Mi., Glas Srpske pg 5 'The Government welcomed the appeal' by G. Dakic and D. Trisic, Oslobodjenje cover pg splash and pgs 4-5 'Pale are silent, EUFOR and NATO welcome the act' by Antonio Prlenda, Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Paddy Ashdown; In the best interest of everyone', Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Terzic: International Community is late with pressures' by Fena, Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Matijasevic: brave and honest appeal', Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'In the interest of credibility of RS', Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'I hope he will follow the message' by Fena, inset 'Terzic: It will be easier for everyone' – After Ljiljana Zelen Karadzic gave statement to Associated Press, inviting her husband Radovan Karadzic to surrender, stressing that their family is in jeopardy, many reactions have followed in BiH and region. Zelen Karadzic's invitation was greeted by NATO, Chair of BiH CoM and RS Government. HR Paddy Ashdown feels that a big step forward was made with this act under the condition that Karadzic will follow the message from his wife. "I think everyone knows that Ljiljana has a considerable influence on her husband", stated Ashdown. NATO issued a statement, which says that Karadzic's surrender would be in best interest of his family and whole BiH, stressing that NATO is convinced that Karadzic has received a message and that NATO will not exclude the possibility that his wife or someone from his family know where he is. EUFOR Commander David Leakey stated that he is not surprised by reaction of Karadzic's wife, stressing that International Community is increasing pressure to BiH Institutions as well as to Karadzic's family. CoM Chair Adnan Terzic stated that the key issue here is whether Karadzic will listen to his wife or not, stressing that the International Community should have made pressure on his family a long time before. RS Government has also greeted this invitation, estimating it as highly courageous gesture. "Many times before the Government has said that we are truly, not just on words but in action as well, dedicated on cooperation", said Svetlana Cenic, RS Minister of Finances. RS Ministry of Interior has stated that this invitation of Zelen Karadzic, presents contribution to affirmation of RS MoI's dedication, to solve issue of cooperation with the ICTY through system of voluntarily surrender of all those indicted for war crimes. RS Minister of Interior Darko Matijasevic feels that this act was very brave.

BHT1 carried statements of HR and EUFOR.

BHT1 – EUFOR Commander David Leakey stated that EUFOR received information that Karadzic is not in BiH.

TV Hayat carried statement of NATO Commander Stephen Schook as saying that they believe that Karadzic has received a message, adding that NATO doesn't exclude the possibility that his family knows where he is.

Dnevni List pg 4 'Karadzic searches for an alibi for voluntary surrender?!' by Arijana Beus – EUFOR Commander.

