by Nermin Bise – At the two-day session held in Sarajevo, the political directors of the Peace Implementation Council's Steering Board have decided to recommend the continuation of the process of the transfer of authorities to the local government, which would result with the end of OHR's mandate and its replacement with the post of a EU Special Representative. [NOTE: Electronic media placed this at the top of their reports on PIC SB session, while all dailies apart from Dnevni List treated issues related to halt in reforms and coop. with ICTY] BHT 1 – "What the PIC has said about process of ending of the OHR's mandate is that there are conditions to be fulfilled to achieve that. That can't be done overnight. BiH politicians must take responsibility for their acts. We want to see completion of the key reforms. The crucial condition for closure of the OHR is to see BiH in the process of negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement," said the HR, Paddy Ashdown.

PIC urges progress in PBS, police reform; calls on Terzic to resolve issues in CoM

Hayat, RTRS, BHT 1, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Harsh warning to the RS' by S. Numanovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Arrest of all war crimes suspects a condition for EU', mentioned on cover 'Crisis in BiH authorities slowed down reforms' by M. Cubro, Dnevni list cover splash, pg 2 'OHR to be abolished' by Nermin Bise – The political directors have also considered the halt in the reform process, especially with the regard to the legislation on the public broadcasting system and police reforms blocked by SDS-led RS Government. It was noted that RS' refusal to continue with police reform is a big obstacle on the road to EU. Political directors also called on the Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, and on all other political factors in BiH to resolve the problems in the CoM as a matter of urgency so that the business of government can resume and reform can proceed.

PINK, Oslobođenje pg 3 'BiH has the last chance to catch 'the last train' by M.K.S., Glas Srpske pg 5 'Last chance' by N. Zelenovic– The Steering Board noted that BiH still had the last chance to cross the threshold to SAA negotiations at the end of this year.

Terzic's advisor: Once BiH completes SAA negotiations, expected in Oct 2006, there will be no more need for HR	RHB – The Advisor to the BiH CoM Chair, Bojan Zec Filipovic, stated that Adnan Terzic presented the PIC with the plan to meet remaining conditions and to starts with SAA negotiations in November. Filipovic also stated that political directors expressed support for it, however its was added that if BIH fails to do so in November it will lose 7 years on its path towards EU. Dnevni list pg 3 inset 'Terzic satisfied with PIC's decision' – Filipovic also assed that Terzic welcomed the decision regarding the fade out of OHR's mandate. "At the moment our country completes the negotiations on signing SAA, and we expect this to be in October 2006, that is when a need for presence of the High Representative will cease to exist," added Filipovic.
