Constitutional changes
HR and PIC welcome constitutional changes agreement	TV PINK – High Representative to BiH and Ambassador of Peace Implementation Council acclaimed moves that BiH political leaders made in the process of constitutional changes, which has improved functionality of power. A joint statement reads that great step was made towards Europe , more functional and efficient country, and accomplishment of human rights standard. HR to BiH and Ambassador of PIC also acclaimed role of the US in enabling and giving assistance in the process of negotiations on constitutional changes. They also urged parties to reach final agreement prior to receiving opinion of Venetian Commission on election of BiH Presidency members, so the preparations for October elections could start. RHB, BH TV 1, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Final agreement to be reached prior to recommendations of Venetian Commission' by ONASA, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Progress on constitutional amendments welcomed' by N.N., Oslobodjenje pg 2 'A great step towards Europe' – also report

DA interview with Austrian Ambassador to BiH: Agreed constitutional changes respond to political reality'

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Agreed constitutional changes respond to political reality', announced on cover 'This is an issue of maturity of BH political elite' by E.Sarac – In a statement to daily, Werner Almmhofer, Austrian Ambassador to BiH, believes that the BH leaders will soon sign the agreement on constitutional changes. He grounds his optimism on the fact that "a wide compromise solution has already been agreed on, bar one minor detail related to election of BiH Presidency members, on which Venetian Commission is to give view., adding: "I think this is an issue of maturity of BH political elite, that has been running this process from the very beginning." In regard to the EU role in the process of talks on constitutional changes, he said reminds that EU has been engaged in talks as of autumn 2005, noting: "EU states have provided significant finances to project of Donald Hays and American Peace Institute, while Norway and Switzerland have also provided major financial assistance." He reminds Venetian Commission criticised the so-called entity vote at BiH HoR, adding that "Constitution is something that corresponds to political reality of the state."

DA interview with Durakovic: Changes of Constitution should have been approached in a more serious manner

Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Changes of Constitution should have been approached in a more serious manner', announced on cover 'I know why HR is keeping silent' by Husein Orahovac – In an interview to daily, Nijaz DURAKOVIC, member of the BiH House of Representatives and member of President of the Socio-Democratic Union of BiH, is of the view that a wide public should have been involved in talks on constitutional changes, rather than holding talks with several political parties in BiH, since "changes of Constitution is a fateful issue...Round tables should have been organised, public debates held." He notes "America is in hurry", since it allowed such flow of talks being held, "because USA wants to resolve the issue of BiH before the issue of Kosovo comes on agenda." Responding to press question whether the silence on the issue by HR to BiH, Christian Schwarz Schilling is unusual, Durakovic says: "No. Because Mr. Schwarz Schilling has practically taken the vow of silence during his entire mandate. His message is clear: he wants stronger, more serious and responsible engagement of local political forces. In order to achieve this, he must stay at side."

HDZ Vice President: Croats want to elect their representative	Oslobodjenje cover pg splash, pg 7 'Croats want to choose their president at state top' by A.Omeragic – Marinko Cavar, HDZ of BiH Vice President, told daily that HDZ is of the view if proposed agreement on constitutional changes is accepted, the Croats could lose its representative at the BiH presidency, since the agreement does not stipulate nationality of members to be elected (i.e. it just says one member should be elected from RS, while other two should be elected from F BiH).
RS PM Dodik: BH is not disputable if RS ain't	RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'We have affirmed and consolidated RS in an international regard' – Milorad Dodik, RS Prime Minister told Belgrade weekly "NIN" that BiH is not disputable if RS is not disputable. Dodik also said that Serb negotiators on constitutional changes affirmed and strengthened RS.

HNZ' Brkic pleased that BH politicians asked opinion from Venice Comm.	Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Better a President than BH Presidency', Dnevni List pg 7 'It is positive Venetian Commission is to give view' by NINA, RHB – HNZ Chair Milenko Brkic expressed pleasure with the fact that BIH politicians agreed to ask opinion from Venetian Commission related to election of BIH President and 2 Deputies. HNZ reminded that Venetian Commission already expressed its opinion a year ago and stressed that it would be better if BIH were to have one President. He concluded that he is pleased with the unity of Croat parties when it comes to this issue.
HKDU urges HDZ and HNZ not to sign agreement on constitutional changes	Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Agreement detrimental for Croat people' by FENA, RHB – HKDU held a press conference in Mostar on Friday related to negotiations on constitutional changes. HKDU Chair Ivan Musa stated that they urge HDZ and HNZ not to sign the agreement on constitutional changes since it doesn't resolve the position of Croats in BIH. Musa stressed that HKDU's final goal is to resolve this position. He feels that Serb and Bosniak parties made a pact to reduce the position of Croats in FBIH to the position of minority.

