BiH lawsuit vs. SCG

Main court hearing in BiH lawsuit against SCG for aggression and genocide to commence before the ICJ on Monday

BHT1 by Boris Grubescic, The Hague – After 13 years of preparations of the indictment, and two unsuccessful attempts to contest the International Court of Justice's jurisdiction in the case, the main court hearing in the case of BiH lawsuit against SCG for aggression and genocide should commence before the ICJ on Monday. Head of BiH lawyers team, Sakib Softic, explained anticipated procedure: at the beginning of hearing, BiH and SCG teams will have five working days each to present their opening arguments. After that, both sides will interrogate their witnesses, and the closing arguments should be completed by May 9, 2006. According to some unofficial information, BiH witnesses will be mostly the international legal experts from outside the former Yugoslavia; they will testify and try to prove that SCG is responsible for the genocide committed during the war in BiH, and that it further did not do anything to stop the individuals, military or police formations under its control, from committing crimes in BiH. FTV by Dzenita Zirdum – Deputy BiH representative Phon van den Biesen stated: "If we have had this hearing five years ago, it would better in terms of justice... But we would not have the benefit of the ICTY judgements, that we have now – so, at the end, it is a positive thing." FTV by Arijana Saracevic-Helac, The Hague – FTV reporter emphasized the fact that it is the first time in history that a nation is accused of genocide. The written verdict should be reached within next 7 to 10 months. RTRS – RTRS noted that the lawsuit was filed without the approval of representatives of the Serb people in BiH. Hayat, PINK, Oslobođenje cover splash and pgs 4-5 'BiH is proving that SCG committed aggression and genocide' Not signed, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Trial to Serbia for genocide will be over on May 9, on Day of victory over fascism- by Sead Numanovic, Vecernji List cover pg splash 'BiH will demand 3 billion Dollars' and pg 3 'Process of century begins' by M. FTV – FTV also carries Stojanovic who said it would not be possible to prove that SCG committed genocide or that it was able to prevent it. Constitutional changes

Agreement on constitutional changes not signed on Sunday; HDZ: posed solutions are not even close to satisfy; SDA leader Tihic: this solution is not harmful for Croats	FTV by Zeljko Tica – Despite announcements, the leaders of biggest BiH political parties did not gather on Sunday to sign the agreement on changes to BiH Constitution. SDA leader Sulejman Tihic stated for FTV that the agreement was not signed because HDZ does not agree with the proposed direct election of BiH Presidency members; instead, HDZ advocates the election of BiH Presidency members in the state Parliament. Tihic believes this would be a step backwards: “This solution is not harmful for the Croat people in BiH, as someone wants to present it. It is maybe harmful for some parties, because it does not guarantee that their candidate will be elected as the BiH Presidency member... but that is the main purpose of democracy and elections. I believe that HDZ, as a serious political party, will reach an agreement with all the others signatory parties.” In the meantime, HDZ leaders in Mostar discussed constitutional changes. As Fena news agency reports, BiH Presidency member Ivo Miro Jovic, BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak and HDZ President Dragan Covic concluded that proposed solutions are not even close to satisfy the demands of sovereign and constituent BiH peoples. Tihic said: “(For this agreement) We have the two-third majority in Parliament, and two-third majority among all peoples in BiH. Those who talk about some other wish lists, they do not have the majority that could guarantee the implementation of those (constitutional) changes”. FTV reporter speculates that the agreement on constitutional changes could be signed sometime next week, but only if parties find a solution for the controversial issues. The signing of the Agreement is postponed for the next weekend because the guarantees that the negotiations will be followed by a second round after elections should be included in the written agreement. Tihic reminded the agreement wasn't signed due to HDZ's objection to the direct election of BiH Presidency members, while other parties oppose indirect elections believing this would prevent members of minorities to be elected for BiH Presidency. Asked how the progress could be claim when the essential thing – entity vote – has been preserved, Tihic answers by stressing that the essential thing was to have the state authority over defence, security, elections, agriculture, science and ecology sectors which is not the case. Tihic said that SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdzija has recognized state interests, as well as SDA, and he acts in statehood manner, adding the same couldn't be said for SbiH: "This party deceives BiH citizens talking about the reach of agreed constitutional changes." Inset 'Coalition depends on the election results' – "When it comes to the state interest, I have to admit that SDP... was absolutely ready to act for the benefit of all citizens of our country. SDP elevated above narrow party's interests. Differently from SBiH, which cares more for whether [Vahid] Heco will be the Minister than for the F BiH budget. Well, now that I have this many nice words for SDP, someone will think the coalition is done deal. Well, that is not the case. SDP and SDA coalition,... will depend on election results... and party leaderships," comments Tihic. Inset 'Without signature of US Administration'- Tihic said that he is not concerned by the fact that there would be no signature of US Administration or of western countries on the agreement on constitutional changes, stressing that it is far more important that they see this agreement as great progress.

Political parties comment TI report: they admit corruption, but not in their party lines	Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Halilovic: Such reports are warning, but are bias as well' by N.D. and Z.P. – Following 2005 annual report issued by the Transparency International according to which BiH is one of the least developed and most corrupted countries in the world and that the political parties are the most corrupted, DA brings reactions by some of the leading political officials in BiH. SDA's Sefket Hafizovic emphasized that SDA is not one of such parties, emphasizing its determination to fight corruption. Stressing such reports are a warning but also that they are bias, SBiH's Safet Halilovic stated corrupted parties certainly exist, again excluding a possibility that SBiH is one of them. SNSD's Nebojsa Radmanovic reminded that SNSD warned about this. "I don't know how true is the claim that crime is largest in highest bodies of parties, but I do know that we will try to eradicate it," said Radmanovic. DNS's Drago Kalabic stated the majority of RS officials are involved with the crime, however adds the International Community uses evidences for this for political blackmail. Kalabic adds SDS is to be blamed for this. "They started first and paved the way to others to come. PDP that was united with them in crime for years, acts like that as well" said Kalabic
