The signatories say that they are ready to use all legal and political means, including the right to a referendum of RS citizens, in order to protect legitimate Serb interests and to preserve the identity acknowledged by the Dayton Accord. The joint statement was signed by representatives of: SDS, PDP, SRS, DPS, SNS, SPS, RS Pensioners Party, People's Democratic Party, Democratic Party of RS, Serb Radical Movement Dr Vojislav Seselj. SNSD, SPRS and DNS did not sign the joint statement. Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Tihic asked to withdraw initiative for changes of RS symbols' by M. Vidovic – RSNA adopted the conclusion authorizing legal commission of the Parliament to establish the final text of the response to Tihic's initiative which would be sent to BiH Constitutional Court. RS Government was instructed to analyse the Law on flag, coat of arms and hymn, and other relevant laws and legal documents, and in case of need to suggest RSNA with some changes and amendments in September. Vecernji List, pg 3, 'Serbs ready for secession from BiH', mentioned on cover, by Branka Stevandic – Signatories also demand full implementation of constitutional principles on constituency of peoples in the FBiH and immediate adoption of amendments to Constitutions of the FBiH and cantons thanks to which Serb constituency in entire FBIH would be established. They also ask for formation of the full delegation of the Serb people in the FBiH Parliament's House of Peoples, and they demand from the Serb people representatives in the BiH Presidency and BiH Parliamentary Assembly to launch assessment of constitutionality of all the decisions passed in the rump FBiH Parliament. Glas Srpske pg 2 'Defence and referendum' inset 'Dodik', Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Dodik: SDA, SDS and PDP stay together' – Milorad Dodik, SNSD President, stated that this Party did not sign the joint statement, since SNSD request to SDS and PDP to abandon coalition with SDA was not included into it. He said it is obvious SDA, SDS and PDP do not want to do that.

Mikerevic: RS Govt hired expert team to dispute Tihic's initiative	RHB, RTRS, Dnevni List, pg 20, 'Tihic's initiative makes political atmosphere in country worse', not signed – Commenting on Sulejman Tihic's initiative on assessment of constitutionality of the Law on RS insignia, the RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic has said that the RS Government has hired a team of legal experts who are to find a response in the BiH Constitution by which Tihic's demand would be disputed. He has added that the political content of the initiative is absolutely unacceptable and that as such it can only deteriorate the political atmosphere in BiH which is significant for further reforms and getting closer to Euro Atlantic integration. Glas Srpske pg 2 'Defence and referendum' by G. Dakic and G. Klepic, Oslobodjenje pg 4 'RS Government will challenge Tihic's initiative' by Fena – "The opinion on the RS seal should be given by law experts, historians and philosophers, and the RS should not defend anything that is not based on history, science and expertise," Mikerevic said. BHTV 1 – "This isn't just an issue for lawyers, but also for historians, and all the others," said Mikerevic.
Sadovic: This is not anti-Serb initiative	BHTV 1, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'SDA: Initiative is not anti-Serb' – Tarik Sadovic, Head of SDA Caucus at RS NA, stated that the initiative of Sulejman Tihic is not anti-Serb oriented, but instead aimed at ensuring equality of all peoples in BiH. He is of the view that unnecessary fuss and tensions are raised about this issue. Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Tihic asked to withdraw initiative for changes of RS symbols' by M. Vidovic – Sadovic added that everybody has a right to initiative the procedure before the BiH Constitutional Court. "*Disputing Presidency members its constitutional right is not argumented at all. He added: "I regret the strongest opposition parties in RS did not sign the statement, but we could not accept their demand regarding SDA since that demand is used for daily political purposes." Milan Pavic, DNS President, stated that the joint statement is just a pamphlet, by which the ruling parties are ingratiating with the voters. According to this report, MP's also discussed Proposed law on territorial organisation and local self-governance, which amends the names of Serb Sarajevo and 12 other municipalities in RS.
NN on BiH Presidency	Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 3 'Tihic, Paravac and Covic on annual leave' by A. Sisic – NN learnt at the BiH Parliament and BiH Council of Ministers that the members of the Collective Head of State, Sulejman Tihic, Borislav Paravac and Dragan Covic, have all gone on annual leave without passing on their constitutional powers onto any institution of executive authority in BiH. Accordingly, it remains unknown what would happen if any internal or external crisis occurred. Adnan Terzic, BiH CoM Chair, said: "I really do not know anything about their leave. I have almost zero contact with the members of BiH Presidency, neither am I aware of their plans. They have not called me for consultations since Mirko Sarovic, former Presidency member, was removed." Terzic also does not know who is in charge of BiH Presidency duties now. He noted: "As the highest body of executive power, BiH Council of Ministers is responsible for its powers."

