Reactions on BiH CC' decision on entity symbols:

PDP: continuation of F BiH pressures vs. RS; SNSD warns decision destabilizes relations btw entities; SDS: nobody can deprive RS of its right to symbols; SDA, SBiH: Court decisions to be implemented; HDZ: entities are unnatural thing

Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Tomorrow about decision of the BiH Constitutional Court' by V.Popovic – Mladen Ivanic, BH Foreign Minister and PDP President, has stated that decision of BiH Constitutional Court (regarding non-constitutionality of entity symbols) represents continuation of pressures against RS coming from F BiH, over which key officials from RS will Tuesday hold a meeting in Banja Luka and discuss the latest development. He also said he had spoken with Milorad Dodik, RS Premier, who will initiate the meeting. Krstan Simic, SNSD President, warns that decision of BiH CC introduces destabilization of relations between RS and F BiH. Borislav Bojic, SDS Vice President, is convinced that solution acceptable for all sides will be identified, adding that nobody can deprive RS of its right to symbols. Sulejman Tihic, SDA President, Sunday noted that Court decisions are to be implemented not discussed. Safet Halilovic, Party for BiH President, is also of the view that BiH CC' decision should be implemented not politicized. Miso Relota, HDZ Spokesperson, has assessed that BiH division into entities is "an unnatural thing", noting the latest BiH CC decision "is just another wheel in mosaic of his party's politics". Glas Srpske pg 5 'Problem is Federation' – Ivanic stated that a key problem in BiH is Federation BiH, but this problem is settled over RS's back, noting latest decision of BiH CC is a continuation of such a trend. Glas Srpske pg 5 'Tihic's service' – Serb Radical Party is of the view that latest decision of BiH CC ascertains stance of this party regarding constitutional changes, i.e. there should be no space given to constitutional changes that are perfidiously undermining the RS. EuroBlic pg RS2 'Symbols of Srpska are radicalising political scene' by Marija Milic – carries statements of Simic, Bojic, Ivanic and Tihic.

Interview with RS team member before BiH CC: RS needs to adjust, not annul its symbols	Patriot pgs 4-5 ‘Less rights, more politics’ by Miljan Kovac – In a page-long interview to daily, Rajko Kuzmanovic, member of the RS Team of Representatives before BiH Constitutional Court, former President of RS Constitutional Court and academician, comments on decision of BiH Constitutional Court (regarding non-constitutionality of RS symbols), explains that decision does not demand annulment but instead adjustment of RS hymn, coat-of-arms and flag. He notes that RS Constitution referring to RS symbols marking statehood should be re-written. According to him, RS has no capacity of a state and therefore its symbols should be marked as symbols of RS as entity, as federal area. He underlines that nobody has a right not to implement court decisions, noting these decisions were of more political than legal character. He is convinced RS Parliament will implement BiH CC’ decision, but changes would not be so large and would simply indicate we have no ambition to treat RS as a state.
DA op-ed: Decision by BiH CC step on entities symbols is a step to establishment of state of all citizens, but strengthening rule of law is priority	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 ‘State for all its citizens’ op-ed by Elvir Huremovic – Commenting the Friday’s decision by the BiH Constitutional Court, which ordered entities Parliaments to abolish current coat of arms and flag of entities, author stressed this was a first step in establishing the state of all citizens, regardless of their religion and ethnic background. Before this, notes daily, the rule of the law has to be established, including processing war crimes suspects and fighting the organized crime and corruption. Huremovic notes this is a job for the political structures, whose success would mean less job for the BiH CC. “And such recipe could only mean benefit for the BiH citizens. Regardless of the symbols,” concluded Huremovic.

VL: BiH Constitutional Court 's decision on entities' symbols is more significant than const. changes	Vecernji List, pg 4 'RS without national symbols', by Miroslav Vasilj – commenting on the BiH Constitutional Court's decision from the weekend, which ruled that the entity symbols are not in harmony with the Constitution of BiH, Vasilj says the decision is in fact a sort of compensation for the cosmetic constitutional changes that cemented the existence of the RS. The author goes on to say that the next step should be the abolishment of the name of the RS, since the name implies the right of one people only to the entity, which is not consistent with the BiH Constitution. Finally, Vasilj fears that the period of implementation of the decision (entities have to comply within next 6 months) could lead to abuse during the pre-election campaign by the Serb parties.
BHT1: US Embassy in BiH refused to issue a visa to Haris Silajdzic	BHT 1 – US Embassy in BiH refused to issue a visa to founder of SBiH Haris Silajdzic, Banjaluka-based newspaper Fokus reports in Monday's edition. Fokus learns from well-informed sources that the US Administration considers Silajdzic to be the enemy of US politics on the Balkans, because he opposes the proposed changes to the BiH Constitution. Fokus also claims that international representatives in BiH possess the documents proving that Silajdzic is linked with "extremists from the Arabic countries". FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Haris Silajdzic banned to enter USA' by BHT1 also reported.

