That is the only way of trust and returning of authorities to institutions and carriers of public functions in BIH" says Paravac. He stated that cooperation with ICTY has to be full and in accordance with legal obligations. Main foreign policy goals will be Partnership for Peace and membership in EU as well as improving relations with the states from the region and USA that have a key role in fight against international terrorism. BHT 1 by Suzana Stambol – BHT 1 carries that citizens express their dissatisfaction with the work of Presidency. Omeragic – Representatives of the Party for BiH left a session of the Federation of BiH Government held on Thursday in Mostar after changes to the Law on Privatisation of Firms were not adopted. The Government officials, who are members of the Party for BiH, have accused HDZ and SDA of not protecting interests of the state and state companies, while Nedžad Brankovic (SDA) and Deputy Prime Minister of the Government Dragan Vrankic have replied that the Party for BiH was working against international regulations. If the draft of the Party for BiH had been adopted, HT Zagreb would not be in a position to participate in the privatisation of telecommunication companies in BiH. Dnevni Avaz, cover 'Brankovic, Pasic and HDZ prevented an audit' and pg. 3 'HDZ, Brankovic and Pasic obstructed the start of an audit' by A. Hadziarapovic – After the session, the FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic has stated that the situation should be analysed and it was not excluded there would be some personnel changes at the Government of the Federation of BiH. Dnevni Avaz inset 'Brankovic: Only SDA can remove me' carries a reaction of Nedžad Brankovic, who has stated that it would not be a surprise if the Prime Minister had requested for his resignation, however, he points out that only SDA can request for his resignation. FTV, RHB, Dnevni List pg 3 'Demand for audit of privatization endangered FBiH Government', mentioned on cover, 'Ministers from Party for BiH left session', by I. DA int with Tihic	Dnevni Avaz, cover 'FTV spreads untruth on terrorism of Bosniaks' and pg. 5 'We expect a verdict in case against SiCG for aggression and genocide would be brought in 2006' by Admir Malagic – In an interview to DA, Sulejman Tihic has presented achievements that have been made during his mandate as the Chairman of BiH Presidency. He also commented on the process of deciding on the appointment of Dragan Bozanic and said he was later blamed by some media for failing to use the mechanism of the protection of vital national interest in this case. Tihic said this would be a precedent and he claims FTV had blamed him although it constantly spreads untruth on terrorism of Bosniaks. He also says FTV is misusing its position of a public media and in such way is endangering interests of Bosniak people. In relation to a decision of BiH Constitutional Court on immunity of Dragan Covic, Tihic said the decision itself would not influence the work of the Presidency. Regarding the lawsuit against SiCG, he says he believes a verdict would be brought in 2006, which would confirm the lawsuit and confirm the character of the war – aggression and genocide.

Update to elections in Mostar	FTV, Dnevni List, pg 15 'Are Croats losing power in Mostar?', mentioned on front, by Sanja Bjelica, Oslobodjenje, pg. 5 'Names of 35 councillors are known' by Fena, Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Bosniaks and Croats will each have 15 seats at the Town Council' by F. Vele, Nezavisne Novine, pg. 9 'Mostar Town Council was appointed' by V. C. – The BiH Election Commission presented in Mostar Thursday names of all the councilors in the future composition of the Mostar City Council (MCC). Since the election rules in Mostar stipulate that each constituent people must have at least 4 councilors in the MCC, and in the same time 15 councilors the most, some elected candidates had to be swapped with other candidates in order to satisfy the representation criteria. As a result, no party lost seats in the MCC, and the representation pre-requisite was fulfilled. Future MCC will have four Serb councilors, two coming from the HDZ's list, one from SDA and SDP each. One councilor from the 'others' will be coming from the SBiH. Vecernji List, pg 4 "Consequences for misses', by Miso Relota – The President of HDZ Mostar, Miroslav Coric, notes that formally-legally speaking, any of 35 councilors in the MCC could become a new Mayor of Mostar. However, Coric is convinced that the new Mayor will come from the HDZ-led coalition. Furthermore, Coric says that he is unhappy with the election results and the turnout. "When the HDZ Presidency discusses the election results, the conclusion will come by itself. We are not happy with the number of seats in the future composition of the City Council. Unfortunately, it will draw certain consequences and whatever the Presidency decides, I have to observe those decisions", says Coric.

