Kristo, Vecernji List, pg 2 'HVO gets some money, not medals', by eme, vr, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Premier demands from F BiH Parliament to give no-confidence-vote' by R.Cengic – The FBiH House of Peoples (HoP) accepted the proposal of law on special rights of recipients of war decorations and members of their families. This law, which includes members of the Army of BiH and the Croat Defence Council (HVO), obliges the FBiH Government to provide additional 120 millions KM in budget for 2006. FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic immediately said that they would not be able to honour that. "Especially if one knows that World Bank insists that only 288 millions KM should be available for the users of soldiers' rights. In that case even the current users will have 10-15 percent lower incomes", said Hadzipasic. The law on special rights of recipients of war decorations and members of their families should be applied as of January 1, 2006. After the law was accepted, PM Hadzipasic urged the FBiH Parliament to come out about its confidence in the FBiH Government, because, as he said, there is not enough money for the implementation of this law. "I completely support 22 delegates who requested that both Houses of FBiH Parliament should discuss the confidence in FBiH Government as soon as possible, because Government, with current ministers, cannot provide additional 120 millions KM in budget for 2006", said Hadzipasic.

Halilovic adds that the establishment of these Ministries is justified as the current CoM composition doesn't respect the equal ethnic distribution of positions, thus the enlargement would solve this issue. He adds that the establishment procedure wouldn't be complicated as all it takes is to change two or three Articles in the Law on CoM, while rest of the job would be done by the Parliament.

territory

BHT 1 by Vesna Simic – Serbia is determined to extradite Ratko Mladic to the ICTY if he hides in Serbian territory, stated SCG Minister for Human Rights and Minorities Rasim Ljajic at the roundtable “War crimes, trial, justice, reconciliation” which started in Belgrade.

Although he stressed that authorities in Belgrade are aware of the fact that Mladic is an obstacle on Serbia’s path to European Union, Ljajic repeated that no one knows where he currently is. “I said it quite a few times: we’ve looked for Mladic in one monastery on one mountain, in one private house, in one private apartment in Belgrade, in one private clinic in Belgrade, and some other locations – and he was not there, although we had reliable information that these were his hideouts”, said Ljajic. SCG Minister of Defence Prvoslav Davinic said that crimes were committed on all sides, but that Serbia has to clear in its own yard first. “At this moment, three constitutional peoples in BiH – and especially Serbs and Serbia – are not ready to admit everything that happened during the war”, said Serbian President’s Advisor Jovan Simic. In the same time, Serbian Radical Party announced that Serbian President Boris Tadic should not go to Srebrenica, asking “what’s Serbia got to do with that crime?” Just before the beginning of the conference “War crimes, trial, justice, reconciliation” conference, several jumbo posters in Belgrade – which shows the images of Srebrenica massacre – were covered with insulting messages, such as “there will be a re-run”, “Ratko Mladic” and so on. PINK, RHB, Hayat, FTV, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Processing of all war criminals is condition for reconciliation’ by Agencies, Vecrenje Novosti pg 7 ‘No progress without Mladic’ by E.Radosavljevic – also reported on round-table.

Osl. int with Dragan Cavic: ICTY is a piece of cake in comparison with processes to be lead in BiH	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'ICTY is piece of cake for the process that would be lead here', mentioned on cover, by Vedrana Zivak – In an interview to Oslobodjenje, RS President Dragan Cavic comments on the issue of war crimes: "We will arrest all those who do not want to surrender as soon as they are in the RS and BiH territory. This is not safe space that people indicted by ICTY would find safe to hide." Finally, Cavic, who also says it is his moral obligation to go to Srebrenica, concludes by saying that "ICTY is piece of cake in comparison with the processes to be lead in this country. There are 12.000 people of different nationalities in this country with a status of war crimes suspects, and possibility there will be many more. This process will take decades and we have to learn living with this problem."

Refugees, economy, other stories

Kotorsko issue
still not settled

BHT 1 by Hajrudin Redzovic – The meeting of the entities' officials, members of the international community and the heads of the several RS and FBiH municipalities, working to resolve the issues of Bosniak returnees to Kotorsko problems, ended without any agreement. After Doboj Municipality granted 120 building sites in Kotorsko to the Serb refugees from Ozren and Vozuca, Bosniaks from Kotorsko – who claim that they own that land – sued RS and Doboj Municipality. Eight years and two Doboj Municipal Heads later, nothing is solved: Serbs still don't want to leave Kotorsko, where they have built new houses, and Bosniaks still don't want to give up what they say is their land. Tuesday's meeting was organized on the initiative of the RS National Assembly vice president Sefket Hafizovic. "The representatives of Zenica-Doboj and Tuzla Cantonal Cantonal Ministries, as well as the FBiH and RS Ministry of Refugees and Displaced Persons stated that they are ready to finance the restoration of 50 houses in FBiH for Serbs who currently live in Kotorsko. But those Serbs do not want to return to the FBiH", said Hafizovic. FTV, RTRS – also report on the failure of the meeting.

Update to co-capitalization of ‘Energopetrol’	Vecernji List, pg 5 ‘MOL refuses to pay hidden debts’, by Dejan Jazvic – the INA-MOL consortium will today (Wednesday) submit the FBiH Government its final reply to the FBiH Government’s request related to taking over of all ‘Energopetrol’s’ debts, which are apparently a lot bigger than stipulated in the original tender. According to VL, the original tender mentions 60 million KMs, whilst the ‘newly discovered debts’ amount to additional 80 million KMs. According to the manager of INA BiH, Franjo Bozic, even the original offer by the consortium to cover the original debts was ‘too generous’, whilst the taking over of some new debts would be ‘a real exaggeration’. Nacional: CIA interested in mujahiddin in BiH	Nacional, pgs 24-27 'CIA looking for 900 Bosnian mujahiddin', by Merima Spahic, Maroje Mihovilovic, Berislav Jelinic – Carries an extensive report related to the recent visit of the CIA Director, Porter Goss, to BiH. Nacional says Goss spent only few hours in Sarajevo, during which he met with the OSA Director, Almir Dzuvo, and the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown. OHR told Nacional that media reports about alleged conflicts between Ashdown and Goss are untrue, as well as the Serbian media claims that Goss came to lecture Ashdown. Nacional goes on to say that Goss did not come to BiH to talk about intelligence on whereabouts of war crimes suspects, instead he came to task OSA to collect all information on movements of foreign nationals who have BiH citizenships and who are labelled in the US as Islamic fundamentalists. Nacional also says the last time a senior CIA official visited BiH (beginning of 2002), a group of naturalized BiH citizens (the so-called 'Algiers group') got extradited to the US in one month time. Finally, the article reads that Goss was not happy with the attitude of BiH authorities towards terrorism, especially after the BiH Government sent a request to the US to release the 'Algiers group' from Guantanamo bay.
