SCG's Ljajic on Karadzic and Mladic arrest; The Times on Karadzic arrest

RHB – SCG Minister for human and minority rights, Rasim Ljajic, stated in an interview for Nezavisne Novine (see OHR Media Round-up, August 6, 2005) that Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic might be in ICTY by the end of the year. He also stated that other ICTY indictees Dragan Zelenovic and Vlastimir Djordjevic are hiding in Russia. Ljajic stated that he has no relevant confirmation that Karadzic is hiding in Montenegro. London's The Times on the other hand claims that Karadzic is hiding there. The Times also claims that negotiations are being carried out for Karadzic's surrender. Vienna newspapers Presse published that politics and religion are closely connected in the Balkans. Newspaper claims that Karadzic is still at large due to help from the church. Newspapers also published that the name of priest Amfilohije is often heard when those who are hiding Karadzic are mentioned. Pink – British daily The Times claims that Karadzic is hiding in Montenegro and that Montenegro is swarming with American agents searching for him. The Montenegrin authorities denied these allegations stating that there is no evidence for Karadzic's presence in Montenegro. The Times further claims that according to close sources to Montenegrin Government, USA Government, Karadzic's family and Serb Orthodox Church are negotiating for Karadzic's soon surrender. (Ljajic statement also covered by Pink, BHT, RTRS; The Times report also covered by Hayat, RTRS, Oslobodjenje, pg 2 'Hunt for Karadzic spreads in Montenegro', by Fena, Dnevni Avaz, pg 2 'American agents looking for criminal Karadzic in Niksic area?', not signed, Vecernji List, pg 17 'Americans leading secret negotiations on surrender of Karadzic', by zb. agencies, Nezavisne Novine, pg 3 'Hunt for Karadzic spreading and speeding up', by agencies)

Marking of 13th anniversary of closing down of Omarska camp	BHT – – More than 2000 former concentration camp inmates and family members of murdered victims gathered on Saturday in Omarska to mark the 13th anniversary of closure of Omarska camp. The ICTY sentenced 12 Serbs for war crimes committed in Omarska, Keraterm and Trnopolje camps, all in Prijedor area. Featured former inmates talked about their experiences while detained in those camps. (also reported by Oslobodjenje, pg 3 'Open up hidden tombs', by Besima Kahrmanovic, Dnevni Avaz, pg 3 'Sivac: Omarska was criminal enterprise that functioned in well planned manner', mentioned on front 'Crimes in Omarska were well thought out', by M. Masovic on establishment of BiH Commission for Missing Persons	Hayat – FBiH Commission for Missing Persons President, Amor Masovic, commented in his interview for Hayat Central News the recent BIH Council of Minister’s decision to establish the central BIH Commission for Missing Persons. With the establishment of the BIH commission, the entity commissions will stop working. He stated that the BIH commission would search for missing persons regardless of the ethnicity, which is very important for BIH and the truth about the war. The Associations of the families of missing persons will be institutionalised and directly involved in the work of the commission. Masovic stated that BIH is the first country to have the law on the missing persons and now the Commission. He said that the BIH Commission for missing persons would prevent the politicisation of the victims and the manipulation of the truth because all information will be gathered at the same centre. Masovic also commented his recent request for the law on refutation of the legally verified historical facts on genocide. He stated that he was provoked by the statements of politicians that publicly denied the genocides on these parts while attending one of those allegedly round tables for reconciliation on these parts. He also explained the current work of Commission for Missing Persons.

RS President Cavic on DPA: Existence of RS not questionable	Pink – – RS President Dragan Cavic stated that the 10th anniversary of Dayton Peace Accord would be pompously marked but on that occasion the IC intends to announce whether the DPA has proved to be successful or not. In order for the DPA to be evaluated as successful, the police reform has to be adopted by November. The obstacles on BIH path toward Euro-Atlantic integration, apart from police reform, are the defence reform and capturing of Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic. Cavic stated that the failure of police and defence reform can impose sanctions on RS but the existence of RS is unquestionable. “DPA has ensured the stability on this region and if they change Dayton organisation of BIH than they will create a new, long-lasting crises with unpredictable consequences” stated Cavic.
Analyst Barasanin on DPA	Pink – Military analyst Ostoja Barisanin claims that organisation of BIH appears to resemble BIH from 1992. He said that RS has already transferred many institutions to the state level so according to Barisanin the DPA has been changed. “By the 10th anniversary of DPA, RS will struggle for cultural preservation in BIH. They will struggle to preserve the autonomy in the language and culture and not to preserve political and military autonomy” added Barisanin.

Update to appointment
of SBS director

BHT, Hayat – Vahid Alagic and Vinko Dumancic are the most serious candidates for the position of State Border Service (SBS) Director, writes Dnevni Avaz. The final word on this will be given, most likely, by the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown. DA speculates that the HR could use his powers again if local authorities, presidency at first place, don't solve this issue as soon as possible.

RTRS – – BIH authorities cannot agree on the appointment of SBS Director. HR Ashdown warned that he would appoint SBS Director if BIH politicians did not agree. Reporter comments that the problem is as always the political agreement on distribution of key positions in security agencies according to national key.

