Dodik stated that Del Ponte could not be dissatisfied with current willingness of the RS to resolve the ICTY issue: "There is political will but another issue is whether that is objectively possible." ICTY explained that Del Ponte's aim for this visit was to complete her report on the cooperation with the ICTY, which she will submit to EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn on 31 March. RHB, PINK, Hayat, FTV, Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 3 'Del Ponte repeated that Mladic is hiding in Serbia' by B.Boskov, Dnevni Avaz pg 3, mentioned on cover 'Del Ponte asks for concrete actions from RS authorities' by N.Diklic Oslobodjenje pg 3 'RS is for cooperation with the Hague' by O.V., EuroBlic cover pg splash and pg RS2 'Dodik: there is no deadline, but we know what the obligations are' by Rajna Radosavljevic, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pg 3 'The Hague demands more intense search after fugitives' by D.Risojevic, Glas Srpske pg 3 'Bring Hague trauma to an end' by V. Oslobodjenje op-ed: Stable division is better than the fragile and instable one	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Stable division' op-ed by Gojko Beric – Commenting ongoing debate on the agreement on constitutional changes and whether it would receive necessary support in the BiH parliament [session which author deems would be “the most thrilling session since” its establishment]”, editorial reads that the agreed changes are not the matter of dispute and allying with the “patriots” [referring to the SBiH, SDU and BOSS which form Patriotic Bloc] and “traitors” [refers to the criticism SBiH used to slam those who have signed the agreement, before all SDA and SDP]. Instead, says author, “it is [a question of] whether you are in favour of an American proposal or against it.” Author concludes: “If adopted, constitutional changes would make a division of BiH even more stabile than it is now. This is not cynicism, as the stabile division is better than a fragile and instable one, which can always turn into something worse and more dangerous.”
