LATEST NEWS OF TODAY

German Chancellor visits BiH, promises assistance	BH Radio 1 by Amir Suzanj – German Chancellor, Gerhard Schroeder, has arrived in one day working visit to BiH. He currently meets the Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic. BH Radio 1 reports that Schroeder confirmed Germany's readiness to provide both political and technical assistance to BiH on its path to Europe, stressing that this was never questionable. Schroeder also added that Germany is ready to send in a team of experts to help BiH in this process. RHB and RTRS also reported on the visit.
Commission on police maps to be established today	RTRS, BH Radio 1 – The Spokesperson for Chair of the CoM, Bojan Zec Filipovic confirmed for SRNA news agency that expert Commission on police map would be appointed today, and its members will be urged to immediately elect a chair of the Commission.
Ivanic meets Del Ponte today	RTRS – Mladen Ivanic, BiH Foreign Minister, and Carla del Ponte, ICTY Chief Prosecutor, at today's meeting in The Hague, assessed that BiH has improved its cooperation with the ICTY in the past few months, noting that RS MoI has made a special contribution to this. BiH is faced with the fact that its European future and membership in NATO depend on cooperation with the ICTY. Ivanic added that the meeting also discussed the possibility of seeing local institutions dealing with war crimes prosecution.

Dodik: Recruits should not be forced to swear allegiance to BiH	FENA – In a statement to the Bijeljina-based BN TV, the President of SNSD, Milorad Dodik, stressed that the SNSD was against the compulsory military service, reiterating that “the recruits from the RS should not be forced to swear allegiance to BiH”. Dodik stressed that military service should had been abolished once it became clear that survival of RS Army was not possible.

Defence, police and security issues
BHT 1: Two weeks after Manjaca/Bileca incidents, still not clear who is responsible	BHT 1 by Gvozden Sarac – BHT 1 comments that two weeks after RS Army recruits in Bileca and Manjaca refused to take oath to BiH, it is still not clear who is to be held responsible for the incidents. RS Ministry of Defence (MoD) prepared the report on the incidents, stating that MoD and the RS army did all they could do to prevent incidental situations. “RS Ministry of Defence and the army took all the necessary security measures in order to avoid incidents”, said RS MoD Spokesperson Branko Trkulja in a statement for BHT. “The chain of command in army is very clear, so superior officers and the ministry itself must bear the responsibility”, said Igor Radojicic, SNSD member. Possible sanctions against responsible persons will be announced until the end of the week, said BiH Minister of Defence Nikola Radovanovic.

submits report on Manjaca/Bileca
to BiH Presidency

RTRS by Sinisa Mihailovic & Vesna Cibic – RTRS states that the report prepared by the RS Defence Ministry on events during the swearing-in ceremonies in Manjaca and Bileca was submitted to the BiH Presidency. There is no official information about the contents of the report but unofficial sources say that parents, citizens, media and SNSD are to be blamed for the incidents. Gostimir Popovic, military analyst, stated that the officials, as usual, are looking for someone innocent to blame. SNSD leader, Milorad Dodik, stated that events in the barracks only confirm that the party was right when pointed out to the failures in defence reform two years ago. “People from SDS, before all [RS President Dragan] Cavic, wouldn’t publicise the content of the reform, but they adopted the first phase of the reform and therefore lead towards the mentioned events”, says Dodik. Reporter comments that the incomplete BiH Presidency is currently on vacation. Dragan Kapetina, advisor to the Chair of the BiH Presidency Borislav Paravac, stated that the Presidency will make a stance on the report at the first session of the complete Presidency. OHR Spokesman Oleg Milisic stated that OHR expects the report to be submitted to the BiH Defence Ministry and NATO office in Sarajevo and added that after that OHR will decide whether to take any actions. Reporter comments that it remains unclear whether the MoD’s report mentions the main rehearsal of the oath taking ceremony when it was obvious what would happen, stressing that, as always, consequences, not causes are important to the authorities. Reporter further concluded that there are a lot of questions like this to be asked to the BiH authorities, concluding that the Croatia’s national anthem was played at swearing-in ceremony in Capljina wondering will anybody react to that.