DF's Kunic: good decision; SRS and Radjevic: the appeal was result of pressures	Glas Srpske pg 5 'The Government welcomed the appeal' by G. Dakic and D. Trisic – apart from the above mentioned statement of RS Minister of Finances Svetlana Cenic, the paper carries reactions of RS parties – DF's Petar Kunic thinks Ljiljana Karadzic has made a good decision, while SRS's Milanko Mihajlica and delegate at RS Council of Peoples Desanka Radjevic think the appeal was a result of pressures exerted on the family. PDP's Velimir Sakan said he could not comment until he had more information.
SDS: it is inappropriate to disturb family like the Karadzics; SNSD and PDP welcome the appeal	Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pgs 2-3 'It is Radovan Karadzic's move' not signed – apart from reporting on the above mentioned statements, MN also carries reaction of SDS's Stanko Pivasevic who said it was inappropriate to disturb a family that faces problems like the Karadzics. SNSD's Milorad Dodik and PDP's Goran Milojevic welcomed the appeal, while SDP's Zlatko Lagumdzija refused to comment because 'everyone had been appealing to him to surrender and nothing happened'. Oslobodjenje pg 5 'It would be a relief for everyone' by Onasa – carries Dodik's statement.
Luka Karadzic does not agree with appeal to Radovan to surrender	BHT1 Report by Boris Grubestic, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pgs 2-3 'It is Radovan Karadzic's move' not signed, Glas srpske pg 5 'Pressures became unbearable' by Z. Ma., Dnevni List pg 4 'Karadzic searches for an alibi for voluntary surrender?!' by Arijana Beus – Luka Karadzic, Radovan Karadzic's brother, stated for BHT that he doesn't agree with call on surrender and concludes that the statement was a result of a continuous pressure on the family. He added that he doesn't understand why the International Community did not attempt to arrest Karadzic in 1998 when he was not hiding. BHT reporter reminded that International forces had several futile attempts to arrest Karadzic. TV Hayat, FTV, RTRS – also carry Luka Karadzic's statement.
Reactions in SiCG: Tadic, Ljajic and Draskovic welcomed the appeal	BHT1, FTV, TV Hayat, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pgs 2-3 'It is Radovan Karadzic's move' not signed, Glas srpske pg 5 'Epilogue is awaited for' by A. T. – Serbian President Boris Tadic welcomed Ljiljana Karadzic's statement urging her husband, Radovan, to surrender adding that his surrender would increase the stability of the region. Rasim Ljajic President of the SiCG National Council for cooperation with the ICTY also welcomed Ljiljana's statement. He added if Radovan Karadzic surrendered than Ratko Mladic should be expected to surrender as well. Vuk Draskovic Minister of Foreign Affairs stated that Ljiljana should have mentioned sufferings of RS and Serbs in her statement. RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Surrender would get the region closer to EU' by Tanjug – carried statement of Boris Tadic. Glas srpske pg 5 'Epilogue is awaited for' by A. T. – also carries statements of Serbian Democratic Party and Serbian Socialist Party who welcomed the appeal, while Serbian SRS believes the appeal was a result of pressures exerted on Karadzic family. Dnevni List pg 4 'Karadzic searches for an alibi for voluntary surrender?!' by Arijana Beus – Ljajic's statement. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'She should have said both state and people are in jeopardy' by Fena – statement of Vuk Draskovic.

ICTY representative Hellman welcomes the appeal	BHT1, Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Tribunal wants concrete actions' by Onasa, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Hague Tribunal wants concrete actions' by Onasa – Matias Hellman ICTY Outreach Office representative in BiH also positively evaluated Ljiljana's statement adding that in the case of "Karadzic's refusal to surrender BIH authorities must continue with their attempts to arrest him".
EUFOR Commander Leakey: I believe Karadzic would surrender	Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash and pg 5 'I believe Karadzic would surrender' by Sead Numanovic – in an interview to DA, EUFOR Commander David Leakey said he believes Radovan Karadzic would surrender and he said he was glad Ljiljana had decided to appeal to her husband to surrender.
SDU's Tokic: this was a logical move	Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Appeal to surrender was a logical move' by Onasa – SDU's Sejfudin Tokic welcomes the appeal and thinks it was a logical move that might result in extradition of Karadzic to the Hague Tribunal. He resented the pathetic tone of the appeal.
Masovic doubts the appeal was honest	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Masovic doubts in honesty while Tokic resents pathetic manner' by L. Sinanovic – Chairman of F BiH Commission for Missing Persons Amor Masovic doubts the appeal was sincere and honest and, even if it was, he thinks Karadzic is too great coward to surrender.
Hasecic: more dust in eyes	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Hasecic: more dust in eyes' by S. S. – The Chair of the Association "Women – victims of war" Bakira Hasecic had an impression the appeal was a sort of a play of the international community and Ljiljana Karadzic and she thinks this represented only more dust in eyes.
Bishop Grigorije: the act means Ljiljana loves her husband	RTRS – Bishop Grigorije stated that this act means that Karadzic's wife loves him unlike those who flatter him and lie to him.
World media reports on the appeal of Ljiljana Karadzic	Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Surprising and dramatic' by N. N. – the article reads all world media reported on the appeal of Ljiljana Zelen-Karadzic to Radovan Karadzic to surrender. The article also carries short summaries of the reports as published by the New York Times, British papers, the Guardian, French and German media. Glas Srpske pg 5 'Dramatic message' by Beta – carries a similar report.
NN op-ed: the appeal should be taken seriously	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Appeal to surrender' by Dragan Risojevic – the author says the appeal of Ljiljana Zelen-Karadzic must be taken the most seriously, at least because of a drastic change in her way of thinking – until recently she had been categorically refusing to appeal to her husband to surrender.
VL: are foreign intelligence agents trying to apprehend or hide Radovan Karadzic?	Vecernji List pgs 18-19 'Intelligence games' by Zoran Kresic – the article refers to the appeal of Ljiljana Zelen Karadzic and speculates on whether foreign intelligence agents in BiH were here with the task to apprehend Radovan Karadzic or to help him hide himself. It also claims Croatian intelligence agencies have, on several occasions, informed MI6 on Karadzic's and Mladic's whereabouts, yet no action followed such information.

