RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Candidature of Dumic is an insult for Serbs' – The Serb Radical Alliance issued a statement which reads that the appointment of Dragomir Dumic for the position of the BiH Defence Minister was an insult for Serb Veterans. According to the party's Secretary General, Ognjen Tadic, Dumic was a deserter for a long time and joined the unit of Ljubisa Savic-Mauzer in 1994 in Bijeljina. Tadic added that Dumic did not have any military education, which would prevent him from creating defence policies of BiH.

Vecernji List pg 3 'Bosniaks and Croats on move' – VL also says that SRS Secretary General Ognjen Tadic threatened that this party will insist in the BiH Parliamentary Assembly that none Bosniak or Croat is elected at responsible positions in the BiH defense system if he had a war past. SD claims Tihic decided to dismiss Nikolic, FBiH MoD	Slobodna Dalmacija front splash, pg 17 'Tihic would like to remove Nikolic – because of his own mistake' by Marin Erceg – SD claims that the Chairman of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic, is adamant in his idea to replace the FBiH Defence Minister, Miroslav Nikolic, and seize the control in the FBiH MoD. SD explains that Tihic was supposed to fire General Hamid Bahto from the FBiH Army a long time ago, but fails to do it either because he does not want or dares not to do it. SD further explains that Bahto was found guilty of trafficking arms to Kosovo, that he did the time and that the COMSFOR removed him from service on February 22, 2003. The trouble is, according to SD, that Bahto is still on the FBiH MoD payroll, and Tihic claims that Minister Nikolic should be replaced because of it. In that context, SD argues it is Tihic who is personally responsible because he is in charge of appointments and discharges to/from the Joint HQ and at junior levels of the FBiH Army. Having said all that, SD says Tihic should either resign or be removed by the OHR.

judiciary
blocked

RTRS, Oslobođenje pg 9 'Blockade of RS judiciary' – The RS judicial system remains in a state of crisis due to lack of adequate funding from the RS Government, OSCE spokesperson Zinaida Delic told a press conference in Sarajevo on Tuesday. She said that courts across the RS remain inactive as the RS postal service continues to refuse to deliver court summons until all outstanding court postal debt is paid in full. The Mission has been informed by RS Ministry of Justice officials that since mid-December hearings have only been scheduled in cases where it has been possible for summons to be hand delivered by court employees. A number of RS courts have also been threatened with disconnection from the power network pending payment of electrical bills. While the current crisis was to be discussed by the RS Commission for Judicial Reform at the 24 February session of the RS National Assembly, the item was deleted from the session agenda and has been postponed until the RSNA sits in March. Unless immediate action is taken by the RS Government to remedy the financial crisis being experienced by the RS court system, the ability of the RS judiciary to uphold the rule of law in the RS will remain seriously weakened, the OSCE warned.

In a brief interview to NN, Popovic expresses the view that regardless of non-arguemented remarks and complaints from the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the references he holds prevailed. He is of the view that Ombudsmen of Republika Srpska and the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina should not be abolished, because the existence of several Ombudsman Offices anticipates higher level of respect of human rights. Speaking of the appointment process of judges and prosecutors, he stresses it is not good that "a large number of judges who had good references, were not elected. On the contrary, the judges of unenviable quality are elected and this will be observed in the work of judicial system." supported a part of WB statements which concern of the WB regarding the restructuring scheme of Air Bosna...

[However], The value of market of the air-

He stepped away from his duties due to US pressure we applied through mediation of Slobodan Milosevic. He was never offered anything in return," stated creator of DPA, Richard Holbrooke, answering the statements by some RS officials that Karadzic had an agreement with US Administration that allegedly guaranteed him not to be prosecuted by ICTY if he would leave his positions. "I always said and I keep saying that the biggest Dayton's failure is that we did not arrest Radovan Karadzic. That has to be set straight. Karadzic and Mladic are European Bin Laden and Saddam. Their arrest is of crucial importance for long term stability of BiH," stressed Holbrooke.
