiH House of Peoples to decide on vital national interests of all peoples.

SBiH presents its draft Constitution of BiH, says agreed changes lead to dissolution of BiH	Hayat – Report by Snjezana Mulic – The talks on constitutional changes were supposed to be completed by the end of this week. However, NTV Hayat unofficially learns that the signing of the agreement on constitutional changes in BiH will be postponed for next week. In addition to that, it is possible that some significant political parties will refuse to sign the agreement, which means that it will be impossible to adopt the constitutional changes in BiH Parliament. Discontent with the outcome of talks on constitutional changes, SBiH decided to offer its own draft BiH Constitution. President of SBiH Presidency Safet Halilovic, who participated in the talks on constitutional changes, stated that proposed changes to the BiH Constitution lead toward final and definitive dissolution of BiH. Therefore, explained Halilovic, SBiH decided to present its own constitutional platform. According to the platform, BiH would be a state divided into regions instead of entities, and with only one president. Although representatives of SBiH claim that they have presented their draft BiH Constitution to other parties that participated in talks on constitutional changes, HDZ – at least according to their Spokesperson Miso Relota – does not know anything about it. In a short telephone statement for NTV Hayat, Relota confirmed that the agreement on constitutional changes would be signed probably sometime next week, instead of Sunday, February 26th. FTV – Halilovic announced that SBiH is going to send its draft Constitution to regular parliament procedure. In this way, said Halilovic, SBiH is opening a public discussion on constitutional changes and makes the current negotiations more transparent and open for all citizens. (also reported by Oslobodjenje, pg 6, mentioned on front ‘Agreed changes lead to divisions’, by A. Omeragic, Dnevni Avaz, pg 4, mentioned on front ‘Adopted solutions will lead to dissolution of BiH’, by E. Sarac, Dnevni List, pg 2 ‘Draft Constitution presented’, not signed,

Avaz interview: SDU's Komsic says agreed changes are disastrous for BiH, blames Tihic and Lagumdzija for possible outcome of talks	Dnevni Avaz, front pg splash and pg 5 'Tihic and Lagumdzija are part of plot against BiH', by Husein Orahovac – daily carries an interview with Vice President of SDU, Ivo Komsic, who slams the recently adopted agreement of political parties on constitutional changes (that was reached last Sunday between representatives of SDS, SNSD, PDP, SDA and SDP), saying it is "a disaster for future of state of BiH" because it, according to Komsic, strengthens the entities at expense of the state, which is especially evident in preservation of the entity vote (in the BiH House of Representatives). Komsic notes that everyone at the beginning of the process of constitutional changes, including the US Under Secretary of State, Nicholas Burns, stated the changes should lead towards a more functional state, which did not happen. "(...) Eventually, Sulejman Tihic and Zlatko Lagumdzija agree to strengthening of entities at the expense of BiH state. In my opinion, what we have here is an international plot against BiH, in which both Lagumdzija and Tihic agreed to be a part of", said Komsic, who also criticized the fact the agreement was reached without representatives of the Croat people.
HDZ wants guarantees that Croats will be able to elect their Presidency member	RHB – HDZ Presidency held a session on Friday. HDZ Spokesman Miso Relota stated that pre-election activity of HDZ was discussed at the session as well as talks on constitutional changes. As far as talks on constitutional changes are concerned, Relota says that HDZ will continue the talks and will insist on certain agreement when it comes to state level. He continues by saying that agreement made by Serb and Bosniak parties when it comes to election of BIH Presidency and his 2 deputies is unacceptable. HDZ feels that with this agreement, the Croat people have no guarantees that their representative will be elected in BIH Presidency. Relota concluded by saying that HDZ will propose for BIH to be one election unit when it comes to election of BIH President and his deputies. (also in Oslobodjenje, pg 6 'Talks on constitutional changes will continue', not signed, Dnevni List, pg 8 'Offered solutions unacceptable', not signed)

HDZ spokesman Relota: Party wants assurances lower levels of authority would be discussed too	RTRS – Report by Nada Arlov – It seems that agreement on constitutional changes in BiH will be signed next week but the signature of Croat representatives is questionable. HDZ Spokesman Miso Relota stated that HDZ and HNZ would sign the agreement if they are promised that discussion on other, lower levels of authorities is opened after elections in October. (similar statement also in Dnevni Avaz , pg 4 'About middle level of authority after elections', by F. V.)
HNZ's Brkic: We will not accept two-entity order, entity voting	RHB – HNZ Chair Miljenko Brkic stated that HNZ would not sign the agreement on constitutional changes proposed by Serb and Bosniak parties. Brkic stressed that HNZ would not leave the negotiations, however it would insist on agreement suitable for all 3 sides. He added that it seemed that SDA now accepts the so-called entity voting in BiH Parliament. " We will not accept 2-entity order of BiH as well as entity voting ", stressed Brkic. (similar report by RTRS , FTV , Oslobodjenje , pg 6 'Equal rights to all three peoples', by fena , Dnevni Avaz , pg 4 'SDA leader was explicit that he would not accept entity voting', by fena , Vecernji List , pg 6 'Burns comes to BiH to apply pressure', by Zoran Kresic) Dnevni List , pg 7 'HNZ will not sign constitutional changes', by Dario Pusic – carries similar statement by HNZ Vice President Mate Bandur .)

VL says it is expected that Burns will reminds the parties about the obligations they had taken upon in Washington. VL also learns from 'political circles' that the continuation of constitutional changes talks will most likely happen next week, and not this Sunday as earlier announced by SDA President, Sulejman Tihic .

NN: Constitutional amendments to be signed on Sunday	Nezavisne Novine, pg 5 '150 amendments agreed upon', by S. Gojkovic, V. Popovic – Unlike VL, NN notes that leaders of major BiH parties will sign the agreement on constitutional changes tomorrow (Sunday), the agreement that includes 150 amendments to the BiH Constitution.
Smaller Croat parties call on HDZ not to sign proposed constitutional changes	FTV – Croat Coalition for Changes (NB: it gathers several small Croat parties, the HSS, HDU, Croat Christian Democrats and HKDU) rejects the procedure of negotiations on constitutional changes that evades the parliament, BiH Constitutional Court and citizens. The Coalition doesn't approve the suggested changes because for Croats, they are worse than the present constitutional solutions. The Coalition invited HDZ and NHI not to sign the agreement, Croat members of BiH HoR to vote against it, and members of HoP to launch the procedure of protection of vital national interest over the agreement on constitutional changes. (also in Dnevni List, pg 6 'Forced changes are fatal for Croats', by D. P. Mandić)

OHR reminded that BiH must fulfil the requests set by EU if it wants to become its member therefore it has to adopt a set of laws related to PBS. OHR Spokesman Oleg Milisic stated that BiH officials could send requests to BiH CC after which BiH CC as an independent institution decides upon requests accordingly.
