spy: I had been giving false
information on Karadzic

Blic, p 11 'I had been providing with false information on Karadzic' – D.P., a refugee from Sarajevo, claims that he had been recruited to monitor movements of Radovan Karadzic for a Muslim secret police by the order of Munir Alibabic, the former Head of the State Security in BiH and first man of the Federation of BiH Intelligence-security Service. He explains the manner in which he had been forcibly recruited and he points out that he had been providing with false information during various tasks he had been assigned with. He claims that the most important reason that had driven him to make public all he had done is the fact that certain Muriz T., the Chief of intelligence agents, had secretly established a para-police group for apprehending Karadzic. He claims that the group is under patronage of a foreign secret service. 'Apart from this, I am a severely ill person and a bullet would only end my misery', D.P. said.

Dr. Milan
Bulajic on Srebrenica

Vecernje Novosti p 8 'There was crime but no genocide' – The President of the Fund for investigation of genocide, Dr. Milan Bulajic, claims that there was crime in Srebrenica, but there was no genocide. He says that the plan of the RS Army had not been to take over Srebrenica, but only to reduce the protected area into urban frames, i.e. for it to stop being a terrorist center of Muslim forces for attacks against Serb army. He also says that it was a suicidal act to send 15,000 fighters to try to pass through Serb territory, instead to accept the offer on surrender under UN control. He claims that Naser Oric had written to Alija Izetbegovic: "I had not agreed with your decision on surrender of Srebrenica that you have agreed on with Frenchmen, and I especially had not agreed with the later event in it, with so many sacrificed civilians, regardless to the effect that has been accomplished". Bulajic says that the crimes have been committed, yet it is not known who had committed those and for whom.

Radic, FENA – Special Advisor to the High Representative Zoran Pajic on Tuesday delivered to FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic and RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic texts of draft laws on public companies in the FBiH and RS aimed at resolving the problem of corruption and inadequate management in BiH companies. The laws on public companies in the Federation and the RS define specific responsibilities and legal commitments of senior management staff in public companies and has given the chief auditor and prosecutions in both entities the possibility to conduct more direct and detailed analysis of activities of companies. It also mentions sanctions and legal tools, specifies measures that need to be taken in order to establish better management and provides a model for an ethical code. The law mentions as one of the main objectives the establishment of individual responsibility for key business areas and the improvement of transparency and efficiency of companies. Principal Deputy High Representative Donald Hays said on the occasion that laws presented are only a part of the solution and that together with two other laws currently being developed, the Law on Procurement and the Law on Using and Distributing Public Funds, it would provide for good management. "I see the law as a key instrument for battling corruption and bad management", Hadzipasic said and added that the Law has the force of sanctions and would ensure efficiency. Mikerevic said that public companies are the moving force that can influence that development of the private sector.
FBiH HoR failed to discuss draft law on revision of privatisation	Croat Radio Herceg Bosna, BHTV, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg. 6 'Adoption of the privatisation revision law delayed', Dnevni Avaz pg. 9, FENA – On Tuesday the FBiH House of Representatives did not consider the Draft Law on Revision of Privatisation of Companies. The draft was prepared by the BiH Association of Independent Trade Unions, and his authorised proposer was deputy Mirnes Ajanovic. The both versions are likely to be discussed at the next session of the house.

Final version of BiH development strategy adopted	BHTV, FTV, RTRS, FENA – The BiH Co-ordination Board for Economic Development and European Integration adopted on Tuesday the final version of the BiH Development Strategy- PRSP, and issued a recommendation to the entity governments and BiH Council of Ministers to adopt this document in this month. RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic said that today’s meeting was an opportunity for the WB Executive Directors to be informed about the path of BiH’s transfer from the post-conflict state to the state of transition. FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic said that progress would not be made without the funds provided by the international financial institutions, primarily the World Bank.

