changes not SAA condition, but all expected to contribute; Rehn: BiH enters dangerous zone
when it comes to
coop. w/ICTY

BHT1 by Elvir Bucalo, Brussels – Following the meeting with Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic in Brussels, EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn stated that improvement BiH has achieved in the course of the negotiations with the European Union is a good thing, but it is necessary to continue the reform processes, and to establish full cooperation with the ICTY. “In order to reach a real progress in the negotiations, we must see progress in the reformatory processes, especially in the police reform and the implementation of the law of Public Broadcasting Service. Those were the last conditions for a beginning of the negotiations, and we hope that they will be fully implemented”, stated Rehn. He called on all BiH structures and security agencies to end ‘The Hague story’:
“Everything we know points to the fact that Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic are not in BiH. But their aides are: there is a network of their political and financial supporters in BiH, and we must crush that network”, stated Terzic. FTV – “Therefore, RS authorities and especially new Prime Minister Milorad Dodik, State Investigation and Protection Agency [SIPA] and BiH Intelligence Agency [OSA] now have to invest a great effort to interrupt network of those who support most-wanted war criminals”, Terzic said in a telephone statement for FTV. During the meeting in Brussels, Terzic and Rehn also discussed constitutional changes in BiH. Although it is not a condition for the SAA talks, EU expects all political subjects in BiH to contribute to the constitutional changes. Dnevni List pg 5 ‘Rehn threatened BiH’ not signed, Vecernji List pg 4 ‘We shall reveal aids of Karadzic and Mladic’ by S. de Prato, Dnevni Avaz pg 2, mentioned on cover ‘Rehn: BiH entered the danger zone’ by T.Lazovic – Rehn stated after the meeting with Terzic that BiH ‘has entered a dangerous zone’ when BiH’s cooperation with the ICTY is in question. Rehn reminded, placing a special accent on the RS, that if full cooperation with the ICTY was not achieved, the negotiations on SAA between BiH and EU might be disturbed. RHB, PINK, Hayat, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 3 ‘Rhythm of negotiations depends on police and PBS reforms’, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pg 3 ‘BiH in a dangerous zone’ by Agencies, EuroBlic pg RS2 ‘Through reforms to the Hague’ by R. DA: CoM Terzic to meet ICTY Chief Prosecutor Del Ponte while in Brussels	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 inset 'Possible meeting of Terzic and Del Ponte' – Daily learns that during his visit to Brussels, BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic could meet with ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla del Ponte. Terzic is scheduled to meet EU Commissar for Economy Joaquin Almunia, whom he will talk about economy issues between EU and BiH. BiH Finance Minister Ljerka Maric and BiH Justice Minister Slobodan Kovac are also in BiH delegation.
BiH Chief SAA Negotiator Davidovic: ICTY issue to be solved before signing of SAA	BHT1 – The Chief BiH negotiator with the EU Igor Davidovic is convinced that the issue of the full cooperation with the ICTY would be positively resolved before signing of the Stabilization and Association Agreement. The third round of negotiations with EU scheduled for May 12 will mark the beginning of the 'most delicate phase', says Davidovic, with a focus on the free trade: "We are now entering the most intensive phase of preparations, and at the same time the most intensive phase of negotiations on the SAA." He added that free turnover of goods should be defined at the next round of talks which would open EU doors for BiH products. At the same time, BiH should allow duty-free import of products from the EU member states. Preparations for creating the list of concessions for industrial and agricultural products are in progress. "The basic thing that we should do is to assess which kind of raw materials or semi-products we have to immediately offer for a zero-duty rate, in order to stimulate our ...industry", explained Dragisa Mekic, head of the BiH negotiating team for foreign trade. He added that BiH must finalize the list of 'most sensitive' products to be protected before BiH joins the EU. The SAA negotiations with the EU should be completed by the end of this year, but members of BiH negotiating team did not rule out the possibility for one round of talks to enter 2007. BiH obliged to introduce biometrical passports; EC hasn't yet set a deadline	RHB– EU stressed that BiH must introduce biometric passports. Assistant to BiH Minister of Civil Affairs Miodrag Pandurevic stated that the Ministry already received this request from the EU. He added that EU advised the introduction as soon as possible but without set deadlines. Hayat– BiH Ministry of Civil Affairs still does not have the information on the cost of these passports to the citizens, while citizens are worried about the price of passports. Spokesman of European Commission in BiH Frane Maroevic stated that not every country in EU has these passports yet and added that EC hasn't set a deadline for BiH to introduce them.
RS CoP Speaker Kadric: RSNA team wants to reduce Bosniaks to a religious group	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'RS want to reduce Bosniaks onto religious group' by H.O. – Commenting proceedings before BiH Constitutional Court on the initiative for protection of vital national interest [VNI] on assessment of constitutionality of RS symbols launched by BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic, RS Council of Peoples Speaker Remzija Kadric said that RS National Assembly team want to reduce Bosniaks "simply onto religious group". Kadric said for daily that RSNA team stated that "practice denies applicant Tihic in the meaning that other people cannot have their flag or coat of arms, because there is no religious object, i.e. mosque in the RS that has no green flag with crescent hoisted." DA carries that BiH Constitutional Court will discuss Tihic's demand today.

