Appointment of new RS Government

SNSD leader Dodik announces new RS Government to be formed soon; priorities on budget and fight against organised crime	PINK by Ljubisa Davidovic – SNSD Leader Milorad Dodik, appointed as the RS PM-designate by the RS President Dragan Cavic on Saturday, stated that he would not wait for legal deadline of 40 days to expire to establish the new Government. Dodik stated that the session of the RS National Assembly on the issue would be scheduled for 14 or 15 February. In a statement for PINK, Dodik said his priorities are adoption of 2006 RS budget and procedures to help fight against organised crime. “I will form a special department at the Prosecution to fight the organised crime and I will pass regulations allowing Government to seize property of individuals suspected of organised crime,” said Dodik. He added that ministers he appoints would have to be dedicated to their work without a possibility for misuse of their power. Dodik stated that Cavic’s decision was the only possible since he (Dodik) was the only candidate that could win the overall majority in RSNA. He added that any other decision could had brought RS into difficult situation. BHT 1 – BHT 1 carries that Dodik expects by 15 or 20 February to he could inform the RSNA with the content and program of his Government. RHB, Hayat, Oslobodjenje pg 2 ‘Government to be announced by mid-February’ by Fena Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Milorad Dodik: It is still early to talk about on composition of Government’ Fena – carried similar statement by Dodik.

Reactions of RS parties to Milorad Dodik's appointment for RS PM-designate: parties demand ministerial positions, urge budget adoption, SDS becomes opposition

BHT1 by Boris Gagic – Following Milorad Dodik's appointment as the RS PM-designate, BHT 1 reports that it is not yet certain who would take part in the new Government. PDP Main Board still has not decided whether to join or not, denying they asked for three ministerial positions in the executive authorities. Instead, PDP claims their support entirely depends on Dodik's concept. "It also depends on representatives to be appointed, but first of all it depends on whether our stances, defined at second PDP's Convention, held in November would be respected", said PDP official in the RSNA, Perica Bundalo following the session of the PDP Main Board on Sunday. RTRS – Bundalo added that the PDP's stance would also depend on the support to their proposals oriented to the health sector, retirements, etc. BHT 1 – "We have to pass the budget as soon as possible in order to stabilize the situation", said DNS' Drago Kalabic. FTV – "As far as DNS is concerned I am sure that the RS PM designate is going to be supported in the RS NA", said Kalabic and added that he believed that the DNS would take part in the Government. RTRS – Kalabic added the DNS also expects to get some Ministerial positions. FTV – "We had our Ministers in Pero Bukejlovic's Government and we are not going to have them in Dodik's Government", said DSS' Predrag Kovacevic adding that however DSS is to take final stance on whether to support Dodik's Government after it reviews the concept. SDS leader Dragan Cavic said his party would go into opposition. EuroBlic cover pg splash 'Dodik's aces up in sleeve, four parties waiting for an offer' and pgs RS2-RS3 'Dodik's aces up in sleeve, four parties offered themselves' by Rajna Radosavljevic – carries PDP, SDS, DNS stance. Oslobodjenje pg 2 'PDP ready to enter new Government' by Fena, Glas Srpske pg 5 'Negotiations yet to be held' by Z. M., Glas Srpske pg 5 'First solutions on Tuesday' by Z. Markovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'New RS Government by mid month' by V. Popovic –also carries PDP yet to decide participation in the new Govt.

