Terzic for DA: Police reform is the key priority, must be completed by 15 Sept	Dnevni Avaz cover splash, pg 2 'This is the only and key priority' by S. Numanovic – The leader of 11 political parties will meet in Sarajevo on Tuesday to hold a consultative meeting which should set plan for further activities regarding the police reform. The Chair of BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, say the reform is the last Feasibility Study's condition which has to be met in order to launch the negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement. Terzic adds that the talks on reform must be completed by 15 September. The meeting will discuss the proposal by the RS Government on talks to be resumed in the entity government and CoM, which is apparently partly supported by the IC. SDA objects this proposal, and Terzic underlines that the Tuesday's meeting is aimed at speeding up reforms: "The High Representative and I think that now... the only and key priority of all subjects in BiH should be the agreement on this reform," said Terzic adding that there will be no changes to what has already been agreed in Konak/Vlastic negotiations. Inset 'Change of police maps' carries Terzic as saying that there will be some changes to 9+1 map previously selected by the HR. "I personally thin it is realistic for at least three regions to cross inter-entity line, in directions Tuzla –Bijeljina – Brcko; Foca-Gorazde and... Sarajevo... We also have to change some things in Herzegovina," concludes Terzic.

Cubro – SNSD's Nebojsa Radmanovic Sunday confirmed the party would not participate in the continuation of negotiations on police reform. He stressed the party has, so far, given a great contribution to the reform but they will not participate to the talks Tuesday because "we do not know why CoM Chairman would invite leaders of the ruling and opposition parties to the negotiations'" SDP's Zlatko Lagumdzija could not confirm whether the party would participate and said it would reach a decision regarding this matter Monday. Stanko Pivasevic, SDS Spokesperson, could not confirm SDS' attendance either. HDZ, PDP and Party for BiH will take part in negotiations. PDP's Borislav Borenovic says the party finds the so far presented police reform model unacceptable. The Party for BiH's Beriz Belkic reminded that the police reform is the only remaining pre-requisite for the start of SAA negotiations.

racism

has contains elements of racism', Nezavisne

Dnevni List, pg 5, mentioned on front
'Croat will create new state within BiH', by Marko Karacic – BiH Presidency Chair Ivo Miro Jovic commented in Dobož on Sunday the BiH Constitutional Court's ruling regarding the Law on Public Broadcasting System. On Saturday, the BiH Constitutional Court announced that Law on Public Broadcasting System does not endanger the vital national interest of Croat people in BiH. "I don't want to comment the decision as the BiH Presidency Chair, but I must say that as a man I am deeply disappointed. Either there will be equality in this country, or there will be no the country. I think that the Law on Public Broadcasting System has some elements of racism", said Jovic.

He believes what is going on (in BiH) right now is that the state is being divided down the middle and that the Croats will have to make their own state from the beginning because a people has to have a space to live. "If any people has any right, then it is a right to media. There is not people in Europe that has not the right to their information system", says Madunic.

HDZ's Sopta on PBS law: OHR interferes into work of judiciary	Vecernji List, pg 5 'Court bypasses constitutions and international charters', by Miroslav Vasilj – The author says that the 'disappointment' is the best word that can describe reactions of the Croat people and Croat parties following the BiH Constitutional Court's decision, which says the Proposal of law on RTV system is not damaging vital national interests of the Croat people. An HDZ MP in the BiH Parliament, Ruza Sopta, says she learned from OHR representatives about the Court's decision a few days ago before it was actually made public, and Sopta says it is a clear case of interference into the work of judiciary. She also notes that the issue could be taken to the European Human Rights Court in Strasbourg.

Tadic (HSS) on BiH Election Law: Threshold legalizes ethnic cleansing	Dnevni List, pg 8, mentioned on front 'Legalization of ethnic cleansing in BiH', by Zvonimir Jukic – The President of HSS (Croat Peasants' Party), Marko Tadic, is resolutely condemning attempts to change the BiH Election Law, whose aim is, according to Tadic, to legalize the ethnic cleansing of Croats from the RS. Tadic explains that the HSS wants the abolishment of the current threshold (set at 3%), otherwise it would represent sanctioning of the ethnic cleansing. Tadic believes that the elections rules and regulations that are applied in the Brcko District and City of Mostar are the only ones that are, to some extent, in accordance with the decision of the BiH Constitutional Court regarding the constituent status of the three peoples in BiH.

Dzaferovic: Terzic cannot always count on support of parliamentary majority	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Terzic cannot always count on support of parliamentary majority', announced on cover 'Lagumdzija behaves as wild' by Husein Orahovac – In a half-page interview to daily, Sefik Dzaferovic, BiH HoR's official, says that the current composition of the BiH CoM is far more efficient than the composition at the time of Alliance. He notes that Adnan Terzic cannot always count on the support of the parliamentary majority, adding practice shows this. He adds: "You know, it happens that all Serb delegates from the RS – regardless of their political party – oppose proposal of the BiH CoM."
Carl Bildt: It is high time for High Representative to be abolished	Oslobodjenje pg 6 'It is high time HR were abolished' – Carl Bildt, the former High Representative and Swedish diplomat, told Voice of America that Dayton Agreement, by itself, "should not be revised. However, you also have a BiH Constitution, which is a part of this agreement as its annex to be more precise. And this should be developed and discussed". He stressed that after ten years of existence of the BiH joint institutions, it is high time the institution of the High Representative were abolished, adding: "Let Bosnians create the future of Bosnia and I am convinced they would do that."

Pink feature story on BiH Defence Law and Law on military service

Pink Aida Hasanbegovic – The event which marked signing of the statement on adoption of drafts of Defense Laws and Law on military service. Defense Reform Commission (DRC) has adopted draft of laws and it is up to BiH Defense Ministry to carry out necessary technical preparations during next week in order for the drafts of laws to be sent to BiH Council of Ministers and Parliament for enactment. BiH Defense Minister Nikola Radovanovic said that abolishment of entity Defense Ministries and recruit unit were the two most important things the law foreseen. “In terms of the procedure, it is going to be carried out in three Parliaments, due to the fact that entity Constitutions need to be changed and this has to be done by entity Parliaments. BiH Parliamentary Assembly is in charge of the adoption of the laws”, said Radovanovic. The High Representative Paddy Ashdown welcomed the adoption of draft of laws. Domestic and foreign military experts find the offered solution great, since it foresees meeting of NATO standards. “Once BiH is securely in NATO, there will be no fear of conflict or war, not only within BiH itself, but region as well. This has to pass the Parliament procedure since it will make well not only to BiH but to the whole region”, said EUFOR Commander to BiH David Leahey. Representatives of International Community warn BiH politicians that some issues are more important than politics and ask them to adopt the laws as soon as possible.
