crisis: I
don't see
reason for resignation

Dnevni Avaz front pg splash 'I do not see reason for resignation' and pg 5 'If parties are not ready for reforms, they should look for new chairman', by Admir Malagic – In an interview for Avaz, Chairman Adnan Terzic says that he will, after today's meeting of ruling political parties, decide whether it pays off to stay the Chairman of BiH CoM. Terzic says he is interested whether the parties are ready to go alone in the reforms without participation of various UN and OHR's commissions, including the police reform. "If they are not ready for reforms, they probably will ask for a new chairman [of the BiH Council of Ministers], because I am not ready to spend my mandate on things that do not take BiH to the EU", says Terzic. He also notes that he would not be resigning: "I have reasons to ask from the parties of the parliamentary majority, if we cannot reach a consensus on reform programs, to find new solutions and vote on the vote of no confidence, thus coming to a situation to appoint new ministers and chairman and in that way I would leave this project".

Dnevni List, pgs 6-7 'Nobody came to Doboje to solve crisis', mentioned on front ', by Nermin Bise – In an interview to DL, Adnan Terzic comments on Mladen Ivanic's statement that the only solution (to the crisis) was the appointment of new CoM: "I will wait for today's continuation of talks to see what we will do. I assume the way out is, as I already said, is to fill the CoM with experts from the RS and continue with our reform course". Questioned whether he had the support to fill in the vacant ministerial posts with the experts from RS, Terzic says: "If you are asking me if I have the support of the Parliament, I think I do not, but we will see...Political subjects from the RS should realize it is a good bypass until next elections".