SDA, SBiH, SDP to meet Dodik this week; SBiH demands implementation of adopted laws; SDA seeks ministerial positions; SDP wants their proposals carried out

BHT1 – Commenting the establishment of the new RS Government, Party for BiH said that Milorad Dodik can count on their support if recently adopted law regulations are implemented. "[This includes], law on the local governance and self-governance, since we are not satisfied with the way it is being implemented", said SBiH's Dzevad Osmancevic. FTV – BiH SDP expects to meet Dodik in the next several days. "What we find most important is whether we would be able to implement some of our decisions through this Government's program", said SDP's Slobodan Popovic. SDA is to meet with the RS PM designate this week. SDA's Sadik Ahmetovic says that he expects the new Government to make an enormous step forward. "We are interested in participation in the new Government and in proposing our Ministers", said Ahmetovic. EuroBlic cover pg splash 'Dodik's aces up in sleeve, four parties waiting for an offer' and pgs RS2-RS3 'Dodik's aces up in sleeve, four parties offered themselves' by Rajna Radosavljevic – SDA's Dzevad Gusic said it would be logical if the RS PM designate offered to this party to participate at the new Government, since SDA had played the crucial role in resolving the RS crisis. Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'New RS Government by mid month' by V. Popovic – also carries.

SBiH and SDA would condition their support to SNSD's Government; support depends on proposed program	Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'Personnel changes, but ideology doesn't', pg 2 'Ajanovic: Only personnel changes, but not the ideology' by S. Turcalo—Commenting the appointment of SNSD leader Milorad Dodik to the RS PM-designate position, SBiH's official Safet Halilovic said that this development would bring no conceptual differences, but only changes in personnel of the executive authority. Halilovic stressed that some of Dodik's partners are insisting on mono-ethnic Government, emphasizing that SBiH would not support this and that their support to new government would depend on program. SDU leader Sejfudin Tokic also doesn't expect any major changes, stressing that it would be illusory to expect that six months before elections. BOSS leader Mirnes Ajanovic stated that Dodik wouldn't bring changes, except in personnel. Inset, 'Tihic: conditional support'- SDA leader Sulejman Tihic believes that Dodik's Government would present step ahead, comparing to SDS 's. Her also stressed that it is too early to talk about full support, which would be given only if Dodik proposes functional solutions in area of returning process and economic reforms.
Member of SDS Main Board M. Novakovic: It would be hard for SNSD to preserve institutional stability due to big appetites of parties that make RSNA majority	Dnevni List pg 6 'Huge political appetites endanger stability' by D. Pusic – Asked whether SNSD would have a possibility and strength to preserve institutional stability and harmonized political relations in the RS after Dodik was appointed the RS PM Designate, member of the SDS Main Board Momcilo Novakovic stated that this would be rather complicated in the current situation since political appetites of the parties that make the RSNA majority are rather big. He added: 'This would be a very difficult task, taking into consideration appetites of PDP, that launched this process exactly because of its dissatisfaction with cadre solutions.'

SRS 's Mihajlica: RS Government formed with support of Bosniak parties is not solution for RS	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Strong opposition to Dodik' by K. C. – SRS Chairman Milanko Mihajlica has stated that the election of RS Government, in which SDA and SDP would participate, was not a solution for RS because forming of RS Government with support of Bosniak parties would create even larger gap among Serb parties. Mihajlica announced SRS would not support such a Government and announced SRS would act as a "fierce" opposition.
HR Schwarz-Schilling to meet RS officials, new RS PM-designate today	RHB – High Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling is going to visit Banjaluka on Monday, for the first time since his appointment, OHR announced on Sunday. It is expected that HR will hold talks with numerous RS officials, including RS President Dragan Cavic, Vice-President Ivan Tomljenovic, President of RS Government in technical mandate Pero Bukejlovic, RS National Assembly Speaker Dusan Stojicic and Council of Peoples Chairman Remzija Kadric. During the day, Schwarz-Schilling will also meet SNSD leader and new RS Prime Minister-designate Milorad Dodik. FTV, Dnevni List pg 3 'Schilling visits Banja Luka' not signed, EuroBlic pg RS2 'Schwarz-Schilling in Banja Luka' not signed– also reports.
DA op-ed: Dodik will come up with good programe, but also take credit for successes of former Government	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'What is Dodik not telling' op-ed by Nadja Diklic– Commenting on most recent developments in the RS and appointment of the SNSD leader Milorad Dodik to the RS PM-designate position, author comments that Dodik has presented great plans that his Government would insist on, but he would also take credit for all good work that Ministers from former Government have made, especially Finance Minister Svetlana Cenic and Interior Minister Darko Matijasevic.
NN op-ed: Cavic made the only logical move by appointing Dodik RS PM designate	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'PM designate' by Aleksandar Sekulic – The author notes RS President and SDS Chairman Dragan Cavic, by appointing Milorad Dodik as RS PM designate, had made the only logical move at this moment because it was obvious any other solution and decision would signify his political suicide.

