Political issues

Hayat CD interview with S. Tihic on Reis Ceric' statement that Silajdzic should write BiH Constitution, constitutional changes etc.	Hayat – A guest in Hayat's CD was member of BiH Presidency and SDA Chairman Sulejman Tihic. Asked about his reckless statements, which are causing fuss in the public, such as 'the RS' name is unconstitutional' or 'We should abolish both entities'- Tihic said that this is just continuation of his work, since he was raising the same issue when he was a representative in the RSNA. Tihic believes that his position carries burden of these statements and raises passions among politicians. Asked about his statement (Dnevni Avaz, Saturday) that the coalition with SDP is possible, Tihic said that it is possible, being that SDP is a pro- Bosnian party. However, Tihic stressed that coalitions are determined by results of the elections, where parties are sometimes forced to enter the coalition with the parties whose views are completely different. Asked about the statement by Reis Muhamed Effendi Ceric (given on Friday at the ceremony marking the anniversary of Gazu Husrev-Beg Moslem Secondary School), where he told Haris Silajdzic, founder of SBiH, that he will be remembered as Sultan Fatih, Gazi Husref-beg and Alija Izetbegovic, if he makes the Constitution without entities and what does this statement means, Tihic said that Ceric's words were put out of the context, being that he also mentioned him, stressing that this does not mean that Ceric decided to support SBiH instead of SDA. Tihic also said that he wanted to meet with Silajdzic, but despite his initiative there was no desire from the other side for this. Asked as to why BiH politicians do not sit down with clever people from the BiH public life (Zdravko Grebo, Bogic Bogicevic, Cardinal Puljic etc.) and discuss issues with them, Tihic said that he would like that, but it is lot easier to discuss these issues with other politicians, being that they are those who will carry them out or not and they are those who have political support in the Parliament and among the people. Asked to explain the course of the negotiations on constitutional changes, Tihic explained that US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney is a mediator and he chairs the meeting and gives word to certain politicians. He explained that they have a draft for every single issue and possible solution and they discuss on that. Asked if he as the Chairman of SDA, the strongest party in BiH, would ever sign a solution that is not established with quality and that would leave situation as it is, Tihic stressed: "Be certain that SDA and Tihic will never sign something that would be legalization of the current two-entities solution, we will not accept solutions that would present some cosmetic changes." He elaborates that some parties are trying to be pragmatic in a sense "better something then nothing", while he believes that nothing is better then anything, "This is a unique opportunity. We have waited for this for 10 years and now we should accept some cosmetic changes. Tihic will not accept that, I assure you", stressed Tihic.

Avdic on on Reis Cerić' statement that Silajdzic should write BiH Constitution	Oslobodjenje cover pg splash and pgs 4 and 5 'One man cannot write Constitution' by M. Kavaz-Sirucic – Asked to comment on the statement by Reis Muhamed Effendi Cerić (given on Friday at the ceremony marking the anniversary of Gazu Husrev-Beg Moslem Secondary School), where he told Haris Silajdzic, founder of SBiH, that he will be remembered as Sultan Fatih, Gazi Husref-beg and Alija Izetbegovic, if he makes the Constitution without entities, Silajdzic said that the BiH Constitution depends on its citizens, who should decided on this issue at the referendum. Asked as to why he was singled out by Reis Cerić Silajdzic said that though him a call had been sent to all those who support BiH without the entities. On the same issue S. Tihic stated that the Constitution cannot be written by one man. Senad Avdic from Slobodna Bosna said that tis invitation is petty political since it gives preferenace to Silajdzic as the last one in te line of famous persons and it is well known that an individual cannot make the Constitution without citizens.
NN interview wit Z. Lagumdžija: Through constitutional changes BiH citizens would get more efficient state'	Nezavisne Novine pgs 8 and 9, mentioned on cover 'Through constitutional changes BiH citizens would get more efficient state' by N. Hasic carries an interview with SDP President Zlatko Lagumdžija who says that by the end of the current phase of the constitutional changes talks BiH citizens would get a more efficient state that would take care of the individuals' rights and not of the rights of 3 peoples only. He admitted that he is positively surprised by the things that 8 political leaders have done with regard to this issue but he also said that approaching of the elections make the negotiations harder. He added: 'I have a feeling that some negotiators demand much more from what is realistic in order to provoke the others so that the provoked ones leave the negotiations.' He believes that the started phase of the constitutional changes negotiations would be completed by January 16.

DA on possible development of situation with regard to voting of non-confidence to RS Government	Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash and pg 3 'Can Dodik secure support for his mandate?' by N. Diklic carries that political analysts and RSNA representatives believe that the removal of the RS Government is not questionable and this means that the aforementioned initiative can get the support. DA goes on to say that Milorad Dodik would be faced with the problem when he starts to form a new Assembly's majority if he accepts the mandate for forming the Government. DA says that even if he secures enough representatives' votes it is questionable whether 'sly and experienced' Dodik would start the adventure to form the Government only a few months before the general elections and probably weakens his position in the run for power in this way. DA concludes that for this reason one of possible outcomes might be the Bukejlovic's Government in the technical mandate by the elections and according to the daily this option suits all political protagonists in the RS.

Hayat CD harsh commentary on OBN	Hayat CD – OBN television and its Director Ivan Caleta were the main topic of tonight's news, where the reporter emphasised the "dark past" of Caleta and inappropriate program that this TV station broadcasts, which is an insult for all BiH citizens. In the first part of the report, an accent was put on a new show of this TV "Niko Kao Ja", hosted by Dragan Marinkovic Maca, which insulted BiH women and presented them as "piece of meat". Due to this show, the CRA has received many complaints from BiH citizens and Amela Odobasic Spokesperson of the CRA confirmed that they will investigate this issue. Odobasic explained that complaints refer to insult of females and inappropriate composition of the show. Further on the reporter comments on the same show, which made a parody of the BiH news and he broadcasted his conversation with Caleta, from a month ago. The reporter said that he has heard that this parody was ordered by INA/MOL Consortium, due to CD's reports on "Energopetrol", which Caleta did not deny, but invited the reporter for a cup of coffee to discuss this. In continuance, journalist of "BH Dani" Emir Imamovic brings insight into Caleta's persona, stressing that he once owned Croatian Nova TV, as well as TV in Slovenia and that he owns several marketing agencies, which perform their business through Zagreb, which means that they are not paying tax in BiH. Sending a public appeal to tax and finance inspectors to enter and investigate OBN, the reporter brings speculation that BiH Telecom has decided to pardon debts to this TV, in amount of 1 million KM of state's money. This information was denied by Telecom's General Director, Hamdo Katica, who said that noone's debt can be suspended. Referring to the damage that OBN caused for other TV stations in BiH, including public broadcasters, General Director of FTV Jasmin Durakovic stated that Council of Ministers, CRA and FBiH Ministry of Transport and Communications should get involved into this issue, being that OBN is creating unfair market and is destroying domestic production. At the end, the reporter stressed that quality of OBN can be proven by the fact that journalist such as Zekerijah Smajic and Vlastimir Mijovic have left OBN, refusing to obey their policy for any amount for money.