Spiric: ‘SNSD is not responsible for incidents in Bileca and Manjaca’	Dnevni List pg 2 ‘SNSD is not responsible for incidents in Bileca and Manjaca’ by E. Mackic carries Deputy Speaker of the BiH House of Representatives, Nikola Spiric, who says that accusing the SNSD President, Milorad Dodik, and the SNSD of being responsible for the incidents during the oath-taking ceremonies at Manjaca and Bileca is a big nonsense. Spiric added that SNSD was not related with the aforementioned incidents in any way.
Paravac demands for temporary stoppage of conscription	Nezavisne Novine pg 5, announced on cover ‘Paravac demands for stoppage of sending young men to army’ by D. Risojevic and A. Sisic – The Chairman of BiH Presidency, Borislav Paravac, will request temporary moratorium to be imposed for “sending young men to army” until the end of the year, following incidents in Manjaca and Bileca, as Dragan Kapetina, Paravac’s military advisor, announced Monday.
FBiH MoD Nikolic says conscription to be abolished by the end of year	RHB, BHT1, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 5 ‘By the end of the year, conscription to be abolished’ by Onasa, Nezavisne Novine pg 5 ‘Abolishment of military service by the end of the year’ by N. N. – The FBiH Defence Minister, Miroslav Nikolic, stated for Radio Livno that the conscription in the army will most probably be abolished by the end of this year due to the implementation of the defence reforms. He also added then BiH would have a professional armed forces of about 10.000 troops [for more details on Nikolic’s statements in Livno regarding defence reform, see BiH Round-up May 2]
Colak hopes SIPA Director issue to be solved by next CoM session	BHT 1, RTRS, FTV – The BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak stated he expects political agreements regarding the appointment of the new SIPA Director to be completed by next session of the Council of Ministers. He also stressed that he would continue to insist on appointment of his candidate Dragan Lukac to the position.

Commission dealing with police maps to be appointed today	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Five regions proposed by Materns Commission as a starting point' by Az. K. – The Chair of the Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, confirmed on Monday that the expert Commission will be appoint today to discuss the possible regional police structure. The commission will include 6 or 7 members, and Terzic announced they would prepare the final proposal on the map of police regions by 9 May. "We agreed for RS Government to appoint three members in the Commission, while the parties with the HQ in FBIH, and which participated the negotiations at Vlsic, will appoint three or four members," explained Terzic and denied he would chair the Commission. The starting point for the discussion will be the proposal by the Police Restructuring Commission of five police regions.
RS NGOs strongly oppose to police reform	Glas Srpske pg 2 'For salvation of Srpska' by G. K. – NGOs from RS will on Wednesday establish a headquarters for organizing protests in order to protect constitutional organization of RS. Deputy President of RS Association of POWs Slavko Jovicic has announced this headquarters will be in constant session. NGOs will organize protests of citizens in Banja Luka because they do not accept police reform that was agreed upon on Vlastic.

Op-ed: BiH faces key challenges this month; RS to prove whether it supports BiH or not through police reform

Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Challenges in May' op-ed by Zija Dizdarevic – Editorial refers to this month's challenges before BiH authorities, especially RS, primarily referring to the police reform. It notes that a definition of a number and borders of future police regions for RS presents a fight in which it is to do everything to make new structure as close to entities' structure as possible. At the same time, RS NGOs call on mass protests demanding survival of RS institutions and constitutional order, RS politicians also call on respect for Dayton agreement and SCG Presidency Svetozar Markovic, speaking in Strasbourg, again linked Kosovo position with DPA. "All this show that block on both sides of Drina has been activated to insist for Dayton to stay untouched and its opposes integration of BiH into EU and NATO." Author further says that in this month it will be finally clear whether RS stands for BiH or not. "Such stance also foresees necessity of the constitutional changes for the purpose of police reform," reads op-ed noting that RS organizes massive protests in this case, it would cause a reaction in SCG and consequently to further regional destabilisation. However, author states all this would be balanced by approving beginning of SAA negotiations for BiH.

