AFP: Experts on apprehension of Karadzic, Mladic	BHT, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje pg 2 'Karadzic and Mladic have evaded apprehension for nine times' by Sense, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'They could have caught criminal Karadzic but they did not have permission to act', Dnevni List, pg 9 'American admiral prevented arrest of Karadzic', by De. L., EuroBlic cover and pg 11 'Americans prevented the arrest of Karadzic'; Nacional cover and pg 3 'Nine lives of Karadzic and Mladic'; Glas Srpske pg 3 'Ramp from Washington'; Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Karadzic and Mladic evaded arrests for nine times' by AFP, AFP – Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic, the Bosnian Serb political and military leaders sought for warcrimes, have evaded NATO's net for nine years with the aid of sophisticated support networks, coupled with the incompetence or reluctance of countries to help catch them, experts say. The arrest of Mladic, 62, and Karadzic, 59, will be one of the major challenges facing the European Union when on December 2 it takes over the reins from the NATO-led SFOR force helping maintain stability in the former Yugoslav country. "Every day we received information about Karadzic. We filmed his movements. It was easy to arrest him. But we never got the green light to act," said a former official of a European country's secret services who was in Bosnia when the two men went on the run. "Conversely, if we had launched an operation against Mladic, who hid for a long period in caves, protected by some 500 soldiers, we would have had casualties on our side," he said. NATO-member France, which has committed heavily to the NATO Stabilisation Force in Bosnia, was suspected by the United States of not doing enough to track the two down after they were indicted in 1995 by the International Criminal Court for the former Yugoslavia in The Hague on warcrimes charges. But even though Washington put up a five-million-dollar (3.75-million-euro) reward for information leading to the arrest of people wanted for crimes committed during the breakup of the former Yugoslavia, it did not seem to be intent on arresting them either. "When we could have captured Karadzic, SFOR's commander-in-chief, the American Admiral Leighton Smith, stopped us, saying that he did not have orders from Washington to arrest him," the former agent said. "No doubt the United States did not want to risk casualties in Bosnia." But then US interest picked up again in mid-2003, amid a failure to nab ousted Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein, or Al-Qaeda leader Osama bin Laden, a source involved with the security services in Paris said. "The CIA (Central Intelligence Agency) then offered several million dollars to a former European military official to tap his networks among Bosnian Serbs to find Karadzic and Mladic," he added, saying this proved how little effort Washington had put into the hunt in the meantime. Specialists also point to the inadequate coordination between the secret services of the different SFOR member countries. Other factors contributed to the two indictees' escape: support from Bosnian Serbs, including certain leaders, the availability of funds, help from elements of the army in Belgrade for Mladic and extreme caution by the two fugitives in communicating.

EUFOR Commander on Althea	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'EUFOR will speed up BiH's admission to EU', mentioned on cover, by Mile Lasic – Daily carries the excerpts from the interview EUFOR Commander David Leakey gave to Germany Sunday newspapers Frankfurter Allgemeine Sonntagszeitung in which he explained the EUFOR role in BiH. He did not hide that there were some problems at the beginning of EUFOR, however added that at the end "NATO was determined to support EU in preparing Althea operation." As for difficulties, Leakey spoke about the fact that not all soldiers are equally trained, that some of them have problems with English and that some have less military experience. Leakey believes EUFOR will make sure to keep BiH stabile and secure country.
NN interview with British Ambassador Cliff	Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 4 'Arrest of war crime suspects is responsibility of RS MoI' by R. Cengic – In a brief interview to NN, Ian Cliff, British Ambassador to BiH, says that the arrest of war crime suspects is the responsibility of the BiH authorities, especially the RS Interior Ministry. He warns that the Hague indictees spending time in BiH have been mainly located in RS. He expresses his belief that there will be no attempts of arrests by EUFOR, NATO and Darko Matijasevic, RS MoI. British Ambassador reminds that Great Britain will soon take over the presiding over the EU, when the talks on BiH admission into EU might be possible, stressing: "However, BiH must fulfil all the demands, so not a single of those frequently complaining would have an opportunity to say anything."
BiH Ambassador Alkalaj on cooperation with ICTY, PFP	BHT, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 5 'BiH is held hostage by non-cooperation with the Tribunal' by Fena, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'US supports BiH admission into PFP', Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Slight chances for BiH admission into NATO' by N.N., FENA – It would be very important for BiH to insure its presence at the Euro-Atlantic Council's ministerial meeting, which will take place in Brussels on December 9, the BiH Ambassador to Belgium and NATO, Sven Alkalaj, told BiH journalists. The Euro-Atlantic Council gathers 26 member-states of NATO and 20 partner countries, and the Balkans will be one of the main topics on the agenda so that it is important for BiH to make a contribution, especially because of its aspirations to join the Partnership for Peace. If BiH was to take part, its representatives could only participate in the segment that refers to BiH, because we have not signed an agreement on exchange of confidential information with NATO, according to Alkalaj. Ambassador Alkalaj declared that this agreement should be concluded before joining PFP. According to him, BiH could already be participating in activities that have the character of the Partnership for Peace and that the issue of (non)cooperation with the Hague Tribunal is the main barrier on this road. "We do not wish to lose pace in defence reform and stay behind all the other countries from the PFP that have already appeared as candidates for NATO because of this one obstacle", stressed Alkalaj. "BiH does not have any chance of joining PFP before demonstrating the cooperation with the Tribunal and bringing the persons indicted for war crimes to justice", said Ambassador Alkalaj, adding that "BiH is the hostage of non-cooperation with the Hague".

