RS delegation in Belgrade	RTRS – The RS delegation led by Dragan Cavic, RS President, is today paying a visit to Belgrade. According to unofficial information, the meetings with SiCG politicians will discuss two issues: situation in the region and cooperation with the ICTY. RTRS reporter says Cavic is currently holding a meeting with Vojislav Kostunica, Serbian Premier. It is presumed Cavic and Kostunica will exchange views on situation in the region, Kosovo status and situation in BiH 10 years after Dayton Agreement. The meeting is also attended by Interior Ministers of RS and Serbia, Darko Matijasevic and Dragan Jovic. Cavic is to meet Boris Tadic, Serbian President, later on.

Political issues
Igor Davidovic gives up on candidature for chief negotiator	RTRS – Former BiH Ambassador to USA Igor Davidovic has withdrawn his nomination for Chief of BiH Negotiating Team on the Stabilization and Association Agreement with the EU. In a statement for RTRS, Davidovic said that any further mention of his name in that context is opposite to his will. He explained that he has decided this to ease the election of Chief Negotiator procedure for RS President Dragan Cavic, stressing that this procedure has taken directions opposite to his personal and professional dignity. BHT 1, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Davidovic gave up' by N.G. – also reported.

Comments on

RTRS late news edition- Commenting Igor Davidovic's decision, Krstan Simic from SNSD said that it hasn't surprised SNSD, stressing that this was an act of responsible and honest man, who understood seriousness of the task: "However he didn't allowed his name to be speculated with from the side of SDS, where the goal was for SDS to install one of its candidates for chief negotiator; it is to be expected that this will be Mrs Cenic from well known reasons and SNSD has strongly supported Mr Davidovic and will not give support to other candidates"- said Simic. SDS had no comments on this and Stanko Pivasevic told RTRS that the party is expected to discuss this issue at the upcoming session of SDS Presidency. Reporter stressed that election of most competent has again become the political issue, which further opens the possibility of the new political crisis in RS on horizon. Three candidates remain in the game – RS Minister of Finances Svetlana Cenic, Djordje Lajisic and Jugoslav Joovicic, whereas the last one wasn't even consulted on his nomination. RTRS concluded that that if this tempo continues we will hardly get to the Europe

Bukejlovic stressed that Law on Education is a priority, adding that agreement has been reached on some issues, but there are few reforms for which discussion on whether to transfer them to the state level should be held. “Some issues that were mentioned yesterday, by their heaviness and character aren’t such that it can be said that this Government doesn’t provide sufficiently efficient activity for reform changes toward the EU”- said Bukejlovic. Bukejlovic added that Government has proposed a text of basic Law on Education, in accordance with Bologna Process, considering it as good response till location of the final solution. Bukejlovic added that unsolved status of the Dean of Faculty in Eastern Sarajevo is burdening the Faculty, adding that exams of Professor Radomir Lukic are questionable. Bukejlovic said that he appeals to Faculty’s Council to summon the Council of the Faculty of Law and to solve this issue. Law on Obligations and Law on Conflict of Interests are also part of the mentioned list. “One of the issues is the issue of the statistic...appropriate decisions have to be passed in that area and I am certain that these decisions will be passed in next few days”- said Michael Humphreys, Head of EC Mission. One of remaining obligations is cooperation with the ICTY and Bukejlovic hopes that RS Ministry of Interior will persist in arrestment of all indictees till the end of the year, as it was announced by RS Police Director Radomir Andan.

Ashdown said that BiH is still not ready for reconciliation, but is ready for truth, and that Serbs, who he thinks bear the most responsibility for the horrific things that happened, should acknowledge it. To remarks that he assumed an authority which has been compared to that of a medieval pope Ashdown confesses that he really did have sweeping powers, but denies acting as an absolutist, since he acted in close cooperation and based on instruction of the international community.

VL carries parts of alleged OHR's secret report on reason why Croats cannot get their entity: USA afraid of Moslem stat in BiH	Vecernji List cover pg splash and pgs 4 and 5 'Croats are American policemen in BiH' by M. Vasilj carries that according to the OHR's secret report written at the time when Wolfgang Petritsch was the High Representative Croats cannot get their entity since the US Administration would never allow establishing of a small Moslem state in Europe because it might become a base for Moslem extremists. VL says that this report has been made topical again due to coming constitutional changes and demands that Croats get their entity if the RS survives. The report also says that Americans have nothing against the Croats and that the crucial reason for their opposition for the establishment of the third entity is a fear of the Islamic terrorism in Europe. VL says that Director of the Department for Balkans at the US Institute for Peace Daniel Serwer has given a similar statement for the Voice of America recently. VL inset 'Fear of annexing of entities to Serbia and Croatia' carries that the OHR's report also mentions a fear of annexing the Croat and Serb entities to Croatia and Serbia respectively.