Man sustains severe injuries in Sarajevo shooting incident	FTV – Fatmir Zenuni sustained severe head injuries when he was shot in a incident which took place in a restaurant in Nedjarici settlement of Sarajevo on Monday. According to Canton Sarajevo Police Commissioner Himzo Selimovic, this was not the case of fight between the criminal groups. Selimovic said that is was just the accident, but the accident that emphasizes the problem of huge amount of illegal weapons owned by people in Sarajevo and rest of BiH. BHT1, Dnevni Avaz pg 29, mentioned on cover, ‘He shoot his partner in the head’, Oslobodjenje pg 39, mentioned on cover ‘One severely injured’, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 ‘Fatmir Zenuni severely wounded in the head’ by A. Durmo. – also covered.
BiH Prosecutor’s Office and SIPA are investigating organized trafficking of Chinese citizens	Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover ‘BiH Prosecutor’s Office and SIPA are investigating organized trafficking of Chinese citizens’ by A.Sisic – The BiH Prosecutor’s Office, SIPA, the entity Interior Ministries and Brcko District MoI have launched a comprehensive preliminary investigation into trafficking of Chinese citizens in BiH. The authorities believe that this crime is organised at an international level, reaching all the way to China. A source close to SIPA claims that the roles of certain RS MoI officials are also being investigated. They are suspected of racketeering certain Chinese citizens. Apparently, these officials have been asking to be paid KM 10,000 or else they will close down certain Chinese shops and repatriate their owners.

Croatian American Association lobbyingin Washington	RHB, Vecernji List cover pg splash ‘Croats of US want 13 million $ for Posavina’ and pg 2 ‘13 million dollars needed for return to Posavina’ by Z. Kresic, Dnevni List pg 9 ‘US should stand for return of Croats to BiH’ by Hina – During its annual lobbying called ‘Days on the Hill’ held on the Capitol Hill, the Croatian American Association demanded transferring of processes from the ICTY to the local courts. They also asked from the US to be more active when the return of Croats to the RS is in question and that the US secure 13 million US$ for the return of Croats to Posavina and the Banja Luka region. Also, the Association is in favour of abolishment of the position of the High Representative since in their opinion it is weakening the position of local officials and parties. They also believe that the HR’s powers are ‘suppressing’ democracy in BiH.

Terzic: It is certain Branko Dokic will leave	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Branko Dokic to leave CoM', announced on cover 'It is certain Branko Dokic will leave' by M.Cubro – In a half-a-page interview to NN, Adnan Terzic, BiH CoM Chair, says that Branko Dokic, BiH Minister of Traffic and Communication, charged with office abuse will leave BiH CoM. Moreover, Terzic sees no reason why Dragan Doko should leave BiH CoM, since Doko is not responsible for problems of farmers. On police reform, he says that Commission in charge of police region map will be formed on Tuesday (3 May), noting it would be consisted of police experts, who will most likely complete the work by 11 May. He adds Police Board will not be above BiH Security Ministry.
NN op-ed: Dokic is the biggest tragic player at BiH political scene	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'A judgement day' by Aleksandar Sekulic – The author is writing about speculations regarding Branko Dokic's departure from BiH CoM, calling Dokic the biggest tragic player at the BiH political scene at the moment. The author notes it is certain Dokic will leave BiH CoM. The only question remains whether Adnan Terzic or the-all-mighty Paddy Ashdown would make final move and declare Dokic ex-minister during the course of today or tomorrow.

Rehabilitation of politicians running late	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'The announced rehabilitation of politicians is running late' by M. C. – Even two months after the start of the revision, HR Ashdown has not enabled any of removed politicians to be politically active again. 'We have no new information. The verification process is currently ongoing and, after it is completed, the public will be informed', OHR Spokesperson Kevin Sullivan has stated.
VL analyzes work of Croat ministers at BiH and FBiH level	Vecernji List, pg 5 'Croat ministers from Monday to Friday', mentioned on front 'Croat ministers without power', by Miroslav Vasilj – Carries an analysis of the work of the Croat ministers at both the FBiH and BiH level. The author argues that words that can sum up the work of all ministers, irrespective of their nationality, are: "without personality, devoid of ideas, unrecognizable...". The author goes on to say there are other circumstances that make the work of Croat ministers even more difficult, namely the constitutional solutions that enable the outvoting of Croats, especially at the FBiH level and "Ashdown's imposed law on state service" that prevents ministers from selecting their closest aides.
Croats were offered TV centre if they support PBS Law	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Croats were offered a TV center' by M. C. – A collocutor from BiH parliament claims Mostar would get a modern TV centre if Croat representatives at BiH parliament support PBS law that would not foresee a separate Croat TV channel.

