office
against 7
individuals

BHT1 – HR Christian Schwarz Schilling lifted bans on holding public office against 7 individuals earlier removed by former HR's. The seven individuals are: Edhem Bicakcic, Kemal Brodlija, Enes Cengic, Ramiz Dzaferovic, Elvedin Hrelja, Milos Krstic and Kemal Terzic. TV Hayat – 'The lifting of bans against these seven individuals does not return them to the positions from which they were removed. As the High Representative said, the removal of an OHR ban does not automatically mean that a particular individual can participate in full in public life. Rather, it means that it is no longer the OHR's responsibility to decide whether a person can participate or not. Political parties have to decide whether to put these individuals forward for certain positions, and if these individuals are placed on party lists, it is up to the electorate to decide whether they are the best people to chart BiH's future', OHR Spokesperson Sanela Tunovic explained.
