Raguz: HDZ is a ship which will sink unless gaps filled

Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Covic did have a big influence on appointment of officials' by Vedrana Zivak – In an interview to daily, the member of HDZ Presidency and Deputy Speaker of BiH House of Representatives, Martin Raguz, described his party as "a ship with many gaps which is about to sink unless those gaps are filled." Asked to comment the approval of Ivo Miro Jovic's candidacy to BiH Presidency at the session of BiH HoR, Raguz said: "Neither I, nor Vinko Zoric, as the Chair of the HDZ Caucus, were consulted when candidate was being chosen. The majority of the Caucus believes that the procedure... was not transported, or sufficiently founded on the precise and clear criteria and guidelines. Beside, the final proposal was not even decided on at the session of the HDZ Presidency." Asked whether it is true that Dragan Covic ensured Jovic is nominated, Raguz said he could not either deny or confirm this, however he did say that Covic "certainly had a strong influence in placing a significant part of people on behalf of HDZ BiH." On the conflict between him and Covic, Raguz said it was nothing personal, but a matter of their different political stances and ways of doing things.

Commenting the upcoming HDZ Congress, Raguz said he hopes that this will offer an opportunity to "fill the gaps" and for HDZ to turn to real democratic political party.

Colak: Covic had influence during election of Ivo Miro Jovic	Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Dragan Covic has influenced the selection of successor' by M. Cubro – HDZ President Barisa Colak has confirmed Dragan Covic, as Deputy HDZ President, has had a significant influence on selection of his successor at BiH Presidency. 'However, the nomination of Ivo Miro Jovic for BiH Presidency member was a decision of HDZ Presidency in which Dragan Covic has only one, not tow votes', Colak has stated. He rejected claims that the election of Jovic has caused a dispute within HDZ.

Ivo Miro Jovic: IC's space for acting should be narrowed down'

Dnevni Avaz pg 5, mentioned on cover, 'IC's space for acting should be narrowed down' by Husein Orahovac – In an interview to DA, the HDZ candidate for BiH Presidency who was approved by the BiH HoR, Ivo Miro Jovic, comments that he strongly believes that his appointment will receive full support before the BiH Hosue of Poeples. Asked to comment the fact that HDZ deputies did not support him entirely at the HoR session, Jovic said this only proved that HDZ is a fully democratic party where all have a right on their opinion which in his case was clearly demonstrated. "I think that after the Congress on 4 June, HDZ will be much stronger and we will manage to consolidate," said Jovic who also said that as a member of Presidency he would have a chance for some entirely different ideas as he would continue to work to already adopted working plan. "I will do everything in order for domestic institution to take over the power and accept the responsibility for their actions. I want to narrow down the space for international community's acting as much as possible." He concluded there were no signals at all whether international community supports his appointment or not.

SD on election of Jovic into BiH Presidency: Covic in pact with SDA	Slobodna Dalmacija, front pg splash 'SDA in pact with Covic' and pg 15 'Bosniaks in pact with Covic', by Marin Erceg – carries an op-ed in which the author comments the election of Jovic into the BiH Presidency, stressing that Jovic was elected owing to the SDA MPs' votes. SD argues that the Bosniaks MPs voted in favour of Jovic because they need that kind of partner in the Presidency, someone who will not be politically and intellectually superior to Tihic and Paravac, and someone who will be obeying orders coming from the SDA and Dragan Covic, all under the watchful eye of the HR Paddy Ashdown. SD goes on to say that many European diplomats are saying that HDZ is in for isolation if Covic were to be elected into any office in the HDZ after the HDZ Convention. In that context SD writes: "The only one on whose support Covic can still count is Paddy Ashdown and his circle".
NN op-ed: whose Presidency member is Jovic	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Whose Presidency member is Ivo Miro Jovic' by Slavo Kukic – the author wonders whose Presidency member is Ivo Miro Jovic since only two out of eight Croats, including himself, have voted for him at the state Parliament. The author claims it was SDA that supported Jovic's election, therefore his would should go in favor of them.

Dani/Slobodna
Bosna
critical of
Ivo Miro
Jovic

Dani pg 7 "Personality in Focus" column by E.Ha. – Writing on Ivo Miro Jovic, column reads that this HDZ official is famous mostly by his incidental behavior, lobbying for immense increase of parliamentarians' salaries and establishment of Croat channel, and opposition to the education reform.

