BiH Court issued first verdict for war crimes, Maktouf sentenced to 5 years in prison

Pink – The BiH Court has found Abdulahim Maktouf, an Iraqi citizen living in Travnik, guilty of accomplice to war crimes and sentenced him to 5 year imprisonment. This is the first verdict by the BiH Court related to war crimes case. Maktouf has been found guilty for being an accomplice in kidnapping three Croat civilians from Travnik and their capture in the camp of El Mujahid unit where one of them was killed. The BiH Court press release says that even though the law stipulates minimum 10 years imprisonment for this sort of crime, the Court has decided to reduce it expressing belief that 5 years of imprisonment is an adequate punishment for the committed crime. BHT 1 carries Maktouf's attorney Ismet Mehic who stated that the defence is disappointed by the verdict. He believes that the verdict is illegal and he announced an appeal. RHB, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 12 '5 years in prison to Abdulahim Maktouf' by A. Delic, Oslobodjenje pg 10 'Abdulahim Maktouf sentenced to 5 years in prison' by A.N., Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash '5 years imprisonment to Maktouf' and pg 9 'Sentenced to 5 years in prison' by A. Ljajic: SCG will extradite Mladic	Pink, BHT 1, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 22 'Investigation on those who were protecting and hiding Mladic should be carried out' not signed, Oslobodjenje pg 4 'I am convinced that SCiG would extradite Ratko Mladic' not signed, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'SCiG will extradite Mladic' by beta, Dnevni List pg 5 'SCiG will extradite Mladic' not signed– Serbia and Montenegro will extradite ICTY indictee Ratko Mladic, announced in Belgrade SCG National Council for cooperation with the ICTY, Rasim Ljajic. He also announced that the meeting of BiH, SCG and international community security agencies will be held soon in order to find solutions for full coverage of the border between two countries, often crossed by Mladic and other ICTY indictees. Ljajic said for TV Pink that it is for certain that Mladic is not hiding in his house in Belgrade, as he was until 2002. RHB carry similar reports.
Ljaljic on non-arrest of Mladic in 2002	RTRS – Rasim Ljajic confirmed the statement of former Serbian Police Minister Dusan Mihajlovic that Ratko Mladic was dwelling in his house in Belgrade until 2002. Ljajic stated that Mladic was not arrested since the local authorities felt that after extradition of Slobodan Milosevic international pressure will be reduced and that in the case of the arrest the Army and police would probably come in conflict. Serbian military officials on the other hand claim that the Serbian Army did not protect Mladic.

BiH and SCG Prosecutions signed Agreement on cooperation on war crimes cases	Pink, BHT 1, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 12 'War crimes' processing would last for decades' not signed, Nezavisne Novine pg 8 'Processing would last for decades' by Srna, Dnevni List pg 5 'To fully cover part of border between BiH and SCiG' by De.L., HINA – Representatives of BiH and Serbia and Montenegro Prosecutor's Offices signed on Thursday in Belgrade an agreement on cooperation in identifying and finding of war crimes suspects and on exchange of information. BiH Chief Prosecutor, Marinko Jurcevic, expressed belief that this agreement would increase efficiency in cooperation on war crimes cases.
Brcko District Assembly adopted Declaration on Srebrenica	BHT 1, Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'We shall also demand resolution for crimes committed in Brcko' by E.R. – On the occasion of the 10th anniversary of massacre over Bosniaks in Srebrenica, the Brcko District Assembly adopted the Declaration condemning the Srebrenica genocide. The declaration was adopted without SDS representatives, who had left the session before voting. The Brcko District Assembly also condemned all other war crimes committed over Serbs, Croats, Bosniaks and all other BiH citizens.