Public debate on proposed constitutional changes launches today: all citizens, orgs, etc can submit written comments to Parliamentary Comm.	BHT1 – Public debate on the proposal of constitutional changes will start on Friday before the Constitutional-Legal Commission of the BiH Parliamentary Assembly; it will be the opportunity for every BiH citizen to, in the next 30 days, express their views on the agreement reached by the leaders of seven political parties. “As of [Thursday], all BiH citizens, various associations and so on, can deliver their written comments and stances (on proposed constitutional changes) to the Constitutional-Legal Commission”, stated Chair of the Commission Mirsad Ceman. The public debate on the changes to the BiH Constitution will be organized in the BiH Parliament in mid-April; after that representatives will vote on the constitutional changes “If certain parties from FBiH try to obstruct the constitutional changes, it will be a clear message proving who does not want the effective BiH, and who wants to ‘blackmail’ [adoption of the] const. changes with [abolishment of] the RS, which is impossible”, stated SNSD’s Krstan Simic. “The failure to adopt constitutional changes would send a clear message to the EU, that we are not mature enough for any kind of serious society, and that, in the case of BiH, EU should wait with the enlargement. And that is the reason why I believe that we will adopt those amendments in the BiH Parliament”, added SDP president Zlatko Lagumdzija. The opponents of such constitutional changes say that those amendments only strengthen the current situation; they called on representatives in the BiH Parliament not to adopt them. “Reformed House of Peoples... will not guarantee that Croats will be able to protect their national rights in the Parliament”, stated NHI’s Dobrica Jonjic. FTV – “If we are not satisfied (with proposed changes to the BiH Constitution), our representatives in House of Peoples will certainly not sign them... But I believe what we have done so far is a good thing”, stated HDZ President Dragan Covic. On the other hand, SDU BiH President Sejfudin Tokic claims that the constitutional amendments only underline the entity and ethnic divisions in BiH.

SDA Vice President Osmanovic announces party's public debates on const. changes	FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'These changes are not against any people' by Fena, Dnevni List, pg 5 'Explain constitutional reforms in public', by E. Mackic – Vice President of SDA, Adil Osmanovic, announced at an SDA press conference held in Sarajevo on Thursday that the most senior SDA officials would in the coming days organize public forums throughout BiH in order to explain to the citizenry the essence of the ongoing constitutional changes. He also called on the citizenry to get acquainted with the proposed changes. BHT 1 – "We expect that, after the public debate, amendments to the BiH Constitution will be adopted in the House of Representatives", stated Osmanovic adding the changes are not against any people.
SDA Vice President Izetbegovic: agreement on const. changes not ideal, but still a step forward	OBN current affairs program 'Telering' By Mato Djakovic– Commenting the agreement on constitutional changes, SDA Vice-President Bakir Izetbegovic said that it is far from ideal, nevertheless it is a step forward. He adds the process of the constitutional reform must continue to the point when BiH becomes a citizen orientated state with mechanisms for protection of strictly determined vital national interests. Izetbegovic also argues that the changes should lead to cheaper, more effective and professional public administration. He concludes stating that opponents of the agreement exaggerate and use this situation as their election campaigns.