Kunic and Mikes on European Parliament Resolution: guidepost for pressures	Glas srpske pg 5 'A guidepost for pressures' by N. Diklic – Refers to the European Parliament Resolution on Western Balkans and carries statements of Petar Kunic and Miroslav Mikes. Kunic says the significance of this document should not be underestimated and he thinks domestic and international politicians can use this Resolution for additional extortions and pressures against RS. Mikes says the Resolution must be taken seriously and emphasizes RS must fulfill standards of EU if it wants BiH to enter EU.
Oslobodjenje on unsolved borders issues between BiH and SCG	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Ashdown took up the mandate in the SCG territory!' by Edina Kamenica – The Chair of the State Commission for border issues [whose mandate expired], Mirsad Cukle, warns in the article on the unsolved issue of borders between BiH and Serbia and Montenegro. The disputable is a territory around Janja region, where Serbian authorities took hold of about 400 hectares of properties of BiH citizens as the border was not yet defined and its follows the movement of Drina river. Cukle says that neither BiH authorities nor OHR has expressed no interests to solve the issue. "[Paddy] Ashdown loses his mandate in Janja and he shows no disturbance over that, and at the same time its has mandate over SCG territory which is now BiH territory [this refers to the area from Pavlovic bridge to Bijeljina], but he is not concerned about that either," says Cukle.

UNDP's public survey on support to work of OHR	Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 15 'Bosniaks hinting disaster, Croats become optimists', by Dinko Pasic – According to a public survey that was released by the UNDP, (NB: SD does not carry any figures or other relevant data), the support to the work of the OHR has seen an insignificant drop among the Bosniaks and Croats, whilst the Serb interviewees have this time shown more trust than earlier (31,6% now, 25,9% before), which almost matched the Croats' support (33,2%). The survey shows that despite a slight drop, 57,7% of Bosniaks still support the work of the OHR.
VL feature on census in BiH	Vecernji List, pgs 6-7 'Fear of census', by Radoslav Dodig – Carries a feature of the issue of organization of census in BiH in which the author notes that it is yet unclear as to when a census will be organized since it is a political issue too. According to Deputy Speaker of BiH House of Representatives, Nikola Spiric, the census has not been carried out in BiH after the war because the SDA opposes it, because majority of BiH citizens that have gone abroad and assumed other citizenships are the Bosniaks, which in turn would deny SDA's story about the Bosniak domination in these areas. Spiric says that HDZ too is opposing the organization of census because it would reveal that there are less Croats than in 1991.

VL: FBiH Government to annul tender on sale of 'Energopetrol'	Vecernji List, pg 6 'Abolishment of tender on sale of Energopetrol a possibility', by vr – According to a report of the Onasa news agency, the FBiH Government will most likely abolish the tender, which was invited in order to sell the 'Energopetrol' company because of the "disgracefully low bid" that was offered. According to the Onasa's sources "the INA (Croatian state oil company) did give the most favourable offer, but the price is humiliating and disgracefully low, knowing that INA sold 25% of its shares to the Hungarian MOL for 500 million dollars, whilst 10 million KMs and solving of debts amounting to 67 million is offered for the BiH's biggest company".
GS: still no person was indicted for Dobrovoljacka street crimes	Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'Carla, present your stance' by N. Z. – The article reminds today is 13th anniversary of alleged crimes committed by BiH Army against JNA soldiers in Dobrovoljacka street in Sarajevo, however no person has been indicted of these crimes. The article also features statements of a survivor of the crime.

