Police reform

BiH Foreign Minister Ivanic and EU Enlargement Commissioner Rehn in Brussels discussed SAA talks; police reform important and inevitable	BHT1 By Elvir Bucalo, Brussels – During the meeting with BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic in Brussels on Friday, EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn stated that technically, Sarajevo was accomplishing the conditions set in the Stabilization and Association Agreement [SAA], while the political side is questionable precisely the issue of police reform. Ivanic stated: “technically looking, the SAA can be signed by the end of the year. Nevertheless, some of the political issues were stressed at the meeting with the special emphasis put on the police reform. EC expects this issue to be dealt with utter seriousness since failure in this matter might lead to not signed agreement”. Ivanic deems that a political agreement on police reform that would be adopted by RS as well must be reached by the middle of June when the next round of SAA negotiations is scheduled. It was also reiterated the importance and inevitability of the police reform. EU Commission for Enlargement spokesperson Kristina Nagy, stated at the occasion that “it was clearly said to Sarajevo that the issues of ICTY cooperation, reform of Public Broadcasting Service and police reform are going to be under special magnifying glass”. PINK – Ivanic said in the phone interview: “Rehn believes that the process of the police reform is slow. Rehn believes that the blockade of the police reform could endanger signing of SAA. I gave certain proposals on how to unblock the present situation. BiH politicians should reach the compromise and to eliminate this last problem. I hope that this situation will be unblocked in the following month and that we will show readiness to take the responsibility and reach the agreement in Sevilla, which will be acceptable for all so we can sign the SAA”. RHB – Rehn expressed great concern over the slowdown in the police reform process, emphasizing that domestic institutions have to find appropriate solution as soon as possible. Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 3 ‘Olli Rehn is worried by freeze of police reform’, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 ‘EU dissatisfied with blockade of police reform’ by D.R., Dnevni List pg 6 ‘To sign the Agreement by end of year’ – also covered.

BiH Foreign Minister Ivanic: SIPA should take over serious crimes; basic security should remain on entity and cantonal police	Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Brussels is worried for blockade of police reform' by S.Numanovic – Following the meeting with EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn in Brussels, in a short interview for DA, BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic said that "all serious criminal cases should be taken of entity and transferred to state institutions, on already existing police structure of SIPA... Basic security of citizens would remain on lower levels of authority – entities and cantons." Proposing for all the budget competences to be transferred to the state level, Ivanic denied that his proposal is in discordance with the Agreement on police structure reached in October 2005.
RS Association of Defendologists organized round table in Banja Luka on Friday under the title "Political and professional aspects of the police reform in RS and BiH	RTRS By Stela Jungic – RS Association of Defendologists organized round table under the title "Political and professional aspects of the police reform in RS and BiH in Banja Luka on Friday. RS Association of Defendologists Chair Dusko Vejnovic stated: "Police should be serving interest of the community and citizens, not the interest of oligarchy, bureaucracy or elites..." Chair of the International Police Management Symposium Dilip Das believes that the BiH should have decentralized police such as in Great Britain, US, Canada, Japan etc. "I believe that police here should be localized, decentralized and working in smaller groups in local areas", said Das. At the very beginning, SDA representatives left the round table. "This is about repulsive instrumentation of the police reform", said SDA's Tarik Sadovic. RS National Assembly Committee for the defence and security Chair Velimir Sakan said that future decisions of the Police Reform Directorate Steering Board would be unacceptable for the RS. Sakan said that the RS would insist on the agreement on the police reform, by which all the decisions should be brought by consensus and should be in accordance with the RS and BiH Constitutions. PINK – BiH House of Representatives deputy Petar Kunic stated that PRD SB does not respect the agreement on the police reform. FTV, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Entities MoIs should remain' by Srna, Dnevni List pg 4 'Solution on police is being imposed' Glas Srpske pg 4 'Direction forgoing the Agreement' by D.Momic – also carried.

