Kukan – The FBiH Government held a session in Mostar focusing at the blockade of the public revenues allocation to entities and lower authorities as instructed by the ITA Steering Board Chair, Joly Dixon. Following the session, the FBiH Deputy Prime Minister Gavrilo Grahovac and FBiH Finance Minister Dragan Vrankic held an extraordinary press conference stating that the Government gave a full support to Vrankic to continue solving this issue within the current legal provisions. The entire situation however indicated that the blockades and blackmails are possible from the RS at any time, which – as Vrankic explains – lead to an initiative to change the Law on ITA. "The system of the ITA has showed to be a travesty. Thus I propose for this unnatural creation currently between the entities and the state, to be located definitely at the [state level], in the Council of Ministers and the state institutions," said Vrankic noting this would prevent the further blockades. Commenting on the Dixon's decision to freeze the allocation of public revenues from the single budget account, Vrankic notes that he has information Dixon did this following the consultations with the OHR and EC. BHT1 – Vrankic stated that the decision of ITA to freeze the assets has negative effects on work of all FBiH institutions. RS Finance Minister Aleksandar Dzombic said the Dixon's mandate expired on March 31, thus he could not issue any decisions, including "freezing" of funds from the single account. FBiH HoR Constitutional Constitution discussed proposed const. changes: Entity voting biggest problem	RHB– The public debate organized by the FBiH House of Representatives’ Constitutional Commission and representatives of 17 parliamentary parties noted that the entity voting is a crucial problem in proposed amendments to the BiH Constitution. It is possible to abolish entity voting since the existing Constitution allows changes if 2/3 of the HoP representatives agree, as the member of the Commission Omer Ibrahimagic said. In terms of amendments to the Constitution in general, Ibrahimagic said that he supported them. SBiH Caucus Chair Ismet Briga said that SBiH could not support the entity voting. Stances, given during the debate, will be published at the special Constitutional Commission’s session. BHT1– Representatives of Croat parties expressed their worries over the fact that the entity voting is being preserved. They also doubt that in the second phase of constitutional changes, all decisions could be passed by the entity voting without the approval of Croats. FTV– also carried.

SDA leader Tihic and SDP leader Lagumdžija convinced they have support of BiH Parliament for constitutional changes	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 5 'Tihic and Lagumdžija convinced they have support of Parliament' by Az.K. – Commenting on possibilities for the amendments to the BiH Constitution to be adopted in BiH Parliament, SDA leader Sulejman Tihic and SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdžija are convinced that they would have necessary support. Tihic believes that 28 out of 42 deputies in the BiH House of Representatives will be in favor of the constitutional changes, adding the chances are even bigger, since there is always someone of the deputies not present at the session, so the quota would be lower. Lagumdžija claims: "Some of deputies that are currently against amendments to the Constitution, will be in favor of them at the session. We who are in favor of changes, we take responsibility for moving things from the dead spot, and those that are against it, let them not think they are absolved from the responsibility."
SDP President Lagumdžija: Many of those who oppose const. changes do it because of coming elections	OBN 'Telering' – guest SDP President Zlatko Lagumdžija, who very thoroughly explained the changes to BiH Constitution, amendment by amendment. Among the other things he said that those who are against proposed amendments to constitutional changes "are mostly not against the changes, they are against us. Many of them know very well that we are right, but they have decided to lay all their cards onto the next elections. If they were serious persons, they would propose something else, make a different proposal of the constitutional changes."

SBiH leader Halilovic: Proposed amendments are full of defections	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Proposed amendments are full of defections' by Husein Orahovac – SBiH leader Safet Halilovic once more stressed that the proposed amendments to the BiH Constitution are “damaging future and sovereignty of BiH”, underlining that the greatest defection is that entity voting remains.
HDZ spokesperson Relota: HDZ does not have parallel amendments	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'HDZ does not have parallel amendments' by A.M. – Commenting on the statement of SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdžija who said that HDZ submitted “completely different amendments” to the BiH Constitution, HDZ spokesperson Miso Relota stated that the party does not have nor it will submit any parallel amendments to the BiH Constitution. He said: “We had our amendments drafted on the base of the previous agreement of political parties. But, it has been harmonized at the last meeting in Sarajevo.”

HDZ representative in BiH HoR Andric: Regardless of pressures I shall vote agst const. changes agreement	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 18 'Croats are more important than HDZ: I shall vote against Constitution' by F. Mioc – HDZ representative in the BiH HoR Filip Andric stated that disciplinary measures of any kind and any other pressures would not prevent him to vote against the constitutional changes agreement in the BiH Parliament. He added that the 2nd phase of the constitutional changes negotiations is a fairytale since Serbs would get a state within a state and Bosniaks almost the whole FBiH, having in mind their number, if the agreement was adopted. Andric added that Croats would only have a few Cantons that they might lose in the 2nd phase of the negotiations since regionalization might take place in this phase.
Croat member of BiH Presidency Jovic with French Ambassador de Fabiani: In future Europeans should be more present in const. reforms	Dnevni List pg 4 '2nd phase of negotiations can start' by NINA, Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Europeans will be more present in the reforms' Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Domestic forces show they can lead BiH' by Onasa – Croat member of the BiH Presidency Ivo Miro Jovic met with French Ambassador to BiH Henry Zipper de Fabiani on Thursday and they stated that constitutional changes have shown that domestic forces can lead their country, however the International Community's consultative assistance is still welcome. They also agreed that in the 1st phase of the negotiations Americans had a prominent role but that in future Europeans should be more present in the process of constitutional reforms.