On the occasions, the HoR Chairman Nikola Spiric thanked his host for Iran's contribution in preserving democratic and united BiH, HoR Public Relations office announced on Sunday. Spiric and other two members of delegation, Deputy HoR Chairmen Martin Raguz and Sefik Dzaferovic, informed Iranian officials about BiH's efforts on path of becoming democratic and developed EU member country.

NN interview with HR Schwarz- Schilling: I will not impose laws easily	Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash and pg 2 'I will not impose laws' by D. Risojevic – In an interview to NN, High Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling stated he would act more as an advisor than a ruler. He stated his work would be based on a dialogue with domestic politicians, not on imposing or pressures. He noted he would not easily impose any laws, noting he would use Bonn powers only in case of jeopardizing of peace or Dayton Agreement or in a situation related with war crimes. HR announced he would cooperate with nationalistic parties, should they win October elections, unless these parties are extremist parties. The HR stated the first priority is to see the October elections being conducted in a transparent and regular manner and he added he would focus on economy. Asked whether BiH could integrate with EU with the existing organization (i.e. entities), the HR stated if BiH politicians are capable of joining Europe with the existing organization then it is fine, otherwise they would need to implement certain changes.

HDZ leader Covic:
HDZ would continue to insist on position of FBiH Minister of Industry, Energy and Mining

Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'I will try to come to an agreement with Tihic and Halilovic', mentioned on cover, by Faruk Vele – In a page long interview, HDZ leader Dragan Covic commented on recent clashes within FBiH government caused by the division of the ministerial positions. Covic stressed that SBiH and HDZ are not in clash, but added that abolishment of the FBiH Defence Ministry it became obvious that partners in FBiH Government have to find solutions that would satisfy all parties. Covic confirmed that HDZ would keep insisting their official to take the position of the FBiH Minister of Industry, Energy and Mining, adding that HDZ has already nominated Miroslav Nikolic, former FBiH Defence Minister. He added that in interest of ending this crisis. He could meet with SDA leader Sulejman Tihic and SBiH leader Safet Halilovic to discuss these issues once more. Asked about recently published information that BiH Prosecution would raise new indictment against him, this time for embezzlements in company 'Soko", Covic stated that there is no material for investigation, let alone indictment, but he stressed that nothing is impossible, not even raising of new indictment since intelligence agencies in BiH are leading this case.

Oslobodjenje: Ivo Miro Jovic asked for US support for establishment of third entity	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Jovic lobbied for third entity', mentioned on cover, by R. I. – As daily learns, during the meeting with US Undersecretary for Political Affairs, Nicholas Burns, the Chairman of BiH Presidency Ivo Miro Jovic asked for support of US Administration in establishing of the third entity. According to daily's source, Jovic asked for establishment of third entity in case it would be impossible to abolish existing two. As Oslobodjenje's source stated, Burns rejected this with "disgust" and commented that "this is not how democracy is built". Neither Jovic nor his advisor Stjepan Kljujic wanted to comment on this.

