SPRS leader Djokic says RSNA should accept EU principles on police reforms

RS Radio, SRNA – Petar Djokic, SP RS President, told SRNA news agency that the only way-out from currently complicated situation in RS and BiH is to hold RS NA session and make decision on acceptance of three EC principles on police reform. Djokic said that the decision should only describe those principles and nothing beyond that. "It should not be added that reform must be in line with the Constitution or anything like that since this is something that should not be disputable", Djokic said. Djokic is convinced that such a solution might be sufficiently acceptable even for OHR, as well as for EC, RS and BiH. He added that passage of such a decision by RSNA would allow BiH start talks on SAA , which will surely last for several years. "In that time frame police reform can be carried out in accordance with the European principles," said Djokic. Otherwise, according to Djokic, BiH will fall into an even deeper crisis. Djokic said he would not attend a meeting on police reform scheduled for Friday in Banja Luka since the meeting is senseless following Thursday's meeting in Liplje, where PM Pero Bukeylovic had an opportunity to hear all the relevant RS political parties' positions on the issue.

Cavic on SDS' situation, HR,
CoM

Hayat By Nebojsa Radulovic- RS President and President of SDS Dragan Cavic stated that for time being he will not ask for withdrawal of SDS from BiH government, stressing that latest decisions of High Representative Paddy Ashdown have implicitly banned SDS , being that its work is disabled and that SDS will not be able to participate in next elections. "In these financial limitations, SDS will not be able to participate in next elections, not because it was formally banned, but because it will not be in possibility to perform obligations from the Election Law and to register for elections", stated Cavic. Cavic stated that this is a case of political retribution, which is violating all human rights' declarations, stressing that reason for this the fact that police reform wasn't accepted, adding that they are asking only for things that are regulated by DPA.

"Naturally that solution has to be realistic, politically defined and defined by the composition that it is politically digestible and in the frame of the realistic ambient and of DPA frames, which are something we live in", stated Cavic. Cavic added that they are not asking for support of SDA and HDZ, adding that their stances on HR's measures is defeating and time will show that these parties will also fall into disfavour of the HR, stressing that they are creating addictive cult out of the HR. "If SDA and HDZ and all other parties, think that this is a future of this country and that only should be recognized as a fact, because it happened to someone else... well their turn will come, everyone will, because all of us together in this country have created an addiction cult out of the HR. It seems that in this country you have to listen to the HR in order to be successful politician, even when he is wrong. He is horribly wrong with these measures and not only that, but he is destroying basic principles of the EU", stated Cavic.

BiH Foreign Minister Ivanic pushes for premier's

BHT, Hayat, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Ivanic: Terzic cannot find replacements for Dokic and me', SRNA – Bosnia-Hercegovina Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic told SRNA on Thursday that the Bosnia-Hercegovina Council of Ministers in its current line-up lacked perspective and that its fate had been sealed, for which he predominantly blamed its chairman Adnan Terzic. "I think that the current set-up in the Council of Ministers does not have a future because relations between its members have deteriorated to the point of no return," Ivanic said. He further said that the degree of distrust among the members of the Bosnia-Hercegovina Council of Ministers was so great that it was "no longer possible to repair it". "The person most responsible for this situation is Terzic himself because he ignited this crisis thanks to his irrational actions", Ivanic categorically said. Commenting on the announcements that talks will begin among parties which have a parliamentary majority with regard to the issue of filling the posts of the foreign minister and the minister of transport and communications within the Bosnia-Hercegovina Council of Ministers, which are currently under a technical mandate of Ivanic and Branko Dokic, Ivanic recalled that "Terzic has spent four months talking about the imminent replacement of the ministers in question from the Party of Democratic Progress [PDP]".

Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Without discussions on Mladen Ivanic and Branko Dokic' by V.Zivak – Faladzic – Tesanovic also underlined that the CoM has not discussed the positions of the Foreign Minister, Mladen Ivanic, and Traffic/Communications Ministers, Branko Dokic. However, daily says that it is obvious that the PDP ministers obstruct the work of the CoM. Gojkovic and M. Cubro – Apart from carrying statements of SDS's Mladen Bosic and PDP's Mladen Ivanic the article carries a reaction of CoM Chairman Adnan Tertzic as saying SDS, by denying the support to CoM, is creating another problem for itself with regard to relations with the international community. 'By not supporting CoM, SDS is blocking reforms and European path of BiH', Terzic said and added he has no intention to dismiss the CoM after it lost the support of one of five ruling parties. HDZ's Miso Relota says HDZ supports the current composition of CoM and they expect an agreement on police reform to be reached as soon as possible. SDP's Zlatko Lagumdzija expects from Terzic to ask for a session of the Parliament to explain how he plans to ensure normal functioning of his Government. Otherwise, according to Lagumdzija, early elections should be organized. SNSD's Nikola Spiric thinks this was an attempt of SDS to soften political attacks from F BiH. SB: Matijasevic investigates Cavic's role in Vitol case illegalities to blackmail him; Cavic strikes back by making himself a victim Slobodna Bosna pgs 28-31 'President Cavic strongly accuses Police Minister Matijasevic' by Suzana Sacic – SB carries that while the SDS complains the HR's decisions entirely ruined financial capabilities, the party has not had problems to "illegally finances", thus is not its main problem. Instead, SB says the real concern is the conflict inside the SDS which could "result in its own political elimination. Aware of dramatic situation, [Dragan] Cavic... will try in the next few weeks to make a victim of himself in order to win support of both IC and the domestic public." SB explains that the conflict between RS Interior Minister, Darko Matijasevic, and Cavic has culminated at the SDS Presidency's session at which RS President accused Matijasevic and Bukejlovic [to whom SB gives no great role than one of a "pawn"] of wiretapping him, subsequently releasing this information to media too. Allegedly, Matijasevic, extremely ambitious and lead only by his personal interests, strongly opposes the police reform because he is both a lobbyist of the hard-line nationalists and aware he would not remain the Minister. Therefore, he has commenced the investigation against Cavic and his role in contract between UK company "Vitol" and Brod Oil Refinery which reportedly ruined the refinery but gained large sums of money for Cavic personally. SB says this could ruin Cavic and therefore Matijasevic has decided to use it as blackmail tool. Article also concludes Cavic has been desperate, but decided to win by making himself a victim of the situation in which Interior and Prime Ministers prepare coup d'état. "And that is how we come to the beginning of the story: SDS Presidency session in which Cavic accused Matijasevic and Bukejlovic of wiretapping resulted with the new affair, and a possible result – if Matijasevic is replaced – is the end of the Vitol investigation and peaceful dreams for Cavic," says the article.

BOSS calls for formation of parliamentary majority without SDS, PDP	Dnevni Avaz pg 10 'To form parliamentary majority without SDS , PDP' – "The SDS decision is good for Bosnia-Hercegovina in every respect. Today I again sent an open request to the presidents of the SDA, the Party for Bosnia-Hercegovina and the HDZ [Croatian Democratic Union of Bosnia-Hercegovina] to form a parliamentary majority on the level of Bosnia-Hercegovina without the SDS and the PDP [Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic's Party of Democratic Progress], in order to protect the interests of all the peoples of Bosnia-Hercegovina, who are obviously being held hostage by the destructive nationalist-chauvinist policy of the SDS ," said BOSS leader Mirnes Ajanovic on Thursday commenting on SDS withdrawal of support to CoM.
SB: Germany not ready to give up on HR position, Dutch candidate has strong chances	Slobodna Bosna pgs 50-51 'If Germany doesn't find a candidate, new head of OHR in BiH will be Dutch Michiel Patijn!' by Danka Savic – Speculating about HR Paddy Ashdown's successor, SB claims that Holland has expressed the interests for the position and has found a candidate, but Germany who had been wrapped up in its own political turmoil has showed it is not ready to give up on this position either. SB learned from diplomatic sources that Germany has asked from the Peace Implementation Council not yet to appoint the new HR, and therefore it is not excluded for the new candidate to be approved only after October PIC session. IC in BiH is ready to support Germany , says SB, but Dutch candidate – Michiel Patijn – also has strong chances. Article carries that diplomatic sources speculate on two German names as possible candidates: Volker Ruehe, former Defence Minister and Gernot Erler, Head of SPD Caucus in the Bundestag. If Germany fails to nominate someone, concludes the author, Dutch candidate will most probably be the next HR.