One of founders of HDZ 1990 Raguz: HDZ BiH not taking care of BiH Croats	Vecernji List, pg 10 'Two HDZs in fight for Croats', by Zoran Kresic – commenting on the decision to form a new Croat political party, the 'HDZ 1990' that is, one of the founders of the party, an expelled member of HDZ BiH, Martin Raguz, says the decision to form the party was taken after the current HDZ (leadership) signed the constitutional changes agreement, which did not improve the position of the Croats in BiH. Raguz also denies speculations that Zagreb (HDZ of Croatia) has anything to do with the decision (earlier reports suggested that HDZ of Croatia does not like HDZ leader Dragan Covic in the office). On the other hand, the HDZ BiH spokesman, Miso Relota, denies any rifts within the HDZ BiH, arguing that the party will come out of this even stronger.
OHR finds some provisions of F BiH Law on pardoning unacceptable	Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'Some provisions of Law are not acceptable for OHR' by R.Cengic – Oleg Milisic, OHR Spokesperson, claims that the new F BiH Law on Pardoning, which F BiH Government has forwarded to parliament procedure is not acceptable since it does not meet standards OHR set (after all existing laws on pardoning were out of effect). Milisic explains: "This Law makes it possible for Federation officials to pardon convicts of BiH Court, whom only BH Presidency has a right to pardon. This ensures F BiH officials' powers are overlapped or mixed with powers of state authority officials, which is inadmissible." Borjana Kristo, F BiH Minister of Justice is of the view new Law contains no disputable element, "since law does not treat courts but instead other laws and deeds."

Minister Halilovic: Agreement on higher education reform should be completed this week	Dnevni List , pg 8 'Final agreement on higher education this week', by Tanja Calic – The BiH Minister of Civil Affairs, Safet Halilovic , confirmed for DL that the process of negotiations on higher education reform should be completed this week, so the (draft) law on higher education could be sent to the BiH CoM and BiH Parliament for adoption. DL also carries the RS Minister of Education, Anton Kasipovic , who says the RS Government, after it got acquainted with the draft law, had positive opinion about it. He stresses the draft law leaves enough space to the RS to regulate the area of higher education.
UNDP survey: Level of support to OHR reforms remains the same; Bosniak support decreasing, Croat and Serb increasing	Dnevni List , pg 4 'Rise of support to OHR's reforms', by A. Beus – According to a UNDP survey, the support of BiH citizens for the OHR's reforms from the end of 2005 is at the same level as in mid-2005. However, there are changes when it comes to the level of support of interviewees of different nationalities. Apparently, there is a decrease of support among the Bosniak interviewees and the rise of support among the Croat and Serb interviewees. Despite this, the Bosniak interviewees' support to the OHR for its political reforms in BiH is the biggest among the three peoples (52,2%), whilst the figure for the Croats is 46%. (NB: There are no figures for the Serb interviewees, nor the data on how many peoples were interviewed or earlier figures).

BiH Chief Negotiator on SAA Davidovic: We should start immediately with procedure of certificates issuing and not wait after signing of the SAA	Dnevni Avaz cover splash ‘We have to prepare for disturbances in BiH economy’ and pg 5 ‘BiH economy has to prepare faster for time after signing of the agreement’ by Tarik Lazovic– In an interview to DA, the BiH Chief Negotiator on the Stabilization and Association Agreement, Igor Davidovic, warned that BiH economy and manufacturers have to speed up the pace of preparations for what would follow the signing of the SAA, adding that after the next round of the talks on 12 May it would be known what are BiH obligations in the process of liberalization of the trade with the EU. Davidovic said that it is expected that this would cause disturbances in BiH economy, but the measures for amortization have been planed. Davidovic explained that after the signing of the SAA BiH producers would have to apply the same standards in domestic trade in line with the EU standards, including adoption of the international certificates on quality and protection of production brands and intellectual property. “There is a logical question here why wait after the signing of the SAA to start with procedure of issuing of certificates and protection of production brands. My opinion is that it needs to be started as soon as possible,” said Davidovic. Inset ‘Would BiH economy be under impact?’- Davidovic said the team doesn’t expect the SAA would have negative influence on the BiH economy, which is why staff are in contact with all the representatives of producers, stressing that it is necessary and obligatory to prepare amortization mechanisms.

Daily: Do BiH
MPs deserve all benefits they are asking for?

Oslobdjenje cover splash and pgs 4-5 'MPs collect KM3. 000 each per month for two-three days of work' by Almir Terzic– In a statement to daily, member of the BiH Parliament's Commission for Budget and Finances Dusanka Majkic assess that the demand of several Caucuses for the MPs rights and obligations to be regulated by the law is legal. According to the submitted law proposal, MPs would be entitled to the more favorable retirement conditions, fees for contacts with voters, hiring of experts and administrative staff, procurement of equipment, as well as a number of other benefits. Majkic said that most of these demands are justified, but she still doesn't know how much would all this cost. However, as daily commented, MPs forgot they come to work only when a session is scheduled while many do not show up even for this. This, says daily, questions a justification of their demands.

Elektroprivreda of Herceg Bosna CEO Maric: It is likely citizens will pay for extra cost of imported electricity	Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 11, mentioned on front 'Yes, citizens pay electricity for Aluminij', by Emil Karamatic – carries an interview with the CEO of 'Elektroprivreda of Herceg Bosna' (EP HZ HB), Vlado Maric, who explains that the 'EP HZ HB' does not have the capacity to provide electricity to all its consumers, particularly to 'Aluminij' of Mostar, therefore it had to import electricity. He underlines that the electricity was imported for 37,2 Euros per MWh, whilst 'Aluminij' was charged 36 Euros per MWh in first three months of 2006, saying it is likely it will be citizens that will cover the extra costs. Maric also denies information that consumers in BiH pay the most expensive electricity in Europe, claiming it is fact the cheapest electricity in Europe.
