Tihic, Covic meet to discuss reforms/ Tihic: 'If Int. Comm. was united, police reform would be completed'	RTRS, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Now we will have to wait for will SDS Main Board say' by Fena – SDA and HDZ leaders, Sulejman Tihic and Dragan Covic respectively, met in Mostar on Wednesday to discuss the reforms process in BiH. The SDS, Dragan Covic, should have been present, but he excused his absence due to obligations. Commenting police reform in BiH, Tihic pointed out that BiH has not success in police reform due to indecisiveness and divisions in international community. "If international community was united and decisive... we would have the agreement so far. Unfortunately, the indecisiveness reflects in some way on the functioning of power at BiH level", Tihic declared at the press. "Unfortunately, all of us have to wait for as to what the Main Board of SDS will say", Tihic added. On same issue, Covic said that the reform is still far from a practical solution. "Of course, we are not satisfied with that, and I believe that we from political parties should work more... within next ten days," Covic pointed out. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'If IC was united, we would already have agreement on police' by F. Vele – Tihic pointed out that other reforms were carried out and that agreements were reached on issues of SIPA, OSA, and ITA wondering why police is the problem. Tihic also urged the authorized authorities to appoint SBS director in accordance with the professional criteria and ethnic distribution of positions. RHB by Milan Vego – "Also, IC should use their methods to enhance the reform implementation," added Covic. Tihic said that the differences in opinion regarding the police reform emerged at RS National Assembly session in December. "We all expected some institutional sanctions to be imposed on RS for obstructing the implementation of reforms and cooperation with ICTY, but IC and HR tolerated this. That is why we still do not have this agreement adopted" said Tihic. Hayat, BHT 1, Dnevni List, pg 2, mentioned on front 'HDZ and SDA agree on majority of constitutional changes', by Marko Karacic, Vecernji List, pg 4 'Indecisiveness halts reform', by Zoran Kresic, Slobodna Dalmacija, back pg 'Problems in BiH are about regionalization', by Emil Karamatic, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'International Community is culpable for failure of police reform' by V. SDP: 'Police reform has come to absolute downfall'	BHT 1, Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'Police reform has come to absolute downfall', Dnevni List, pg 7 'Police reform suffers complete collapse', by Mensud Zorlak – SDP deems that police reform, as one of the main conditions for accessing European integration, has come to its final, absolute downfall. SDP Presidency member Damir Hadzic told a press conference that it sounds impossible that since the first round of talks to date, the participants have failed to take a minimal step forward. He stressed that talks on police are no longer focusing on the context of establishing a functional and optimal police that can respond to the basic task, and this is battle against crime and corruption. "Talks are focusing on completely ephemeral issues, which we deemed to have been overcome long ago through the Martens commission, given that uniforms and salaries are now being debated as the most important things. This was one of the issues that were resolved long time ago, and today everything is being returned to the beginning", said Hadzic.
Hadzipasic: Working group will prepare proposal by Bjelasnica meeting	Dnevni Avaz cover splash, pg 5 'This government will not allow for Agrokomerc to be striped of its 'heart', inset 'Police must be acceptable for citizens' by Mirela Kukan – FBiH PM Ahmet Hadzipasic commented on police reform that the key problem in the negotiations are two entirely difference concepts, one of which is RS' stipulating police organized at the entity level. However, he said he believes that until the meeting in Bjelasica, the working group consisting of the SIPA director, Security Minister and the Chair of the CoM will manage to prepare one proposal acceptable to all.

Kalamujic – Oslobodjenje brings the review of the negotiating process on the police reform since December last year, reminding of the concept proposed by the Police Reform Commission chaired by Wilfred Martens and subsequent objections coming from RS. It also reminds of the rounds of talks already held concluding that the participants of the negotiations will eventually agree on minimum, i.e. three principles set by the EC, which will transfer the authorities over police to the state level. It also reminds of the statement by Adnan Terzic, who said that the decision on police regions and locations of their HQs may be agreed in a later stage by the future Conference of the state police directors. By the meeting at Bjelasnica, scheduled for 31 August, Oslobodjenje expects that the agreement will be reached on uniforms, financing and seats of forensic institute, training centre and police administration.

The author goes on to say that nationalists from the RS will keep doing what they are doing, which resulted in the High Representative losing nerves, which caused pleasure among the Serb nationalists, despite the denial of the 'Cyprus' statement. "The genie from the bottle has been released", concludes Beric.

Paravac expressed assurance that it is possible to achieve consensus in BiH and accept the essential principles of reform in this field and the appropriate representation of constituent peoples, which would put an end to wars in these areas. Weber [to take over at the end of year], who performed the duty of director for training of US army.

Krehic says that the reports on existence of the camps are always more damaging to BiH than any denial, be it from the EUFOR Commander or Spanish Foreign Minister. Regarding RS MoI's swift reaction to defend Andan, the author stresses the prompt reaction by the RS MoI, whilst in the same time the said ministry has nothing to say about whereabouts of war criminals.

OHR assesses Lozancic's documentation	Hayat by Senka Hadzovic – OHR Spokesperson Mario Brkic confirmed that the OHR received from the FBiH President Niko Lozancic documents pertaining to pardoning of Miroslav Prce. "The OHR has received additional documentation from Mr. Lozancic and OHR is still assessing it", said Brkic. In September 2004, former FBiH Defense Minister Prce has been sentenced to 5 years for misuse of position and authorities. Prce admitted his guilt, after which Lozancic reduced his sentence from 5 to 4 years, by which – comments the reporter – he abused Law on pardoning. "All of this happens as 'holes' in the law, which has been sent to the Parliament for enactment, are being closed, and we hope as this ends, all these possibilities will be reduced... aim of this process is to make it transparent", said Brkic. Orahovac – The President of High Judicial and Prosecutorial Council, Branko Peric, sees no reason to be concerned with the fact that 7 judges and prosecutors have filed resignations within one month. Danas: Arrest of Mandic is last warning to Karadzic	Danas, pgs 24-27 'Last warning to Radovan Karadzic', by Zvonimir Jukic – Writing about the recent arrest of Momcilo Mandic in Montenegro, the author says that sources close to ruling structures in Podgorica say that Mandic arrest is in fact the last warning to Radovan Karadzic to surrender himself voluntarily. According to Jukic, the answer lies in the strategy of the Montenegrin Prime Minister, Milo Djukanovic, who, by arresting Mandic, showed that he is the boss in his own house and that he is ready to go all the way when it comes to secession referendum of Montenegro. Jukic also writes that Djukanovic is not keen on actually arresting Karadzic, who is believed to be hiding in hills and mountains nearby Niksic, firstly because of negative consequences the arrest would have on his image and Montenegrin aspirations towards independency, and secondly because of his war-time links with Karadzic when they collaborated in cigarette smuggling, being afraid that Karadzic would speak about the collaboration between the two.
