SRS promised to give Bukejlovic their support if SDA doesn't participate in the new RS Government. “Mr. Bukejlovic stated that he doesn't want the support of SDA and that he doesn't want SDA Ministers in his Government”, says SRS Chairman Radislav Kanjeric.

RTRS by Nada Arlov – RTRS comments that since Bukejlovic doesn't answer journalist question it remains to be seen what those open options that he mentioned yesterday are.

FTV – Kanjeric reminded RS Prime Minister designate Pero Bukejlovic on the agreement, signed between 6 RS political parties, and which referred to perseverance of RS institutions.

Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Radicals will support the Government without SDA' by J.S., Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 "Everybody can participate in the Government" by O. Vukovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Kanjeric opposes the Government that includes SDA' by V. P. –also reported on Kanjeric's statement.

Stojicic: there would be no SDA Ministers at new RS Government	BHT1, FTV, Glas Srpske pg 5 'Only in accordance with Agreement' not signed – SDS Presidency member Dusan Stojicic said that there would be no ministers from the SDA in the new Pero Bulejlovic's Government, adding that new RS Government will be formed by mid February. Stojicic said that there are a number of options for unblocking the work of the BiH Council of Ministers. RTRS – Stojicic also said that every party including SDA has the right to support the Government.
Tihic: SDA will not participate RS Govt, nor will it give its support	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'SDA will not participate in RS Government, nor will it give its support', mentioned on cover, by A.M. – The SDA leader, Sulejman Tihic, confirmed for DA that this party will not support or participate in the RS Government established by PM-designate Pero Bukejlovic. "That is clear and definite stance. That was also said by the RS Vice President, Adil Osmanovic, after the meeting with Bukejlovic. Perhaps he was not clear enough, which left possibility for that statement to be interpreted in entirely different way," said Tihic. Commenting to the meeting with Bukejlovic, Tihic said it was only a 'courteous' discussion, concluding that Bukejlovic, as SDS candidate, cannot implement needed reforms.

Osmanovic: SDA will be opposition
party in RS
if Bukejlovic sticks to Agreement

Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'SDA will be opposition party in RS', mentioned on cover, by S. Rozajac – the RS Vice President, Adil Osmanovic, stated for daily that SDA be opposition party in RS unless RS Prime Minister-designate, Pero Bukejlovic, gives up the Agreement on harmonized political action signed by the leaders of Serb political parties in RS. Daily comments that even though Osmanovic stated on Thursday that “all options regarding SDA participation in RS Government are open”, he now says that Bukejlovic abandoned their agreement making the situation entirely different. “Bukejlovic told us on Thursday that he did not signed that Agreement which was also put in question due to everything that happened lately,” said Osmanovic explaining that while this was positive, Bukejlovic stated later in the day that there is no place for SDA in the Government.

Politicians' reactions on the issue of symbols and holidays

RHB, RTRS – BIH Constitutional RS National Assembly Speaker Dusan Stojicic feels that RS arguments regarding its right to have its symbols are so strong the initiative to change them will not be adopted. Stojicic stated that RS NA wasn't notified on the discussion in BIH Constitutional Court so RS representative wasn't present at it.

RTRS – RS representatives agree that there is nothing in RS symbols that endangers other people. Krstan Simic from SNSD feels that this matter negates the right of Serb people to have their historic symbols.

Desanka Radjevic member of RS Council of Peoples stated that RS symbols do not endanger any national interests.

BHT1 – “There were several attempts of adoption of the State Law on holidays, two official ones, as far as I remember. Due to lack of political will, that Law is still not adopted,” stated BiH Minister of Civil Affairs, Safet Halilovic. Constitutional Court will adopt decision on those two issues in the coming two months.

Popovic – SDS Main Board member Slavko Pivasevic says such a development of events regarding PDP's return to CoM was expected since this is the party that has participated at executive authority since it was established. He also thinks PDP was in favoured position due to pressures of International Community against SDS. SNSD Secretary Igor Radojicic thinks the return of PDP Ministers to CoM, after they have already resigned, would mean a complete failure of the Agreement on Harmonized Political Activities. Drago Kalabic (DNS) says PDP return to CoM would be the top of hypocrisy of Mladen Ivanic. SRS President Milanko Mihajlica thinks the only solution is election of new CoM, not the return of Ministers. Cardzic – DA brings reactions to the statement by the Chair of the Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, that the restructuring of the CoM demands establishing two additional ministries –for Agriculture and Energy, and Ministry for Social and Health policies, and Employment. The Head of SDS Caucus in the BiH House of Representative, Momcilo Novakovic, says that while restructuring can be carried out without this, establishment of the Defence Ministry breached the even national distribution of ministers positions which could be fixed either by abolishment or establishment of two ministries. The BiH HoR Speaker, Sefik Dzaferovic, and leader of SBiH, Safet Halilovic, says that they supports Terzic's proposal, which is also an opinion of the Deputy Speaker of BiH HoR, Martin Raguz, who added that Terzic's proposal is along HDZ's demands for restructuring. The jacket should be first of all 'undone', and then the Dayton-BiH should turn into a multi-ethnic and democratic state that functions normally. Only that kind of BiH has the future. Both politicians and citizens have to work hard on that with support of Europe. We are ready for it, but I am not sure all the people in BiH want it too".