However, magazine notes that he was chosen for Dragan Covic's successor because he would blindly follow party's instructions.

"It is clear HDZ believes that Jovic's shouts on endangered position of Croats will draw away attention from trials of high ranking HDZ officials... After all, too influential Covic left without little noise and he goes straight to the position of HDZ President," reads the analysis.

Slobodna Bosna pgs 6-7 'Ivo Miro Jovic's election irreversibly pushed HDZ into inter-party conflict' by Suzana Mijatovic – SB learned that HDZ Caucus in BiH HoR did everything to make Jovic to give up on his candidacy, and it also notes that this is clearly a beginning of the conflict between Martin Raguz and Dragan Covic over HDZ leadership.

Jukic (BiH HoP, HDZ) expect Jovic will be confirmed	Dnevni List, pgs 4-5 'Jovic getting support from Croat delegates', by Ivica Glibusic – The BiH House of Peoples will vote about the election of Ivo Miro Jovic into the BiH Presidency at a session that is scheduled for Monday. According to the Speaker of BiH HoP, Velimir Jukic (HDZ), it is expected that Jovic will be supported by the Croat Caucus. Announcement also carried in Vecernji List, pg 2 'Confirmation of election of I. M. Jovic on Monday', by dja.
Colak announces possible sanctions Raguz, Zoric, Andric	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'HDZ Presidnecy will sanction Raguz, Zoric and Andric?' by F. V., ecernji List, pg 16 'New rift in HDZ because of Jovic', by Zoran Kresic – HDZ leader, Barisa Colak, stated for DA that at the next HDZ Presidency's session there could be a discussion on eventual responsibility of Martin Raguz, Vinko Zoric and Filip Andric, HDZ representatives in the BiH House of Representatives, due to their failure to support candidacy of Ivo Miro Jovic to the BiH Presidency. Colak did not want to elaborate, however DA learns from a HDZ source that there is also a possibility for the party to decided to exclude those three.
HDZ Mostar: Dragan Covic should be appointed new HDZ President	RHB, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Dragan Covic should be appointed new HDZ President' – HDZ Mostar believes that the new Chairman of HDZ BIH should be Dragan Covic, former member of BIH Presidency.

DL: Bozo Ljubic to challenge Dragan Covic in HDZ?	Dnevni List pgs 4 and 5 ‘Bozo Ljubic counter-candidate to Dragan Covic?’ by I. Glibusic – According to a DL source, the session of the Herzegovina- Neretva Canton HDZ Board has been scheduled for today (Friday) and during this session an additional item should be added to the agenda – giving support to Dragan Covic’s candidacy for the position of the HDZ President. DL also says that a part of HDZ believe that current HDZ President Barisa Colak will not put forward his candidacy again after Covic was nominated. According to a source close to the HDZ top, for the time being it is only certain that Bozo Ljubic will put forward his candidacy for this position and he stands big chances to win, since HDZ members have not forgotten that he had the support of late Croatian President Franjo Tudjman for leading HDZ positions back in 1998.

HSS disapproves way state Presidency member elected	RHB, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'HDZ once again humiliated all Croats', Dnevni List, pg 5 'HDZ tricked and humiliated Croats one more time', Slobodna Dalmacija pg 15 'SDA with 2 members at state top' by F. Mioc, SRNA – The Croat Peasants' Party of BiH (HSS) expressed concern on Thursday over the Croatian Democratic Union's (HDZ) relations towards Croats in BiH, as it was left to the Party of Democratic Action (SDA) to choose the Croat member of the BiH Presidency. In the statement the HSS asks "does the SDA have two members in the BiH Presidency" and assesses that the HDZ has deceived and humiliated once again all Croats in BiH. "This is just a continuation of the HDZ's hypocritical policies, where the struggle for power by individuals in the party is more important than the most vital Croat interests," the HSS points out.

The author wonders whether the OHR is buying time for itself or the RS through 'freezing' of such cases.

According to DL’s unofficial information, the works on the memorial are being done by the local public utility company from Stolac, which leads the daily to wonder how it possible that the HDZ and SDA in Stolac know nothing about the issue.