Advisor to Council of Ministers Chairman, Bojan Filipovic-Zec, reminds that Adnan Terzic pointed out this problem before and added that concrete solution was not found. Zec stated that BIH Justice Ministry completed the legal procedure regarding the appointment and added that CoM is waiting for the opinion from BIH Presidency. Reporter stated that they couldn't get any comment from BIH Presidency and added that according to national key, the SBS Director should be a Croat. Media speculates that the most serious candidates are Vinko Dumancic and Vahid Alagic. Ostoja Barasanin, a political analyst, stated that there are no estimates when the appointment will be made. He also stated that the announced measures by HR on the issue are undermining BIH authorities. Reporter concludes that it remains to be seen until when SBS will function without a Director.

Tihic on appointment
of SBS, SIPA
director:
Novic appointment
was HR Ashdown's mistake

Dnevni Avaz, front pg splash 'Our responses are not important to Ashdown' and pg 5 'Appointment of SIPA director was High Representative's mistake', by A. Malagic – Carries an interview with the Bosniak member of BiH Presidency and President of SDA, Sulejman Tihic, in which, whilst responding to the HR, Paddy Ashdown's, warning that Sredoje Novic's appointment to SIPA was legal, says the BiH Presidency will not interfere into the issue or remove the SIPA director because it is not in the Presidency's jurisdiction. "...I came out with my opinion. When it comes to that appointment, I think the HR's decision was legal, however it is of provisional nature. Also, it is one of his (HR's) mistakes, because he made the appointment without abiding by the national representation, which had to be taken care of. Moreover, there was a person from the line of the Croat people on the list of successful candidates who was as successful", says Tihic and goes on to criticize the Novic appointment, questioning his wartime and post-war reputation, saying it is not good that such people lead a new agency that has to show professionalism and dedication in arrest of war criminals. Furthermore, Tihic says that he will not be taking part in possible new talks about distribution of key posts among the three peoples in BiH, arguing that it would appear that the HR and the IC do not seem to find it important. Tihic says the national representation must be observed in order not to have a situation that a BiH people is not represented in key posts at all. Inset entitled 'Ashdown was most successful until December' carries Tihic commenting his statement about lack of decisiveness by HR Ashdown. He says the statement does not include only the HR, but the whole IC as well, arguing that HR Ashdown was the best HR until last December.

DL op-ed on appointment of SBS director: What are BiH politicians getting paid for?	Dnevni List, pg 2 'Ashdown in action again', by Tanja Dragic – Comments on the situation pertaining to appointment of SBS director. Dragic writes: "One has to ask the question what our politicians are doing to get paid the astronomic salaries when someone else is doing their job".
HJPC President Peric on reform to judiciary, salaries of judges and prosecutors	Nezavisne Novine, pgs 8-9, mentioned on front 'Reform to misdemeanour court will improve their efficiency and reduce costs', by Rubina Cengic – Carries an interview with the President of High Judicial and Prosecutorial Council, Branko Peric, in which he talks about the reform to judiciary. Among other things, Peric says the proposed reform to misdemeanour court, which proposes joining of these courts to regular courts, would cut costs. Peric underlines that the number of unsolved cases remains to be the biggest burden of the BiH judiciary, and goes on to say that it is not true that salaries of judges and prosecutors are extremely high. In that context, Peric says the salaries range between 2400 an 4500 KMs, stressing that the judges at same levels are paid differently, for example that the judges of the FBiH Supreme Court are best paid in BiH, not the judges of the BiH Court as reports suggest.

British judge leaves BiH Court after getting transferred from war crimes to organized crime depaertment	Nezavisne Novine, pg 3 'British judge not interested in organized crime', by CIN – A UK lawyer, Paul Richard Garlic, after spending less than 5 months in the BiH Court as a judge with the War Crimes Chamber, resigned from the BiH Court after he was transferred without explanation or consultation to the Organized Crime Department. In an interview for 'Centre for investigative journalism' (CIN), Garlic says he came to BiH to become a war crimes judge because he could have dealt with cases of organized crime in the UK. The BiH Court President, Meddzida Kreso, said she was tired and that she could not talk to CIN, whilst the OHR could not comment about the issue.

talks between farmers and BiH authorities

Pink – Chair of BiH Farmers Association, Ranko Bakic, stated that BiH farmers were not satisfied with the fact that the BiH Minister on Foreign Trade and Economic Relations, Dragan Doko, will chair the meeting (between BiH authorities and BiH farmers) but they (farmers) will not boycott it. “The yesterday’s (Friday) CoM decision to appoint the commission that will meet with us is cynical since Minister Doko has to take 15 days for his vacation and than to meet with us. His vacation is more important than the needs of the farmers” stated Bakic. He added that they were not going to abandon their requests, since they were supported by International Community representatives. (Dnevni List, pg 5 ‘Whilst Dragan Doko is resting, we are warming up for negotiations under tents’, by E. Placic – Bakic statement Hayat – Hayat polled citizens on their opinion regarding the farmers’ issues and all polled citizens expressed support. BiH farmers announced the peaceful protests in Sarajevo on 15th of September if the government rejects their requests.