Issue of Covic's successor in BiH Presidency

DA: 'Covic
doesn't want Raguz to succeed him'

Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'Covic doesn't want Raguz to succeed him', pg 2 'Covic doesn't want to see Raguz in the BiH Presidency' by H. Orahovac – The session of the BiH House of Representative at which Dragan Covic's successor in the BiH Presidency is to be chosen will take place on 4 May, however HDZ still has not proposed a candidate. DA learns from the HDZ source that the reason for this is that "[Barisa] Colak has no courage to oppose Covic." "Dragan Covic simply doesn't want to see Martin Raguz in the Presidency... despite clear position of the HDZ Caucus head, Vinko Zoric, who openly advocates for Raguz to take up the position," says the source. It further reminds that the conflict between Covic and Raguz has started about two years: "Long time ago, Covic spoke about 'moles in party's lines'... not trying too hard to hide that about whom he was talking about. They minded that Raguz was in contact with the International Community. Raguz, unburned by charges against him, could and can communicate with everybody as equal. As such, he can protect the interests of Croats in the best way. But, Covic's support Ivo Miro Jovic." Source concludes if Colak doesn't find strength to solve the situation, that it is certain that HDZ goes into further division and weakening of its position.

starts final consultations on Covic's
successor

Vecernji List, pg 4 'HDZ BiH leadership hurries to find successor to Covic', by Zoran Kresic – Carries an article about the issue of nomination of successor to Dragan Covic in the BiH Presidency. VL says that the HDZ President, Barisa Colak, met last night (Monday) with HDZ Vice Presidents Covic, Niko Lozancic and Anto Spajic in order to discuss the aforementioned issue and prior to that Colak was on the phone to members of the HDZ Presidency and HDZ MPs in the BiH Parliament in order to hear their opinions. Saying it was impossible to learn whether the candidate will be Ivo Miro Jovic or Martin Raguz, VL says one can expect that Jovic will not be supported (in the Parliament) by the SBiH and several SDA MPs, and on top of that, it is not even certain that Jovic would be supported by all HDZ MPs.

Dnevni List, pg 4, mentioned on front 'Negotiations until late in the night', by Ivica Glibusic – Similar to VL, DL says that Colak started final consultations without saying as to who will be nominated.

DA: Jovic asked whether he would accept the candidacy for BiH Presidency	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Jovic asked whether he would accept the candidacy' by F. Vele – DA also brings that HDZ leader, Barisa Colak, and his Deputies used the holidays period to consult with the members of the HDZ Presidency on Dragan Covic's successor. Noting that it was impossible to learn what was discussed at these talks, DA reminds that still only names of Ivo Miro Jovic and Martin Raguz are being mentioned as potential candidates. "It is indicative", says DA, that Raguz, who is in Zagreb currently, by yesterday afternoon did not hold internal talk on election of new HDZ member in Presidency, while on the other hand representative Jovic confirmed to DA that he spoke to party leadership: "They asked me briefly whether I would accept the position... I said I will accept everything party proposes," says Jovic.
Raguz: 'If there are precise criteria, they can count on me'	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'If there are precise criteria, they can count on me' not signed – Asked [daily doesn't specify where or when] whether he would accept the position of Croat member of BiH Presidency if HDZ offers this to him, Martin Raguz answered that he would respect the party's stance but he expects it to be founded on precise and clear criteria. "If there are precise and clear criteria, than they can count on me, if not, that I would bring decision," said Raguz to journalists, explaining those criteria include position in the party, position in the Parliament and results of the work until now.

of HDZ:
'There is no place for Ljubic and Raguz in swamp called HDZ'

Slobodna Dalmacija, front pg splash and pg 13 'There is no place for Ljubic and Raguz in swamp called HDZ', by Zvonimir Cilic – Carries an op-ed commenting the issue of nomination of replacement for Covic in which the author heavily criticizes the HDZ leadership, foremost Dragan Covic, Barisa Colak, Niko Lozancic and their 'yes-men', claiming that they usurped all the power in the party contrary to the HDZ Statute. The author argues it is about the troika's sick ambitions, greed, fear of losing positions, fear of other people assuming senior posts and fear of other people who do not obey their orders.

Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 13, mentioned on front 'Covic installs Jovic from shadow', by Marin Erceg – Similar to article above, this critical op-ed reads: "The essence of the problem is the effort of the removed member of BiH Presidency and Vice President of HDZ Dragan Covic to, if it has to happen anyway, appoint his candidate into the Presidency, and that's Ivo Miro Jovic. The trouble is that the candidate does not enjoy support not even in the Caucus or HDZ Presidency or in HDZ of central Bosnia from which Jovic comes. Jovic's lack of reputation in the public eye, especially within diplomatic circles, is not Jovic's stronger side too".