SDP leader Lagumdžija: Delaying const. changes would be a loss for all	Oslobodjenje cover splash ‘Postponing constitutional changes would be loss for all’ by A. Omeragić Dnevni Avaz pg 10 ‘These changes are better than waiting for another ten years’ not signed, Dnevni List, pg 2 ‘Changes are not at detriment of any people’, by D. P. M. – the leader of SDP, Zlatko Lagumdžija, stated at a public debate dedicated to constitutional changes held in Sarajevo on Thursday that should the BiH Parliament fail to adopt the proposed changes, it would be a clear message to the EU that BiH should be put on hold when it comes to BiH’s membership in EU. Lagumdžija stresses that the SDP wants to hear what the people think of the constitutional changes, therefore the party will organize around 300 public debates throughout BiH. He added that no people should be afraid of the proposed changes, otherwise he personally would not sign them.
SBiH leader Halilović warns against signing const. changes: RS PM Dodik only proves who holds the real power	Dnevni Avaz pg 5, mentioned on cover ‘Dodik demonstrates who is the real boss in house’ by Edina Sarac – In his interview for DA, SBiH leader Safet Halilović once again warned on danger of signing agreement on constitutional changes. “Letters of RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik addressed on BiH Council of Ministers prove who has the real power and the will to rule... [This] shows that imposing his political will, both in RS and BiH, has more than solid legal basis, and that he has no need to use the force as [Radovan] Karadžić.” Halilović said that Dodik sent letters to Serb ministers in BiH CoM, inviting them for consultations with him for “coordination of common interest” which is being set in the RS Government, and not in the cabinet of BiH CoM Chair Adnan Terzić, as it should be. Halilović noted that Dodik also want entities, instead of state to control work of Police Reform Directorate. Halilović concludes that Dodik, unlike Terzić, has political instruments to implement his political will: “RS Government can block work of state institutions, while BiH CoM has no instrument to prevent this.”

BHT 1 SDP 's Lagumdzija vs. SBiH's Silajdzic: do constitutional changes strengthen entities or state?	BHT1 current affairs program By Amir Zukic – For the first time in nine years, SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdzija and SBiH founder Haris Silajdzic appeared in a TV show together to debate over the agreement on the constitutional changes. SBiH refuses to sign it deeming it a confirmation of the genocide and strengthening of entity authorities. On Lagumdzija admits more could be done, however emphasizes this is the first time after Dayton that BiH political leaders agreed on something as important. Repeating stances of Patriotic Block [made of SDU, SBiH, BOSS] that the changes could lead to dissolution of the state, Silajdzic heavily criticised entity vote in the BiH House of Representatives and emphasized such practice enables 'enemies of the state' to block every single law, appointment of the BiH President and Vice-Presidents, and of PM-designate. He adds this opens chances for frequent overthrowing of the government and early elections. Lagumdzija [who on several occasions pointed out that Silajdzic is not informed enough of the amendments' content] harshly objected that the agreement is nothing more than a copy of the Dayton Agreement, emphasizing improvements were made. He argues that the changes to the BiH Constitution do not strengthen entities.
SDU press conference: We cannot support const. changes	Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Open dictate of International community' – At the press conference held in Sarajevo on Thursday, SDU once again underlined official announcement of the constitutional amendments, that they cannot support the constitutional reforms that will enhance the Entities and bring into question the future order of the BiH State. Dnevni Avaz pg 10 'I cannot support changes that put future of BiH in question'
HSP 's Jurisic travelling to US to lobby for BiH Croats	Vecernji List, pg 8, mentioned on front 'We will activate Croat lobby in America', by Miroslav Vasilj – the leader of HSP Djapic-Jurisic, Zvonko Jurisic, is travelling to the US where he will be meeting business people and politicians of Croat(ian) origin and the mayor of Chicago, whom he will inform about the status of the Croat people in BiH, especially with regards to the proposed constitutional changes, which he opposes to.