Hayat: Even if PRD makes all necessary decisions, they would not be accepted in RS	Hayat by Lejla Gutlic – According to Hayat reporter, even if BiH Police Reform Directorate [PRD] makes all the necessary decisions, they would not be accepted in RS. RS officials claim that the process of police reform will fail if the principle of consensus is not obeyed and, according to RS President Dragan Cavic, not a single political party in RS would support police regions that cross entity borders. RS National Assembly Speaker Igor Radojicic emphasized that RS would not support the proposal of the police reform, adopted by eight members of PRD Steering Board, because it is not in line with the recommendations of RS NA. RS Minister of Interior Stanislav Cadjo said that the proposed model of police structure in BiH, with only two levels – local and state level – is unacceptable for RS. Reporter tried to explain how it is possible that PRD Steering Board can make such important decisions with simple majority, instead of consensus. Consensus is in fact necessary for PRD SB to make any decisions in regular procedure; however, if there is no consensus, than the rules of extraordinary procedure apply, which is when it is possible to pass a decision with only simple majority. Representatives of Serb people in the BiH Council of Ministers voted in favour of such way of making decisions in the PRD SB; Hayat reporter ended this report commenting that this proves that members of BiH CoM adopt many decisions and rulebooks without even knowing what they have voted for.

Head of EUPM Coppola on police reform: Not a single decision was brought against RS; RS demands are not completely clear	Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'RS demands are not completely clear', pg 5 'Not a single decision was brought against RS' by Edina Sarac – Commenting work of Police Reform Directorate [PRD], in an interview for DA Head of EUPM Vicenzo Coppola stated: "Unfortunately, we only made to agree on partial solutions, but my message is that we are not quitting and we will continue working on technical issues. It would be silly to hide the fact that we have no troubles within PRD Steering Board, and these are stances and demands from RS, that are not completely clear to me." Noting that RS representatives took role of observers in work of PRD SB, Coppola stressed: "That can bring us certain troubles, but it is their right to do what they want. Still, we are working and making decisions, although RS does not want to participate. PRD SB will keep on working even if they withdraw their representatives... I hope that this would not happen... It is absolutely clear. It has not been done anything so far against RS, I state that with full responsibility... I did not hear not a single argument for their decision on not participating in work of PRD SB... Problem is that they are not only refusing to participate in work of PRD, but they are refusing police reform itself." Coppola directly accused RS politicians for the present situation: "It is the RS politicians who prejudice issues, they are the ones that are leading the whole thing in wrong direction, not us." Inset 'Political influence on work of Direction' – Coppola noted that it is quite normal that PRD SB are instructed by the political leadership, adding that in case of RS, politicians are not counseling their representative, they obstruct his work.
Head of SDA Caucus in RSNA Sadovic: Dodik is stopping police reform due to elections	Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Dodik is stopping the process due to elections' by Fena – Head of SDA Caucus in RS National Assembly Tarik Sadovic accused leading RS politicians, RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik above others, for stopping police reform due to elections: "Instead of letting experts do their job and create a model of police structure on which judicial and executive authority will take stances, we have instrumentalisation and manipulation by all possible means." Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Dodik is leading stoppers of police reform', Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'Dodik is stopping police reform' by Fena – also carries.

RS is part of that state, which is also clearly defined by DPA. As an entity withing BiH, RS is obliged to work within frames of constitutionally agreed structures. So, RS does not have right or authorities to organize or hold referendum. IC will not allow BiH's sovereignty and territorial integrity to be threatened."

Cavic stressed: “I think that referendum in RS can be only a product of situation if RS is threatened to the point that there is no other way of defence but to defend by people’s will and so solve its status within BiH.” Denying any connection between status of Kosovo and Montenegrin referendum with BiH intern issues, Cavic added: “The smartest thing for Bosniaks and Croats would be if they do not raise issue of legitimacy of RS, for that is the only way to move all political ambient into radicalism and encourage all those that are advocating for policy of secession.” Cavic also commented constitutional changes, police reform, Commission on suffering of Sarajevo citizens, RS insignia, repeating his previous stances.

I am convinced that it is impossible to be done as well as the IC will harshly react on this..." State cannot be blocked it is not responsible for the collection of the VAT income, so regardless to the set coefficient, state gets the income.
