Karacic – The author criticizes the fact that EUFOR is setting up checkpoints in BiH in order to arrest war crime indictees. The author goes on to say that instead of going to state institutions where the biggest crime is present, they stop and maltreat ordinary citizens on BiH roads. The author concludes: 'It is certain that they will never arrest Radovan Karadzic and the others in this way, and it is even more certain that they will not influence decreasing of crime in BiH. However, why would they (EUFOR) even care about it since they are paid 10 times more than BiH citizens and they will go their homes, while we are the ones who have to stay here to fight with our demons from the past.'