DL interview with SDA President S. Tihic on const. changes talks: 'SDA is willing to make a concession again in order to serve an interest of all'

Dnevni List pg 9 'Without new Constitution we shall fall in Balkan abyss' by R. Dautefendic carries an interview with SDA President Sulejman Tihic who says that it has been worked on continuation of the constitutional changes talks and he is an optimist that the talks would continue. Tihic also hopes that the International Community would exert pressure on RS politicians so that the talks can continue. Asked to comment on High Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling's statement given during the talks with FBiH leaders when the HR said that non-resolving of the problems in the FBiH Government gives arguments to those who do not want entities, Tihic said: 'The beginning and end of these problems is the story about constitutional changes. The Washington Constitution also creates an inefficient system. One political party can block everything...It happens that the party which cares about reforms quite often does things in an unprincipled manner and makes concessions and it is being criticized for such behaviour afterwards. Now when have these two parties that are not so responsible when BiH and its citizens are in question. SDA would make a concession again in order to serve an interest of all.' Glas Srpske pg 5 'Tihic on genocide again' by Srna – On Saturday, during a tribune of the Council of the Congress of Bosniak Intellectuals, Tihic pointed out that it was necessary to continue with negotiations on constitutional changes.

VL: Constitutional changes will make BiH administration more expensive to run	Vecernji List, pg 4 'Double more expensive officials', by eme – The author argues that the result of the agreement of 8 political parties about the constitutional changes in BiH will be a more expensive administration. VL reminds that the result of the talks is formation of 2 new ministries at the state level (agriculture; science and technology), however the same entity ministries will remain in place, and the BiH House of Representatives with twice as many MPs than before (new BiH HoR should have 87 instead of current 42 MPs)
DL ridicules meetings of Croat parties on constitutional changes	Dnevni List, pg 2 'Talks because of promotion', by Ivica Glibusic – The author is ridiculing meetings of the Croat parties in BiH that are dedicated to constitutional changes, saying the numerous talks have not produced anything concrete, calling the talks "the flying circus". Glibusic reckons the aim of the small Croat parties is not to contribute to the position of the Croats in BiH, instead they just want to attract publicity. As a remedy, Glibusic says the HDZ and three more relevant parties (author does not name them) should sit down and tackle the issue.

ICG Director:
Decision on visa abolishment is political and authorities should

Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'EU have reasonable fear from crime in the Balkans', mentioned on cover, by T. Lazovic– Director of ICG James Lion stated for DA that EU, in fear from organized crime and huge unemployment rate, still doesn't discuss on total abolishment of visa system for Western Balkans. "Their fears are justified and citizens of BiH, SCG, Macedonia and Kosovo know that best. Organized crime is connected with authorizes and political parties and high rate of unemployment and lousy economic situation with abolishment of visas would result with economic migration to EU countries" stressed Lion. Lion stressed that decision on visa abolishment is political decision, which has to be lobbied for and for which the authorities should do more.

Oslobodjenje op-ed on political events: 'It's six of one and half a dozen of the other'	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'It's six of one and half a dozen of the other' op-ed by Ramo Kolar – Editorial refers to the most recent political developments in the country – mentioning the talks on the constitutional changes, the shifts in the RS Government, the crisis in the FBiH Government and the trade in positions, as well as the arrival of the new HR. Author notes that the “power” changes hands, but that the situation overall doesn't, meaning the entities are being strengthened at the expense of the state. “[Milorad] Dodik is the proof. Now, we await [to see what Zlatko] Lagumdzija would do,” says the author adding that it is only left to be see whether SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdzija would do the same in FBiH as SNSD leader Milorad Dodik did in RS, or he would wait until elections.

chairs business meeting in Travnik, participants praise focus on economy

FTV by Nadja Ridzic– On Sunday in Travnik, the High Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling chaired the meeting on development of small and mid-sized enterprises in BiH held with BiH businessmen. Participants concluded that due to extremely complicated administrative and other negative aspects of business environment in BiH, investors and entrepreneurs are often discouraged to establish a new company or to expand the existing one. The HR called on some joint activities in order to solve the problems.

“All illegal and criminal actions, corruption, has to be reduced and you have to take part in it”, said the HR. FTV comments that after the numerous reforms implemented in BiH to date, for the first time the priority was given to economy.

While expressing their optimism on the HR’s mandate, businessmen said that despite the fact that Schwarz-Schilling is the fifth HR, he is also the first to start solving things “from the beginning” adding this is the reason why they believe that things can be done together. PINK,