Canton 7 and 8 Education Ministers on education laws	Slobodna Dalmacija, cover page & pg 15, 'Classes in Croatian fully guaranteed', by Darko Juka – reacting to the article titled "School Trade Unions: No classes in September", which was published in an earlier edition of the paper, Jago Musa, Herzegovina-Neretva Canton Minister of Education, refutes allegations by the Teachers' Unions adding that the Law on Amendments to the Laws on Primary and Secondary Education fully guarantee the right to Croat curriculum and classes in Croatian language. He adds that preparations for the new academic year are underway and he finds announcements of teachers' strikes to be an attempt to bring chaos for certain reasons. On the other hand, Jozo Maric, the Minister of Education of the West Herzegovina Canton, finds the Laws imposed in 3 Cantons to be contrary to State Constitution and democratic educational standards as they put the rights of teachers above the rights of pupils. Maric hopes the Laws will not be in effect in the long run as that could have very bad consequences and the Croat people might lose their language so he hopes for the changes to the Law either by means of lawsuit or in some other way.

DL on reforms process in BiH	Dnevni List, pg 2 'One step forward, two steps back', by Miso Relota – Noting that BiH cannot enter a stable political period, first with failure to join the Partnership for Peace, followed by removals of 59 officials from the RS, and recently with the Tihic initiative to contest the RS insignia, the author argues that nobody is working on implementation of necessary reforms anymore, apart from Croat officials at the FBiH and State levels. However, the author reckons that the Bosniak and Serb sides do not take the Croat side seriously, and that one must not forget representatives of the IC, who are responsible for violation of the BiH Constitution and depriving of Croats of their guaranteed rights. The author continues: "The aim has been known for quite some time already, and it is being implemented for several years (…) The aim is to cement the current situation in the Republika Srpska, and to deprive Croats of their rights in the FBiH, thus forcing them to kneel, accept the position of national minority or emigrate from country which belongs equally to them as to the Bosniaks and the Serbs".

Nevertheless, only approximately 150,000 KM have been paid to the Subcommittee for Safety. In the meantime, the Federation of BiH Government has reduced the budget of its beneficiaries, including the Police Administration whose budget was reduced for 700,000 KM. According to Miletic, this would mean that the police would pay for its own expenditures in Mostar. The article carries the inset '760,000 KM vanished', in which Miletic says: 'It is interesting to know that the Police Administration has received only 35,000 KM for sports equipment, which was a subject to various investigations, out of the total amount of 800,000 KM that were earmarked for police operations and equipping of police forces in 2003. Nobody has ever determined what has happened with the remaining 760,000 KM that was earmarked for the police nor it was determined who has spent this money!'. He claims that the money has "vanished" and he emphasizes he would be glad if the Audit Service investigated on what has happened with this money.

When it comes to other peace operations in the world, Radovanovic notes that BiH already participates in missions in Ethiopia and Democratic Republic of Congo, noting that when a state goes through such thorough reforms, it is more rational not to be "too present" in international missions.

BiH HoR adopts proposals of laws on RTV system and service	Vecernji List, pg 2 'No Croat channel on TV', by Dejan Jazvic – The daily notes that an attempt of HDZ MPs to build into the State Law on RTV system provisions, that would guarantee broadcasting of programming in three official BiH languages, failed. Instead, The House of Representatives of the BiH Parliament adopted in the first reading Proposals of law on public RTV system and public RTV service of BiH, which does not envisage three national channels. BiH Minister of Traffic and Communications, Branko Dokic, says HDZ's amendment could not be adopted because it seriously endangers the concept of reform laws in the area of public broadcasters. RHB, BHTV 1, and Sarajevo print media also reported on the adoption of the Law.

Raguz on PBS Law	Dnevni List, pg 9 'Croats claim their rights before Strasbourg Court', by Miso Relota – DL carries the Speaker of BiH Parliament's House of Representatives, Martin Raguz, as saying that, when it comes to Proposals of laws on RTV system and service, the MPs were only declaring themselves about principles i.e. it was the first reading. "The MPs accepted not to declare themselves about the amendments, and for us, the amendment submitted by Filip Andric was the most important one (…) If this request of the Croat people in BiH is not recognized, which is the most likely option, the Croats will certainly go with their requests before the Human Rights Court in Strasbourg", said Raguz. Deputy Speaker of BiH House of Peoples, Velimir Jukic, agrees with Raguz.
HDZ Central Bosnia reacts to adopted Law	RHB, Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 16, 'Constitution-wise just: TV with three entity programmes', by Z. Cilic – HDZ Central Bosnia Board issued a press release of support to the initiative for establishment of three separate channels and programmes in the languages of the 3 constituent peoples in BiH. VL comment to the adopted Law	Vecernji List, pg 2 'Constitutional Court restores Croats their rights', by Zoran Kresic – VL carries an op-ed in which the author reminds that the BiH Constitutional Court earlier concluded that the Law on higher education in BiH was "destructive to vital interests of the Croat people", and the author is certain that the same would happen when the Croat MPs invoke the same clause with regard to passing of RTV laws. The author claims that the Constitutional Court has clearly sided with the Constitution and ever-so-frequently mentioned constituent status of peoples in whole of BiH.
