Political Developments/Reforms

RSNA adopts with two-third majority transfer of entity defense powers to the state level	Oslobodjenje cover page, pg 5 'Abolishment of entity armies accepted', Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Abolishment of RS Army, Defense Ministry supported', SRNA – The RS National Assembly on Tuesday held a special session in Banja Luka following the adoption of the decision on the transfer of powers in the area of defence from the RS to BiH, at which it adopted conclusions assessing that the proposed solutions for the structure, organization and work of the BiH Armed Forces satisfy NATO criteria and represent the final stage in the creation of armed forces compatible with NATO standards. With the adopted conclusions, proposed by the floor groups of the Serb Democratic Party, the Party of Democratic Progress and the Democratic Patriotic Party, the RSNA urges the BiH Presidency to call on official structures of the NATO alliance to accept the reform of the BiH Armed Forces as the final stage of structural reform which will enable the integration of the BiH Armed Forces into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The conclusions point out that the RS is committed to the setting up of a defence system within the framework of BiH which is to defend BiH and its citizens through collective security arrangements, especially through membership in Partnership for Peace and the NATO alliance. The RSNA has tasked RS representatives in BiH institutions to find solutions for regimental organization, branches and services, anthems, flags and insignia for units, commands and the entire structure of the armed forces, in order to safeguard the identity of individuals and peoples in the future structure of the Armed Forces of BiH. The RSNA conclusions says that the concept of recruitment for the units and institutions of the defence system on the basis of nationality must secure the protection of the national identity of members of the constituent nations of BiH. In the course of the session, RS President Dragan Cavic called on RS National Assembly representatives to bring decision on transfer of authorities regarding defence and legislative issues in order for BiH Parliamentary Assembly to adopt law on military service. While addressing the extraordinary RSNA session, Cavic emphasized that decision on military forces was not going to be adopted without consensus. NATO Commander to BiH Steven Schook, Co-Chair of the Defence Reform Commission Raffi Gregorian and BiH Minister of Defence Nikola Radovanovic advised the representatives to adopt defence reform and take the opportunity to enter Partnership for Peace. "According to a BiH Constitution Article, it is possible to transfer authorities in areas on which entities agree and it is expected that FBiH Parliament will bring the same decision at its session scheduled for September 6", said Radovanovic. Defence reform foresees full transfer of authorities from entity to state level, establishment of single budget, professional army and abolishment of military conscription and reserve unit. SNSD and SDS representatives almost fully agreed with such concept at the session. PDP representatives did not oppose, but they are going to ask the Assembly to adopt certain conclusions. "We do not prefer war and thus we believe that structure which would provide peace should be created", said SNSD leader Milorad Dodik. SRS and DNS oppose the concept, saying that it opposes to the Constitution. RHB, Pink, BHT, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni List pg 3 'Dodik against change of RS Constitution' by I. Glibusic, Vecernji List pg 2 'Support to concept of armed forces' by bs, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pg 3 'RS MP's voted for defence reform' by R.Segrt, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Army joint after all' by M.Dzepina, EuroBlic RSpg 2 'BiH is closer to NATO with single army' by Nedeljka Breberina also covered the session prominently. Glas Srpske carries separate mini-reports on statements/presentations of Cavic, Gregorian, Radovanovic and Schook under following headlines respectively: 'Under NATO umbrella', 'Additional security', 'Less soldiers' and 'An important step'.
RS NGOs leader Dukic says RSNA conclusions on defense a betrayal of Serrb people	SRNA – Branislav Dukic, President of the RS Association of former detention camp inmates, Tuesday evening assessed that RS NA decision on transfer of defence authority from RS onto BiH represents "a classical example of betrayal of the Serb people". After the RS NA session, Dukic told the press in Banja Luka that "NGO's call on the RS NA Speaker Dusan Stojicic to address the families of the killed soldiers (which make the total of 24 thousand people)" on the issue.

CoM Chair Terzic: Meeting on Bjelasnica will not be the last one	BHT, Hayat, Oslobođenje pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Terzic does not expect agreement to be reached on Bjelasnica' – BiH Council of Ministers (CoM) Chair Adnan Terzic said that it is hard to expect that the next meeting on the police reform, scheduled for Thursday on mount Bjelasnica, will be the last one. Terzic added that participants at this meeting would discuss the maps of police regions, as well as some other problematic issues.
Terzic confirms consultations on police reform ongoing	Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Talks on police reform were intensified' by M. C. – Representatives of BiH CoM and Governments of entities held another round of consultations late Tuesday afternoon, as CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic confirmed. He added a number of consultations will be held by continuation of police reform talks on Thursday in order to try to bring stances closer to each other and agree on police reform by the set deadline.
OHR: Talks on police reform an issue for BiH authorities	RHB, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Agreement should be reached by local authorities' – Continuation of the negotiations on police reform, scheduled for Thursday, is essentially an issue for the BiH authorities, who are organizing the meeting, stated at the press conference in Sarajevo on Tuesday the OHR spokesman Kevin Sullivan. It is they who are charged with reaching an agreement, consistent with the requirements of the European Commission. The OHR's position and the international community's position has been the same throughout the process of negotiations, said Sullivan.
GS on police reform	Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'Paddy is satisfied and all caps are still there' by N. G. – The article claims the Police Reform Commission, with Wilfred Martens as its head, is fulfilling "a homework" it got from HR Paddy Ashdown by undermining the Dayton Agreement and constitutional organisation of RS, F BiH and BiH. Military-political analyst Ostoja Barasin thinks there is striving for centralisation of BiH through police reform, i.e. striving for re-establishment of BiH's pre-war internal structure. He says there are already three security services at BiH level and he thinks it is possible to both fulfill EC requirements and preserve constitutional organization.
SD: IC wants to form new coalition (SDP, SNSD, HSP) after 2006 elections	Slobodna Dalmacija , pg 13, mentioned on front 'HSP takes over power with Dodig and Lagumdžija?', by Zoran Zekic – SD notes that it is clear that the IC wants to have a new ruling coalition in BiH after the 2006 elections. Such coalition would include the SNSD on behalf of the Serb people, SDP on behalf of the Bosniaks and HSP (Djapic-Jurasic) on behalf of the Croats since the HDZ and Radomir Kizelj are out of running because of several criminal reports against the parties' presidents. SD goes on to say that the IC, led by the US Embassy, assess it is the HSP that will take over the leading role in Croat opposition after the HDZ breaks up and new HDZ gets formed by Bozo Ljubic . Apparently, the project is already being prepared and it received support from the UK Ambassador to BiH, Matthew Rycroft , who allegedly told the NHI president, Kresimir Zubak , a few days ago that the NHI would be taking part in the new majority in order to "have a calming effect" on the HSP (NB: presumably because of HSP's rightist orientation and its attitude towards the IC that is sometimes stiff). The post of BiH prime minister in such new coalition would belong to a Croat and parties agreed that the man for the job is Nikola Grabovac .
Terzic on Dokic case	Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'There will be no removal of Dokic today' by Srna – CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic has assessed the claims that he would appoint Tihomir Gligoric instead of Branko Dokic to the position of BiH Minister of Traffic and Communications were 'pure speculations'. Nevertheless, he confirmed there are some ideas with regard to this matter and he added: 'However, presidents of parties of parliamentary majority should give their consent prior to any project with regard to appointments'. Glas Srpske pg 2 'Gligoric instead of Dokic' by D.M. – Also reports on Terzic's statement, noting that its sources claim Gligoric was trying to obtain support for his possible candidature from two more Serb delegates lately. Dally also reminds of charges against Gligoric before BiH Prosecutor's Office.