P., Glas Srpske pg 5 'Insincere offer' by Z.Ma. – PDP warned that the marking of 10th anniversary of the Dayton Agreement in Washington might be used for an illegal change of the BiH state structure. PDP's Veselin Poljasevic thinks BiH political representatives in Washington might approve future constitutional organization of BiH, which might be used as an introduction into a story on future talks on SAA. He thinks an agreement on constitutional changes might be reached by March next year, but only if a consensus of all parties involved is reached.

RTRS int with McElhaney on DPA,
SAA, const.
changes: BiH
officials should discuss some issues at the ceremony in Washington

RTRS 'Pecat' current affairs programme by Zorica Rulj – The guest of the magazine was the US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney, who talked about the situation in BiH ten years after the signing of the Dayton Peace Agreement, constitutional changes and BiH's admission to European Union. "A lot has been done during last ten years. Economically speaking, we would like more things to happen; politically speaking, I think that the progress in development of state institutions has to be mentioned", stated McElhaney. According to US Ambassador, a number of issues are yet to be solved, such as the full cooperation with the Hague Tribunal. He added there has been some progress in the field of police reform, but the implementation is what is really important, and it is still not clear how the BiH police forces would look like.
McElhaney believes that BiH officials should discuss those and some other issues – such as the BiH Presidency and Houses of the BiH parliament – at the ceremony marking the tenth anniversary of DPA, scheduled for November 21 and 22 in Washington. As for the SAA talks, McElhaney says BiH would obviously have to form the state Agriculture Ministry as it would be impossible to conduct talks with EU on subventions for agricultural sector with many cantons, two entities and state government all involved. Furthermore, if BiH wants to join the EU, the constitutional changes are inevitable: "I think that things that would be laid out in SAA would probably require a lot of changes in this country." NATO and European Union would also ask BiH to give up some responsibilities and to transfer them to Brussels .

on DPA: Largest mistake is fact Karadzic, Mladic
are still at large

Globus cover pg splash and pgs 26-30
'Holbrooke: How we let Karadzic go' by B. Lusic carries an interview with US diplomat and one of the Dayton Peace Agreement's authors Richard Holbrooke who still thinks that the DPA was the best possible solution for the situation that existed at that time. He added: 'I do not think that the mistake is in the agreement itself but in the way in which its implementation was understood. Of course it is not a perfect document and no one ever claimed it to be. But what I consider the worst, what is the largest mistake, is the fact that Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic have not been arrested yet.' Asked whether the RS should be abolished Holbrooke said: 'Whether the RS should be abolished or not, I think is up to the citizens of BiH to decide. The RS is a part of BiH. It was a mistake to accept its name, with the word republic, even though I do not think that this was the biggest mistake of the DPA.'

RHB int with HR: Rehabilitation of some removed officials to start	RHBby Milan Vego – In an interview to RHB, the HR Paddy Ashdown says he wants to spend two remaining months of his mandate effectively on two things: “Finishing the tasks I set myself...I would like to open the next phase, the phase of handing over powers to BiH authorities. For instance I can tell you that we will be rehabilitating more people who have been moved by the HR, in the near future. I will be challenging the Parliaments to find a way where they can ensure that vetting process undertaken by OHR is in the future done by the Parliamentary process. The next phase for the IC is handing over the powers it has to the democratic Institutions of Bosnia and I want to begin that phase”. Asked about the role that Christian Schwartz Schilling will have, if he elected, HR explained that Schilling would be Special Representative of the EU and the HR at the same time, and at some point would become simply the EUSR. Dnevni List pg 3, mentioned on cover ‘Sanctioned politicians return’ by A. Beus – Commenting Ashdown’s announcement given in an interview to RHB on amnestying of removed politicians, DL says that judging by the persons who have been amnestied so far it seems that those who were less exposed in the authority would be amnestied.