BNTV debate on const. changes: Only Radical Party believes changes aimed at abolishment of RS, other praise it	BNTV 'Puls' current affairs programme by Suzana Radjen-Todoric – SDP Presidency member Denis Becirevic, SNSD's Mladen Zivkovic, SDS Vice President Mladen Bosic and chair of the Serb Radical "Vojislav Seselj" Party Mirko Blagojevic gathered to discuss the amendments to the BiH Constitution. Becirevic deems constitutional changes important of the state, and Zivkovic stresses they ensure progress towards the EU. He praises the fact agreement was reached jointly by FBiH and RS parties and notes: "From now on, no one will blame RS for obstruction. FBiH will be blamed because it is disorganised". Bosic stated the entire issue is "strained. If you add anything else in it, the agreement might break into pieces. So everyone has to be engaged in it till the very end, but they need to be cautious". Blagojevic reiterated his party opposes to the Agreement. Commenting the IC presence at the talks, Bosic said no agreement would have been reached without the IC pressure because political parties in BiH wouldn't have started the conversation at the first place. Blagojevic was reiterating party line that Agreement was aimed at abolishing RS, while other participants disagreed and disputed this line.
GS: Dispute over const. changes not seen here since signing of DA	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Dispute over constitutional changes' by Z.Markovic – Daily notes that the Agreement on constitutional changes has resulted in a political dispute not seen here in the region since the signing of the Dayton Agreement. Daily further reminds of opposed stances political parties presented (SDA, PDP, SNSD, HDZ, HNZ and SDP on one and Patriotic Block and Serb Radical party and New Force of Srpska on the other.)

Feral Tribune comment: Politicians, foremost Silajdzic is using const. changes to assume power	Feral Tribune, pgs 24 and 25 'Hit list of populists', by Ivan Lovrenovic – commenting on the ongoing constitutional changes process in BiH, Lovrenovic argues that the changes are just an excuse to some politicians, foremost to the founder of SBiH, Haris Silajdzic, to take over the power. As for Silajdzic, Lovrenovic notes he is using the proven recipe i.e. he is winning the public support through his aggressive campaigning against the proposed changes by being arrogant and using nationalistic rhetoric when opportune for him, which goes down well with public in BiH, as seen during the last TV poll on 'Hayat TV', when Silajdzic defeated SDA leader Sulejman Tihic during their debate on constitutional changes (some 28.000 calls for Silajdzic to 13.000 for Tihic).
Oslobodjenje op-ed: Catholic Church got involved too late; Bishops should make pressure for second phase of const. changes to become binding	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Power of clergy' op-ed by Zija Dizdarevic – Commenting that Resolution of Islamic Community [IC] impacted talks on constitutional changes, forcing Patriotic Block [SBiH, SDU and BOSS] to soften their stances and come out with only one demand which is the abolishment of entity vote in BiH Parliament, editorial reads that we are about to see what kind of authority Catholic Church has among Croat politicians. Noting that involvement of Church came too late, editorial concludes: "Church would impose its view of BiH state in this phase of constitutional changes, which is impossible. Bishops' pressure can use in the second phase of constitutional changes, which should become binding."