Police/defence reforms

Terzic:
Negotiations
on police
reform to continue in 15 days

RTRS, BHT1, TV Hayat, TV Pink – Meeting between HR Paddy Ashdown and representatives of entity Governments and Council of Ministers on police reform hasn't produced concrete results. CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic stated that it was agreed with RS PM Pero Bukejlovic and RS Minister of Interior Darko Matijasevic that the negotiations will be continued in 15 days. Final proposal of police reform in BIH should be prepared by a work group that will be composed of entity Prime ministers, Ministers of Interior and CoM Representatives. Terzic also stated that he agrees with Bukejlovic that the concrete proposal for police reform should be sent into parliament procedure before agreeing it with the representatives of political parties. Matijasevic stated that the work on police reform continues and added that the solution will be found within entity and state institutions. Terzic concluded that negotiations on police reform could occur daily until police reform is finally agreed upon.

Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'New negotiations mid August' by D. Risojevic, Glas srpske pg 2 'Acceleration in August' by G. D., Dnevni List pg 5 'New talks on police reform mid August' by Nina, Oslobodjenje pg 3, announced on cover 'It is not agreed until everything is agreed upon' not signed, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Police reform talks will continue on August 15' by A. Malagic – carry similar reports.

DF's Kunic asked from RS parties to create police reform model that would not foresee abolishment of RS	FTV – Petar Kunic from Democratic Forum asked from the political parties from RS to make a model that will not include the annulment of RS adding that the proposed model of police reform by chair of Police Reform Commission Wilfred Martens is dishonourable. DS from RS issued statement requesting from RS representatives in the process of police reform to insist for Bijeljina to be one of the regional HQ of future police. Nezavisne Novine pg 8 'A new police model must be found' by Srna, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Nothing aside the constitution' by D. T. – also carry DF's statement.

S. – SRS "Dr. Vojislav Seselj" has stated this party does not support police reform negotiations and it criticized the manner in which negotiations are being carried out.

Gregorian:
additional
progress in
defence
reform is
not evident;
Matijasevic:
time is a
key factor
in defence
reform

TV Pink, BHT1, FTV, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine
pg 6 'To adopt defence laws in as shortest time as possible' by Srna, Glas Srpske pg
2 'No more postponements' by V. Bu.,
Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'It is frustrating the entities are doing nothing to adopt defence laws' not signed– BiH Law on Defence and Law on Army Service should be passed by BiH Parliament by the end of September and in Entities' Parliaments by the end of August as it was concluded on Friday by the Joint Commission for security and defensive policy, who have invited all relevant subjects to fulfil given deadlines. Co-Chair of DRC Raffi Gregorian stated that additional progress in defence reform is not evident, because there are activities that have to be taken now by Entities' Governments and Parliaments. "Frankly speaking, there is no action, either in FBiH or in RS from the side of Governments or Parliaments so that these laws and these issues would be put on the agenda", said Gregorian.
RTRS – BIH Defence Minister Nikola Radovanovic stated that time is a key factor in defence reform since many solutions are connected to the next fiscal year. "Every postponement seriously complicates the possibility of implementation of the law", stated Radovanovic.