Palavric, Jukic,
Milojevic:
Schwartz-Schilling
is good solution
for BiH

Dnevni List, pg 9 'Schilling is ideal solution for BiH', by Danka Polovina-Mandic – Commenting on candidacy of Christian Schwartz-Schilling for the new High Representative for BiH, Vice President of SDA, Seada Palavric, says he is an ideal solution for BiH, adding it was about time Germany appointed the High Representative. Deputy Speaker of BiH HoP, Velimir Jukic (HDZ), says it is a good proposal to have a German as the HR, however he personally expects that the role of the HR will be redefined in the future. Other Deputy Speaker in BiH HoP, Goran Milojevic (PDP) does not have objections to the news, saying that Schwartz-Schilling is an acceptable solution for everyone.

DL, VL op-eds: Law on public RTV service damaging for Croats	Dnevni List pg 'Deprived of rights to Europe' by I. Rozic carries that by the adoption of the Law on public RTV service BiH has approached beginning of the SAA negotiations. The author implies that on the ground of this law Croats were deprived of their right (the right on the Croat TV channel) and she ironically wonders what rights would have to be violated in order to stay within the EU if it is necessary to deprive one people of its rights in order to join the EU. Vecernji List pg 2 'Good afternoon Europe, good by justice!' by I. Barbaric also criticizes adoption of this Law and the author says that a great damage was caused to BiH Croats in this way. The author also ironically wonders whether Croat politicians would look for justice before the Human Rights Court in Strasbourg regarding the Croat TV channel or the protocol for the ceremony marking opening the road Ravno –Cepikuce is perhaps more important for them (referring on alleged excluding the speech of the BiH Presidency Chairman Ivo Miro Jovic from the protocol).

Interview with DS Vice President Gavrilovic: Djindjic was murdered because of Kosovo and Srpska	EuroBlic cover pg splash ‘Djindjic was murdered because of Kosovo and Srpska’, pg 2 ‘Djindjic murdered because of Kosovo as well’ by Ljiljana Begenisic – In interview to daily, Slobodan Gavrilovic, DS Vice President, speaks of Serbian issues of interest. He also mentions RS in the following context: “Imposed independence disturbs the entire region, since it is realistic to expect RS asks – do we have a right like Albanians at Kosovo and Metohija or Serbs are always second class citizens. Nobody in Belgrade would ever sign document on independence of KosMet. However, if agreement were reached that same offer is brought before Kosovo and RS, it would be understandable to consider it. The late Premier Zoran Djindjic used to state at important international centres that issue of Albanians in province and Serbs in RS cannot be regarded separately, noting that same standards should apply to all those in region. I am afraid he was murdered because of that.” There is no further reference to RS, neither is there any elaboration on those responsible for Djindjic’ murder.

Holbrooke: Karadzic could have been arrested easily in 1996	BHT1, Hayat, Glas Srpske pg 5 'A wrong name'- US diplomat and the "father" of the Dayton Agreement, Richard Holbrooke, stated in an interview to "Globus" magazine that Radovan Karadzic could have been arrested without problems back in 1996. However, he added, even though US President Bill Clinton issued the order for Karadzic's arrest US Admiral Leighton W. Smith did not obey it. Smith was promoted into a four star general in April 1994 and was given the command of NATO forces in BiH and East Europe. He was removed from the position in the summer of 1996 and retired in October the next year.

BHT 1 by Boris Gagic – RS Police Chief Dragomir Andan stated recently that, judging by available operational information, all persons from ICTY public list of indictees are going to be processed by the end of this year. This statement has caused many reactions. RS Ministry of Interior refused to give any details about ongoing activities, confirming only that MoI is working intensely on transfer of all ICTY indictees to Hague. RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic stated that he is confident that RS MoI's judgment regarding the timing of processing is correct, adding that he hopes that RS MoI is going to continue with its good work. RS President Dragan Cavic confirmed that RS MoI is closely cooperating with Serbian police authorities. As some Serbian media speculate, everything is ready for arrestment of Ratko Mladic. According to Cavic, latest actions of RS MoI prove that even more progress can be expected. Igor Radojicic from SNSD believes that the stance of highest RS officials regarding arrestment of war crime suspects has obviously changed. RS Government decided to pay money to families of ICTY indictees who surrender voluntarily, and this decision might be helpful in the future. However, political analyst Tanja Topic believes that money doesn't play any role in cases of Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic.

VL: Future of FBIH Government in question over 'Energopetrol'	Vecernji List, pg 2 'Fall of FBIH Government a possibility', by Dejan Jazvic – Announces the extraordinary session of FBIH House of Representatives that is to be held on Monday, which is to discuss issues pertaining to co-capitalization of 'Energopetrol' company.