Lord David Oven: Dayton Agreement exists to remain

Glas Srpske pg 5 'Dayton was written in order to remain' by NIN – GS re-reports on the interview Lord David Oven gave to the Serbian magazine "NIN", where he says that the issue of Dayton Agreement should not be re-opened, adding "whether we like it or not, DA exists to remain. I do not claim that some corrections of DA should be completely excluded, but just that it must result from the agreement of the opposed sides. If the international community makes corrections by itself, it will not succeed." He expresses his personal view that one of the biggest mistakes IC has made, especially EU, happened in 1991, when it firmly rejected the principle of change of borders. On possible voluntary surrender of Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic, Oven expresses his view that Mladic would never surrender, while Karadzic is a completely type of person – a gambler.

Mirko Sarovic: HR eliminated
certain persons to bring PIWFCs
to justice

Glas Srpske inset PLUS pg 2 'High Representative is the gravedigger of the rule of law' by Boro Maric-Goran Mihajlovic – In a lengthy interview to GS, Mirko Sarovic, the former RS president and the member of BiH Presidency, reluctantly speaks of events two years ago, which he finds to have been extremely unpleasant. He notes that if the RS authorities had more firmly defended the position of RS president Nikola Poplasen six years ago, the position of the RS at the present time would have been different. On HR Paddy Ashdown, he says that "HR, as the real power centre in BiH, in collaboration with those proving that power to him, decided to eliminate certain number of people – or should we say pass the verdict without trial on the basis of suspicion those people are assisting war crimes suspects, and all in order to weaken the network of assistance and bring PIWFC's to justice". He notes that the goal of some reforms, including police reform, is to strengthen the centralised position of the state.

Police / defence reforms

HR Ashdown: police model
with most regions
rejected;
decision on accepted model next week

Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 3 'The map with most regions rejected' by A. Prlenda – In a statement for daily, the HR Paddy Ashdown stated that following discussions with all interested parties, a proposal for the police restructuring according to which there would be 10+1 police regions in BiH was rejected. Ashdown added that other two options – of five, and 9+1 regions – can meet demands for effective police reforms. He added that public will be presented with the proposal of the future police organization in the beginning of next week: "The chair of the [Police Reform Commission], Wilfred Martens, asked me to take over further discussions with both experts in the police field and political leaders, and to chose one map on base of those talks. At the beginning of the week I will publicise results of the discussions attended by EUPM Commissioner Kevin Carty and me." Asked whether chosen map will stir negative reactions, Ashdown reminds that RS is not willing to accept anything that would destroy entity jurisdiction over police. "There is no dilemma that some will find chosen map difficult to accept. But, we cannot go to Europe unless police is in accordance with European standards," concludes Ashdown.

Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash and pg 3 'BiH needs a single police divided in five or ten regions' by M. Cubro – also carries the interview with HR Ashdown on police reform. RHB, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Ashdown to decide on police reform next week' – also carries announcement that HR will present chosen model next week.

yrs

He adds that BiH could also become the member state of NATO in five years. Asked what are other DRC's goals for this year, Gregorian answers: "I hope that entities [defence] ministries will merge into one at the state level, that there will be decrease of people in military structures in BiH, and that BiH Armed Forces will be filled out adequately. Finally, that appropriate measures will be carried out after [BiH] Defence Ministry publicizes report [on army cooperation with ICTY] on 14 February. I hope DRC will be handed over to BiH authorities this year. And of course, precondition for PFP members is to see Karadzic and Mladic in the Hague." Asked about abolishment of the entities defence ministries, Gregorian explains that majority of employees will continue with their jobs, and that the only change will be establishment of the single administrative chain of command in BiH. "I don't think that Serb politicians strictly oppose that... they also lobby for profesionalisation of the army," says Gregorian adding DRC will see to this issue. He concludes that as for entities Armies, they will most probably continue to exist this year.