SB on Venice Commission visit to BiH	Slobodna Bosna, pgs. 50-51 'Paddy Ashdown must respect basic conventions of the European legislation in BiH' by Nidzara Ahmetasevic – The article refers to the Venice Commission session held at the beginning of this week in Banja Luka and Sarajevo. It reads that the Assembly of the Council of Europe has presented a stance that some of authorizations of OHR were (not) in accordance with the European Convention on Human Rights and basic democratic principles, as well as that the constitutional organization of BiH is a great obstacle on its path to European Union. One of the Venice Commission representatives, Thomas Markert, has explained the Commission came to BiH to investigate whether the authorization of the High Representative were in accordance with European standards, as well as to investigate whether the BiH constitution was harmonized with European Conventions on human rights and to determine whether the constitutional organization of BiH was rational and efficient. He complimented a positive approach of the High Representative in relation to this issue. Asked to comment whether BiH could enter EU, Merkert said: 'BiH is a member country of the Council of Europe and it recognizes it as an independent country. However, it is clear that powers of the High Representative represent an element of a protectorate'. He presented his stance that BiH should not remain the same in the future and he said this was not a path to a complete independence.
Ivanic consulting EU over Bozanic appointment FBiH	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Ivanic consults Ambassadors of EU countries' by Fena – BiH Foreign Affairs Minister Mladen Ivanic, in accordance with the task which he received from the BiH Presidency, started consultations with EU ambassadors aimed at reviewing the decision on appointing Dragan Bozanic as the BiH Ambassador to the Council of Europe. FBiH HoR against Bozanic's appointment	FTV, RHB, Dnevni List pg 7 'Annulment of Dragan Bozanic's appointment demanded' by I. Glibusic– The FBiH House of Representatives protested against the appointment of Dragan Bozanic as the BiH Ambassador to the Council of Europe. Dani interview with Ivanic on OHR, ambassadorial appointments	Dani pgs 12-15 'There are few Embassies that did a good job' by Snjezana Lulic Busatlija – In a lengthy interview to Dani, Mladen Ivanic, BiH Foreign Minister, comments the letter sent by Donald Hays, PDHR on 14 September which reads that PDHR was still receiving "disturbing reports" regarding failures of the BiH Foreign Ministry on issuance of visas. Ivanic says: "Only two days after we received that letter, we had a meeting at the BiH Security Ministry with OHR and made agreements on all issues. The point was that State Border Service, Ministry institutions and visa departments link together. I will demand a follow-up meeting with the OHR to check whether this has been completed, since as for Foreign Ministry, it is not our problem." Regarding the appointments to BiH embassies and consular mission, he notes decision on this issue rests with the BiH Presidency, expressing his personal view there are too many BiH missions in central Asia and Middle East, adding that some members of BiH Presidency would oppose their closure. He reiterates his commitment to constitutional duties and ethnic key during appointment process, owing to which reason some of the positions at the BiH Foreign Ministry are still vacant (for which State Auditors criticised him). Responding to press question as to whether why Krunoslav Vasilj, BiH Ambassador in Jordan (who issued BiH visas to Jordan citizens without the approval of the Foreign Ministry) has not been removed from position over this, he says the Ministry's Audit Office is preparing a report on issuance of visas in Amman.

Cubro— BiH Police Restructuring Commission met in Brussels on Thursday with senior officials of the European Union, High Representative for Common Foreign and Security Policy, Javier Solana and European Commissioner for External Affairs, Chris Patten. During the meetings, the PRC presented the EU with the Declaration expressing firm commitment to fulfill its mandate to recommend a single structure of policing in BiH. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'EU wants police at the state level' by S.Numanovic – E.Sarac – Javier Solana noted that the PRC had a historical opportunity to show the EU that BiH was serious about its European reform agenda – and its commitment to effective policing. The PRC has been asked to design a single state level structure for BiH's police. "This means that political oversight should be exercised by the Ministry of Security at the State level, which must maintain full responsibility for all legislation relating to police, and for funding the police", said Solana. "The State could devolve other functions to the lower levels of government, and that is for the PRC to decide upon – based on what works best from a law-enforcement perspective", he said adding "You must be guided by what is needed for effective law enforcement, not by politics – in the modern world we cannot afford anything less". A review of police functionality in BiH conducted by the EU and presented in July this year, found BiH's police forces to be divided, over staffed, under-resourced, and unable to operate between BiH's two entities. BiH's law enforcement agencies cannot at the moment effectively tackle crime within BiH's own borders. The source close to the Police commission told DA that Darko Matijasevic, RS MoI, and Radomir Njegus, RS Police Director, still oppose the unification of the police at the state level. DA adds that however, it is expected for them to eventually agree on this. Dnevni List pg 5 'Efficient implementation of Law and not politics' by NINA, – also reported.