RSNA passes Law on Audit of Privatization foreseeing establishment of special Commission	RTRS late news – Late on Thursday night, the RS National Assembly passed the Law on Audit of Privatization of state capital in companies and banks, submitted by the RS Government for a discussion in an urgent parliamentary procedure. RTRS – The law foresees establishment of the Commission appointed by the RS Government, which would carry out the audit. Commission would be have to consider audit request and make decisions within thirty days from its submission. SDS demanded the law to be returned in regular discussion, stressing that the law is necessary but that the concept is not good since this law does not solve a number of issues. SDS believes that establishment of Commission would also mean establishment of the institution parallel to already established structures. SBiH believes that this law is very necessary and it should have been proposed earlier. During the debate on Oil Refinery Bosanski Brod, RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik said that the offer of Israeli company “Alon” is not acceptable. “Buyer should accept determined price, all debts, and commitments toward employees... If we can not sell in by the determined price, then we will not sell it”, said Dodik. Earlier during the Thursday’s session RSNA Representatives passed proposal of changes of Law on budgetary system in order to harmonize it with system of Indirect Taxation Administration. RSNA passed changes of operating procedure that expect establishment of RSNA Committee for audit. PINK, BHT1, Hayat, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 8 ‘It remain unclear who would be conducting the audit of privatization’ by O.V., Dnevni Avaz pg 8 ‘Law on privatisation adopted’, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 ‘Majority of MP’s support privatisation audit’ by V.Popovic, EuroBlic pg RS2 ‘Buyers to be checked up’ by Tijana Veselinovic, Glas Srpske pg 2 ‘Suspicious needs to go on surface’ by G.Dakic – all, except Sarajevo press, report on RS NA session prior to adoption of the Law on Privatisation Audit.

PDP supports privatisation audit law; SDS : Comm. should not be established, political interference must be avoided; RS PM: Govt ready to accept some changes, but concept must remain same	RTRS – At the RSNA session, the PDP said it believes the Law on audit of privatization is very necessary in RS but that the way of compensation of damage that was done during privatization is not clear. Borislav Bojic from SDS reminded of the party's concept on privatization, which was not accepted, adding that SDS does not trust the Commission that would be established by RS Government and that would perform audit, since SDS believes that political influence should be avoided in this regard. RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik said that concept does not present problem but implementation of privatization. Dodik added that this Law is only a part of the concept on fight against organized crime. Dusan Stojicic, SDS wondered whether it is appropriate that Prime Minister to lecture SDS and RSNA. Dodik said that RS Government would accept certain number of amendments but that concept must remain. SRS believes that this is important law but that the concept is wrong. Although proposal of Laws on special prosecution and court and proposal of Law on prevention of organized crime were on the agenda, RSNA Collegium decided to discuss them at the extraordinary session that would be held on April 5 and 6.

FBiH Const. Court to bring decision on Law on allocation of public revenues next month	BHT1 – Public debate on the FBiH law on allocation of public revenues took place in the FBiH Constitutional Court on Thursday, and the final decision of the Court would be known next month. The discussion was held following the request by the Croat Caucus in the FBiH House of Peoples to assess whether the proposed law violates vital national interests of Croats. Both houses of FBiH Parliament passed this law regulating allocation of the financial sources from a single account directly to the municipalities. However, the Croat representatives deem that the allocation of public funds on the basis of the number of citizens is unacceptable solution, especially since the law does not clearly define how the population would be estimated, and they stress that the law entirely skips the Cantons. “That’s the difference: who controls the money and who establishes the rules of the game during the allocation of public revenues”, explained representative of the HoP Serb Caucus Svetozar Pudaric. However, not all Croat representatives deem that this law endangers the vital national interests of Croats; on the contrary, HSS’ Anto Colak claims that nobody is endangered as long as the same criteria apply for everybody. Representatives of the Association of Municipalities and Cities also support the new law on the allocation of public revenues. Vecernji List, pg 9 ‘Croat Caucus: You will make Croat majority areas poor’, by Dejan Jazvic – notes that the Croat Caucus in the FBiH HoP requests from the FBiH Constitutional Court to prevent the envisaged formula on allocation of public revenues because the Croat majority areas would be getting less money than they get nowadays. RHB, Hayat, FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 ‘New solutions supported even by municipalities with Croat majority’ by A.Hadziarapovic, Oslobodjenje pg 5 ‘Croats find criteria of allocation disputable’ by S.Se, Dnevni List, pg 3, mentioned on front ‘Croats do not give money to municipalities’, by Erna Mackic – also covered.