Update to processing of war crimes before local courts	Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 3 'East Sarajevo Prosecutor's Office: Tribunal demands additional evidence' by M. Cubro – East Sarajevo District Prosecutor's Office has confirmed to NW that the Hague Prosecutor's Office has demanded additional information and evidence, in order to ensure the processing war crimes cases against 13 war-time commanders of Army and Interior Ministry of R BiH (Republic of BiH). According to Ranka Misic, Prosecutor with District PO, said that: "We have so far received responses to only few files we have sent to the Hague." NW further brings names of persons, against whom East Sarajevo PO has filed cases with the Hague Tribunal: Ismet Hadzic Mutaveli, Kerim Lucarevic, Osman Dzamaliya, Malik Krivic, Reuf Jahic, Refik Skolar, Besim Muderizovic, Ramiz Avdovic, Hasan Efendic, Jerko Doko, Dragan Vikic.
NN op-ed on arrest of war crime suspects	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Hiding the crime' by Branko Todorovic – The article is about arrests of war crime suspects. The author strongly expresses his view that the RS authorities have not – even slightly – diverted from their original path on (non)cooperation with the ICTY, noting that RS authorities are incapable of facing with the truth and taking over the responsibility.

‘Decertified police officers before Venice Commission’ by V. Zivak – The Chair of the BiH Council of Minister Adnan Terzic has confirmed for daily that he will sent a letter to the Venice Commission this week asking its members to take a stance the case of decertified police officers in BiH. “It is questionable whether the human right were respected in the process of de-certification of police officers,” said Terzic stressing that the CoM will respect any decision that Venice Commission might bring. If the Commission estimates that human rights were breached, Terzic said that the de-certification of the police officers will be put under the review.

Dnevni Avaz pg 5 ‘I will ask Venice

Commission to interpret issue of decertified police officers’, mentioned on cover, by Faruk Cardzic – In an interview to DA, Terzic adds on this issue that a decision to refer to Venice Commission for an assistance in the issue doesn’t mean that he stands against former IPTF [who carried out certification process within UN Mission in BiH] and UN. He concludes that it is also not acceptable that some police officers possess valid certification for the work while being on the A list of the ICTY [about 10 persons].

SDP slams HR
Ashdown over Law on Pardon

Oslobodjenje pg 4 'False Ashdown's reformers', Dnevni List, pg 6 'SDP appalled with impudence of High Representative', by NINA, Vecernji List, pg 3 'SDP BiH embittered', by ibc, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'SDP of BiH did not vote on Law on Pardon' by N.N. – As a reaction to the decision by the High Representative for BiH to annul the Law on Pardon, SDP BiH issued a press release yesterday (Sunday) in which it stated that the party was appalled with the impudence of the High Representative for BiH, claiming that Ashdown is trying to save "remains of his failed strategy about reformed nationalists and those who can lead BiH into European integration". SDP claims that HR Ashdown started accusing everyone in order to save his favourites and save himself too, after the very top of "his reformists", embodied in the BiH Presidency, used the Law on Pardon to take a decision in a completely undemocratic manner. SDP claims that the law was made in a "workshop" of the BiH Council of Ministers in cooperation with the people from the OHR. Finally, SDP notes it was inappropriate from HR Ashdown to accuse the media and opposition of playing with justice.