Unemployment percentage in BiH reaches 44%	BHT, Hayat – According to Entities' and Brcko District Employment Bureaus, there are 640.000 employed persons registered in first half of this year, of 1,1 million of persons that able to work in BiH. Unemployment rate reaches 44,5%, which is the highest unemployment rate in Europe.
Prices of petrol in BiH to rise	Pink – Prices of petrol in BIH will be stable for another 10 days and than will rise up to almost 2 KM, announced the petrol distributors. The increase of petrol prices is due to petrol crises on the world market.
ATV report on VAT: Apartments and houses to become more expensive	Hayat – Report by ATV Banja Luka – ATV did a report on VAT stating that it will dramatically change already poor social situation in BIH. According to economic analysts, the VAT will cause the increase of prices of apartments and houses. So, ATV advises BIH citizens to invest in real estate before the 1 st of January 2006.

Reports warn of war in Sarajevo underground

FTV – FTV reports that suspect from Friday's shooting in Sarajevo, Abdulah Sahmanovic, surrendered to local police. Almir Pasic is wounded in this shooting and arrested shortly after, whilst the third suspect still at large, Ramiz Delalic Celo, claims that he didn't take part in this shooting. Sarajevo Canton Police issued arrest warrant for him. "These are two (criminal) groups. We know these persons from previous cases," confirmed Sarajevo Canton Police spokesman, Magbul Skoro. In phone interview for FTV, Delalic says he wasn't present at the location of the shooting. "I have no idea why my name is mentioned. I am not a fugitive and I am now on my way to Sarajevo. I wasn't in Sarajevo at all, and I have several witnesses to confirm that," claims Delalic. Reporter commented that this case opens many questions such as: why Sarajevo became city of shooting and automobile-bombs and which are the two groups that Skoro mentions and refuses to talk about them on the record? Pasic and Delalic accuse Muhamed Ali Gasi and Naser Keljemendi for armed conflicts in Sarajevo and series of murders in the whole BiH. They both also claim involvement of several police officers. According to the street stories, Albanian and Sandzak criminal groups are at war. FTV announced further investigation on this story in the coming days. Reporter concluded with words that there are no any indictments yet, but one dose of heroin can be purchased in Sarajevo for only 20 KM. (also reported about the case Pink, BHT, Oslobodjenje, pg 39, mentioned on front 'Intensive search for Ramiz Delalic Celo', by D. P., Dnevni List, pg 13, mentioned on front 'Police searching for Ramiz Delalic Celo', by M. Maric, Vecernji List, front pg splash 'Conflict between Sandzak and Albanian clans', pg 20 'Faco wounded, Delalic on the run', by Robert Soldo, Nezavisne Novine, pg 2 'Pasic wounded, Sahmanovic in custody', not signed)

FTV on disappearance of pounded goods from Brcko police	FTV – Responsible persons for disappearance of 100 tons of smuggled oil, seized and handed over to Brcko District police for guarding, are still unknown. There are speculations in the District that local powerful persons put police under pressure to cover up this case. Delegates in the Brcko District Assembly reacted sharply to this case, as well as to the case of missing communication device, also under police safeguarding. “These are hard criminal acts committed in front of the eyes of those in charge for guarding. I hope that those who were responsible for guarding will now at least find out who stole this from them,” said District Assembly Co-Chair, Ivan Krndelj. Silence about this case lasts for too long, considers Chair of the District Assembly Commission for public safety and control over police work, Ratko Stjepanovic. “I have sent a letter to the independent board asking them to make certain analyses of police functioning in Brcko District,” said Brcko Mayor, Mirsad Djapo.
Janja: Reconstructed mosque re-opened	BHT, Hayat, Oslobodjenje, pg 2, mentioned on front ‘Reis Ceric at Janja: House must not be sold’, by V. Duric, Dnevni Avaz, pg 4 ‘Eff. Ceric: You have shown that you know what homeland and faith are’, by E. Musli, Nezavisne Novine, pg 3 ‘Reconstruction of Dzedid mosque completed’, by Z. K.– Reconstructed Dzedid mosque in Janja was reopened on Saturday. Besides Janja returnees, opening ceremony was attended by Reis Mustafa effendi Ceric. This mosque was destroyed in April 1993. This is the second reconstructed mosque in Janja. About 90% of Bosniaks, pre-war residents of Janja, returned to this town.

DNZ says August 7 should not be celebrated as day of liberation of Velika Kladusa	RHB – DNZ feels that 7th of August (the day when BiH Army entered Velika Kladusa, expelling troops loyal to Fikret Abdic) should not be celebrated as liberation day in Cazinska Krajina since 40 000 citizens left that area 10 years ago. DNZ stated that a time has come for scientific determination of events that took place in Cazinska Krajina. Oslobodjenje, front pg splash and pgs 4-5 'Freedom of exodus for 40.000 people?!', by Asaf Becirovic – Carries the DNZ's statement from above, noting that the same event is perceived differently by members of the former BiH Army and the DNZ. For DNZ, it was exodus of 40.000 people, whilst for the BiH Army, it was liberation of the area.