DL: 'HDZ is playing double game when it comes to constitutional changes'	Dnevni List, pg 5 'HDZ is playing double game when it comes to constitutional changes', by D. P. Mandić – with regards to some media reports that suggested that the HDZ Presidency has prepared and submitted constitutional amendments that are different to the amendments agreed by the political parties, DL notes that participants of the negotiations (NB: DL does not name them) assessed the HDZ's amendments as a new attempt to deceive the public and attempt to shift the responsibility for the constitutional changes on someone else. Apparently, one of amendments that the HDZ has submitted says the future BiH House of Peoples should continue to confirm the state budget, appointments of officials and give its consent for ratification of international agreements.
Colak (HSS): Croats are hostages of entity way of voting	Dnevni List, pg 6 'Croats are hostages of entity voting', by Mensud Zorlak – carries the Vice President of HSS (Croat Peasants Party), Ante Colak, as criticizing the proposed constitutional amendments, especially the bit about the survival of entity voting in the BiH House of Representatives and limited competence of the BiH House of Peoples, arguing that in the future all decisions could be taken without Croats' votes.

DL op-ed: HR Schwarz-Schilling disagrees with BiH Bishops when const. chgs are in question	Dnevni List pg 2 'Schilling and Bishops' by P. Gasparevic comments on constitutional changes and the author's main objection when Croat interests are in question is the entity way of voting. The author reminds that the BiH Bishops' Conference is against the changes since they believe that they are damaging for Croats. The author goes on to say that High Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling expressed his disagreement with this stand of BiH Bishops and he said that the Constitution is not final and that 'it would be especially necessary to create the possibility at lower levels so that Croats can be and feel as a part of BiH'. The author says that it would be good to remember this promise made by the HR.
Dani comment on constitutional changes: Process is full of absurdities, opponents propose no alternative solutions	Dani, pgs 22 -23 'Patriotic fear of changes', by Ivan Lovrenovic says that the main feature of the opponents of the constitutional changes is the fact that they oppose the changes, since they have not offered any alternative solutions, or as Lovrenovic puts it, they want to preserve the status quo in BiH. As for the changes, the author argues they indeed are limited, there is no reason to commend SDP's Lagumdzija and SDA's Tihic for their achievements, however the changes will try to start a process that could 'break the coffin called Dayton Peace Accord'.

EC and OHR criticize RS officials and their proposals on the police; warn that SAA could be suspended

Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Possible delaying of the agreement with the EU', mentioned on cover by M.Cubro – EC spokesperson Frano Maroevic warned that the Commission could ask for a delay in signing the Stabilization and Association Agreement with the BiH if the police reform is not carried out in line with the three EU principles. The OHR criticized the proposal of RS representative in Police Reform Directorate Dragomir Andan envisaging establishment of three regions [entities and Brcko District]. Spokesperson of the OHR Oleg Milisic stated that the Office expects RS officials to make a new proposal soon, which would respect 3 principles, but also "reflects a promise of the RS PM Milorad Dodik, given to the High Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling". Milisic explained that Dodik has told the HR that he expects the PRD to finish work by June. EC did not want to comment on the proposal of RS officials. "We do not want to get into detail discussions on certain proposals, because we clearly said what reform should be and authorities very well know what has to be done" said Maroevic. Chair of the PRD Sead Lisak explained that according to the RS proposal the police would not be able to cross entity lines and the state would pass only the frame law, which would regulate the current situation.

Maroevic said: "We wish for this procedure to be completed as soon as possible so that the Law could be adopted. SB: Mladic will turn himself in after he had phone talk with Prosecutor del Ponte at PM Kostunica's

Slobodna Bosna, front pg splash and pgs 6-9 'Ratko Mladic to Carla del Ponte – I'm coming to The Hague in 15 days', by Mirha Dedic learns from its source close to the Serbian Government that during the last meeting between Serbian PM, Vojislav Kostunica and the ICTY Chief Prosecutor, Carla del Ponte, Kostunica took a phone, dialed a number, and the result was that Mladic answered the call and it took as little as 5 minutes for Mladic to promise he would turn himself in. Mladic apparently asked from del Ponte to provide him an adequate medical attention at the ICTY since the latest diagnosis say Mladic will not make it until end July since he is terminally ill with cancer. SB goes on to say that Mladic will cash in from the arrest, since SB's source says Mladic will get some 10 million Euros to take care of his family and loyal bodyguards. Furthermore, SB says only a handful of people know the details of the operation, including the RS PM, Milorad Dodik. Namely, the arrest/surrender will be staged in BiH, which would save Kostunica's cabinet. Finally, SB says del Ponte asked from Dodik to dismiss the RS Police Director, Dragan Andan, since Andan too wanted to convince Mladic to surrender, however Andan's asked for a big commission, which triggered del Ponte's request to Dodik.