Jukic (HDZ) on Law on Pardon: Annuling the law was not the best solution	Dnevni List, pg 5 ‘There was no need to annul Law on Pardon’, by Ivica Glibusic – Deputy Speaker of the BiH Parliament’s House of Peoples, Velimir Jukic (HDZ), commented on the recent decision of the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, to annul the Law on Pardon by saying the HR has the right to both enact and abolish the law, however Jukic says the HR is obliged to observe the current laws in BiH. “I think it was not the best way, especially having in mind the fact that the law is only a few months old and that the law is really important. Maybe the High Representative should have ordered the re-examining of certain provisions of the law and see whether some of them are not in harmony with standards in the EU countries (...) One had to see whether there was a need to change or amend some provisions of the law, the law should not have been declared invalid in its entirety”, says Jukic.

Oslobodjenje  op-ed on Law  on Pardons	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Debacle' op-ed by Ibrahim Prohic – Commenting to the decision of the HR Paddy Ashdown to repeal the Law on Pardons, editorials says it was a slam in the face of all officials structures in BiH and "a defence of public interests and public moral." Author further says that the scandal exposes extreme neglect in work of the Parliamentarians. "The more and more frequent advocating for the international factor to withdraw and domestic forces to oversee BiH structuring... is too early and missed. This society is not yet ready for political autonomy. Unfortunately!... with all weaknesses of the OHR, without them here it would be worse," concludes the op-ed.
Statement of  Day:  Sulejman  Tihic	Dnevni List, pg 2 carries in its 'Statement of Day', the Bosniak member of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic, as saying: "The High Representative can annul a law, but this time he was not right".

FBiH Government to hold session today: Hadzipasic expects all Ministers to come	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Hadzipasic expects arrival of all ministers', mentioned on cover 'Hadzipasic expects all ministers at the session' by A. Member of PRC Hadzic
on future organization of Police forces in BiH

Dnevni List, pg 4 'One will not and must not give in to requests of Republika Srpska', by Arijana Beus – According to DL, when it comes to the future organization of Police forces in BiH, majority of members of the Police Reform Commission (PRC) are in favour of organization of Police structure in five regions: Sarajevo, Banja Luka, Mostar, Tuzla and Zenica. DL carries Damir Hadzic, a PRC member, as saying that the future single Police structure will be organized at two levels. Namely, there will be a State level with the SIPA and State Border Service, and the second, regional level, at which there will be efforts to identify the best solution in order to have a functional Police forces. "The best way to organize Police is at the level of regions, by which BiH will finally get the State Minister, commissioners who are directly responsible to citizens for the job they are doing and Police that will answer the challenges, which is to decrease the level of crimes in BiH to minimum", says Hadzic. Commenting on the position of the RS Interior Minister, Darko Matijasevic, who insists that the entity MoIs should remain in the future, Hadzic says: "Requests by politicians from the RS and the politicisation coming from the RS are completely unjustified and unrealistic, and one will not and must not give in to them".

Violations of Constitution
in F BiH

Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 2 'F BiH Parliament has been violating the Constitution for two years now' by V. Popovic – Velimir Kunic, delegate at the F BiH House of Representatives, says that the failure to constitute the House of Peoples at the F BiH Parliament for two years now represents a violation of the F BiH Constitution, which disables one of three constitutive peoples, Serb, to achieve their rights. According to 22 Amendment to the F BiH Constitution, which HR declared on 19 April 2002, 17 delegate are to represent each of three constitutive peoples, while only 11 delegates have been appointed at the Serb Caucus, noting there is no political will to see the F BiH House of Peoples established.