FBiH Govt urges postponement of the FERK decision to increase electricity prices in FBiH	BHT1 – At the session held on Thursday, FBiH Government discussed the reasons for and consequences of announced 6% increase of electricity prices in FBiH. Government demanded from the FBiH Regulatory Commission for Electricity (FERK) to postpone implementation of the new tariffs until FBiH Ministry of Energy, the Economic-Social Council and representatives of large consumers analyse all the elements and consequences of this decision for BiH economy and citizens. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 ‘FBiH Government asks for postponing of increase of electricity price’ by M.K. – FBiH Government also called upon members of Steering Boards of both Elektroprivredas to respect this decision. FBiH Energy Minister Vahid Heco told daily that extraordinary session of the Economic-Social Council would be held on Tuesday, and attended by both FERK and DERK [FBiH and BiH Electricity Regulatory Commissions] in order to come up with the solution to be proposed to the Government at next session. PBES
Provisional Administrator
files motion for seizure

Nezavisne Novine pg 4, announced on cover 'Payment of money and seizure of SDS property commences' by N.Krsman/A.Sisic – Privredna Bank East Sarajevo Provisional Administrator, Toby Robinson, Thursday filed a motion with the Sokolac District Court that the SDS money from the account at Razvojna Banka is transferred onto the account of PB ES. Daily has learnt this piece of information at the Provisional Administration of PB ES. (SDS needs to pay BAM 1.9 million to PB ES, owing to which reason the SDS account is blocked.) The motion filed stipulates that unless the entire debt of BAM 1.9 million is paid out, the PB ES will ask seizure of SDS (personal and real) property, in order to ensure the entire debt is paid. Dusan Stojicic, SDS Vice President, assessed that the move Robinson made was expected and was made in order to exert further pressure against SDS with an aim to weaken it and disable it from participating at upcoming elections.

SB: BiH Prosecution to file new charges against twenty SDA, HDZ leaders?	Slobodna Bosna pg 12 'BiH Prosecution prepared charges against several leaders of HDZ and SDA' by S.M. – Article speculates BiH Prosecution's Special Department for fight against organized/economic crime and corruption is to announce two new lawsuits against about twenty persons. Allegedly the charges would be filed against high-ranking current and former SDA and HDZ officials, among others former FBiH Prime Minister Edhem Bicakcic and former FBiH Finance Minister Dragan Covic charging them for several criminal activities committed over the last ten years. SB learns [but doesn't specify from who] that the charges could also be filed against SBiH high-ranking officials.

SB: PIFWC's aide Bjelica ordered murder of controversial businessman Spaic, who was informer of FBiH MoI and Intl. Community?

Slobodna Bosna pg 6-9 'Spaic cooperated with FBiH MoI last couple of months' by Emir Hodzic – Noting it has been almost a month since a controversial RS businessman Ratomir Spaic was killed in Eastern Sarajevo, author claims the RS Interior Ministry made no progress in an investigation to date, but rather presents the case as a result of the mafia clash thus justifying his murder. Article further reads there are two scenarios being investigated by the RS Crime Police: one is that former owner of Privredna Banka Eastern Sarajevo [PBES] Momcilo Mandic hired Spajic to execute a protected witness in the case against him processed by the BiH Court; second is that Spaic was about to execute Radomir Kojic, person allegedly in charge of criminal activities previously lead by Milovan Cicko Bjelica, under detention for charges of supporting ICTY-fugitives. SB also learns from the "international police" that Bjelica ordered this murder because Spaic allegedly worked as an informer for both the FBiH MoI and the IC for the last several years. Concluding that the next victim of "SDS mafia" could be former SDS official Milan Tupajic, who testified on role of Bjelica in war crimes committed in Sokolac region before the ICTY last year, and who could be an important witness against him in the proceeding before the BiH Court.