Other political issues

BiH ready for liberalisation of visa regime, says CEIS / Possible liberalisation of visa regime in Western Balkans	Nezavisne Novine pg8 'Visa regime for citizens of BiH must be more liberal' by D.Muminovic, Oslobodjenje pg 2, announced on cover 'The time has come for non-visa regime' by FENA, NTV Hayat, RHB, TV PINK, FTV – Centre for European integrations strategy presented a report stating that BiH is ready for liberalisation of visa regime with EU and rest of the world. CEIS Director Senad Slatina stated that it is often claimed that BiH cannot have a better visa regime due to its lax procedure for awarding citizenship. Slatina reminded that BiH intelligence and police services act in the same manner as such services in other countries do as well. 2006 should be a year of liberalisation of visa regime for Western Balkans countries. Indicators in the most important document for BiH "BiH ready for liberalisation of visa regime" show that BiH is ready for liberalisation of visa regime. BiH has support of European Parliament Representatives, EC and Austria, that is presiding EU. Hannes Swoboda, European Parliament Representative said that students, businessman, civil servants and journalists would be the first that would get right to travel without visa. Swoboda added that the goal is absolute liberalisation of visa regime. Reporter commented that BiH is known as fertile soil for people with suspicious intentions. According to the Reporter, BiH proved by its audit of citizenship and security system that it is determined to look West. BH TV 1 – BiH Deputy Minister of Security Dragan Mektic explained that BiH Commission for Revision of Citizenships is soon going to check all decisions on citizenships granted to foreign citizens. In this way, BiH is going to provide the final evidence it is not supporting any form of terrorism. As a result, visa regime for BiH citizens should be liberalised, first for students, journalists and business people, and later for all other BiH citizens. Dnevni List pg 5, announced on cover 'Europe is ready to open borders for BiH' by Danka Polovina Mandic – This is an interview daily made with Hannes Swoboda, along the sam lines and with the same focus as reported above on presentation of report on BH. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Frattini invites Colak for talk next week' by T.Lazovic – Daily learns that Franco Frattini, European Commission for Internal Affairs, has invited Barisa COLak, BH Security Minister, to come to Brussels next week in order to discuss the issue of relaxation of visa regime for BiH citizens travelling to EU states. It also carries statement of Svoboda.

War Crimes

Hearing in lawsuit BiH vs. SCG continues

BH TV 1 –The hearing in BiH lawsuit against Serbia and Montenegro before the International Court of Justice continued on Friday. BiH legal representatives stated that SCG is responsible for violation of conventions on genocide, because it didn't do anything in order to prevent genocide or punish the responsible ones. They also presented evidence for SCG authorities directly participating in financing of RS Army and controlling the order chain of RS Army troops.

FTV – They emphasized that SCG authorities didn't do anything to prevent or punish genocide, adding that ICTY indictees Ratko Mladic still lives in Belgrade. BiH representatives presented a transcript of conversation between Radovan Karadzic and Slobodan Milosevic which proves that they are responsible for the murder of former RBiH Deputy Prime Minister Hakija Turajlic.

RTRS – BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravec believes that this lawsuit makes tensions and that has goal to abolish RS.

BH TV 1 – In the Friday's session of hearing in BiH lawsuit against Serbia and Montenegro, BiH legal representatives showed a video of Serbian Prime Ministers Vojislav Kostunica when he was visiting the RS Army troops in BiH during the war. Commenting this video tape, Kostunica said that it doesn't prove anything. He refused to say if he was supporting the siege of Sarajevo or not.

Dnevni Avaz pg 11 'During the war, Belgrade regarded RS as a part of SRJ', Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'Authorities incited people to commit genocide', Glas Srpske pg 2 'Under the command of Belgrade', Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5, announced on cover 'Arguments before Court Panel' by Nagorka Idrizovic– also report on trial

VL on trial before ICJ: BH legal team neglected Croat victims in BiH	Vecernji List pg 5, announced on cover 'BH team neglected Croat victims in BiH' by Miroslav Vasilj – In regard to the ongoing trial before ICJ on BH suit against SiCG, the author notes that prior to commencement of trial, the BH legal team underlined SiCG is to stand trial for genocide over non-Serb population in BiH. The author stresses that the so far flow of trial has showed BH legal team only regards Bosniaks as non-Serb population in BiH, since only few nminor references were made to Croats in BiH as victims. Furthermore, the author underlines that such an approach BH team may have taken owing to indifferent conduct of Croat political officials towards the issue.