Aluminij issue	Dnevni list (front &amp; p 7, "Ruling coalition solves political problems over Aluminij", by M.S.) carries the PR of support to Aluminij's Management and workers issued by Working for Prosperity party (NSRZ). The PR reads that Aluminij's example points to futility of talks on strengthening domestic production in BiH during the rule of the current coalition which verbally advocates strengthening of domestic production while at the same time it does nothing to further it. Mostar-based HVIDRA has released that it supports the positions of the Union and measures announced in case electricity is not delivered to Aluminij. HVIDRA adds that what is most worrying is the silence of Croat representatives in the FBiH authorities. The PRs also covered by Slobodna Dalmacija (p 17, "NSRB: Sad situation", by M. Landeka and "HVIDRA ready for protests", by D. Juka). SD carries a separate report (p 17, "Thursday is D-day", by Darko Juka) saying that experts groups started preparations for phase-out of Aluminij production yesterday. Aluminij CEO, Mijo Brajkovic, is quoted as saying he they will wait until Thursday, i.e. until the FBiH Government session, to see what further steps regarding the issue will be taken. Similar article is also carried by Vecernji list (front page "Aluminij prepares for closing down" &amp; p 3, "Aluminij ready for closing cells down", by Zoran Kresic) adding that Aluminij's attempts to ensure normal continuation of work is supported by the IC and by Donald Hays in particular. SD (p 17, "British want BiH electric power supply system", by Zoran Zekic) reports that the current situation suits the British as they want to rule the BiH power system adding it is no coincidence the British interest was shown following the change at the OHR. DL editorial on the issue (p 2, "4th phase of pulling Aluminij down", by Ivica Glibusic) reads that, judging by everything that has been happening around Aluminij, it is about a phased and systematic attempt to pull the company down: there was first lobbying with international organisations and individuals to prove discrimination was applied in the company; the 2nd phase of the attempt was use of the Union of former employees of Aluminij and filing charges against Aluminij; the 3rd stage meant frequent audits of privatisation and business operations of the company; the current one is depriving the company of electricity. The author finds it incomprehensible that politicians who care about BiH joining Europe keep silent about project of pulling Aluminij down which will, in case it gets materialised, harm BiH international reputation.

She could not clarify with which company Government would sign the contract. Blic, p 13, 'Not even p of petroleum' – Representatives of the RS Trade Union of Energy and Oil Industry claim that both RS and BiH have been cheated by signing the contract between the RS Government and 'Petrokamak' firm from London on supplying BiH market with crude oil from Nigeria. The shipment of 80,000 tons of crude oil has not been delivered from Nigeria to the Oil Refinery in Srpski Brod, although the shipment was expected two months ago as in accordance with the contract. Spokesperson of the RS Prime Minister, Goran Radivojac, stated yesterday for the press that this contract is the best signed contract so far. Asked to explain why then the shipment of crude oil has not been delivered to the Oil Refinery, he just said that the Government will sue 'Petrokamak'.

Other political developments
High Representative to outline work program for 2004	Dnevni Avaz pg. 2 ‘Use the opportunity for a more decisive entering a Brussels era’, FENA – The High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, will on Wednesday give a keynote address at a conference organised by the BiH Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Foundation entitled the “Road to Europe – the next steps”. OHR spokesperson Vedran Persic told a press conference in Sarajevo on Tuesday that the High Representative will say that Bosnia and Herzegovina now has the opportunity to move decisively from the post conflict era to the pre-accession era – from the era of Dayton to the era of Brussels.

Mostar restructuring

Vecernji List (page 3, "Equal election system for Mostar", by zk) carries that Chairman of the BiH Presidency Dragan Covic talked with High Representative Paddy Ashdwon about the Mostar organization issue yesterday. Covic stated for VL that the HR reiterated that Mostar should be organized as one unit of the local self-government. Covic told the HR that the election system and the way of election of councilors in the Mostar City Council that would vary from the BiH Election Law is not acceptable for the Croat side. According to VL, Covic also talked yesterday about the Mostar re-organization issue with many Ambassadors and representatives of France and Germany are among them. VL says that most probably the last session of the Mostar Commission will take place today and during the session Chairman of the Mostar Commission Norbert Winterstein will propose his latest pondering about a possible compromise that would be acceptable for both, the Croat and Bosniak sides. VL says that according to their information the HR will impose a new Mostar Statute in mid January and this should be a middle solution. The article also says that the International Community is close to thinking that Mostar must not be an exception and thus it believes that Mostar should not be organized as Brcko. VL concludes that in any case protection mechanisms will exist, first of all, for the Bosniak people.

Slobodna Dalmacija (page 19, "SDA takes Bosniaks from Mostar to disaster", by M. Landeka) carries on the same issue former Mostar Mayor Safet Orucevic who says that in his opinion the stands of the SDA Mostar bring the Bosniak policy in BiH in danger, 'through protection of the Dayton Peace Agreement Principles' and calling on mono-ethnic referendums or ethnic Municipalities. Orucevic also says: "HDZ wanted a unified city, but the city which will be under their control and together with the Canton they got such city as a gift from SDA. Some others interfered in their 'joint job' and they did not and they will not allow the division of Mostar, towards which such the SDA policy leads. HDZ cannot go back and it has to accept those principles by which they will give equal rights to Bosniaks and Serbs because they demand the same at the other levels at which they feel endangered, sometimes with justification."