Posters on Srebrenica massacre in Belgrade and Zagreb	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 ‘Samarh: Srebrenica is mirror of all of us’, mentioned on cover ‘Srebrenica in centre of Belgrade’ by H. Handzic – Posters showing photographs on the theme of the Srebrenica massacre appeared in Belgrade and Zagreb on Thursday. The author of the photographs and the project itself is BiH photographer Tarik Samarah. EC on PBS law/ police reform

Pink, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'They expect that law on public RTV system would be adopted soon' not signed, Oslobodjenje pg 10 'Police reform is priority' not signed – The EC Delegation to BiH stated that an important step has been made this week in the BiH Parliament in relation to harmonisation of legislature on Public Broadcasting System (PBS) with the European standards. According to the EC, this has happened regardless of the fact that Croat delegates in the House of Peoples declared that this draft law violates Croat national interests. EC said in its press release that they are now waiting for the BiH Constitutional Court to decide on this matter. The press release also says that this week's progress should mean that police reform is now the issue to be tackled without further delay if there is to be any possibility of commencing SAA negotiations before the end of the year.

HR: Negotiations on police reform need to be continued as soon as possible	RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 ‘Negotiations on police reform must continue immediately’ not signed, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Police must be reformed immediately’ by news agencies – High Representative Paddy Ashdown stated: ‘Negotiations on the police reform must re-open as soon as possible if BiH is to receive a green light from the Commission by the tenth anniversary of Dayton, and join the other countries in the region on the path towards Europe.’ The HR stated this in a response to the statement issued by the EC, which said that significant progress has been made regarding adoption of the law on PBS and that the matter of the police reform needs to be resolved without delay.
Rycroft: EC will not allow start of negotiations on SAA until issues of police reform and PBS are resolved	RTRS – British Ambassador to BiH Matthew Rycroft stated that the EC will not allow the beginning of the negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement until issues of the police reform and PBS are resolved. Also covered by Dnevni Avaz pg 11 ‘Rycroft: BiH has lot to do yet’ by I. Sinanovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘PBS, police and education are priorities’ by N. Krsman, Vecernji List pg 2 ‘There are no negotiations without agreement’ not signed.

UK takes over presiding EU, BiH officials believe that this mean opening of new possibilities for SAA	Pink – The UK took over 6-months long presiding of EU on Thursday. BiH officials believe that this mean opening of new possibilities for beginning the negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement (SAA), having in mind the cooperation that BiH and UK had until now. The British Embassy in BiH announced support but they also underlined that the main task is on the BiH authorities. “I really waited with a great hope the UK’s presiding over the EU again, expecting that we will begin negotiations on SAA during UK’s mandate,” said Osman Topcagic Director of the BiH Direction for European Integrations.
Day of FBiH Police/Halilovic,Miletic on police reform	FTV – At the ceremony in Sarajevo, the FBiH Police celebrated July 1st – the Day of the FBiH Police. FBiH Minister of Interior Mevludin Halilovic addressed the audience. Halilovic emphasized the significant grow of the police work efficacy, however he also stated that the results could be even better. Halilovic stated that he hopes that the Day of Police next year is going to be celebrated within the united BiH police structure. Dnevni Avaz pg 11 ‘Police reform is unquestionable ‘ by S.T., Oslobodjenje pg 6 ‘Police reform inevitable’ not signed, Dnevni List pg 2 ‘Policemen ready for implementation of reform’ by N. Bise carry similar report. DL also carries Director of the FBiH Police Administration Zlatko Miletic as saying that the priority of this body is implementation of the police reform on the whole BiH territory.

Feature on decertified
police officers

FTV – Zeljko Tica – During the certification process conducted by the IPTF, several hundreds police officers have lost their certificates. Several Sarajevo special task police officers have been decertified because of allegedly illegal action in Zujevina case. The court had acquitted all charges against them. However, they did not get their police certificates back. Ramo Sulic, head of the FBiH Association of Decertified Police Officers stated that there have been many cases of violation of human rights and BiH Constitution during the desertification process. BiH HoP's Commission for Human Rights confirmed that there has been violation of human rights. Elmir Jahic, the Head of the Commission, stated that Commission has proposed audit of the certification process. The BiH Parliament Assembly accepted the proposal of the Commission. The BiH Council of Ministers has been ordered to establish a commission of audit within 2 months. The reporter commented that the fact that RS Police had arrested several police officers accused of war crime in Srebrenica proves that IPTF's certification process has had many irregularities.