Glas Srpske cover page story 'Barely the Constitution' by N. Z. – GS also writes about "the most drastic violation of the decision of BiH Constitutional Court on constitutionality of Peoples'". GS further notes that this is not the only example of violation, adding that majority of F BiH Cantons has not still harmonised their Cantonal with F BiH Constitution. GS expresses surprise over the indifference of the international community over this issue, reminding that HR strongly mediated in adoption of the constitutional amendments in Republika Srpska. However, Vedran Persic, OHR Spokesperson, disagrees with this assessment.

Economic/social issues

SDU's Lazovic on review of privatization

Dnevni Avaz cover page 'SDU's Lazovic: Review will not be strike on successful companies', pg 4 'Review is a natural act and it has been carried out twice in the process of housing fund privatization' by F.C., Oslobodjenje pg 6 'State must not lose Elektroprivreda and BH Telecom' by I. Trepalovac, FENA – The BiH Social Democratic Union (SDU) does not support the complete privatization of the capital in the state companies such as BiH Elektroprivreda, BH Telecom, and certain banks, because the State should remain major owner in these strategic companies, it was stated on Sunday at the Party's press conference. SDU President Miro Lazovic said that with the profits of these capital companies, the state would be able to affirm and stimulate development projects and privatization. Otherwise, he added, BiH would become not only economically, but also politically dependent on certain countries or strong private lobbies that would be engaged in creating the overall processes in BiH – political, economic and social. Lazovic said that SDU plans to organize several public debates on the subject "What BiH must not sell!" in coming days. Regarding the review of privatization, SDU declares that it is necessary to conduct it. However, the companies and individuals that have conducted the privatization in accordance with the law have no reason to be afraid of anything. Lazovic said that privatization must be audited in order to sanction the irregularities for the benefit of the state and the workers.

Minister Doko
on free trade agreements

Vecernji List, front pg splash and pg 5
'Trade: Dragan Doko: We will change agreements with Zagreb and Belgrade', by Zoran Kresic – Amid announcements of protests and blockades of border crossings by farmers in BiH, who are unhappy with the free trade agreements with the neighbouring countries, VL carries an interview with the BiH Minister of Foreign Trade and Economic Relations, Dragan Doko, who says the farmers should not be blocking border crossings because it is not the right thing to do, however Doko admits that farmers do have reasons to be unhappy. Questioned as to what the BiH Council of Ministers had done to protect farmers in BiH, Doko says: "In talks with countries we signed the (free trade) contracts with, we will try to solve problems. If we do not get the understanding, one cannot rule out other measures". Furthermore, Minister Doko says the solution to the problem is subsidies to the farmers (in BiH), since subsidies in BiH and in neighbouring countries are at different levels, because the subsidies in BiH are as much as ten times lower. Finally, Doko says closing of BiH borders to foreign products as a solution is out of question.

DL: MOL and INA interested in becoming strategic partners to Energopetrol?	Dnevni List, pg 3, mentioned on front ‘INA and MOL buying Energopetrol together?’, by Jurislav Petrovic – According to a report of the Zagreb-based ‘Dnevnik’ business daily, the Hungarian ‘MOL’ and Croatian ‘INA’ (oil companies) are planning to become strategic partners to ‘Energopetrol’ Company of Sarajevo and eventually become the majority owners. Apparently, MOL and INA forwarded a joint bid to the FBiH Government, which owns 67% of Energopetrol. The FBiH Minister of Energy and Industry, Izet Zigic, does not know whether MOL and INA submitted a joint or separate bid(s), because all bids were to be submitted to the FBiH Privatization Agency until November 26. Zigic also notes the whole process is not about sale or privatization of the company, it is in fact about finding a strategic company, which will help consolidate the Energopetrol. Apparently, the whole process should end by March 20, 2005.
Update to ITA employment process	Glas Srpske pg 5 ‘Add, subtract – there is a lack of Serbs’ by D. Vrhovac – Mihajlovic – The article claims that, out of 36 of the most important positions in ITA in Banja Luka, Bosniaks got 20, while Serbs and Croats got 8 each. GS claims it had not managed to get a comment on this issue from ITA Director Kemal Causevic. A source close to ITA claims some employees of ITA seat were given jobs without a vacancy notice.