‘Statement of Day’: HDZ member of Mostar Commission Josip Merdzo	Dnevni List (page 2) carries in its ‘Statement of Day’ HDZ member of the Mostar Commission Josip Merdzo as saying: “We are expecting that Mostar is organized in the same way as Travnik.”
SDA HNC Board on HNC Prime Minister’s work	Slobodna Dalmacija (p 7, “Coric ignores OHR decisions”, by Emil Karamatic) reports that, in light of yet another Herzegovina-Neretva Canton (HNC) Government session held in incomplete composition, i.e. without the participation of Bosniak Ministers, the HNC SDA Board’s president, Salko Sokolovic, reacted claiming that the HNC Prime Minister Coric persistently keeps on ignoring Bosniaks in this Canton in a very blunt way bringing into question Constitutional guarantees of constitutional peoples and legal provisions. Sokolovic finds it even stranger that the PM ignores even more the Head of the OHR (South) Andrieu and his suggestions as if Coric were the Head of that Office and Andrieu his Assistant. Sokolovic claims that the PM has simply put most of the OHR letters in a drawer without informing the Government members on the letters, not to mention the implementation of the content of those letters as was the case with the OHR’s remarks on the proposed text of the HNC Constitution. The PM is said not to have briefed either the Government or the Assembly on the remarks.

Mostar waste dump	Vecernji List (page 8, "Problems with transport of waste to Uborak emerged again", by Fena) carries that Mostar Municipality Southwest issued a press release yesterday saying that the problem with disposing of waste from Mostar Municipalities with the Croat majority to the waste dump 'Uborak' emerged again. The press release that the reason for such situation is the fact that on November 28, 2003 Public Company 'Komos' banned Public Company 'Parkovi' disposing of waste at waste dump 'Uborak' since the Annex of the contract for the next year was not signed and since the aforementioned Municipalities did not meet their obligations. The press release also says that the Municipalities with the Bosniak majority, which have not met their obligations and which have not passed decision on transfer of authorities on this issue to the Ciity of Mostar are responsible for the current situation. Slobodna Dalmacija (front and page 19, "Mostar will be swamped with garbage soon", by Z. Zekic) also covered this issue. SD says that, so far, the Mostar Municipality Southwest has sent two official letters to the OHR Mostar initiating the meeting with all parties interested in resolving of this issue, however, they have not received a reply. For this reason they addressed higher authority levels, Ombudsman's Office and international institutions led by the High Representative to help them in resolving of this issue. Dnevni List (page 15, "Tracks of Public Company 'Parkovi' were waiting for 7 hours approval to unload garbage", by V. Leto) carries that tracks of Public Company 'Parkovi' were waiting for 7 hours for an approval to unload garbage at 'Uborak' waste dump yesterday in the period when negotiations between Head of 'Komos' Mufid Kajtaz and Heads of Municipalities with the Croat majority were taking place and when the World Bank delegation was paying visit to the waste dump. Kajtaz stated: "I do not know as to why tracks came this morning since we do not have a contract with 'Parkovi'. The decision on forming of two new companies have not come into force yet."

Possible reshuffle of RS Government	Nezavisne Novine, cover and pg. 2, 'Minister Bogicevic first on the list to leave'; Glas Srpske, pg. 2, 'Changes in Government' – Dusan Stojic, SDS Spokesperson, yesterday announced that during the course of this month, the representatives of the SDS will meet representatives of ruling parties in Republika Srpska and discuss possibilities to improve the work of the Republika Srpska Government, which does not exclude the possibility of seeing Cabinet of Dragan Mikerevic re-shuffled. On the other hand, Government officials claim that political negotiations (regarding possible re-shuffle) is a matter to be dealt by political parties who make parliament majority, not Government. According to NN sources close to the Republika Srpska Government, Minister Milan Bogicevic may be the first one to leave Government composition. He is begrudged for having failed to revive the Serb Brod oil refinery. According to NN inset, at last nights' session in Banjaluka, the SDS Presidency agreed that all SDS officials participating executive authority, should compile reports on the work of their respective offices, on basis of which SDS Presidency and Chair Board would take final stances regarding work of the Republika Srpska Government.
Tensions on ethnic basis in Bosansko Grahovo	Glas Srpske, cover page story, 'Police versus tricolour flag', Vecernje Novosti p 5 'They are removing Serbian flag' – The Livno Canton police yesterday barged into the Office of Bosansko Grahovo Mayor, Nebojsa Prpa, and ordered him to immediately remove Serbian tricolour flag which was placed on mast in front of Gavriilo Princip commemoration plaque a day before. Prpa confirmed to Glas Srpske that they would remove the Serbian tricolour flag after leading officials of HDZ remove sahovnica, which is the national flag of Croatia from all places in the town.
